通往奴役的道路

译者的话

哈耶克说，写这本书是他“不能逃避的责任”。

起初，哈耶克计划用为这本书准备的资料写一本更大部头的学术著作，可他却在心急如焚的焦虑中，匆匆写就了这本他称之为“时代的小书”的伟大著作。那是第二次世界大战的硝烟快要散去的时候，在胜利的曙光中，人们正兴致勃勃地准备踏上他眼中的通往奴役的道路。作为一个刚刚入籍英国不过几年的奥地利人，他替英国人，同时也替一种“把人当人看”的文明感到担忧。

无论作为整体，还是作为个体，在这本书出版八十多年后的今天，人类面临的问题与挑战，都与哈耶克所担忧和思考的问题没有什么本质的区别。我们常常像不懂事的孩子，拥抱每一个给他糖吃的人。诱惑，特别是善的诱惑，总让我们忘记了要当心那些我们未曾料到却必然发生的危险。

从这个意义上说，《通往奴役的道路》不仅有其重要的历史价值，在今天这样一个纷乱多变的世界，它更是具有深远的现实意义。

据说，哈耶克在伦敦经济学院讲课时，常被学生抱怨，说他浓重的德语口音非常难懂。这种口音，也浓重地留在了他的这部著作里。《通往奴役的道路》译成中文不过十余万字，总篇幅不到两百页，抛开别的不谈，它的一个重要特征，就是出了名的难读。

译者自2023年4月起动笔翻译《通往奴役的道路》，最希望做到的，就是在忠实于原文的基础上，让读者不再觉得它那么难读。第一稿译文于当年底完成，后来又用了两年多的时间数易其稿，虽然付出了十二分的努力，“易读”这个目的却极难达到。鉴于本书涉及话题的严肃性，以及作者思辨的深度和广度，它不可能像一本通俗小说那样浅显易懂；并且，受译者经验与学识所限，译文必然仍有不少错误和疏漏，有些译文仍然拗口难读。译者在此诚心邀请读者批评、指正。

需要说明的是，这一版译稿从英国劳特利奇出版社1944年10月印刷的普及版译出。在全书最后的“译者附录”中，译者还翻译并收录了哈耶克本人为本书撰写的《1956年美国平装本再版序》，《1976年版序》，以及芝加哥大学出版社在出版《哈耶克文集》时，其总编辑布鲁斯·考德威尔为该书撰写的《导言》，以及他当时为本书收录的一些历史文献，其中包括：哈耶克自己的撰写的《备忘录》，两位美国学者在本书美国版出版前做的评估报告，约翰·张伯伦撰写的《1944年美国版前言》，本书编辑约翰·斯昆的一封信件，以及米尔顿·弗里德曼撰写的《1994年版（五十周年纪念版）导言》。译者相信，这些资料不仅能够帮助读者全面了解本书内容，更能增加许多阅读的趣味。

To the socialists of all parties

序

1. 一名研究社会事务的学者在写一本政治著作时，他的第一项义务就是开诚布公地对此加以说明。本书，就是一本政治著作。我原本可以把它说成是一本关于社会哲学的著作，那样或许会显得更优雅、更具抱负，可我不愿那么做。不过，无论怎样给它归类，重要的是，我将在本书中讨论的一切，都源自某些终极价值。我希望，我还在本书中尽力履行了另外一项同等重要的义务，那就是清楚且不留疑问地阐述了整个论证所依据的那些终极价值。

2. 我还想补充一点。尽管这是一本政治著作，但我完全可以肯定，我在本书中阐述的观点并非出于对我个人利益的考虑。我并不觉得，我所向往的那种社会带给我本人的好处，会超过它给这个国家大多数国民带来的好处。实际上，一些支持社会主义的同行总是告诉我，作为经济学家，我反而能在我所反对的那种社会中谋得更重要的职位，当然，前提是我得能说服自己接受他们的观点。我同样十分确定的是，我反对他们的观点，并不是因为它们与我成长过程中所接受的观点不同；恰恰相反，这些观点正是我年轻时曾经持有的观点，也正是它们，促使我选择了经济学作为自己的职业。时下流行在每一种政治观点背后寻找利益动机。对于喜欢如此揣测的人，我或许可以多说几句：我有各种理由不写或者不出版这本书。它注定会冒犯一些我希望与之友好相处的人，还会迫使我搁置一些我认为自己更擅长的、从长远看更具重要性的工作；更重要的是，它势必会让人们带着偏见去对待我所向往的、更为纯粹的学术成果。

PREFACE

1. WHEN a professional student of social affairs writes a political book, his first duty is plainly to say so. This is a political book. I do not wish to disguise this by describing it, as I might perhaps have done, by the more elegant and ambitious name of an essay in social philosophy. But, whatever the name, the essential point remains that all I shall have to say is derived from certain ultimate values. I hope I have adequately discharged in the book itself a second and no less important duty: to make it clear beyond doubt what these ultimate values are on which the whole argument depends.

2. There is, however, one thing I want to add to this. Though this is a political book, I am as certain as anyone can be that the beliefs set out in it are not determined by my personal interests. I can discover no reason why the kind of society which seems to me desirable should offer greater advantages to me than to the great majority of the people of this country. In fact, I am always told by my socialist colleagues that as an economist I should occupy a much more important position in the kind of society to which Iam opposed - provided, of course, that I could bring myself to accept their views. I feel equally certain that my opposition to these views is not due to their being different from those with which I have grown up, since they are the very views which I held as a young man and which have led me to make the study of economics my profession. For those who, in the current fashion, seek interested motives in every profession of a political opinion, I may, perhaps, be allowed to add that I have every possible reason for not writing or publishing this book. It is certain to offend many people with whom I wish to live on friendly terms; it has forced me to put aside work for which I feel better qualified and to which I attach greater importance in the long run; and, above all, it is certain to prejudice the reception of the results of the more strictly academic work to which all my inclinations lead me.

3. 尽管如此，我仍然认为，写这本书是我不能逃避的责任。这主要是因为，在当前关于未来经济政策的讨论中，存在着一种不同寻常且极为重要的现象，而公众对这种现象的了解尚不充分。这些年来，大部分经济学家都被卷入了战争机器，并且因为担任公职而不得不保持沉默。这使得公众对未来经济政策的看法被一些缺乏专业素养的、妄言惑众的、别有用心的，或者热衷于兜售灵丹妙药的人所左右，其程度已经到了令人不安的地步。这些趋势必然会让许多不便公开表达自己想法的人感到担忧。在这种情形下，像我这样尚有闲暇时间从事写作的人几乎没有权利继续将这种忧虑藏在心里。如果不是出于这个原因，我倒是很乐意将这种事关国家政策的讨论留给更具权威或更有能力的人去做。

4. 本书的核心内容最初在一篇题为《自由与经济制度》的文章中提出，发表于1938年4月出版的《当代评论》上。该文后来经过增补，以更长篇幅收录于哈里·戴维·吉迪恩斯教授于1939年编辑的《公共政策丛书》中。承蒙上述两份出版物的编辑及出版商慨允，我得以在本书中引用其中部分段落，在此，谨表感谢。

1943年12月于剑桥，伦敦经济学院

If in spite of this I have come to regard the writing of this book as a duty which I must not evade, this was mainly due to a peculiar and serious feature of the discussions of problems of future economic policy at the present time, of which the public is scarcely sufficiently aware. This is the fact that the majority of economists have now for some years been absorbed by the war machine, and silenced by their official positions, and that in consequence public opinion on these problems is to an alarming extent guided by amateurs and cranks, by people who have an axe to grind or a pet panacea to sell. In these circumstances one who still has the leisure for literary work is hardly entitled to keep to himself apprehensions which current tendencies must create in the minds of many who cannot publicly express them - though in different circumstances I should have gladly left the discussion of questions of national policy to those who are both better authorised and better qualified for the task.

3. The central argument of this book was first sketched in an article entitled “Freedom and the Economic System,” which appeared in the Contemporary Review for April, 1938, and was later reprinted in an enlarged form as one of the “Public Policy Pamphlets”, edited by Professor H. D. Gideonse for the University of Chicago Press (1939). I have to thank the editors and publishers of both these publications for permission to reproduce certain passages from them.

揭示思想渊源的发现是最令人不悦的。

阿克顿勋爵

5. 正在发生的事情与历史的不同之处，在于我们无法预知它们会产生什么结果。回顾历史，我们可以评价往事的意义，并且追溯它们发生之后带来的种种后果。然而，正在发生的历史对我们来说还不是历史。它将带领我们进入未知之境，我们几乎无从窥见将来会发生什么。假如我们能够带着已知的一切，重新经历过去发生过的事情，那情况就会不同了。如果真是那样的话，我们看待事物的方式该有多么不同啊！那些我们不曾关注的变化该会显得多么重要，又是多么令人担忧啊！我们或许应该感到庆幸，人类永远不会拥有这种体验，也无法掌握历史发展的必然法则。

6. 然而，尽管历史不大会原模原样地重演，也恰恰因为没有什么历史发展是必然的，我们才能够在一定程度上从过去的经验中吸取教训，以避免让相同的事情重复发生。一个人无需成为先知，也能察觉到迫在眉睫的危险。他只需碰巧拥有一些经验，同时又对社会事务感兴趣，就能从几乎无人察觉的角度看出某些事件的端倪。

7. 本书接下来的内容即是一种经验的产物。这种经验近似于将同一时代经历了两遍，或者，至少是两度目睹了极其相似的思想演变。除非拥有先后在不同国家长期生活的经历，一个人不太可能靠生活在同一个地方获得这种经验。因为，在大多数文明国家，影响思想潮流变化的因素尽管大致相似，却不太会同时，或以同样的速度产生作用。所以，如果一个人从

Few discoveries are more irritating than those which expose the pedigree of ideas.

4. CONTEMPORARY events differ from history in that we do not know the results they will produce. Looking back, we can assess the significance of past occurrences and trace the consequences they have brought in their train. But while history runs its course, it is not history to us. It leads us into an unknown land and but rarely can we get a glimpse of what lies ahead. It would be different if it were given to us to live a second time through the same events with all the knowledge of what we have seen before. How different would things appear to us, how important and often alarming would changes seem that we now scarcely notice! It is probably fortunate that man can never have this experience and knows of no laws which history must obey.

6. Yet, although history never quite repeats itself, and just because no development is inevitable, we can in a measure learn from the past to avoid a repetition of the same process. One need not be a prophet to be aware of impending dangers. An accidental combination of experience and interest will often reveal events to one man under aspects which few yet see.

7. The following pages are the product of an experience as near as possible to twice living through the same period - or at least twice watching a very similar evolution of ideas. While this is an experience one is not likely to gain in one country, it may in certain circumstances be acquired by living in turn for long periods in different countries. Though the influences to which the trend of thought is subject in most civilised nations are to a large extent similar, they do not necessarily operate at the same time or at the same speed. Thus, by moving from one country to another, one may sometimes twice watch similar phases of intellectual development. The senses have then become peculiarly acute. When one hears for a second time opinions expressed or measures advocated which one has first met twenty or twenty-five years ago, they assume a new meaning as symptoms of a definite trend. They suggest, if not the necessity, at least the probability, that developments will take a similar course.

8. 现在，该说出那个令人不悦的事实了：我们正面临着某种重蹈德国覆辙的危险。诚然，这一危险尚非迫在眉睫，英国的境况与德国近年来所经历的情形还相去甚远，所以我们还很难相信我们正朝着他们的方向前进。尽管这条路很长，但越往前走，就越难回头。如果说从长远来看，我们是自己命运的创造者，那么从短期来看，我们是自己所创造的观念的俘虏。只有及时意识到这种危险，我们才有希望避免它。

8. It is necessary now to state the unpalatable truth that it is Germany whose fate we are in some danger of repeating. The danger is not immediate, it is true, and conditions in this country are still so remote from those witnessed in recent years in Germany as to make it difficult to believe that we are moving in the same direction. Yet, though the road be long, it is one on which it becomes more difficult to turn back as one advances. If in the long run we are the makers of our own fate, in the short run we are the captives of the ideas we have created. Only if we recognise the danger in time can we hope to avert it.

9. 目前，我们这个国家的局势尚未发展到与战争中的希特勒德国一模一样的程度。尽管如此，研究思想潮流的学者很难不注意到，上次大战期间及之后德国的思想潮流与当下我国的思想潮流之间，存在着绝非流于表面的相似之处：当下的英国同样存在着将战时形成的国家体制用于和平建设的意愿，同样存在着对十九世纪自由主义的蔑视，同样存在着虚伪的“现实主义”乃至犬儒主义，也同样宿命般地接受着所谓的“必然趋势”。那些最激烈的改革者急于让我们从当前这场战争中汲取教训，而他们所强调的教训，十之八九恰恰是德国人从上次大战中总结出来的，而且正是这些教训，在很大程度上促进了纳粹制度的产生。在本书后续章节中，我们将有机会展示，在过去十五年到二十五年间，我们还在大量其他方面效仿了德国的

9. It is not to the Germany of Hitler, the Germany of the present war, that this country bears yet any resemblance. But students of the currents of ideas can hardly fail to see that there is more than a superficial similarity between the trend of thought in Germany during and after the last war and the present current of ideas in this country. There exists now in this country certainly the same determination that the organisation of the nation we have achieved for purposes of defence shall be retained for the purposes of creation. There is the same contempt for nineteenth-century liberalism, the same spurious “realism” and even cynicism, the same fatalistic acceptance of “inevitable trends”. And at least nine out of every ten of the lessons which our most vociferous reformers are so anxious we should learn from this war are precisely the lessons which the Germans did learn from the last war and which have done much to produce the Nazi system. We shall have opportunity in the course of this book to show that there are a large number of other points where, at an interval of fifteen to twenty-five years, we seem to follow the example of Germany. Although one does not like to be reminded, it is not so many years since the socialist policy of that country was generally held up by progressives as an example to be imitated, just as in more recent years Sweden has been the model country to which progressive eyes were directed. All those whose memory goes further back know how deeply, for at least a generation before the last war, German thought and German practice influenced ideals and policy in this country.

10. 笔者成年之后，大约有一半时间在他的祖国奥地利度过，其间与德国知识界保持了密切联系，另一半时间则在美国和英国度过。在过去十余年里，英国已经成为他的家乡。他愈发相信，那些曾在德国摧毁自由的力量，至少有一部分正在英国作祟；而对于这一危险的性质和根源，英国人民即便有所了解，也很有可能不如当年的德国人了解得多。如今，在德国，那些心怀善意、曾经被英国人所景仰并奉为楷模的人已经开始懂得憎恶与这种摧毁自由的力量相关联的一切；可是当年，他们即便未曾亲手参与创造，也在很大程度上为这种力量的崛起铺平过道路，这是人们至今尚未觉察到的最大悲剧。而我们能否避免重蹈覆辙，取决于我们能否正视这一危险；也取决于，当我们最为珍视的理想和抱负被证明是危险之源时，我们是否愿意修正它们。迄今为止，几乎还没有迹象表明，我们已经具备了足够的思想勇气，承认自己或许犯了错误。几乎没有人愿意承认，法西斯主义和纳粹主义的兴起，并非是对前一时期社会主义思潮的反动，而是这些思潮的必然结果。尽管人们早已普遍认识到共产主义俄国与纳粹德国在内部统治中有许多令人厌恶的相似之处，但许多人依然不愿正视这一现实。结果，许多自以为远比邪恶的纳粹主义者更优

10. The author has spent about half of his adult life in his native Austria, in close touch with German intellectual life, and the other half in the United States and England. In the dozen years in which this country has now become his home he has become increasingly convinced that at least some of the forces which have destroyed freedom in Germany are also at work here, and that the character and the source of this danger are, if possible, even less understood than they were in Germany. The supreme tragedy is still not seen that in Germany it was largely people of goodwill, men who were admired and held up as models in this country, who prepared the way, if they did not actually create, the forces which now stand for everything they detest. Yet our chance of averting a similar fate depends on our facing the danger and on our being prepared to revise even our most cherished hopes and ambitions if they should prove to be the source of the danger. There are few signs yet that we have the intellectual courage to admit to ourselves that we may have been wrong. Few are ready to recognise that the rise of Fascism and Nazism was not a reaction against the socialist trends of the preceding period, but a necessary outcome of those tendencies. This is a truth which most people were unwilling to see even when the similarities of many of the repellent features of the internal regimes in communist Russia and national-socialist Germany were widely recognised. As a result, many who think themselves infinitely superior to the aberrations of Nazism and sincerely hate all its manifestations, work at the same time for ideals whose realisation would lead straight to the abhorred tyranny.

11. 当然，任何将不同国家的发展历程加以类比的做法，都具有误导性；我的论证也并非主要建立在这些类比之上。我也并不是说，这些发展历程是不可避免的。如果它们果真不可避免，那么，写这本书也就毫无意义了。只要人们能够及时意识到自己的努力可能会导致怎样的后果，这些发展就可以被阻止。然而，直到最近，所有让人们认识到这种危险的努力似乎都未能奏效。不过，现在看来，对整个问题进行更充分讨论的时机似乎已经成熟。这不仅是因为人们对这个问题已经有了更为广泛的认识，而且因为，在这个关键时刻出现了一些特殊的理由，使我们必须正视这些问题了。

11. All parallels between developments in different countries are, of course, deceptive; but I am not basing my argument mainly on such parallels. Nor am I arguing that these developments are inevitable. If they were, there would be no point in writing this. They can be prevented if people realise in time where their efforts may lead. But till recently there was little hope that any attempt to make them see the danger would be successful. It seems, however, as if the time were now ripe for a fuller discussion of the whole issue. Not only is the problem now more widely recognised, there are also special reasons which at this juncture make it imperative that we should face the issues squarely.

12. 或许有人会说，现在还不是讨论这个话题的恰当时机，因为在这个问题上还有很多尖锐的分歧。但我们所谈论的社会主义与党派无关；我们所要讨论的问题，也几乎与政治党派之间的争论无关。有的群体支持社会主义多一些，有的则少一些；有些人是为了某个群体的利益才支持社会主义，有些则是为了另一群体的利益，但这些都不影响我们要讨论的问题。重点在于，如今在我们这个国家，那些能够以其观点影响社会发展的人，在某种程度上都已经是社会主义者了。人们之所以不再把“我们现在都是社会主义者”这句话挂在嘴边，那只不过是因为这一事实已经太明显了。几乎没人怀疑，我们必须继续朝着社会主义的方向前进，而大多数人正在做的，不过是在试图引导这一进程，使其更加符合某个特定阶级或群体的利益而已。

12. It will, perhaps, be said that this is not the time to raise an issue on which opinions clash sharply. But the socialism of which we speak is not a party matter, and the questions which we are discussing have little to do with the questions at dispute between political parties. It does not affect our problem that some groups may want less socialism than others, that some want socialism mainly in the interest of one group and others in that of another. The important point is that, if we take the people whose views influence developments, they are now in this country in some measure all socialists. If it is no longer fashionable to emphasise that “we are all socialists now”, this is so merely because the fact is too obvious. Scarcely anybody doubts that we must continue to move towards socialism, and most people are merely trying to deflect this movement in the interest of a particular class or group.

13. 我们之所以正在朝着这个方向发展，那是因为它几乎是每个人的愿望。没有任何客观事实使它成为我们的必然选择。关于所谓的“计划”的必然性问题，我们稍后还会谈及。我们要讨论的主要问题是：这场运动将引领我们走向何处。如今，那些正在以其信念为这场运动注入无可抗拒的动力的人们，如果他们开始意识到迄今为止只被少数人察觉的危险，难道就不会因惧怕而退缩，放弃这场长达半个世纪、吸引了无数善良人士参与其中的探索吗？我们这一代人的共同信念将把我们引向何方？这不是某个政党要回答的问题，而是我们每一个人都要回答的问题，是一个具有极重大意义的问题。我们本想依循崇高的理想，有意识地塑造未来，却在不知不觉中塑造出与初衷截然相反的结果，世间难道还有比这更大的悲剧吗？

13. It is because nearly everybody wants it that we are moving in this direction. There are no objective facts which make it inevitable. We shall have to say something about the alleged inevitability of “planning” later. The main question is where this movement will lead us. Is it not possible that if the people whose convictions now give it an irresistible momentum began to see what only a few yet apprehend, they would recoil in horror and abandon the quest which for half a century has engaged so many people of goodwill? Where these common beliefs of our generation will lead us is a problem not for one party but for every one of us, a problem of the most momentous significance. Is there a greater tragedy imaginable than that in our endeavour consciously to shape our future in accordance with high ideals, we should in fact unwittingly produce the very opposite of what we have been striving for?

14. 还有一个更为紧迫的理由，要求我们在当下严肃认真地去了解那些推动了纳粹主义兴起的力量：那就是只有这样做，我们才能了解我们的敌人，弄清我们与他们之间的根本分歧。不可否认，对于那些我们不惜为之一战的积极理想，我们至今仍然认识不足。我们只知道，我们为之而战的，是自由，是按照自己的想法塑造生活的自由。这固然重要，但还不够。仅凭这一点，还不足以让我们拥有坚定的信念，去对抗正在以最公然、最狡猾的形式将宣传作为重要武器的敌人；仅凭这一点，还不足以让我们在敌占区和其他地区的人民当中，去反击这种其影响并不会随着轴心国的失败而消退的宣传攻势；仅凭这一点，我们尚无法向世人表明，我们为之战斗的事业值得他们支持；更不足以引导我们去建设一个新欧洲，让它足以抵御那些曾经令旧欧洲屈服于诱惑的危险。

14. There is an even more pressing reason why at this time we should seriously endeavour to understand the forces which have created National Socialism: that this will enable us to understand our enemy and the issue at stake between us. It cannot be denied that there is yet little recognition of the positive ideals for which we are fighting. We know that we are fighting for freedom to shape our life according to our own ideas. That is a great deal, but not enough. It is not enough to give us the firm beliefs which we need to resist an enemy who uses propaganda as one of his main weapons not only in the most blatant but also in the most subtle forms. It is still more insufficient when we have to counter this propaganda among the people in the countries under his control and elsewhere, where the effect of this propaganda will not disappear with the defeat of the Axis powers. It is not enough if we are to show to others that what we are fighting for is worth their support, and not enough to guide us in the building of a new Europe safe against the dangers to which the old one has succumbed.

15. 令人痛心的是，我们英国人在战前与独裁者打交道的时候，以及在后来的宣传工作和对战争目标的讨论中，都表现出一种内在的不安全感和目标的不确定性。这种现象，只能解释为我们对自己的理想，以及自己与敌人之间分歧的本质认识不清。我们之所以走入这个误区，不仅是因为我们轻信了敌人的某些主张，更是因为我们拒绝相信他们在主张某些与我们相同的信念时是真诚的。我们的左翼政党和右翼政党都曾以为纳粹党是为资本家服务的，是反对一切形式的社会主义的，他们不是都上当了吗？希特勒的几乎每一种做法，都已经被推荐给我们，建议让我们去效仿了，而这些建议，恰恰来自最意想不到的人群，他们甚至没有意识到，这些做法都是他那一套体系中不可分割的一部分，而且是与我们竭力捍卫的自由社会完全不相容的。无论是战争之前，还是战争爆发之后，我们因为不了解对手而犯下的危险错误多得惊人。我们似乎不愿去了解那种孕育了极权主义的社会发展过程，因为那样可能会毁了我们执意坚持且最为珍视的幻想。

15. It is a lamentable fact that the English in their dealings with the dictators before the war, not less than in their attempts at propaganda and in the discussion of their war aims, have shown an inner insecurity and uncertainty of aim which can be explained only by confusion about their own ideals and the nature of the differences which separated them from the enemy. We have been misled as much because we have refused to believe that the enemy was sincere in the profession of some beliefs which we shared as because we believed in the sincerity of some of his other claims. Have not the parties of the Left as well as those of the Right been deceived by believing that the National-Socialist Party was in the service of the capitalists and opposed to all forms of socialism? How many features of Hitler's system have not been recommended to us for imitation from the most unexpected quarters, unaware that they are an integral part of that system and incompatible with the free society we hope to preserve? The number of dangerous mistakes we have made before and since the outbreak of war because we do not understand the opponent with whom we are faced is appalling. It seems almost as if we did not want to understand the development which has produced totalitarianism because such an understanding might destroy some of the dearest illusions.to which we are determined to cling.

16. 就当下支配着德国人的思想而言，不了解其特征和发展历程，我们就不可能成功地对付他们。最近，又有人将“德国人天生邪恶”的理论提了出来。这种观点不仅站不住脚，而且还会让持有它的人有失体面。它辱没了过去一百年间欣然接纳了德国思想的全部精华乃至糟粕的一大批英国人，同时也忽略了这样一个事实：八十年前，约翰·斯图亚特·密尔在撰写其伟大著作《论自由》时，他的灵感主要来自歌德和威廉·冯·洪堡这两位德国人；而纳粹主义有最具影响力的早期思想家托马斯·卡莱

16. We shall never be successful in our dealings with the Germans till we understand the character and the growth of the ideas which now govern them. The theory which is once again put forth, that the Germans as such are inherently vicious, is hardly tenable and not very creditable to those who hold it. It dishonours the long series of Englishmen who during the past hundred years have gladly taken over what was best, and not only what was best, in German thought. It overlooks the fact that when eighty years ago John Stuart Mill was writing his great essay On Liberty he drew his inspiration, more than from any other men, from two Germans, Goethe and Wilhelm von

Humboldt[2], and forgets the fact that two of the most influential intellectual forebears of National Socialism, Thomas Carlyle and Houston Stewart Chamberlain, were a Scot and an Englishman. In its cruder forms this view is a disgrace to those who by maintaining it adopt the worst features of German racial theories. The problem is not why the Germans as such are vicious, which congenitally they are probably no more than other peoples, but to determine the circumstances which during the last seventy years have made possible the progressive growth and the ultimate victory of a particular set of ideas, and why in the end this victory has brought the most vicious elements among them to the top. Mere hatred of everything German, instead of the particular ideas which now dominate the Germans is, moreover, very dangerous, because it blinds those who indulge in it against a real threat. It is to be feared that this attitude is frequently merely a kind of escapism, caused by an unwillingness to recognise tendencies which are not confined to Germany, and by reluctance to re-examine, and if necessary to discard, beliefs which we have taken over from the Germans and by which we are still as much deluded as the Germans were. It is doubly dangerous because the contention that only the peculiar wickedness of the Germans has produced the Nazi system is likely to become the excuse for forcing on us the very institutions which have produced that wickedness.

17. 本书对德国和意大利两国社会发展的解读，将极大地有别于大多数英美报纸驻当地记者等外国观察家以及来自这两个国家的流亡者所做的解读，而如果本书的解读是正确的，那么它也就能够说明：他们这些普遍持有当下流行的社会主义观点的人对这两个国家的社会发

17. The interpretation of the developments in Germany and Italy about to be proffered in this book is very different from that given by most foreign observers and by the majority of exiles from those countries. But if this interpretation is correct, it will also explain why it is almost impossible for a person who, like most of the exiles and the foreign correspondents of English and American newspapers, holds the now prevalent socialist views, to see those events in the proper perspective.[4]The superficial and misleading view, which sees in National-Socialism merely a reaction fomented by those whose privileges or interests were threatened by the advance of socialism, was naturally supported by all those who, although they were at one time active in the movement of ideas that has led to National-Socialism, have stopped at some point of that development and, by the conflict into which this brought them with the Nazis, were forced to leave their country. But the fact that they were numerically the only significant opposition to the Nazis means no more than that in the wider sense practically all Germans had become socialists, and that liberalism in the old sense had been driven out by socialism. As we hope to show, the conflict in existence between the National-Socialist “Right” and the “Left” in Germany is the kind of conflict that will always arise between rival socialist factions. If this interpretation is correct it means, however, that many of those socialist refugees, in clinging to their beliefs, are now, though with the best will in the world, helping to lead their adopted country the way which Germany has gone.

[1] 有些人可能会觉得这种说法有些夸张，但莫利勋爵的话可做证明，他在《回忆录》（1917）中谈到了一个“公认的观点”，即《论自由》的主要论点“源自德国而并非原创。”

[2] As some people may think this statement exaggerated, the testimony of Lord Morley may be worth quoting, who in his Recollections speaks of the “acknowledged point” that the main argument of the essay On Liberty “was not original but came from Germany”.

18. 我知道，我的许多英国朋友常常对某些笃信社会主义的德国流亡者偶尔流露出来的半法西斯观点感到震惊。他们将这种现象解释为这些流亡者是德国人；而真正的原因是：他们是社会主义者，是比英国社会主义者经历了更多社会主义发展阶段的社会主义者。实际上，德国的社会主义者的确继承了普鲁士传统的一些特质，而普鲁士主义者和社会主义者之间这种

18. I know that many of my English friends have sometimes been shocked by the semi-Fascist views they would occasionally hear expressed by German refugees, whose genuinely socialist convictions could not be doubted. But while these English observers put this down to their being Germans, the true explanation is that they were socialists whose experience had carried them several stages beyond that yet reached by socialists in this country. It is true, of course, that German socialists have found much support in their country from

[3] 美国人看待英印两国关系的普遍一致性，极好地印证了在新闻媒体驻外记者中占主导地位的左翼偏见对一个国家包括最保守人士在内的社会各界的观点所能带来的深刻影响。若想以正确视角看待欧洲大陆上发生的事情，英国人必须严肃考虑这样一种可能性，即他们的观点可能以完全相同的方式、出于同样的理由被扭曲了。笔者无意质疑美国和英国驻外记者们对其持有之观点的真诚态度。但是，任何了解驻外记者们密切接触的那类当地圈子的人，都不难理解这种偏见的来源。

[4] How thoroughly the views held in all quarters, even the most conservative, of a whole country can be coloured by the predominant Left bias of the foreign correspondents of its Press, is well illustrated by the views almost universally held in America about the relations between Great Britain and India. The Englishman who wishes to see events on the European Continent in the proper perspective must seriously consider the possibility that his views may have been distorted in precisely the same manner, and for the same reasons. This is in no way meant to reflect on the sincerity of the views of American and English foreign correspondents. But anyone who knows the kind of native circles with which foreign correspondents are likely to have close contacts, will have no difficulty in understanding the sources of this bias.

颇让他们双方都引以为傲的渊源，进一步印证了我们的主要论点。[5]然而，如果认为催生出极权主义的，是德国特有的民族传统而不是社会主义，那将是一个错误。德国与意大利、与俄国的共同之处在于社会主义观点的盛行，而不是普鲁士主义的盛行。让纳粹主义兴起的，不是那些受普鲁士传统熏陶并受其优待的上层阶级；让纳粹主义兴起的，是大众。

certain features of the Prussian tradition; and this kinship between Prussianism and socialism, in which in Germany both sides gloried, gives additional support to our main contention.[6] But it would be a mistake to believe that the specific German rather than the socialist element produced totalitarianism. It was the prevalence of socialist views and not Prussianism that Germany had in common with Italy and Russia - and it was from the masses and not from the classes steeped in the Prussian tradition, and favoured by it, that National-Socialism arose.

[5] 与所有其他国家不同，普鲁士国家的组织形式是自上层精心规划的。社会主义与这种组织形式之间存在某种亲缘关系，这一点无可否认，而且得到了早期法国社会主义者的公开承认。早在“按照管理一间工厂的原则管理整个国家”的理想成为十九世纪社会主义的灵感之前，普鲁士诗人诺瓦利斯就已经哀叹：“腓特烈·威廉去世后，在像管理工厂一样管理国家方面，普鲁士简直到了登峰造极的地步。”（参见诺瓦利斯[弗里德里希·冯·哈登伯格]：《信仰与爱，或国王与王后》，1798年。）

[6] That there did exist a certain kinship between socialism and the organisation of the Prussian State, consciously organised from the top as in no other country, is undeniable and was freely recognised already by the early French socialists. Long before the ideal of running the whole state on the same principles as a single factory was to inspire nineteenth-century socialism, the Prussian poet Novalis had already deplored that “no other state has ever been administered so much like a factory as Prussia since the death of Frederick William.” (Cf. Novalis [Friedrich von Hardenberg], Glauben und Liebe, oder der Kénig und die Koénigin, 1798.)

第一章 被抛弃的道路

我们这一政策的基本观点是：在我们这一代，以追求利润为目的的自由企业制度并不是失败了，而是尚未得到尝试。

富兰克林·D·罗斯福

19. 当文明发展的进程出现了出人意料的转折，当我们发现那些在我们看来只属于荒蛮时代的恶行正威胁着我们，而我们曾经习以为常的进步不再继续时，我们自然会责备一切，唯独不愿责备自己。难道我们付出的努力还不够吗？难道我们当中那许多最优秀的头脑没有为了让这个世界更美好而不停地工作吗？我们所有的努力和希望，不都是为了更自由、更公正、更繁荣吗？如果结果与我们的目标大相径庭；如果我们迎来的不是自由和繁荣，而是奴役与苦难，那么，挫败我们的目标、将我们变成其牺牲品的，难道不就是那些不制服它们我们就无法继续追求美好事物的邪恶力量吗？至于这个罪魁祸首究竟是“恶毒的资本家”，还是“某个民族的邪恶性格”；是“我们父辈的蠢笨”，还是那个“我们与之斗争了半个世纪却还没有完全推翻的社会制度”；我们的看法各不相同。然而，无论如何，现在，或者至少在不久之前，我们都还很笃定地相信：那些自上一代以来就被许多心怀善意的人所普遍接受的、并且决定了我们社会生活重大变革的指导思想不可能有错。对于当下文明所面临的危机，我们准备接受一切解释，唯独不愿承认：世界变成今天这个样子，或许是由我们自己犯下的、实实在在的错误造成的；对某些我们最为珍视的理想的追求，显然已经产生了事与愿违的结果。

Chapter I: THE ABANDONED ROAD

A program whose basic thesis is, not that the system of free enterprise for profit has failed in this generation, but that it has not yet been tried.

F. D. Roosevelt

19. WHEN the course of civilisation takes an unexpected turn, when instead of the continuous progress which we have come to expect, we find ourselves threatened by evils associated by us with past ages of barbarism, we blame naturally anything but ourselves. Have we not all striven according to our best lights, and have not many of our finest minds incessantly worked to make this a better world? Have not all our efforts and hopes been directed towards greater freedom, justice, and prosperity? If the outcome is so different from our aims, if, instead of freedom and prosperity, bondage and misery stare us in the face, is it not clear that sinister forces must have foiled our intentions, that we are the victims of some evil power which must be conquered before we can resume the road to better things? However much we may differ when we name the culprit, whether it is the wicked capitalist or the vicious spirit of a particular nation, the stupidity of our elders, or a social system not yet, although we have struggled against it for half a century, fully overthrown - we all are, or at least were until recently, certain of one thing: that the leading ideas which during the last generation have become common to most people of goodwill and have determined the major changes in our social life cannot have been wrong. We are ready to accept almost any explanation of the present crisis of our civilisation except one: that the present state of the world may be the result of genuine error on our own part, and that the pursuit of some of our most cherished ideals have apparently produced results utterly different from those which we expected.

20. 由于我们正全力以赴地争取这场战争的胜利，难免有时会忘记：即便在战前，那些我们正在为之而战的价值观也已经在此地遇到威胁，在彼地遭到破坏了。虽然正在为生存而战的敌我双方在当下代表着各自不同的理想，但我们一定不要忘记，这场战争发端于欧洲文明内部的观念之争，而不久前，这个文明还是欧洲各国共有的文明；我们也不要忘记，那种催生出极权主义的社会趋势并非只存在于已经沦为极权主义的国家。我们当下的首要任务固然是赢得战争，但赢得战争也不过是让我们重新获得一个机会，去直面那些根本问题，并且寻找一种方法，避免让那个已经降临在与我们同源的文明身上的厄运又降临在我们身上。

20. While all our energies are directed to bringing this war to a victorious conclusion, it is sometimes difficult to remember that even before the war the values for which we are now fighting were threatened here and destroyed elsewhere. Though for the time being the different ideals are represented by hostile nations fighting for their existence, we must not forget that this conflict has grown out of a struggle of ideas within what, not so long ago, was a common European civilisation; and that the tendencies which have culminated in the creation of the totalitarian systems were not confined to the countries which have succumbed to them. Though the first task must now be to win the war, to win it will only gain us another opportunity to face the basic problems and to find a way of averting the fate which has overtaken kindred civilisations.

21. 如今，当我们谈起德国、意大利或俄国时，我们已经很难不把它们看作与我们迥然不同的存在了；我们也不太容易承认，它们变成今天的样子，其实正是某种我们也曾参与其中的思想变迁的结果。至少，就我们的敌国而言，只要我们相信自己与他们完全不同，相信发生在他们那里的事不会在我们这里重演，我们至少会感到更安心、更宽慰。可是，这些敌国在建立极权制度之前的历史，几乎没有什么是我们未曾经历过的。这场战争，是欧洲思想变迁的结果。在这场变迁中，我们并未置身事外，只是敌国的变化比我们更快，以至于与我们的理想发生了不可调和的冲突而已。

21. Now, it is somewhat difficult to think of Germany and Italy, or of Russia, not as different worlds, but as products of a development of thought in which we have shared; it is, at least so far as our enemies are concerned, easier and more comforting to think that they are entirely different from us and that what happened there cannot happen here. Yet the history of these countries in the years before the rise of the totalitarian system showed few features with which we are not familiar. The external conflict is a result of a transformation of European thought in which others have moved so much faster as to bring them into irreconcilable conflict with our ideals, but which has not left us unaffected.

22. 尽管人们未曾预见这个结果，但正是一场思想的变迁加上人们意志的力量，让世界变成了今天这个样子；我们的思想发生了如此的转变，也并非客观现实的自发变化强迫我们的结果。这对我们英国人来说可能尤其难以理解，因为在这一变迁的进程中，我们幸运地落后于

22. That a change of ideas, and the force of human will, have made the world what it is now, though men did not foresee the results, and that no spontaneous change in the facts obliged us thus to adapt our thought, is perhaps particularly difficult for the English to see, just because in this development the English have, fortunately for them, lagged behind most of the European

peoples. We still think of the ideals which guide us and have guided us for the past generation, as ideals only to be realised in the future, and are not aware how far in the last twenty-five years they have already transformed, not only the world, but also this country. We still believe that until quite recently we were governed by what are vaguely called nineteenth-century ideas or the principle of laissez-faire. Compared with some other countries, and from the point of view of those impatient to speed up the change, there may be some justification for such belief. But although till 1931 this country had followed only slowly on the path on which others had led, even by then we had moved so far that only those whose memory goes back to the years before the last war know what a liberal world has been like.[2]

23. 然而，问题的关键不仅在于上一代人思想转变的幅度，更在于这种思想的转变意味着我们的思想演进方向以及社会秩序的彻底改变，对此，我们这个国家的人民仍然知之甚少。在极权主义的幽灵变成真正威胁之前的至少二十五年里，我们已经逐步偏离了构成欧洲文明根基的那些基本思想。这一场让我们满怀着希望与雄心投身其中的社会运动，竟将我们置于与极权主义恐怖面对面的境地，这对我们这一代人来说无疑是一次深深的震动，而我们却仍然拒绝承认这两件事情之间的联系。迄今为止，这个结果不过是印证了我们依然推崇的那些自由主义哲学之父们的警告。我们渐渐放弃了经

23. The crucial point of which people here are still so little aware is, however, not merely the magnitude of the changes which have taken place during the last generation, but the fact that they mean a complete change in the direction of the evolution of our ideas and social order. For at least twenty-five years before the spectre of totalitarianism became a real threat, we had progressively been moving away from the basic ideas on which European civilisation has been built. That this movement on which we have entered with such high hopes and ambitions should have brought us face to face with the totalitarian horror has come as a profound shock to this generation, which still refuses to connect the two facts. Yet this development merely confirms the warnings of the fathers of the liberal philosophy which we still

[1] 甚至就在那一年，《麦克米伦报告》就已经谈到："近段时期以来，本国政府的观念发生了转变，即无论是何党派执政，政府都日益沉溺于对人民生活的管理"；报告还补充道："议会日益忙于以规范社会日常事务为目标的立法，并开始干预一些过去被认为完全不属于其职权范围的事务。"而该报告所描述的还只是当时的情形。从同年晚些时候开始，在1931-39年这段不光彩的短暂岁月里，英国终于一头扎进了深渊，将其经济体系改造得面目全非。

[2] Even in that year the Macmillan Report could speak already of "the change of outlook of the government of this country in recent times, its growing preoccupation, irrespective of party, with the management of the life of the people" and add that "Parliament finds itself increasingly engaged in legislation which has for its conscious aim the regulation of the day-to-day affairs of the community and now intervenes in matters formerly thought to be entirely outside its scope". This could be said before, later in the same year, the country finally took the headlong plunge and, in the short space of the inglorious years 1931 to 1939, transformed its economic system beyond recognition.

profess. We have progressively abandoned that freedom in economic affairs without which personal and political freedom has never existed in the past. Although we had been warned by some of the greatest political thinkers of the nineteenth century, by de Tocqueville and Lord Acton, that socialism means slavery, we have steadily moved in the direction of socialism. And now that we have seen a new form of slavery arise before our eyes, we have so completely forgotten the warning, that it scarcely occurs to us that the two things may be connected.[4]

24. 当前这个时代，朝着社会主义发展的趋势不仅意味着与近代历史的决裂，而且意味着与整个西方文明演化进程的决裂。如果不只把它放在十九世纪的背景下考虑，而是从更长的历史维度来观察，我们就能清楚地发现这种决裂是多么彻底。我们正在迅速抛弃的，不仅是科布登和布莱特、亚当·斯密和休谟，甚至洛克和弥尔顿的观点，更是西方文明在基督教以及古希腊人、古罗马人奠定的基础上逐渐形成的一个显著特征。我们正在渐渐放手的，不仅是十九世纪和十八世纪的自由主义思想，更是那种基本的、我们从伊拉斯谟和蒙田、西塞罗和塔西佗、伯里克利和修昔底德那里继承的个人主义。

24. How sharp a break not only with the recent past but with the whole evolution of Western civilisation the modern trend towards socialism means, becomes clear if we consider it not merely against the background of the nineteenth century, but in a longer historical perspective. We are rapidly abandoning not the views merely of Cobden and Bright, of Adam Smith and Hume, or even of Locke and Milton, but one of the salient characteristics of Western civilisation as it has grown from the foundations laid by Christianity and the Greeks and Romans. Not merely nineteenth- and eighteenth-century liberalism, but the basic individualism inherited by us from Erasmus and Montaigne, from Cicero and Tacitus, Pericles and Thucydides is progressively relinquished.

25. 那位纳粹领导人将纳粹革命描述为“一场反文艺复兴运动”，这一描述恐怕比他自己可能意识到的还要真实。自文艺复兴时期以来，现代人类建立的文明首先是推崇个人主义的文明，

25. The Nazi leader who described the National-Socialist revolution as a counter-Renaissance spoke more truly than he probably knew. It was the decisive step in the destruction of that civilisation which modern man had built up from the age of the

[3] 甚至连那些晚近得多且已被不幸言中的警告，也几乎完全被我们遗忘了。希莱尔·贝洛克先生曾在一本书中解释说：“社会主义学说对资本主义社会产生的影响，是产出了一种与二者完全不同的第三种事物，即奴役制国家。”这本书对德国后来所发生之事的解释，比大多数在事后才写就的著作都要深刻。而这一切，距今还不到三十年。（《奴役制国家》，1913年，1927年第三版，第xiv页）

本书第七章开头的引文也出自希莱尔·贝洛克的这本书。-译注

[4] Even much more recent warnings which have proved dreadfully true have been almost entirely forgotten. It is not yet thirty years since Mr. Hilaire Belloc, in a book which explains more of what has happened since in Germany than most works written after the event, explained that “the effect of Socialist doctrine on Capitalist society is to produce a third thing different from either of its two begetters - to wit, the Servile State” (The Servile State, 1913, 3rd ed. 1927, p. xiv).

而纳粹革命的兴起则是摧毁这一文明的决定性一步。如今，“个人主义”这个词已经声名狼藉，总被人与利己主义、自私自利联系在一起。然而，我们所讨论的个人主义与这些都毫无关系。它是与社会主义以及其他一切形式的集体主义相对立的个人主义。只有随着本书内容的展开，我们才能逐步阐明这两种彼此对立的原则之间的区别。不过，这种汲取了基督教和古典哲学要素的个人主义，其基本特征最早在文艺复兴时期得到充分发展，随后不断成长，最终孕育出我们今天所说的西方文明；其核心在于尊重个体“人之为人”的价值，也就是说，它承认一个人的观点和趣味在他自己无论被限制得多么狭小的领域中是至高无上的，并且相信人们应当各自发展自己的天赋和禀性。如今，“Freedom”和“liberty”这两个词已经被用坏了，[5]以至于人们已经不再愿意用它们表达其在文艺复兴时期所承载的理想了。那种在文艺复兴时期始终盛行的、不久前还不曾如此衰落的、并且即将随着极权国家的崛起而彻底消亡的个人主义原则，其完整含义或许只能用“宽容”这个词来表达了。

Renaissance and which was above all an individualist civilisation. Individualism has a bad name to-day and the term has come to be connected with egotism and selfishness. But the individualism of which we speak in contrast to socialism and all other forms of collectivism has no necessary connection with these. Only gradually in the course of this book shall we be able to make clear the contrast between the two opposing principles. But the essential features of that individualism which, from elements provided by Christianity and the philosophy of classical antiquity, was first fully developed during the Renaissance and has since grown and spread into what we know as Western European civilisation - the respect for the individual man qua man, that is the recognition of his own views and tastes as supreme in his own sphere, however narrowly that may be circumscribed, and the belief that it is desirable that men should develop their own individual gifts and bents. “Freedom” and “liberty” are now words so worn with use and abuse that one must hesitate to employ them to express the ideals for which they stood during that period. Tolerance is, perhaps, the only word which still preserves the full meaning of the principle which during the whole of this period was in the ascendant and which only in recent times has again been in decline, to disappear completely with the rise of the totalitarian state.

26. 从一种结构僵化、等级森严的社会形态逐渐过渡到一种至少允许人们尝试塑造自己的生活，有机会了解和选择不同生活方式的社会形态，这种转变与商业的发展相辅相成。从意大利北部的商业城市开始，新的生活观念随着商业活动向西、向北传播，途径法国和德国西南部，到达低地国家和不列颠群岛。哪里没有专制政治权力的压制，它就在哪里深深地扎根。在欧洲大陆的中心，这种观念的早期萌芽曾在很大程度上为极具破坏性的战争和政治压迫所湮没，而在低地国家和不列颠群岛，它第一次

26. The gradual transformation of a rigidly organised hierarchic system into one where men could at least attempt to shape their own life, where man gained the opportunity of knowing and choosing between different forms of life, is closely associated with the growth of commerce. From the commercial cities of Northern Italy the new view of life spread with commerce to the west and north, through France and the south-west of Germany to the Low Countries and the British Isles, taking firm root wherever there was no despotic political power to stifle it. In the Low Countries and Britain it for a long time enjoyed its fullest development and for the first time had an opportunity to grow freely and to become the foundation of the social and political life of these countries. And it was from there that in the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries it again began to spread in a more fully developed form to the West and East, to the New World and the centre of the European continent where devastating wars and political oppression had largely submerged the earlier beginnings of a similar growth.[7]

27. 在欧洲历史的整个现代阶段，社会发展的总体方向是将个人从束缚其日常生活的习俗和成规中解放出来。只有当社会发展达到一定程度之后，人们才能清醒地意识到，自发的、不受约束的个人活动能够产生一种复杂的经济活动秩序。随之而来的，对主张经济自由的完整理论的系统性构建，则是经济活动自由增长的结果，而这种增长本身又是政治自由所带来的、未经设计且无法预见的副产品。

27. During the whole of this modern period of European history the general direction of social development was one of freeing the individual from the ties which had bound him to the customary or prescribed ways in the pursuit of his ordinary activities. The conscious realisation that the spontaneous and uncontrolled efforts of individuals were capable of producing a complex order of economic activities could come only after this development had made some progress. The subsequent elaboration of a consistent argument in favour of economic freedom was the outcome of a free growth of economic activity which had been the undesigned and unforeseen by-product of political freedom.

28. 释放个人活力的最伟大成果，或许是科学在个人自由的理念从意大利进军到英国乃至更远地区之后所取得的惊人发展。早在工业技术尚未发展的时期，人类就已经能够制造出精妙绝伦的自动玩具和匠心独具的机械装置，这说明人类早期的创造力与现在相比毫不逊色。采矿业、制表业等未曾经受约束限制的行业的发展也证明了这一点。然而，在那个时期，人们普遍认为社会中的主流观点对每个人都具有约束力，个体创新者的道路会被多数人对一件事的正确性和恰当性的判断所阻断，那些为数不多的、在工业实践中广泛应用甚至是极为先进的机械发明的尝试，都很快遭到了压制，对知

28. Perhaps the greatest result of the unchaining of individual energies was the marvellous growth of science which followed the march of individual liberty from Italy to England and beyond. That the inventive faculty of man had been no less in earlier periods is shown by the many highly ingenious automatic toys and other mechanical contrivances constructed while industrial technique still remained stationary, and by the development in some industries which, like mining or watch-making, were not subject to restrictive controls. But the few attempts towards a more extended industrial use of mechanical inventions, some extraordinarily advanced, were promptly suppressed, and the desire for knowledge was stifled, so long as the dominant views were held to be binding for all: the beliefs innovator. Only since industrial freedom opened of the great majority on

[6] 在这些发展中，最具决定性的，并且其后果至今尚未消除的，是在十五世纪和十六世纪，封建领主压制并部分消灭了德国资产阶级。

[7] The most fateful of these developments, pregnant with consequences not yet extinct, was the subjection and partial destruction of the German bourgeoisie by the territorial princes in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries.

识的渴求也被扼杀了。正是因为工业自由为人们开创了自由应用新知的道路，也正是因为人们可以在有人愿意支持并承担风险的前提下尝试一 切，科学才得以取得如此巨大的进步，并在过去一百五十年中改变了世界的面貌。值得一提的是，推动这些进步的，往往不是那些官方授权、以促进知识应用为目的的权威机构。

what was right and proper were allowed to bar the way of the individual the path to the free use of new knowledge, only since everything could be tried - if somebody could be found to back it at his own risk - and, it should be added, as often as not from outside the authorities officially entrusted with the cultivation of learning, has science made the great strides which in the last hundred and fifty years have changed the face of the world.

29. 文明的敌人常常比文明的朋友更能看清文明的本质。十九世纪极权主义者奥古斯特·孔德就曾将这种本质描述为：“经年累月的西方病，个体对种群的反叛”，而这种本质，恰恰是构建我们文明的力量所在。在之前的基础之上，十九世纪对个人主义的贡献在于，它让各个阶层都有了自由的意识；那些曾经随意且无序生长的自由元素在十九世纪得以系统、持续地发展，并且从英国和荷兰传播到欧洲大陆的大部分地区。

29. As is so often true, the nature of our civilisation has been seen more clearly by its enemies than by most of its friends: “the perennial Western malady, the revolt of the individual against the species”, as that nineteenth-century totalitarian, Auguste Comte, has described it, was indeed the force which built our civilisation. What the nineteenth century added to the individualism of the preceding period was merely to make all classes conscious of freedom, to develop systematically and continuously what had grown in a haphazard and patchy manner and to spread it from England and Holland over most of the European Continent.

30. 这一发展的结果超出了所有人的预期。哪里消除了阻碍人类创造力自由发挥的障碍，哪里的人们就能迅速满足日益增长的种种需求。虽然生活水平的提高很快就让人们发现了社会中一些令人难以忍受的阴暗面，但几乎所有阶层都从这种普遍的社会进步中获得了实质性的好处。用现在的标准来衡量这一惊人的进步，我们很难做到公允，这些标准本身就是进步的结果，而且，它在当下还让许多不足变得更加显而易见。若要理解这种进步对那些参与其中的人意味着什么，我们必须用人们在它开始时所抱有的希望和愿望去衡量：毫无疑问，它的成功超出了人类最狂野的梦想；二十世纪初，西方世界的劳工已经拥有了一定程度的物质享受、生活保障以及个人对立，这在一百年前几乎是不可想象的。

30. The result of this growth surpassed all expectations. Wherever the barriers to the free exercise of human ingenuity were removed man became rapidly able to satisfy ever-widening ranges of desire. And while the rising standard soon led to the discovery of very dark spots in society, spots which men were no longer willing to tolerate, there was probably no class that did not substantially benefit from the general advance. We cannot do justice to this astonishing growth if we measure it by our present standards, which themselves result from this growth and now make many defects obvious. To appreciate what it meant to those who took part in it we must measure it by the hopes and wishes men held when it began: and there can be no doubt that its success surpassed man’s wildest dreams, that by the beginning of the twentieth century the working man in the Western world had reached a degree of material comfort, security, and personal independence which a hundred years before had seemed scarcely possible.

31. 将来，这一成就最重要和最深远的影响，恐怕在于它在人们心中唤起的那种掌控自身命运的、崭新的力量感，以及有无限种可能去改善自身境遇的信心。这一成就也助长了人们的野心，当然，每个人都有雄心勃勃的权利。曾经鼓舞人心的承诺似乎已经不能再让人感到满足，进步的速度也太慢了；而那些曾经带来这种进步的原则，现在也不再被视为保持和发展既有成就的前提，反而成了加速进步的障碍，要迫不及待地抛在一边了。

31. What in the future will probably appear the most significant and far-reaching effect of this success is the new sense of power over their own fate, the belief in the unbounded possibilities of improving their own lot, which the success already achieved created among men. With the success grew ambition - and man had every right to be ambitious. What had been an inspiring promise seemed no longer enough, the rate of progress far too slow ; and the principles which had made this progress possible in the past came to be regarded more as obstacles to speedier progress, impatiently to be brushed away, than as the conditions for the preservation and development of what had already been achieved.

32. 在自由主义的基本原则中，没有一条能够使其成为一套静止的教义；也不存在一成不变、一劳永逸的僵化规则。它的根本原则是：我们在安排社会事务时，应当尽可能多地运用社会的自发力量，尽可能少地诉诸强制。这一原则在应用上有无限的广泛性。尤其需要指出的是，在“为了让竞争能够尽可能有益地运作而主动建立某种制度框架”与“消极地接受既有制度”之间，存在着本质的区别。或许，对自由主义事业造成最大伤害的，莫过于一些自由主义者对某些粗略经验法则的教条式坚持了，其中尤其以对自由放任原则的坚持为甚。诚然，从某种意义上说，这种坚持是必要且无法避免的。许多利益集团总能证明某项具体政策可以为一部分人带来直接而显著的好处，而其潜在的危害却更为间接和难以察觉。在这种情况下，只有坚持某些僵化规则才能有效地制衡这些利益集团。而且，既然人们早已在观念上确立了对工业自由的强烈偏好，试图将这种经验法则奉为不容例外的铁律，也就成为一种自由主义者难以完全抵御的诱惑。

32. There is nothing in the basic principles of liberalism to make it a stationary creed, there are no hard-and-fast rules fixed once and for all. The fundamental principle that in the ordering of our affairs we should make as much use as possible of the spontaneous forces of society, and resort as little as possible to coercion, is capable of an infinite variety of applications. There is, in particular, all the difference between deliberately creating a system within which competition will work as beneficially as possible, and passively accepting institutions as they are. Probably nothing has done so much harm to the liberal cause as the wooden insistence of some liberals on certain rough rules of thumb, above all the principle of laissez-faire. Yet in a sense this was necessary and unavoidable. Against the innumerable interests who could show that particular measures would confer immediate and obvious benefits on some, while the harm they caused was much more indirect and difficult to see, nothing short of some hard-and-fast rule would have been effective. And since a strong presumption in favour of industrial liberty had undoubtedly been established, the temptation to present it as a rule which knew no exceptions was too strong always to be resisted.

33. 然而，由于许多自由主义学说的普及者采取了这种偏好僵化规则的态度，一旦他们的立场在某些点上被攻破，整体崩塌几乎是不可避免的。更何况，旨在逐步改善自由社会制度框架的政策，其推进必然是缓慢的，这又会进一步削弱他们的立场。这种推进，取决于我们对各种社会运行机制的理解的不断加深，以及对它们在何种条件下能够良性运作的认识的不断增长。既然我们的任务是要协助并在必要时补充这些机制的运作，那么首要的前提就是要理解它们。自由主义者对社会的态度，应该像园丁照料植物一样，为了创造最有利于其生长的条件，他必须尽可能了解其结构以及该结构发挥作用的机制。

33. But with this attitude taken by many popularisers of the liberal doctrine, it was almost inevitable that, once their position was penetrated at some points, it should soon collapse as a whole. The position was further weakened by the inevitably slow progress of a policy which aimed at a gradual improvement of the institutional framework of a free society. This progress depended on the growth of our understanding of the social forces and the conditions most favourable to their working in a desirable manner. Since the task was to assist, and where necessary to supplement, their operation, the first requisite was to understand them. The attitude of the liberal towards society is like that of the gardener who tends a plant and in order to create the conditions most favourable to its growth must know as much as possible about its structure and the way it functions.

34. 任何头脑清醒的人都不会怀疑，那些体现了十九世纪经济政策原则的粗略规则不过是一个起点，我们尚有许多东西需要学习，在我们一路走来的道路上尚有巨大的进步空间。然而，唯有当我们日益深入地从理性层面掌握了那些必须加以运用的社会运行机制时，这种进步才可能实现。我们还有很多任务需要去完成，有些是显而易见的，比如对货币体系的管理，对垄断的预防或控制；而在其它领域，还有更多不那么明显却同样重要的任务。毫无疑问，政府在这些领域拥有既可以造福也可以作恶的巨大权力；随着我们对这些问题的理解更加深入，我们完全有理由期待，我们终有一日能够成功地驾驭这些权力。

34. No sensible person should have doubted that the crude rules in which the principles of economic policy of the nineteenth century were expressed were only a beginning, that we had yet much to learn, and that there were still immense possibilities of advancement on the lines on which we had moved. But this advance could only come as we gained increasing intellectual mastery of the forces of which we had to make use. There were many obvious tasks, such as our handling of the monetary system, and the prevention or control of monopoly, and an even greater number of less obvious but hardly less important tasks to be undertaken in other fields, where there could be no doubt that the governments possessed enormous powers for good and evil; and there was every reason to expect that with a better understanding of the problems we should some day be able to use these powers successfully.

35. 然而，人们通常所说的“积极”行动，其进展必然是缓慢的；若要在短期内实现社会改善，自由主义必须主要依靠自由所带来的逐步的财富增长，因此，它始终不得不与那些威胁这一进程的各种政策主张作持续斗争。自由主义之所以逐渐被视为一种“消极”信条，是因为

35. But while the progress towards what is commonly called “positive” action was necessarily slow, and while for the immediate improvement liberalism had to rely largely on the gradual increase of wealth which freedom brought about, it had constantly to fight proposals which threatened this progress. It came to be regarded as a “negative” creed because it could offer to particular individuals little more than a share in the common progress - a progress which came to be taken more and more for granted and was no longer recognised as the result of the policy of freedom. It might even be said that the very success of liberalism became the cause of its decline. Because of the success already achieved man became increasingly unwilling to tolerate the evils still with him which now appeared both unbearable and unnecessary.

36. Because of the growing impatience with the slow advance of liberal policy, the just irritation with those who used liberal phraseology in defence of anti-social privileges, and the boundless ambition seemingly justified by the material improvements already achieved, it came to pass that toward the turn of the century the belief in the basic tenets of liberalism was more and more relinquished. What had been achieved came to be regarded as a secure and imperishable possession, acquired once and for all. The eyes of the people became fixed on the new demands, the rapid satisfaction of which seemed to be barred by the adherence to the old principles. It became more and more widely accepted that further advance could not be expected along the old lines within the general framework which had made past progress possible, but only by a complete remodelling of society. It was no longer a question of adding to or improving the existing machinery, but of completely scrapping and replacing it. And as the hope of the new generation came to be centred on something completely new, interest in, and understanding of, the functioning of the existing society rapidly declined; and with the decline of the understanding of the way in which the free system worked our awareness of what depended on its existence also decreased.

37. 是不是因为我们在解决社会问题时，不加批判地运用了自然科学家和工程师们在解决技术问题时形成的思维习惯，才促成了这种观念的转变？而这些思维习惯同时又是如何倾向于贬低以往那些不符合其偏见的社会研究成果，

37. This is not the place to discuss how this change in outlook was fostered by the uncritical transfer to the problems of society of habits of thought engendered by the preoccupation with technological problems, the habits of thought of the natural scientist and the engineer, how these at the same time tended to discredit the results of the past study of society which did not conform to their prejudices, and to impose ideals of organisation on a sphere to which they are not appropriate.[9] All we are here concerned to show is how completely, though gradually and by almost imperceptible steps, our attitude towards society has changed. What at every stage of this process of change had appeared a difference of degree only, has in its cumulative effect already brought about a fundamental difference between the older liberal attitude towards society and the present approach to social problems. The change amounts to a complete reversal of the trend we have sketched, an entire abandonment of the individualist tradition which has created Western civilisation.

38. 在当前主流观点看来，问题已经不再是我们如何才能最有效地利用自由社会中的自发力量。实际上，我们已开始着手摒弃那些会产生难以预料之后果的自发力量，取消非人格化和匿名化的市场机制，代之以对一切社会机制施加集体性的和“人为的”控制，以实现那些人为选定的目标。对于这种区别，卡尔·曼海姆博士在在他备受推崇的一部著作中，以其极为偏激的观点做了最为淋漓尽致的说明。至于该著作中所谓的“为自由而计划”的纲领，我们随后还将不止一次地予以评论。他是这样写的：

38. According to the views now dominant the question is no longer how we can make the best use of the spontaneous forces found in a free society. We have in effect undertaken to dispense with the forces which produced unforeseen results and to replace the impersonal and anonymous mechanism of the market by collective and “conscious” direction of all social forces to deliberately chosen goals. The difference cannot be better illustrated than by the extreme position taken in a widely acclaimed book on whose programme of so-called “planning for freedom” we shall have to comment yet more than once.

39. 尽管我们从来没有全面设计和指挥过大自然的整个生态系统，但我们今天已经到了必须对人类社会做这样的事情的地步。……尽管人类从来没有尝试过要去创造另一个大自然，却要愈发全面地规制自己的全部社会生活了。[10]

39. We have never had to set up and direct [writes Dr. Karl Mannheim] the entire system of nature as we are forced to do to-day with society.... Mankind is tending more and more to regulate the whole of its social life, although it has never attempted to create a second nature.[11]

[8] 笔者已尝试在两组文章中追溯这种转变的开端，这两组文章分别是《科学主义与社会研究》和《科学的反革命》，它们于 1941 年至 1944 年间发表在《经济学》期刊上。

40. 值得注意的是，这种思想潮流的转变与思想传播在空间上的逆转几乎同时发生。两百多年来，英国的思想一直在向东传播，实现于英国的自由之治似乎注定要传遍全球。到了1870年前后，这些思想的影响力可能已经向东传播到最远的地方。从那以后，它开始退却。另一套完全不同的、实际上并无新意却非常古老的思想开始从东边兴起。英国失去了她在政治和社会领域思想领袖的地位，成为思想的输入国。在接下来的六十年里，德国成了中心。从那里出发，那些注定要在二十世纪主导世界的思想开始向西、向东传播。无论是黑格尔还是马克思、李斯特还是施莫勒、桑巴特还是曼海姆，无论是更激进形式的社会主义，还是较温和的“规划”或“计划”，来自德国的思想被各国欣然接受，其制度也被各国模仿。尽管大多数新思想，尤其是社会主义思想，并非起源于德国，但它们却在德国得以完善，并在十九世纪最后四分之一和二十世纪最初四分之一实现了最充分的发展。如今人们已经不太记得，在那个时期，在社会主义理论的发展和实践中，德国起了多么重要的引领作用；德国议会出现一个庞大的社会主义政党的时间，甚至比社会主义在英国成为严重问题的时间还要早一代人。直到不久前，社会主义的理论发展几乎完全是在德国和奥地利进行的，以至于即使到了今天，俄国关于社会主义的讨论在很大程度上还是从德国人留下的基础上展开的；多数英国社会主义者还没有意识到，他们刚刚开始遇到的问题，大多数都已经被德国的社会主义者们在很早以前就彻底讨论过了。

40. It is significant that this change in the trend of ideas has coincided with a reversal of the direction in which ideas have travelled in space. For over two hundred years English ideas had been spreading eastwards. The rule of freedom which had been achieved in England seemed destined to spread throughout the world. By about 1870 the reign of these ideas had probably reached its easternmost expansion. From then onwards it began to retreat and a different set of ideas, not really new but very old, began to advance from the East. England lost her intellectual leadership in the political and social sphere and became an importer of ideas. For the next sixty years Germany became the centre from which the ideas destined to govern the world in the twentieth century spread east and west. Whether it was Hegel or Marx, List or Schmoller, Sombart or Mannheim, whether it was socialism in its more radical form or merely “organisation” or “planning” of a less radical kind, German ideas were everywhere readily imported and German institutions imitated. Although most of the new ideas, and particularly socialism, did not originate in Germany, it was in Germany that they were perfected and during the last quarter of the nineteenth and the first quarter of the twentieth century they reached their fullest development. It is now often forgotten how very considerable was the lead which Germany had during this period in the development of the theory and practice of socialism, that a generation before socialism became a serious issue in this country, Germany had a large socialist party in her parliament, and that till not very long ago the doctrinal development of socialism was almost entirely carried on in Germany and Austria, so that even to-day Russian discussion largely carries on where the Germans left off; most English socialists are still unaware that the majority of the problems they begin to discover were thoroughly discussed by German socialists long ago.

41. 在这一时期，德国思想家对全世界在思想上的影响，不仅得益于德国巨大的物质进步，更得益于德国思想家和科学家在过去一百年里

41. The intellectual influence which German thinkers were able to exercise during this period on the whole world was supported not merely by the great material progress of Germany but even more by the extraordinary reputation which German thinkers and scientists had earned during the preceding hundred years when Germany had once more become an integral and even leading member of the common European civilisation. But it soon served to assist the spreading from Germany of ideas directed against the foundations of that civilisation. The Germans themselves - or at least those among them who spread these ideas - were fully aware of the conflict: what had been the common heritage of European civilisation became to them, long before the Nazis, “Western” civilisation - where “Western” was no longer used in the old sense of Occident but had come to mean west of the Rhine. “Western” in this sense was Liberalism and Democracy, Capitalism and Individualism, Free ‘Trade and any form of Internationalism or love of peace.

赢得的非凡声誉。这期间，德国再次成为欧洲共同文明中不可或缺的、甚至是领先的一员。然而，德国思想家的这种影响力很快就被用来传播来自德国的、与欧洲文明基础相对立的思想。德国人自己，或者至少他们中间那些传播这些思想的人，对这种对立有着充分的认识：早在纳粹出现之前，曾经的欧洲文明的共同遗产在他们眼里就已经成了“西方”文明。这个“西方”已经不再是过去意义上的“西方”，而是指莱茵河以西了。从这个意义上说，“西方”代表了自由主义和民主主义、资本主义和个人主义、自由贸易以及一切形式的国际主义，或者说，它代表了对和平的热爱。

42. 然而，尽管越来越多的德国人毫不掩饰地蔑视所谓“肤浅”的西方理想，或者，或许正因为如此，西方人还是不停地输入德国思想，甚至在其诱导下开始相信，自己过去的信念不过是对自私利益的辩护，自由贸易不过是为了促进英国利益而炮制的学说，而英国给予世界的政治理想已经无可救药地过时，成了令他们感到羞耻的东西。

42. But in spite of the ill-concealed contempt of an ever-increasing number of Germans for those “shallow” Western ideals, or perhaps because of it, the people of the West continued to import German ideas and were even induced to believe that their own former convictions had merely been rationalisations of selfish interests, that Free Trade was a doctrine invented to further British interests, and that the political ideals England had given to the world were hopelessly outmoded and a thing to be ashamed of.

44. 直到1848年革命前，[1]在强劲的民主浪潮影响下，社会主义才开始与自由的力量结盟。但是，这种新的"民主社会主义"花了很久才消除了其早期形式带给人们的疑虑。民主，本质上是一种个人主义的制度，与社会主义存在着不

43. THAT socialism has displaced liberalism as the doctrine held by the great majority of progressives does not simply mean that people had forgotten the warnings of the great liberal thinkers of the past about the consequences of collectivism. It has happened because they were persuaded of the very opposite of what these men had predicted. The extraordinary thing is that the same socialism that was not only early recognised as the gravest threat to freedom, but quite openly began as a reaction against the liberalism of the French Revolution, gained general acceptance under the flag of liberty. It is rarely remembered now that socialism in its beginnings was frankly authoritarian. The French writers who laid the foundations of modern socialism had no doubt that their ideas could be put into practice only by a strong dictatorial government. To them socialism meant an attempt to "terminate the revolution" by a deliberate reorganisation of society on hierarchical lines, and the imposition of a coercive "spiritual power". Where freedom was concerned, the founders of socialism made no bones about their intentions. Freedom of thought they regarded as the root-evil of nineteenth-century society, and the first of modern planners, Saint-Simon, even predicted that those who did not, obey his proposed planning boards would be "treated as cattle".

44. Only under the influence of the strong democratic currents preceding the revolution of 1848 did socialism begin to ally itself with the forces of freedom. But it took the new "democratic socialism" a long time to live down the suspicions aroused by its antecedents. Nobody saw more clearly than de Tocqueville that democracy as an

可调和的冲突。在这一点上，没有人比托克维尔看得更清楚，他在1848年写道：

45. 民主拓展个人自由的范围，而社会主义却对其加以限制。民主赋予每个人尽可能多的价值，社会主义则使每个人都沦为单纯的工具和数字。除了“平等”这个词之外，民主和社会主义毫无共同之处。但请注意它们之间的区别：民主追求的是自由中的平等，而社会主义追求的是禁锢和奴役中的平等。[2]

46. 社会主义者开始越来越多地诉诸一种“新自由”的承诺，以缓解疑虑，并充分驾驭和利用人们“渴望自由”这一最强烈的政治动机。他们声称：社会主义的到来是从必然王国向自由王国的飞跃；它将带来“经济自由”，而没有经济自由，已经获得的政治自由就“不值得拥有”；只有社会主义才能完成这场为争取自由而开展的长期斗争，而实现政治自由只是这个过程的第一步而已。

essentially individualist institution stood in an irreconcilable conflict with socialism:

45. Democracy extends the sphere of individual freedom [he said in 1848], socialism restricts it. Democracy attaches all possible value to each man; socialism makes each man a mere agent, a mere number. Democracy and socialism have nothing in common but one word: equality. But notice the difference: while democracy seeks equality in liberty, socialism seeks equality in restraint and servitude.[3]

46. To allay these suspicions and to harness to its cart the strongest of all political motives, the craving for freedom, socialism began increasingly to make use of the promise of a “new freedom”. The coming of socialism was to be the leap from the realm of necessity to the realm of freedom. It was to bring “economic freedom”, without which the political freedom already gained was “not worth having”. Only socialism was capable of effecting the consummation of the agelong struggle for freedom in which the attainment of political freedom was but a first step.

47. The subtle change in meaning to which the word freedom was subjected in order that this argument should sound plausible is important. To the great apostles of political freedom the word had meant freedom from coercion, freedom from the arbitrary power of other men, release from the ties which left the individual no choice but obedience to the orders of a superior to whom he was attached. The new freedom promised, however, was to be freedom from necessity, release from the compulsion of the circumstances which inevitably limit the range of choice of all of us, although for some very much more than for others. Before man could be truly free, the “despotism of physical want” had to be broken, the “restraints of the economic system” relaxed.

48. 当然，在这个意义上说，自由只不过是权力[4]或财富的代名词而已。而且，这种“新自由”还常常伴随着一种不负责任的承诺，即社会主义社会的物质财富将大幅增长，但是，社会主义者并不指望通过彻底征服“大自然的吝啬”以实现经济上的自由。这种承诺的真正含义是要消灭不同的人在获取生活物资方面存在的巨大差距。因此，所谓的“新自由”，不过是用一个新名词来代替过去人们所说的“均贫富”而已。这个新名词让社会主义者又有了一个与自由主义者共用的词汇：自由，而且他们把这个词用到了极致。此外，尽管这两个群体在使用这个词时表述的意义不同，却很少有人注意到这一点，更少会有人自问，这两种自由的承诺是否真的可以混为一谈。

49. 向人们承诺更多的自由，无疑已经成为社会主义宣传中最有效的武器之一。人们对社会主义能够带来自由的信心也是发自内心和真诚的。然而，如果社会主义者许诺给我们的通往自由的道路最终被证明是通往奴役的道路的话，这种信心只会让悲剧成为更大的悲剧。不可否认，正是这种对更多自由的承诺，引诱了一个又一个自由主义者走上社会主义道路。它蒙蔽了他们，让他们无视社会主义和自由主义

48. Freedom in this sense is, of course, merely another name for power[5] or wealth. Yet, although the promises of this new freedom were often coupled with irresponsible promises of a great increase in material wealth in a socialist society, it was not from such an absolute conquest of the niggardliness of nature that economic freedom was expected. What the promise really amounted to was that the great existing disparities in the range of choice of different people were to disappear. The demand for the new freedom was thus only another name for the old demand for an equal distribution of wealth. But the new name gave the socialists another word in common with the liberals and they exploited it to the full. And although the word was used in a different sense by the two groups, few people noticed this and still fewer asked themselves whether the two kinds of freedom promised really could be combined.

49. There can be no doubt that the promise of greater freedom has become one of the most effective weapons of socialist propaganda and that the belief that socialism would bring freedom is genuine and sincere. But this would only heighten the tragedy if it should prove that what was promised to us as the Road to Freedom was in fact the High Road to Servitude. Unquestionably the promise of more freedom was responsible for luring more and more liberals along the socialist road, for blinding them to the conflict which exists between the basic principles of socialism and liberalism, and for

[5] The characteristic confusion of freedom with power, which we shall meet again and again throughout this discussion, is too big a subject to be thoroughly examined here. As old as socialism itself, it is so closely allied with it that almost seventy years ago a French scholar, discussing its Saint-Simonian origins, was led to say that this theory of liberty “est á elle seule tout le socialisme” (P. Janet, Saint-Simon et le Satnt-Simonisme, 1878, p. 26, note). The most explicit defender of this confusion is, significantly, the leading philosopher of American left-wingism, John Dewey, according to whom “liberty is the effective power to do specific things” so that “the demand for liberty is demand for power” (“Liberty and Social Control”, The Social Frontier November 1935, p. 41).

的基本原则之间的冲突，并且允许社会主义者频繁地盗用“自由”这个只有早期自由党派才会使用的名号。大部分知识分子将社会主义作为自由主义传统理所当然的继承者加以拥护，这样，他们不相信社会主义会走到自由的对立面也就不足为奇了。 often enabling socialists to usurp the very name of the old party of freedom. Socialism was embraced by the greater part of the intelligentsia as the apparent heir of the liberal tradition: therefore it is not surprising that to them the idea should appear inconceivable of socialism leading to the opposite of liberty.

50. In recent years, however, the old apprehensions of the unforeseen consequences of socialism have once more been strongly voiced from the most unexpected quarters. Observer after observer, in spite of the contrary expectation with which he approached his subject, has been impressed with the extraordinary similarity in many respects of the conditions under “fascism” and “communism”. While “progressives” in this country and elsewhere were still deluding themselves that communism and fascism represented opposite poles, more and more people began to ask themselves whether these new tyrannies were not the outcome of the same tendencies. Even communists must have been somewhat shaken by such testimonies as that of Mr. Max Eastman, Lenin’s old friend, who found himself compelled to admit that “instead of being better, Stalinism is worse than fascism, more ruthless, barbarous, unjust, immoral, anti-democratic, unredeemed by any hope or scruple”, and that it is “better described as superfascist”; and when we find the same author recognising that “Stalinism is socialism, in the sense of being an inevitable although unforeseen political accompaniment of the nationalisation and collectivisation which he had relied upon as part of his plan for erecting a classless society”,[7] his conclusion clearly achieves wider significance.

only sympathetic observer of the Russian experiment to form similar conclusions. Several years earlier Mr. W. H. Chamberlin, who in twelve years in Russia as an American correspondent had seen all his ideals shattered, summed up the conclusions of his studies there and in Germany and Italy in the statement that "Socialism is certain to prove, in the beginning at least, the road NOT to freedom, but to dictatorship and counter-dictatorships, to civil war of the fiercest kind. Socialism achieved and maintained by democratic means seems definitely to belong to the world of utopias."[10] Similarly a British writer, Mr. F. A. Voigt, after many years of close observation of developments in Europe as a foreign correspondent, concludes that "Marxism has led to Fascism and National-Socialism, because, in all essentials, it is Fascism and National Socialism".[11] And Dr. Walter Lippmann has arrived at the conviction that transformation and have been forced by their experience to revise many cherished beliefs. We shall quote as one more example a German writer who expresses the same conclusion perhaps more justly than those already quoted.

52. 我们这一代人现在正在从经验中认识到，当人们放弃自由，听任他人以强制手段安排其事务时会发生什么：人们原以为可以过上更加富足的生活，可到了现实中却不得不放弃这个希望；随着计划管理手段不断加强，他们生活目标的多样性不得不让位于统一性。这正是计划型社会和人类事务中威权主义原则招致的报应。[12]

52. the generation to which we belong is now learning from experience what happens when men retreat from freedom to a coercive organisation of their affairs. Though they promise themselves a more abundant life, they must in practice renounce it; as the organised direction increases, the variety of ends must give way to uniformity. That is the nemesis of the planned society and the authoritarian principle in human affairs.[13]

份度过了国家转型的阶段，而正是他们的亲身经历，让他们修正了许多曾经十分珍视的信念。我们再引用一位德国学者，彼得·德鲁克先生的文字，与前述几位相比，或许他更为公允地表达了同样的结论：

54. 走马克思主义道路就能实现自由与平等的信念已经彻底崩溃。这迫使俄国像德国一样，走上了一条通往极权主义的道路，变成纯粹消极的、非经济性的、不自由和不平等的社会。并不是说共产主义和法西斯主义完全是一回事。法西斯主义实际上是共产主义被证明为一种幻想之后到达的一个阶段，而在斯大林时期的俄国和希特勒上台前的德国，共产主义都被证明是一种幻想。[14]

54. The complete collapse of the belief in the attainability of freedom and equality through Marxism [writes Mr. Peter Drucker[15]] has forced Russia to travel the same road towards a totalitarian, purely negative, non-economic society of unfreedom and inequality which Germany has been following. Not that communism and fascism are essentially the same. Fascism is the stage reached after communism has proved an illusion, and it has proved as much an illusion in Stalinist Russia as in pre-Hitler Germany.

55. 许多纳粹及法西斯领导人的思想历程同样值得关注。[16]在意大利或者德国，观察纳粹和法西斯运动发展的人都会惊讶地注意到，从墨索里尼开始，包括拉瓦尔和奎斯林，竟有如此之多的领导人早期是社会主义者，最后却成了法西斯主义者或者纳粹分子。运动的领导人如此，普通成员更是如此。年轻的共产主义者可以很轻易地变为纳粹分子，反过来也一样。这在德国人尽皆知，两党的宣传人员更是十分清楚。二十世纪三十年代，很多大学教师都知道，大量从欧洲大陆归来的英国学生和美国学生都不确定自己是共产主义者还是纳粹主义者，他们唯一能够确定的，是他们痛恨西方的自由主义文明。

55. No less significant is the intellectual history of many of the Nazi and Fascist leaders. Everybody who has watched the growth of these movements in Italy[17] or Germany has been struck by the number of leading men, from Mussolini downwards (and not excluding Laval and Quisling), who began as socialists and ended as Fascists or Nazis. And what is true of the leaders is even more true of the rank and file of the movement. The relative ease with which a young communist could be converted into a Nazi or vice versa was generally known in Germany, best of all to the propagandists of the two parties. Many a University teacher in this country during the 1930's has seen English and American students return from the Continent, uncertain whether they were communists or Nazis and certain only that they hated Western liberal civilisation.

56. 在1933年前的德国和1922年前的意大利，共产主义者与纳粹分子或法西斯分子之间的冲突实际上比他们与其他政党之间的冲突更为频繁。他们争夺的是相同思想类型的支持者，他们视彼此为异端并怀有强烈的敌意。然而，他们的实际行动却说明了他们的关系有多么紧密。对双方而言，他们真正的敌人是老派的自由主义者，也就是那些与他们毫无共同之处而且无法被他们说服的人。共产主义者之于纳粹分子，纳粹分子之于共产主义者，或者社会主义者之于他们双方，都是具备其所需素质的潜在招募对象。虽然他们都称对方受了伪先知的蛊惑，但他们都清楚，他们无法与之妥协的，是那些真正信仰个人自由的人。

56. It is true, of course, that in Germany before 1933 and in Italy before 1922 communists and Nazis or Fascists clashed more frequently with each other than with other parties. They competed for the support of the same type of mind and reserved for each other the hatred of the heretic. But their practice showed how closely they are related. To both, the real enemy, the man with whom they had nothing in common and whom they could not hope to convince, is the liberal of the old type. While to the Nazi the communist, and to the communist the Nazi, and to both the socialist, are potential recruits who are made of the right timber, although they have listened to false prophets, they both know that there can be no compromise between them and those who really believe in individual freedom.

57. 为了避免那些受到双方官方宣传误导的人对此产生怀疑，我不妨再引用一位按理说不应受到质疑的权威人士的论述。德国宗教社会主义领袖之一爱德华·海曼教授曾经撰写过《自由主义的重新发现》一文，该文的题目本身就颇具深意：

57. Lest this be doubted by people misled by official propaganda from either side, let me quote one more statement from an authority that ought not to be suspect. In an article under the significant title of “The Rediscovery of Liberalism”, Professor Eduard Heimann, one of the leaders of German religious socialism, writes:

58. 希特勒主义宣称自己既是真正的民主主义又是真正的社会主义，可怕的是，这种说法竟然有一点微乎其微的真实性，无论多少，却足以成为这个谬论的基础；希特勒主义甚至宣称自己是基督教的捍卫者，可怕的是，这种严重的曲解也能产生一些影响。然而，在混沌的迷雾中，有一点却格外清晰，那就是希特勒从未宣称自己代表真正的自由主义。因此，自由主义被赋予了一个鲜明的特征：它是希特勒最为痛恨的学说。[18]

58. Hitlerism proclaims itself as both true democracy and true socialism, and the terrible truth is that there is a grain of truth for such claims - an infinitesimal grain, to be sure, but at any rate enough to serve as a basis for such fantastic distortions. Hitlerism even goes so far as to claim the réle of protector of Christianity, and the terrible truth is that even this gross misinterpretation is able to make some impression. But one fact stands out with perfect clarity in all the fog: Hitler has never claimed to represent true liberalism. Liberalism then has the distinction of being

[18] 爱德华·海曼：《社会研究》（纽约），第八卷，第四期，1941年11月。值得回顾的是，无论希特勒的理由为何，他在1941年2月的公开演讲中认为有必要宣称：“基本上，国家社会主义与马克思主义是相同的”。（参见《国际新闻简报》，由皇家国际事务研究所出版，第十八卷，第五期，第269页。）

the doctrine most hated by Hitler.[19]

59. 值得补充的是，希特勒对自由主义的仇恨几乎没有机会在实践中表现出来，因为到他上台的时候，自由主义在德国早已名存实亡了。扼杀它的，是社会主义。

59. It should be added that this hatred had little occasion to show itself in practice merely because, by the time Hitler came to power, liberalism was to all intents and purposes dead in Germany. And it was socialism that had killed it.

60. While to many who have watched the transition from socialism to fascism at close quarters the connection between the two systems has become increasingly obvious, in this country the majority of people still believe that socialism and freedom can be combined. There can be no doubt that most socialists here still believe profoundly in the liberal ideal of freedom, and that they would recoil if they became convinced that the realisation of their programme would mean the destruction of freedom. So little is the problem yet seen, so easily do the most irreconcilable ideals still live together, that we can still hear such contradictions in terms as “individualist socialism” seriously discussed. If this is the state of mind which makes us drift into a new world, nothing can be more urgent than that we should seriously examine the real significance of the evolution that has taken place elsewhere. Although our conclusions will only confirm the apprehensions which others have already expressed, the reasons why this development cannot be regarded as accidental will not appear without a rather full examination of the main aspects of this transformation of social life. That democratic socialism, the great utopia of the last few generations, is not only unachievable, but that to strive for it produces something so utterly different that few of those who now wish it would be prepared to accept the consequences, many will not believe till the connection has been laid bare in all its aspects.

[19] Social Research (New York), vol. VIII, no. 4, November 1941. - It deserves to be recalled in this connection that, whatever may have been his reasons, Hitler thought it expedient to declare in one of his public speeches as late as February 1941 that “basically National Socialism and Marxism are the same”. 第三章 个人主义和集体主义

61. 在着手处理主要问题之前，我们还要清除一个障碍：有一个概念上的混淆必须予以澄清。这一概念上的混淆，在很大程度上导致我们不知不觉地滑入了一种谁都不想进入的局面。

62. 被混淆的，不是别的，正是“社会主义”这个概念本身。社会主义，可能只意味着，而且经常用来指称，作为其终极目标的那些社会理想：社会正义、更大的平等以及更多的保障；然而，它还可能指某些具体手段，大多数社会主义者都寄希望于借助这些手段实现这些目标，而许多被视为能力卓越的人也认为，唯有这些手段，才能充分、迅速地实现这些目标。在这个意义上，社会主义指的是废除私营企业和生产资料私有制，并建立一种“计划经济”体制，用集中计划机构取代追求利润的企业家。

63. 许多人虽然只关心社会主义的第一种含义，但仍以社会主义者自居。他们热切地信仰社会主义的终极目标，却既不关心也不理解如何实现这些目标。他们只是坚持认为，无论付出什么代价，这些目标都必须实现。然而，有些人认为社会主义不只是一种愿景，更是现实中的政治目标，对几乎所有些人来说，现代社会主义实现其目标的典型手段与其终极目标同样重要。另外，还有不少人对社会主义终极目标的认同并不亚于社会主义者，却拒绝支持社会主义，因为他们注意到，社会主义者所提出的手段会危及他们的另外一些价值观。因此，围绕社会主义的争论在很大程度上已经演变为

Chapter III: INDIVIDUALISM AND COLLECTIVISM

The socialists believe in two things which are absolutely different and perhaps even contradictory: freedom and organization.

Élie Halévy

61. BEFORE we can progress with our main problem, an obstacle has yet to be surmounted. A confusion largely responsible for the way in which we are drifting into things which nobody wants must be cleared up.

62. This confusion concerns nothing less than the concept of socialism itself. It may mean, and is often used to describe, merely the ideals of social justice, greater equality and security which are the ultimate aims of socialism. But it means also the particular method by which most socialists hope to attain these ends and which many competent people regard as the only methods by which they can be fully and quickly attained. In this sense socialism means the abolition of private enterprise, of private ownership of the means of production, and the creation of a system of “planned economy” in which the entrepreneur working for profit is replaced by a central planning body.

63. There are many people who call themselves socialists although they care only about the first, who fervently believe in those ultimate aims of socialism but neither care nor understand how they can be achieved, and who are merely certain that they must be achieved, whatever the cost. But to nearly all those to whom socialism is not merely a hope but an object of practical politics, the characteristic methods of modern socialism are as essential as the ends themselves. Many people, on the other hand, who value the ultimate ends of socialism no less than the socialists, refuse to support socialism because of the dangers to other values they see in the methods proposed by the socialists. The dispute about socialism has thus become largely a dispute about means and not about ends - although the question whether the different ends of socialism can be simultaneously achieved is also involved.

64. 这就足以引起混淆了，可人们还常常拒绝承认，反对其手段并不等于反对其目标，这进一步加剧了这种混淆的程度。问题还不止于此，让情况更复杂的是，作为社会主义改革的主要工具，“计划经济”这个手段还可以服务于许多非社会主义目标。如果我们的目标是按照当下社会的正义观调节收入分配，那就必须集中管理经济活动，而所有主张用“为社会需要而生产”取代“为利润而生产”的人就会因为这个目标而要求采取“计划”的手段；然而，如果我们的目标是按照在我们看来与正义相反的另一种方式调节收入分配，不可或缺的手段还是这个“计划”。假如我们想把世界上更多的好东西分配给某个优等民族中的精英、或者诺底克人[1]、又或者某个政党或特权阶层的成员，实现这种分配所必须采取的手段与实现平等分配的手段是一致的。

64. This would be enough to create confusion. And the confusion has been further increased by the common practice of denying that those who repudiate the means value the ends. But this is not all. The situation is still more complicated by the fact that the same means, the “economic planning” which is the prime instrument of socialist reform, can be used for many other purposes. We must centrally direct economic activity if we want to make the distribution of income conform to current ideas of social justice. “Planning”, therefore, is wanted by all those who demand that “production for use” be substituted for production for profit. But such planning is no less indispensable if the distribution of incomes is to be regulated in a way which to us appears to be the opposite of just. Whether we should wish that more of the good things of this world should go to some racial élite, the Nordic men, or the members of a party or an aristocracy, the methods which we shall have to employ are the same as those which could ensure an equalitarian distribution.

65. It may, perhaps, seem unfair to use the term socialism to describe its methods rather than its aims, to use for a particular method a term which for many people stands for an ultimate ideal. It is probably preferable to describe the methods which can be used for a great variety of ends as collectivism and to regard socialism as a species of that genus. Yet, although to most socialists only one species of collectivism will represent true socialism, it must always be remembered that socialism is a species of collectivism and that therefore everything which is true of collectivism as such must apply also to socialism. Nearly all the points which are disputed between socialists and liberals concern the methods common to all forms of collectivism and not the particular ends for for which socialists want to use them; and all the consequences with which we shall be concerned in this book follow from the methods of collectivism irrespective of the ends for which they are used. It must also not be forgotten that socialism is not only by far the most important species of collectivism or “planning”; but that it is socialism which has persuaded liberal-minded people to submit once more to that regimentation of economic life which they had overthrown because, in the words of Adam Smith, it puts governments in a position where “to support themselves they are obliged to be oppressive and tyrannical ”.[3]

66. 如果我们只是约定用“集体主义”这个术语来涵盖所有类型的“计划经济”，却不讨论计划的目标是什么，这种由通用政治术语的模糊性所引发的困难就还没有解决。只有当我们进一步澄清我们所说的计划是为了实现某种给定的分配理想时，这个术语的含义才会变得稍微清楚一些。然而，因为集中经济计划的吸引力在很大程度上恰恰来自于其含义的模糊性，所以，要想揭示其后果，我们就必须先就其含义达成共识。

66. The difficulties caused by the ambiguities of the common political terms are not yet over if we agree to use the term collectivism so as to include all types of “planned economy”, whatever the end of planning. The meaning of this term becomes somewhat more definite if we make it clear that we mean that sort of planning which is necessary to realise any given distributive ideals. But as the idea of central economic planning owes its appeal largely to this very vagueness of its meaning, it is essential that we should agree on its precise sense before we discuss its consequences.

67. “计划”之所以受到推崇，显然，在很大程度上要归功于我们每个人都希望我们能尽可能理性地处理社会生活中的共同问题，同时尽可能多地运用我们的远见。从这个意义上说，只要不是彻头彻尾的宿命论者，人人都是计划者；每一项政治行为都是，或者应该是，某种计划行为；这里，只有好计划坏计划之分，或者只有“明智且有远见”的计划与“愚蠢且短视”的计划之分。一位经济学家的全部任务就是研究人们实际上以及可能如何计划他们的事务，因此，他最不可能反对这种一般意义上的计划。

67. “Planning” owes its popularity largely to the fact that everybody desires, of course, that we should handle our common problems as rationally as possible, and that in so doing we should use as much foresight as we can command. In this sense everybody who is not a complete fatalist is a planner, every political act is (or ought to be) an act of planning, and there can be differences only between good and bad, between wise and foresighted and foolish and short-sighted planning. An economist, whose whole task is the study of how men actually do and how they might plan their affairs, is the last person who could object to planning in this general sense. But it is not in this sense that our enthusiasts for a planned society now employ this term, nor merely in this sense that we must plan if we want the distribution of income or wealth to conform to some particular standard. According to the modern planners, and for their purposes, it is not sufficient to design the most rational permanent framework within which the various activities would be conducted by different persons according to their individual plans. This liberal plan, according to them, is no plan - and it is indeed not a plan designed to satisfy particular views about who should have what. What our planners demand is a central direction of all economic activity according to a single plan, laying down how the resources of society should be “consciously directed” to serve particular ends in a definite way.

[2] 引自杜格尔德·斯图尔特《亚当·斯密传》中的一则引文，该引文出自斯密于1755年所作备忘录。

[3] Quoted in Dugald Stewart’s Memoir of Adam Smith from a memorandum written by Smith in 1755.

然而，当下那些热衷于为社会做计划的人士在使用“计划”一词时，并不是指这种一般意义上的计划；“如果想让收入或财富的分配符合某种特定标准，我们就必须制定计划”这句话中所说的那种计划也不是。按照现代计划者的观点，要想实现其目标，只设计一个最合理的永久性框架，让不同的人在这个框架里依照其个人计划开展各种活动是不够的。在他们看来，这种自由主义的计划根本就不是计划，更算不上是为了满足“谁应该得到什么”的特定观点而制定的计划。计划者要求的，是按照单一计划集中管理所有经济活动，规定社会资源应该如何被“有意识地引导”且以明确的方式服务于特定的目标。

68. 因此，现代计划者与其反对者之间的争论，并不在于我们是否应该从各种可能的社会运作方式之间做出明智的选择，也不在于我们是否应该运用远见和系统性思维来计划我们的共同事务。他们争论的焦点在于，做这些事的最佳方式究竟是什么。他们要回答问题是，为了做好这些事情，究竟哪一种做法更好？是赞同让掌握强制权力的人总体上只负责“创造条件”，使个体充分发挥其知识和主动性，从而最成功地制定计划？还是赞同这样一种观点，即：要想合理利用资源，就必须依据某种刻意构建的“蓝图”，对我们的所有活动实行集中管理与规划？各党派中的社会主义者在用到“计划”一词时，实际上指的是后者；而且，这种用法现在已经被人们普遍接受了。这似乎暗示着，在处理我们的事务时，计划是唯一理性的方式，然而，这一点显然没有得到证明，而这依然是计划者与自由主义者之间的分歧所在。

68. The dispute between the modern planners and their opponents is, therefore, not a dispute on whether we ought to choose intelligently between the various possible organisations of society; it is not a dispute on whether we ought to employ foresight and systematic thinking in planning our common affairs. It is a dispute about what is the best way of so doing. The question is whether for this purpose it is better that the holder of coercive power should confine himself in general to creating conditions under which the knowledge and initiative of individuals is given the best scope so that they can plan most successfully; or whether a rational utilisation of our resources requires central direction and organisation of all our activities according to some consciously constructed “blueprint”. The socialists of all parties have appropriated the term planning for planning of the latter type and it is now generally accepted in this sense. But though this is meant to suggest that this is the only rational way of handling our affairs, it does not of course prove this. It remains the point on which the planners and the liberals disagree.

69. 重要的是，我们不应将反对这种类型的计划与教条式的“自由放任”态度混为一谈。自由主义的主张是尽可能充分地发挥竞争的作用，并将其作为协调人类活动的手段，而不是主张放任自流。该主张建立在这样一种信念之上：在可以创造有效竞争的地方，与任何其他方式相比，竞争都是引导个体活动的更好方式。它不否认，甚至会强调，为了让竞争发挥有益的作用，需要一个精心设计的法律框架，而无论是现在还是过去，法律规则都并非没有严重缺陷；它也不否认，在无法创造必要条件使竞争有效的情况下，我们必须诉诸其他方式管理经济活动。然而，经济自由主义反对用低劣的协调个体活动的手段取代竞争。它认为，竞争之所以更具优势，不仅因为它在大多数情况下是已知最有效的手段，更因为它是唯一一种能让我们可以在没有当权者强制和任意干预的情况下彼此协调各自活动的方法。事实上，支持竞争的一个主要理由是，它既免除了对“有意识的社会控制”的需要，又赋予了每个人机会，去权衡从事某一职业的美好前景能否弥补其劣势和风险，并做出自己的选择。

69. It is important not to confuse opposition against this kind of planning with a dogmatic laissez-faire attitude. The liberal argument is in favour of making the best possible use of the forces of competition as a means of co-ordinating human efforts, not an argument for leaving things just as they are. It is based on the conviction that where effective competition can be created, it is a better way of guiding individual efforts than any other. It does not deny, but even emphasises, that, in order that competition should work beneficially, a carefully thought-out legal framework is required, and that neither the existing nor the past legal rules are free from grave defects. Nor does it deny that where it is impossible to create the conditions necessary to make competition effective, we must resort to other methods of guiding economic activity. Economic liberalism is opposed, however, to competition being supplanted by inferior methods of co-ordinating individual efforts. And it regards competition as superior not only because it is in most circumstances the most efficient method known, but even more because it is the only method by which our activities can be adjusted to each other without coercive or arbitrary intervention of authority. Indeed, one of the main arguments in favour of competition is that it dispenses with the need for “conscious social control”’ and that it gives the individuals a chance to decide whether the prospects of a particular occupation are sufficient to compensate for the disadvantages and risks connected with it.

70. 竞争，作为安排社会事务的原则，如果运用得当，可以排除某些类型的对经济生活的强制干预，但它也接纳那些在特定情境下能够显著促进竞争发挥作用的干预措施，甚至会要求政府实施某些特定类型的干预。但是，我们有充分理由始终强调“不能做什么”，即明确指出在哪些地方不得使用强制干预措施。首先，市场中的各方都应该可以按照他们能够找到交易伙伴的任何价格自由买卖；只要能够生产得出来或者卖得出去，任何人都应该可以自由生产、出售和购买任何东西。而且，至关重要的

70. The successful use of competition as the principle of social organisation precludes certain types of coercive interference with economic life, but it admits of others which sometimes may very considerably assist its work and even requires certain kinds of government action. But there is good reason why the negative requirements, the points where coercion must not be used, have been particularly stressed. It is necessary in the first instance that the parties in the market should be free to sell and buy at any price at which they can find a partner to the transaction, and that anybody should be free to produce, sell, and buy anything that may be produced or sold at all. And it is essential that the entry into the different trades

should be open to all on equal terms, and that the law should not tolerate any attempts by individuals or groups to restrict this entry by open or concealed force. Any attempt to control prices or quantities of particular commodities deprives competition of its power of bringing about an effective co-ordination of individual efforts, because price changes then cease to register all the relevant changes in circumstances and no longer provide a reliable guide for the individual's actions.

71. 然而，如果只是对某些本来已经获准采用的生产方式进一步加以规制，只要这些规制对所有潜在生产者一视同仁，且不被用作控制价格和产量的间接手段，道理就未必是这样了。尽管所有这类对生产方式的规制都会带来额外成本，即要投入更多资源才能生产既定的产出，但这些措施也许是值得的。禁止使用某些有毒物质，或者要求在使用时采取特殊防范措施；限制工作时间，或者要求提供某些卫生设施等，这些措施与保护竞争完全可以并行不悖。这里唯一的问题是，在特定情况下，干预带来的收益是否大于它们造成的社会成本。保护竞争并非与广泛的社会服务体系不相容，只要这些社会服务的规划方式不是以使竞争在更广泛的其他领域无效的方式设计的。

71. This is not necessarily true, however, of measures merely restricting the allowed methods of production, so long as these restrictions affect all potential producers equally and are not used as an indirect way of controlling prices and quantities. Though all such controls of the methods or production impose extra costs, i.e. make it necessary to use more resources to produce a given output, they may be well worth while. To prohibit the use of certain poisonous substances, or to require special precautions in their use, to limit working hours or to require certain sanitary arrangements, is fully compatible with the preservation of competition. The only question here is whether in the particular instance the advantages gained are greater than the social costs which they impose. Nor is the preservation of competition incompatible with an extensive system of social services - so long as the organisation of these services is not designed in such a way as to make competition ineffective over wide fields.

72. 令人遗憾的是，尽管不难解释，过去人们对竞争体系成功运作"不能做什么"的关注程度，要远远高于其对"需要做什么"的关注程度。要想让竞争体系发挥作用，不仅要充分建立起货币、市场、信息渠道等制度（其中有些是私营企业永远无法充分提供的），而且要建立一个适当的法律体系，一个既能保护竞争，又能让竞争尽可能发挥效益的法律体系。要想让竞争体系发挥作用，法律只承认私有财产和自由契约的原则还远远不够，在很大程度上还

72. It is regrettable, though not difficult to explain, that in the past much less attention has been given to the positive requirements of a successful working of the competitive system than to these negative points. The functioning of competition not only requires adequate organisation of certain institutions like money, markets, and channels of information - some of which can never be adequately provided by private enterprise - but it depends above all on the existence of an appropriate legal system, a legal system designed both to preserve competition and to make it operate sufficient that the law should recognise the as beneficially as possible. It is by no means principle of private property and freedom of contract; much depends on the precise definition of the right of property as applied to different things. The systematic study of the forms of legal institutions which will make the competitive system work efficiently has been sadly neglected; and strong arguments can be advanced that serious shortcomings here, particularly with regard to the law of corporations and of patents, have not only made competition work less effectively than it might have done, but have even led to the destruction of competition in many spheres.

73. 最后，在一些无可争辩的领域，任何法律安排都无法创造出竞争和私有产权体系赖以发挥作用的主要条件，即财产所有者应当从其财产提供的所有有益服务中获益，同时为该财产在使用时对他人造成的所有损失负责。举例来说，在竞争体系中，如果无法将某项服务的享用与支付一定费用挂钩，那么，就不会有人提供这种服务；与此类似，如果某人在使用其财产时对他人造成损失，而受损者无法有效地向该财产的所有者索取赔偿，那么价格体系就会失效。在所有这些情形中，个人经济利益和社会福祉之间出现了分歧；每当这种分歧变得严重时，就需要诉诸竞争之外的手段来提供相应的服务了。不仅在道路上设立路标无法向使用道路的个人收费，就连修建道路，在多数情况下也无法收费；同样，诸如砍伐森林、采用某些耕作方法、工厂烟尘和噪音等造成的有害影响，不可能只落在相关财产所有者，以及那些愿意接受赔偿协议以弥补其所受伤害的人身上。在这种情况下，我们必须找到其他方法来替代价格机制的调节作用。然而，即便在无法创造出使竞争得以正常运作的条件时，我们不得不以权威机构的直接管制替代竞争，这一事实也不能证明：我们应当在竞争能够发挥作用的地方压制竞争。

73. There are, finally, undoubted fields where no legal arrangements can create the main condition on which the usefulness of the system of competition and private property depends: namely, that the owner benefits from all the useful services rendered by his property and suffers for all the damages caused to others by its use. Where, for example, it is impracticable to make the enjoyment of certain services dependent on the payment of a price, competition will not produce the services; and the price system becomes similarly ineffective when the damage caused to others by certain uses of property cannot be effectively charged to the owner of that property. In all these instances there is a divergence between the items which enter into private calculation and those which affect social welfare; and whenever this divergence becomes important some method other than competition may have to be found to supply the services in question. Thus neither the provision of signposts on the roads, nor, in most circumstances, that of the roads themselves, can be paid for by every individual user. Nor can certain harmful effects of deforestation, or of some methods of farming, or of the smoke and noise of factories, be confined to the owner of the property in question or to those who are willing to submit to the damage for an agreed compensation. In such instances we must find some substitute for the regulation by the price mechanism. But the fact that we have to resort to the substitution of direct regulation by authority where the conditions for the proper working of competition cannot be created, does not prove that we should suppress competition where it can be made to function.

74. 实际上，创造条件让竞争尽可能有效，在竞争无法发挥作用的地方做好补充，为社会提供亚当·斯密所说的“对广大社会有极大利益，却无法让任何个人或少数人得到足够回报”的服务，这些任务为政府行为提供了广泛而毋庸置疑的领域。在任何一种制度中，政府不作为都不可能得到合理的辩护。一个有效的竞争体系与其他任何体系一样，都需要一个经过精心设计和持续调整的法律框架。至今，作为竞争体系正常运作最基本的先决条件，防止欺诈（包括利用人们的无知）还是立法活动重大而远未实现的目标。

74. To create conditions in which competition will be as effective as possible, to supplement it where it cannot be made effective, to provide the services which, in the words of Adam Smith, “though they may be in the highest degree advantageous to a great society, are, however, of such a nature, that the profit could never repay the expense to any individual or small number of individuals”, these tasks provide indeed a wide and unquestioned field for state activity. In no system that could be rationally defended would the state just do nothing. An effective competitive system needs an intelligently designed and continuously adjusted legal framework as much as any other. Even the most essential prerequisite of its proper functioning, the prevention of fraud and deception (including exploitation of ignorance) provides a great and by no means yet fully accomplished object of legislative activity.

75. 然而，就在为了使竞争发挥效益而创建恰当的法律框架这项任务尚未取得多大进展时，各国却纷纷转向用另一种与之对立且不可调和的原则取而代之。问题已经不再是如何使竞争发挥作用或者弥补其不足，而是如何彻底取代它。关于这一点，我们一定要非常清楚的是：现代推动计划的社会运动，实质上就是一场反对竞争的运动，是将竞争的一切宿敌召致其下的一面新旗帜。尽管各种利益集团如今为了重新攫取在自由时代被一扫而空的特权而集结在这面旗帜之下，但那些原本倾向自由的人之所以重拾反竞争的立场，完全是因为社会主义者对计划的宣传，正是这些宣传有效地麻痹了他们对扼杀竞争的企图应有的警惕。[4]实际上，将

75. The task of creating a suitable framework for the beneficial working of competition had, however, not yet been carried very far when states everywhere turned from it to that of supplanting competition by a different and irreconcilable principle. The question was no longer one of making competition work and of supplementing it, but of displacing it altogether. It is important to be quite clear about this: the modern movement for planning is a movement against competition as such, a new flag under which all the old enemies of competition have rallied. And although all sorts of interests are now trying to re-establish under this flag privileges which the liberal era swept away, it is socialist propaganda for planning which has restored to respectability among liberal-minded people opposition to competition, and which has effectively lulled the healthy suspicion which any attempt to smother competition used to arouse.[5] What in effect unites the socialists of the Left and the Right is this common hostility to competition and their common desire to replace it by a directed economy. Though the terms capitalism and socialism are still generally used to describe the past and the future forms of society, they conceal rather than elucidate the nature of the transition through which we are passing.

76. 不过，尽管我们观察到的所有变化都趋向于对经济活动进行全面且集中的管理，但这场反竞争的广泛斗争，预示着首先会产生一种在各个方面都更为糟糕的局面，这种局面既不能让计划者满意，也不能让自由主义者满意。它会产生某种工团化或“法团”化的行业运作模式；在这种模式中，竞争或多或少会被压制，而制定计划的权力则留在各行业彼此独立的垄断者手中。这是人们因反对竞争而联合，却在其他事务上难以达成共识时出现的第一个必然结果。这种政策在一个又一个行业中摧毁了竞争，在工团化或“法团”化程度最高的行业中，资本家和工人合谋的垄断行为使得消费者只能任其摆布。尽管在很多领域中，这种局面已经存在了相当长一段时间，并且尽管那些乱哄哄的、且大多出于私利而鼓吹计划的活动，也都是以此为目标的，但它不太可能持续，也无法让人承认它是合理的。实际上，这种由行业垄断者独立制定的计划，将产生与集中计划理论所主张的目标完全相反的结果。一旦进入这个阶段，除了恢复竞争，唯一的选择就是让政府控制垄断，而这种控制若要有效，就必须愈发

76. Yet, though all the changes we are observing tend in the direction of a comprehensive central direction of economic activity, the universal struggle against competition promises to produce in the first instance something in many respects even worse, a state of affairs which can satisfy neither planners nor liberals: a sort of syndicalist or “corporative” organisation of industry, in which competition is more or less suppressed but planning is left in the hands of the independent monopolies of the separate industries. This is the inevitable first result of a situation in which the people are united in their hostility to competition but agree on little else. By destroying competition in industry after industry, this policy puts the consumer at the mercy of the joint monopolist action of capitalists and workers in the best organised industries. Yet, although this is a state of affairs which in wide fields has already existed for some time, and although much of the muddled (and most of the interested) agitation for planning aims at it, it is not a state which is likely to persist or can be rationally justified. Such independent planning by industrial monopolies would, in fact, produce effects opposite to those at which the argument for planning aims. Once this stage is reached the only alternative to a return to competition is the control of the monopolies by the state, a control which, if it is to be made effective,

[5] Of late, it is true, some academic socialists, under the spur of criticism, and animated by the same fear of the extinction of freedom in a centrally planned society, have devised a new kind of “competitive socialism” which they hope will avoid the difficulties and dangers of central planning and combine the abolition of private property with the full retention of individual freedom. Although some discussion of this new kind of socialism has taken place in learned journals, it is hardly likely to recommend itself to practical politicians. If it ever did, it would not be difficult to show (as the author has attempted elsewhere - see Economica, 1940) that these plans rest on a delusion and suffer from an inherent contradiction. It is impossible to assume control over all the productive resources without also deciding for whom and by whom they are to be used. Although, under this so-called competitive socialism, the planning by the central authority would take somewhat more roundabout forms, its effects would not be fundamentally different, and the element of competition would be little more than a sham.

must become progressively more complete and more detailed. It is this stage we are rapidly approaching. When, shortly before the war, one of the weeklies pointed out that “there were many signs that British leaders are growing accustomed to thinking in terms of national development by controlled monopolies”,[7] this was probably a true estimate of the position as it then existed. Since then this process has been greatly accelerated by the war, and its grave defects and dangers will become increasingly obvious as time goes on.

77. The idea of complete centralisation of the direction of economic activity still appalls most people, not only because of the stupendous difficulty of the task, but even more because of the horror inspired by the idea of everything being directed from a single centre. If we are nevertheless rapidly moving towards such a state this is largely because most people still believe that it must be possible to find some Middle Way between “atomistic” competition and central direction. Nothing indeed seems at first more plausible, or is more likely to appeal to reasonable people, than the idea that our goal must be neither the extreme decentralisation of free competition, nor the complete centralisation of a single plan, but some judicious mixture of the two methods. Yet mere common sense proves a treacherous guide in this field. Although competition can bear some admixture of regulation, it cannot be combined with planning to any extent we like without ceasing to operate as an effective guide to production. Nor is “planning” a medicine which, taken in small doses, can produce the effects for which one might hope from its thoroughgoing application. Both competition and central direction become poor and inefficient tools if they are incomplete; they are alternative principles used to solve the same problem, and a mixture of the two means that neither will really work and that the result will be worse than if either system had been consistently relied upon. Or, to express it differently, planning and competition can be combined only by planning for competition, but not by planning against competition.

78. 在本书的论证中，我们所有的批评都只针对反对竞争、替代竞争的计划。对读者来说，铭记这一点极为重要。之所以要强调这一点，是因为我们受篇幅所限，无法讨论那些为了使竞争尽可能有效和有益而进行的、非常必要的计划。然而，由于在当前的用法中，“计划”这个词几乎已经成了前一种计划的同义词，所以，为了简洁起见，我们有时不可避免地要将其简称为“计划”，尽管这意味着我们要将这个本应有着更好命运的好词，拱手让给我们的反对者。

78. It is of the utmost importance to the argument of this book for the reader to keep in mind that the planning against which all our criticism is directed is solely the planning against competition - the planning which is to be substituted for competition. This is the more important as we cannot, within the scope of this book, enter into a discussion of the very necessary planning which is required to make competition as effective and beneficial as possible. But as in current usage “planning” has become almost synonymous with the former kind of planning, it will sometimes be inevitable for the sake of brevity to refer to it simply as planning, even though this means leaving to our opponents a very good word meriting a better fate.

随着文明的形态变得愈加复杂，个人自由必须受到更多限制，而率先提出这一论断的，是我们。

贝尼托·墨索里尼

79. 计划者大多并不满足于只把集中计划说成是值得去做的事，这一现象本身就足以说明一些问题。他们往往会进一步断言，迫于某些我们无法控制的情势，我们别无选择，只能以计划取代竞争。他们还刻意培养出一种谬见，声称走上这条新路并不是我们的主动选择，而是因为竞争正在被技术变革所自然淘汰，而这种技术变革是我们既无法逆转也不应当阻止的。这一论点很少被人充分论证，像许多主张一样，被一个作者从另一个作者那里沿袭下来，如此反复，就被当作既定事实接受了。无论如何，这一论点缺乏依据。朝着垄断和计划发展的趋势，并非源自某种我们无法控制的“客观事实”，而是某些观点的产物；这些观点在过去半个世纪里不断被培植、扩散，最终主导了我们的各种政策。

80. 在证明计划必然性的各种论点中，最常见的是：技术变革导致竞争在越来越多的领域无法开展，而我们唯一能做的，就是在“私营垄断集团对生产的控制”与“政府对生产的指挥”之间作出取舍。这个观点主要来源于马克思主义的“产业集中”理论。如今，在许多圈子中都流传这个理论，不过，与马克思主义的许多其他观点一样，经过第三手甚至第四手转述之后，已经没人知道它的出处了。

Chapter IV: THE “INEVITABILITY” OF PLANNING

We were the first to assert that the more complicated the forms of civilisation, the more restricted the freedom of the individual must become.

Benito Mussolini

79. IT is a revealing fact that few planners are content to say that central planning is desirable. Most of them affirm that we can no longer choose but are compelled by circumstances beyond our control to substitute planning for competition. The myth is deliberately cultivated that we are embarking on the new course not out of free will but because competition is spontaneously eliminated by technological changes which we neither can reverse nor should wish to prevent. This argument is rarely developed at any length - it is one of the assertions taken over by one writer from another till, by mere iteration, it has come to be accepted as an established fact. It is, nevertheless, devoid of foundation. The tendency towards monopoly and planning is not the result of any “objective facts” beyond our control, but the product of opinions fostered and propagated for half a century till they have come to dominate all our policy.

80. Of the various arguments employed to demonstrate the inevitability of planning, the one most frequently heard is that technological changes have made competition impossible in a constantly increasing number of fields, and that the only choice left to us is between control of production by private monopolies and direction by the government. This belief derives mainly from the Marxist doctrine of the “concentration of industry”, although, like so many Marxist ideas, it is now found in many circles who have received it at third or fourth hand and do not know whence it derives.

81. 在过去五十年里，垄断逐步增加，竞争所主导的领域不断受到限制。虽然其程度往往被夸大，但这个历史事实当然是无可争辩的。[1]重要的是，这一发展究竟是技术进步的必然结果，还是只源于多数国家所推行的政策？我们接下来将看到，历史发展的真实进程有力地证明，答案是后者。不过，我们必须先讨论一下，现代技术的发展在多大程度上导致了垄断在广泛领域中的必然增长。

81. The historical fact of the progressive growth of monopoly during the last fifty years and the increasing restriction of the field in which competition rules is, of course, not disputed - although the extent of the phenomenon is often greatly exaggerated.[2] The important question is whether this development is a necessary consequence of the advance of technology, or whether it is simply the result of the policies pursued in most countries. We shall presently see that the actual history of this development strongly suggests the latter. But we must first consider in how far modern technological developments are of such a kind as to make the growth of monopolies in wide fields inevitable.

82. 据称，大公司凭借现代化大规模生产方式的高效率所形成的对小公司的优势，是导致垄断增加的技术性因素。有人断言，在大多数产业中，现代化生产方式能够创造条件，让大企业在提高产量的同时实现单位成本递减，其结果是，大企业在各地都能通过低价竞标将小企业赶出市场。这个过程不断重复，直到每个产业都只剩下一家或最多不过几家巨型企业为止。该论点只强调了技术进步在某些情况下带来的一种效应，却忽视了与之完全相反的其他效应，而且几乎无法从对事实的严肃研究中得到支持。由于无法在这里展开详细讨论，我们只能采信我们能够获得的最好证据。美国“临时国民经济委员会”对经济权力集中问题的研究是近年来在这个问题上最为全面的实证研究。该委员会撰写了一份显然没有过度自由主义偏见的最终报告，其结论是：那种认为大规模生产的高效率导致竞争消失的观点，“在目前所能获得的任何证据中几乎都找不到支持”。[3] 为该委

83. The alleged technological cause of the growth of monopoly is the superiority of the large firm over the small, due to the greater efficiency of modern methods of mass production. Modern methods, it is asserted, have created conditions in the majority of industries where the production of the large firm can be increased at decreasing costs per unit, with the result that the large firms are everywhere underbidding and driving out the small ones; this process must go on till in each industry only one or at most a few giant firms are left. This argument singles out one effect sometimes accompanying technological progress; it disregards others which work in the opposite direction; and it receives little support from a serious study of the facts. We cannot here investigate this question in detail and must be content to accept the best evidence available. The most comprehensive study of the facts undertaken in recent times is that of the American “Temporary National Economic Committee” on the Concentration of Economic Power. The final report of this Committee (which certainly cannot be accused of an undue liberal bias) arrives at the conclusion that the view according to which the greater efficiency of large-scale production is the cause of the disappearance

84. 大型企业的效率优势并未得到证实；在许多领域，那些被认为足以消灭竞争的优势并未出现。即使存在规模经济，也不必然导致垄断……在供应的主要部分受到垄断控制之前，效率似乎早已达到理想水平。认为大规模生产的优势必然导致竞争消失的结论是不可接受的。此外，需要指出的是，垄断往往是其他因素造成的，而不是“更大规模带来的更低成本”的结果。垄断以合谋协议形成，受公共政策推动。当协议失效、政策逆转时，竞争环境即可恢复。[5]

84. 如果对我们英国的情况也做一番这样的研究将会得出非常相似的结果。那些雄心勃勃的垄断者为了巩固其对产业控制，往往频繁寻求并屡屡获得政府权力的协助，凡是看到这种情形的人几乎都会确信不疑：垄断的发展绝非必然。

85. 竞争的衰落和垄断的兴起在不同国家历史上出现的先后顺序有力地支持了上述结论。如果说它们是技术发展的结果， 或者是“资本主

of competition “finds scant support in any evidence that is now at hand”.[4] And the detailed monograph on the question which was prepared for the Committee sums up the answer in this statement:

83. The superior efficiency of large establishments has not been demonstrated; the advantages that are supposed to destroy competition have failed to manifest themselves in many fields. Nor do the economies of size, where they exist, invariably necessitate monopoly. ... The size or the sizes of the optimum efficiency may be reached long before the major part of a supply is subjected to such control. The conclusions that the advantage of large-scale production must lead inevitably to the abolition of competition cannot be accepted. It should be noted, moreover, that monopoly is frequently the product of factors other than the lower costs of greater size. It is attained through collusive agreement and promoted by public policies. When these agreements are invalidated and when these policies are reversed, competitive conditions can be restored.[6]

84. An investigation of conditions in this country would lead to very similar results. Anyone who has observed how aspiring monopolists regularly seek and frequently obtain the assistance of the power of the state to make their control effective can have little doubt that there is nothing inevitable about this development.

85. This conclusion is strongly supported by the historical order in which the decline of competition and the growth of monopoly manifested themselves in different countries. If they were the result of technological developments or a necessary product of the evolution of “capitalism”, we should expect them to appear first in the countries with the most advanced economic system. In fact they appeared first during the last third of the nineteenth century in what were then comparatively young industrial countries, the United States and Germany. In the latter country especially, which came to be regarded as the model country typifying the necessary evolution of capitalism, the growth of cartels and syndicates has since 1878 been systematically fostered by deliberate policy. Not only the instrument of protection, but direct inducements and ultimately compulsion, were used by the governments to further the creation of monopolies for the regulation of prices and sales. It was here that, with the help of the state, the first great experiment in “scientific planning” and “conscious organisation of industry” led to the creation of giant monopolies, which were represented as inevitable growths fifty years before the same was done in Great Britain. It is largely due to the influence of German socialist theoreticians, particularly Sombart, generalising from the experience of their country, that the inevitable development of the competitive system into “monopoly capitalism” became widely accepted. That in the United States a highly protectionist policy made a somewhat similar development possible, seemed to confirm this generalisation. The development of Germany, however, more than that of the United States, came to be regarded as representative of a universal tendency ; and it became a common-place to speak - to quote a widely read political essay of recent date - of “Germany where all the social and political forces of modern civilisation have reached their most advanced form”.[8]

86. 只要看看英国1931年以前的情况，以及此后开始推行全面保护政策之后的发展，我们就会明白：在这一切当中，必然性的作用其实微乎其微，而更多的是主动政策造成的结果。就

86. How little there was of inevitability in all this, and how much is the result of deliberate policy, becomes clear when we consider the position in this country till 1931 and the development since that year in which Great Britain also embarked upon a policy of general protection. It is only a dozen years since, except for a few industries which had obtained protection earlier, British industry was on the whole as competitive as, perhaps, at any time in its history. And, although during the 1920's it suffered severely from incompatible policies followed with regard to wages and to money, at least the years till 1929 compare with regard to employment and general activity not unfavourably with the 1930's. It is only since the transition to protection and the general change in British economic policy accompanying it, that the growth of monopolies has proceeded at an amazing rate and has transformed British industry to an extent the public has scarcely yet realised. To argue that this development has anything to do with the technological progress during this period, that technological necessities which in Germany operated in the 1880's and 1890's, made themselves felt here in the 1930's, is not much less absurd than the claim, implied in the statement of Mussolini (quoted at the head of this chapter) that Italy had to abolish individual freedom before other European people because its civilisation had marched so far in advance of the rest!

87. 有人主张，舆论和政策的变化仅仅是顺应了无可阻挡的现实变化。就英国而言，这一主张似乎具有某种表面上的真实性，究其原因，不过是因为在思想发展方面，英国一直在远远地追随其他国家罢了。有人可能会据此提出这样的观点：尽管公众舆论仍然倾向于支持竞争，但发生在其它国家的事情却挫败了他们的愿望，让垄断性的行业组织兀自发展起来。然而，我们只需看看这种变化的发源地德国，就能很清楚地看到理论与实践之间的真实关系。在德国，压抑竞争本身就是一项刻意而为的政策；它服务于我们现在称之为"计划"的理想。在逐步迈向完全计划型社会的过程中，德国人以及所有以他们为榜样的人，只不过是遵循了十九世纪思想家，尤其是德国思想家为他们设

87. In so far as this country is concerned, the thesis that the change in opinion and policy merely follows an inexorable change in the facts can be given a certain appearance of truth, just because England has followed at a distance the intellectual developments elsewhere. It could thus be argued that monopolistic organisation of industry grew up in spite of the fact that public opinion still favoured competition, but that outside events frustrated their wishes. The true relation between theory and practice becomes, however, clear as soon as we look to the prototype of this development, Germany. That there the suppression of competition was a matter of deliberate policy, that it was undertaken in the service of the ideal which we now call planning, there can be no doubt. In the progressive advance towards a completely planned society the Germans, and all the people who are imitating their example, are merely following the course which nineteenth-century thinkers,

88. 现代技术进步使计划成为必然的主张，还可以有另一种解读。它或许意味着，现代工业文明的复杂性提出了新问题，除了集中计划，我们无法寄希望于用任何其他手段有效解决这些问题。从某种意义上说，这种解读并不错，但在其主张的广泛意义上，它并不成立。比如，众所周知，就像由空间上的近邻关系造成的许多其他问题一样，现代城市的许多问题并不能用竞争机制加以充分解决。然而，当人们援引现代文明的复杂性作为支持中央计划的论据时，他们脑子里想到的并不是像“公用事业”这样的问题。他们通常暗示的是：由于全面了解完整的经济运行过程越来越难了，要想避免社会生活在混乱中陷入崩溃，就必须由某个集中计划机构来协调各种事务。

88. The assertion that modern technological progress makes planning inevitable can also be interpreted in a different manner. It may mean that the complexity of our modern industrial civilisation creates new problems with which we cannot hope to deal effectively except by central planning. In a sense this is true - yet not in the wide sense in which it is claimed. It is, for example, a commonplace that many of the problems created by a modern town, like many other problems caused by close contiguity in space, are not adequately solved by competition. But it is not these problems, like those of the “public utilities”, etc., which are uppermost in the minds of those who invoke the complexity of modern civilisation as an argument for central planning. What they generally suggest is that the increasing difficulty of obtaining a coherent picture of the complete economic process makes it indispensable that things should be co-ordinated by some central agency if social life is not to dissolve in chaos.

89. 这一论点建立在对竞争运作机制的彻底误解之上。竞争远非只适用于相对简单的情形；正因为现代条件下劳动分工极度复杂，竞争才成了实现这种协调的唯一方法。假如情况简单到某一个人或某一个委员会就可以有效掌握与计划相关的全部事实，实现有效的控制或计划就不会有什么困难。正是当需要考虑的要素多到无法全面掌握时，去中心化才变得极为重要。然而，一旦去中心化成为必要，协调的问题就会随之出现，这里的协调是指彼此独立的行为主体可以根据只有他们自己才了解的事实自由地调整其活动，进而实现各方计划的相互调整。去中心化之所以成为必要，是因为没有任何人能够有意识地平衡对众多个体决策构成

89. This argument is based on a complete misapprehension of the working of competition. Far from being appropriate only to comparatively simple conditions, it is the very complexity of the division of labour under modern conditions which makes competition the only method by which such co-ordination can be adequately brought about. There would be no difficulty about efficient control or planning were conditions so simple that a single person or board could effectively survey all the relevant facts. It is only as the factors which have to be taken into account become so numerous that it is impossible to gain a synoptic view of them, that decentralisation becomes imperative. But once decentralisation is necessary, the problem of co-ordination arises, a co-ordination which leaves the separate agencies free to adjust their activities to the facts which only they can know, and yet brings about a mutual adjustment of their respective plans. As decentralisation has become necessary because nobody can consciously balance all the considerations bearing on the decisions of so many individuals, the co-ordination can clearly not be effected by “conscious control”, but only by arrangements which convey to each agent the information he must possess in order effectively to adjust his decisions to those of others. And because all the details of the changes constantly affecting the conditions of demand and supply of the different commodities can never be fully known, or quickly enough be collected and disseminated, by any one centre, what is required is some apparatus of registration which automatically records all the relevant effects of individual actions, and whose indications are at the same time the resultant of, and the guide for, all the individual decisions.

90. 这正是价格体系在竞争条件下所做的事情，任何其他体系甚至都未能声称做到这一点。价格体系可以让企业家仅靠观察为数不多的几种价格变动，就能调整自己的行为以应对同行的活动，就像工程师查看几个仪表的指针一样。重要的是，只有在竞争普遍存在的情况下，也就是说，只有在个体生产者必须适应，却无法操纵价格变化的情况下，价格体系才能实现这种功能。整体越复杂，我们就越依赖个体之间的知识分散性，个体的活动通过一种非人格化的机制得以协调，而这种机制正是我们所熟知的、用于传递相关信息的价格体系。

90. This is precisely what the price system does under competition, and which no other system even promises to accomplish. It enables entrepreneurs, by watching the movement of comparatively few prices, as an engineer watches the hands of a few dials, to adjust their activities to those of their fellows. The important point here is that the price system will fulfil this function only if competition prevails, that is, if the individual producer has to adapt himself to price changes and cannot control them. The more complicated the whole, the more dependent we become on that division of knowledge between individuals whose separate efforts are co-ordinated by the impersonal mechanism for transmitting the relevant information known by us as the price system.

91. 可以毫不夸张地说，如果我们的工业体系只是靠有意识的集中计划发展起来的话，它就绝不可能在差异化、复杂性和灵活性等方面达到今天的程度。与通过去中心化和自动协调的方法来解决经济问题的方式相比，集中管理的方式虽然更为直观，却显得令人难以置信地笨拙、原始，且适用范围有限。劳动分工之所以能发展到足以支撑起现代文明的程度，不是因为有谁刻意创造了它，而是因为人们在无意间

91. It is no exaggeration to say that if we had had to rely on conscious central planning for the growth of our industrial system, it would never have reached the degree of differentiation, complexity, and flexibility it has attained. Compared with this method of solving the economic problem by means of decentralisation plus automatic co-ordination, the more obvious method of central direction is incredibly clumsy, primitive, and limited in scope. That the division of labour has reached the extent which makes modern civilisation possible we owe to the fact that it did not have to be consciously

92. 还有一种将垄断的发展与技术进步联系在一起的理论，其观点与上述讨论几乎相反。尽管这一理论往往表述得不够清晰，但它依然产生了相当大的影响。它并不主张现代技术消灭了竞争；相反，它主张，除非授权垄断，采取保护政策抵御竞争，否则许多新的技术潜能将无法得到利用。带有批判眼光的读者或许会这样质疑这个理论：如果那些能够满足我们需求的新技术真的很好，它就应该能够经得起竞争的考验。但这个浅显的质疑并没有论及这个理论所涉及的所有情况，实际上，这类理论未必全是用来骗人的。毫无疑问，在许多情况下，它不过是某些利益相关方为自己的垄断立场所做的特殊辩解；甚至在更多情况下，它或许只是人们将“局部工程视角下的卓越技术实践”与“整个社会视角下值得追求的事”混为一谈的结果。

93. 实际上，的确存在着一类情形，在这类情形中，上述理论在某种程度上是成立的。比方说，我们至少可以设想：如果能让英国境内的每个人都必须使用同一种型号的汽车，那么英国汽车工业生产出的汽车或许能比美国的更便宜、更好；又或者，如果能强迫每个人都只使用电能，那么全面使用电力的成本，或许能比使用煤炭或煤气更低。在这类情形中，至少存在这样一种可能性，那就是如果我们能有选择的话，我们或许都能过得更好，并且更倾向于 created, but that man tumbled on a method by which the division of labour could be extended far beyond the limits within which it could have been planned. Any further growth of its complexity, therefore, far from making central direction more necessary, makes it more important than ever that we should use a technique which does not depend on conscious control.

92. There is yet another theory which connects the growth of monopolies with technological progress, and which uses arguments almost opposite to those we have just considered; though not often clearly stated, it has also exercised considerable influence. It contends, not that modern technique destroys competition, but that, on the contrary, it will be impossible to make use of many of the new technological possibilities unless protection against competition is granted, i.e., a monopoly is conferred. This type of argument is not necessarily fraudulent, as the critical reader will perhaps suspect: the obvious answer, that if a new technique for satisfying our wants is really better, it ought to be able to stand up against all competition, does not dispose of all instances to which this argument refers. No doubt in many cases it is used merely as a form of special pleading by interested parties. Even more often it is probably based on a confusion between technical excellence from a narrow engineering point of view and desirability from the point of view of society as a whole.

93. There remains, however, a group of instances where the argument has some force. It is, for example, at least conceivable that the British automobile industry might be able to supply a car cheaper and better than cars used to be in the United States if everyone in this country were made to use the same kind of car; or that the use of electricity for all purposes could be made cheaper than coal or gas if everybody could be made to use only electricity. In instances like these it is at least possible that we might all be better off, and should prefer the new situation if we had the choice - but that no individual ever gets the choice, because the alternative is that either we should all use the same cheap car (or all should use only electricity), or that we should have the choice between these things with each of them at a much higher price. I do not know whether this is true in either of the instances given. But it must be admitted that it is possible that by compulsory standardisation or the prohibition of variety beyond a certain degree, abundance might be increased in some fields more than sufficiently to compensate for the restriction of the choice of the consumer. It is even conceivable that a new invention may be made some day whose adoption would seem unquestionably beneficial, but which could be used only if many or all people were made to avail themselves of it at the same time.

94. 无论具有多么重大或持久的意义，这类情形都绝不能成为“技术进步使集中计划称为必然”的合理依据。这类情形只是让我们选择：要么在被迫状态下得到某种好处，要么就得不到这种好处；或者，在大多数情况下，要等到技术进一步发展、克服了某些困难之后，到晚些时候才能得到它。诚然，在这样需要等待的情况下，作为追求自由的代价，我们或许不得不牺牲眼前的利益；但从另一个角度看，我们却也因此避免了将我们未来的发展寄托在某些人当下掌握的知识上。牺牲眼前利益，我们得以保留推动未来进步的重要动力。从短期看，我们为了多样性和自由选择的权利所付出的代价有时可能很高，但从长远看，甚至物质进步本身都将取决于这种多样性，因为我们永远无法预测，在提供商品或服务的众多形式中，哪一种形式最终会孕育出更好的结果。当然，我们也不能断言：以牺牲一部分额外的物质享受为代价去捍卫自由，就一定能保证在任何情形下都能得到回报。但支持自由的理由，恰恰在于我们应当为自由不可预见的发展留出空间。因此，即便基于我们当下的认知，以为强制性措施似乎只会带来好处，甚至在某些情况下它实

94. Whether such instances are of any great or lasting importance, they are certainly not instances where it could be legitimately claimed that technical progress makes central direction inevitable. They would merely make it necessary to choose between gaining a particular advantage by compulsion and not obtaining it - or, in most instances, obtaining it a little later, when further technical advance has overcome the particular difficulties. It is true that in such situations we may have to sacrifice a possible immediate gain as the price of our freedom - but we avoid, on the other hand, the necessity of making future developments dependent upon the knowledge which particular people now possess. By sacrificing such possible present advantages we preserve an important stimulus to further progress. Though in the short run the price we have to pay for variety and freedom of choice may sometimes be high, in the long run even material progress will depend on this very variety, because we can never predict from which of the many forms in which a good or service can be provided something better may develop. It cannot, of course, be asserted that the preservation of freedom at the expense of some addition to our present material comfort will be thus rewarded in all instances. But the argument for freedom is precisely that we ought to leave room for the unforeseeable free growth. It applies, therefore, no less when, on the basis of our present knowledge, compulsion would seem to bring only advantages, and although in a particular instance it may actually do no harm.

95. 当下人们谈论起技术进步时，总是把它说成一种外在于我们的力量，仿佛这种力量会迫使我们以某种特定的方式利用新知。诚然，发明创造给了我们巨大的力量，但让我们用这种力量去摧毁我们最宝贵的遗产：自由，那将是荒谬的。不过，它也确实意味着，如果我们想要保护自由，我们必须比以往任何时候都更加警惕，并且做好为它付出牺牲的准备。现代技术的发展并不会迫使我们走向全面经济计划，但其中确实有许多因素会让政府计划部门所拥有的权力变得无比危险。

95. In much of the current discussion on the effects of technological progress this progress is presented to us as if it were something outside us which could compel us to use the new knowledge in a particular way. While it is true, of course, that inventions have given us tremendous power, it is absurd to suggest that we must use this power to destroy our most precious inheritance: liberty. It does mean, however, that if we want to preserve it, we must guard it more jealously than ever and that we must be prepared to make sacrifices for it. While there is nothing in modern technological developments which forces us towards comprehensive economic planning, there is a great deal in them which makes infinitely more dangerous the power a planning-authority would possess.

96. 因此，毋庸置疑，走向计划的社会运动是人们主动采取的行动所带来的后果，而非外在的必然性所迫。然而，值得探究的是：为什么在核心计划者中能看到那么多技术专家？解释这一现象，需要联系到一个重要的、且值得对计划者持批评态度的人牢记的事实：如果只将专家的某一个技术理想当做人类的唯一目标，那么几乎任何一个这样的理想都有可能在相对比较短的时间内实现。然而，我们渴望实现而且能够实现的、美好的共同目标在数量上是无限的，而我们穷极一生能够实现的，不过是为数不多的几个而已，有些甚至只能不太完美地实现。这会使技术专家在自己的专业领域中雄心受挫，进而激发他与现有秩序展开对抗。眼看着人人都认为值得一做且可能做成的事情被搁置，我们都会感到于心不忍。至于美好目标不可能同时实现，以及实现一个目标可能要牺牲另一个目标的道理，我们只能在考虑到专业领域之外的因素时才能看清楚，也只能经过痛苦的思考才能领悟。而让这种思考更为痛苦的

96. While there can thus be little doubt that the movement towards planning is the result of deliberate action and that there are no external necessities which force us to it, it is worth enquiring why so large a proportion of the technical experts should be found in the front rank of the planners. The explanation of this phenomenon is closely connected with an important fact which the critics of the planners should always keep in mind: that there is little question that almost every one of the technical ideals of our experts could be realised within a comparatively short time if to achieve them were made the sole aim of humanity. There is an infinite number of good things, which we all agree are highly desirable as well as possible, but of which we cannot hope to achieve more than a few within our lifetime, or which we can hope to achieve only very imperfectly. It is the frustration of his ambitions in his own field which makes the specialist revolt against the existing order. We all find it difficult to bear to see things left undone which everybody must admit are both desirable and possible. That these things cannot all be done at the same time, that any one of them can be achieved only at the sacrifice of others, can be seen only by taking into account factors which fall outside any specialism, which can be appreciated only by a painful intellectual effort - the more painful as it forces us to see against a wider background the objects to which most of our labours are directed, and to balance them against others which lie outside our immediate interest and for which, for that reason, we care less.

97. 在计划型社会中，只要对众多目标中的某一个加以单独考虑，这个目标就有可能实现；正是这一点，让那些相信自己能将对某个特定目标的重视传达给社会决策者的人变成了热衷于计划的人。他们当中有些人的愿望无疑能够实现，因为计划型社会肯定会比目前的社会更有利于推进某些目标。在我们所知道的计划型或半计划型社会中，确实发生了许多美好的事情，那些国家的人民将这些成就完全归功于计划；如果我们否认这一点，那将是愚蠢的。德国和意大利壮观的高速公路系统就是一个经常被引用的例子，尽管它们并不代表一种在自由社会中无法以同样方式实现的计划。但是，用这些特殊领域的卓越技术实践来证明计划的普遍优越性同样是愚蠢的。更准确地说，这种不适用于普遍情况的极端卓越技术实践，恰恰是资源错配的证据。在那些著名的德国高速公路上开过车的人都会发现，德国高速公路的车流量还不如英国的二级公路，凡是观察到这一点的人都会确信，就和平目的而言，建造这些公路并不合理。至于计划者这样做是不是意味着选择了“枪炮”而不是“黄油”，那是另外一个问题，[9]但是，依我们的标准，这样的狂热几乎是没有理由的。

97. Every one of the many aims which, considered in isolation, it would be possible to achieve in a planned society, creates enthusiasts for planning who feel confident that they will be able to instil into the directors of such a society their sense of the value of the particular objective; and the hopes of some of them would undoubtedly be fulfilled, since a planned society would certainly further some objectives more than is the case at present. It would be foolish to deny that the instances of planned or semi-planned societies which we know do furnish illustrations in point, good things which the people of these countries owe entirely to planning. The magnificent motor roads in Germany and Italy are an instance often quoted - even though they do not represent a kind of planning not equally possible in a liberal society. But it is equally foolish to quote such instances of technical excellence in particular fields as evidence of the general superiority of planning. It would be more correct to say that such extreme technical excellence out of line with general conditions is evidence of a misdirection of resources. Anyone who has driven along the famous German motor roads and found the amount of traffic on them less than on many a secondary road in England, can have little doubt that, so far as peace purposes are concerned, there was little justification for them. Whether it was not a case where the planners decided in favour of “guns” instead of “butter” is another matter.[10] But by our standards there is little ground for enthusiasm.

[9] 我刚刚要做些修订，就传来了消息，德国高速公路的维护工作已经暂停了！

“枪炮“与”黄油”（“guns“ and ”butter”）是经济学中常用的概念，象征政府在军事开支（枪炮）与民生福祉（黄油）之间的选择和权衡。高速公路作为战略设施，可以被看作是政府选择“枪炮”而非“黄油”的一个例证。-译注

[10] But as I am correcting this the news comes that maintenance work on the German motor roads has been suspended!

98. 做专家的人会有一种幻觉，在计划型社会中，他能为他最关心的目标争取更多关注；在不是专家的“专家”中，这种幻觉其实更为普遍。就个人偏爱和关心的事情而言，我们每个人多多少少都是专家。我们都认为我们对什么重要什么不重要的价值排序不止是我们个人的偏好；我们以为只要是与理性的人进行自由讨论，就能说服对方，让他们相信我们的排序才是正确的。乡村爱好者最希望保留村庄的传统面貌，想要消除工业发展在其美丽面孔上留下的污点；关注身体健康的人最希望拆掉每一栋风景如画却不符合卫生标准的老房子；爱好驾驶的人希望这个国家到处都有宽阔的公路；追求效率的人希望专业化和机械化极大发展；热衷于个人发展的理想主义者则希望尽可能多保留一些独立的手工艺人。所有这些人都知道，他们的目标唯有通过计划才能完全实现，他们也都因为这个原因对计划趋之若鹜。但可以肯定的是，采纳他们所强烈要求的这种社会计划，只会让他们各自的目标之间隐藏的冲突暴露出来。

98. The illusion of the specialist that in a planned society he would secure more attention to the objectives for which he cares most is a more general phenomenon than the term of specialist atfirst suggests. In our predilections and interests we are all in some measure specialists. And we all think that our personal order of values is not merely personal, but that in a free discussion among rational people we would convince the others that ours is the right one. The lover of the country-side who wants above all that its traditional appearance should be preserved and that the blots already made by industry on its fair face should be removed, no less than the health enthusiast who wants all the picturesque but insanitary old cottages cleared away, or the motorist who wishes the country cut up by big motor roads, the efficiency fanatic who desires the maximum of specialisation and mechanisation no less than the idealist who for the development of personality wants to preserve as many independent craftsmen as possible, all know that their aim can be fully achieved only by planning - and they all want planning for that reason. But, of course, the adoption of the social planning for which they clamour can only bring out the concealed conflict between their aims.

99. 如今，为实现计划而开展的社会运动之所以拥有如此强大的力量，很大程度上要归功于这样一个事实：当计划还只是一种雄心壮志时，它团结了几乎所有执着于单一目标的理想主义者和所有愿意为了一个事业奉献一生的男男女女。只是他们寄托在计划上的希望并非缘于他们对社会的全面看法，而是缘于非常狭隘的观点，以及对他们最重视的目标的重要性的过分夸大。这并不是说，我们要低估这一类人在像我们这样的自由社会中所能做出的巨大贡献，而其贡献也让他们有理由受人敬佩。但是，如果允许这些最热衷于为社会做计划的人去实施计划，他们将成为最危险的人，并且最不能容忍他人的计划。从一位圣洁且执着于单

99. The movement for planning owes its present strength largely to the fact that, while planning is in the main still an ambition, it unites almost all the single-minded idealists, all the men and women who have devoted their lives to a single task. The hopes they place in planning, however, are not the result of a comprehensive view of society, but rather of a very limited view, and often the result of a great exaggeration of the importance of the ends they place foremost. This is not to underrate the great pragmatic value of this type of men in a free society like ours, which makes them the subject of just admiration. But it would make the very men who are most anxious to plan society the most dangerous if they were allowed to do so - and the most intolerant of the planning of others. From the saintly and single-minded idealist to the fanatic is often but a step. Though it is the resentment of the frustrated specialist which gives the demand for planning its strongest impetus, there could hardly be a more unbearable - and more irrational - world than one in which the most eminent specialists in each field were allowed to proceed unchecked with the realisation of their ideals. Nor can “co-ordination”, as some planners seem to imagine, become a new specialism. The economist is the last to claim that he has the knowledge which the co-ordinator would need. His plea is for a method which effects such co-ordination without the need for an omniscient dictator. But that means precisely the retention of some such impersonal and often unintelligible checks on individual efforts as those against which all specialists chafe.

如果政治人物总是想着去指导别人如何运用私有资产，那他不仅是让自己操了最无必要的心，更是僭取了一种绝不能放心地托付给元老院或枢密院的权力；这种权力一旦落入愚蠢、自负且自以为有资格行使它的人手里，其危险更是无以复加。

亚当·斯密

100. 一切集体主义制度的共同特征，可以用各流派社会主义者都极为喜爱的一句话来概括：为达致某一明确的社会目标而对社会劳动加以人为规划。一直以来，社会主义批评家的主要抱怨之一，就是当下社会缺乏这种旨在实现某一“单一目标”的“自觉”导向，社会活动都被不负责任的个体的异想天开和一时冲动所左右了。

102. 这种抱怨从许多方面清楚地揭示了问题的本质。它一下子就让我们看到了个体自由与集体主义之间产生冲突的关键所在。各种形式的集体主义，比如共产主义、法西斯主义等，它们彼此之间的区别在于其动员社会力量所要实现的目标各有不同；而它们与自由主义及个人主义之间的区别，则在于它们都主张为了实现这种一元化的“单一目标”而对整个社会及其全部资源加以规划，并拒绝承认任何允许个体目标被奉为至高无上的自主领域。简而言之，我们采用“极权主义”这个新词，正是用来描述那些虽出人意料、却与我们在理论上称之为“集体主义”的东西不可分割的种种表现；从这个新词的真正意义上看，这些集体主义实际上都是极权主义。

Chapter V: PLANNING AND DEMOCRACY

The statesman who should attempt to direct private people in what manner they ought to employ their capitals, would not only load himself with a most unnecessary attention, but assume an authority which could safely be trusted to no council and senate whatever, and which would nowhere be so dangerous as in the hands of a man who had folly and presumption enough to fancy himself fit to exercise it.

Adam Smith

101. THE common features of all collectivist systems may be described, in a phrase ever dear to socialists of all schools, as the deliberate organisation of the labours of society for a definite social goal. That our present society lacks such “conscious” direction towards a single aim, that its activities are guided by the whims and fancies of irresponsible individuals, has always been one of the main complaints of its socialist critics.

101. In many ways this puts the basic issue very clearly. And it directs us at once to the point where the conflict arises between individual freedom and collectivism. The various kinds of collectivism, communism, fascism, etc., differ between themselves in the nature of the goal towards which they want to direct the efforts of society. But they all differ from liberalism and individualism in wanting to organise the whole of society and all its resources for this unitary end, and in refusing to recognise autonomous spheres in which the ends of the individuals are supreme. In short, they are totalitarian in the true sense of this new word which we have adopted to describe the unexpected but nevertheless inseparable manifestations of what in theory we call collectivism.

102. 对社会进行规划所要实现的“社会目标”或“共同目标”通常被含糊地描述为“共同利益”、“整体福祉”或者“普遍利益”。无需太多思考就可能发现，这些术语并没有什么明确的含义，也不足以用来制定具体的行动方针。千百万人的福祉和幸福无法单凭一个“少”和“多”的尺度来衡量。与个人的幸福一样，一个民族的福祉也取决于许多要素，这些要素可以有无穷无尽的变化组合。我们无法用一种“单一目标”来充分表达这样的福祉，它只能被表达为一种关于目标的等级体系，一种每个人的每个需求都在其中占有一席之地的综合价值尺度。用单一计划来指导我们的一切行动，就等于事先假定了我们的每一种需求都在某种价值排序中被安排了各自的等级；这种价值排序必须非常完备，只有这样，在面对所有必须做出抉择的不同路线时，计划者才有可能做出取舍。简单地说，它预先假定了一套完备的道德规范的存在，在这套规范中，人类各种不同的价值关切全部被安排了应有的位置。

102. The “social goal”, or “common purpose”, for which society is to be organised, is usually vaguely described as the “common good”, or the “general welfare”, or the “general interest”. It does not need much reflection to see that these terms have no sufficiently definite meaning to determine a particular course of action. The welfare and the happiness of millions cannot be measured on a single scale of less and more. The welfare of a people, like the happiness of a man, depends on a great many things that can be provided in an infinite variety of combinations. It cannot be adequately expressed as a single end, but only as a hierarchy of ends, a comprehensive scale of values in which every need of every person is given its place. To direct all our activities according to a single plan presupposes that every one of our needs is given its rank in an order of values which must be complete enough to make it possible to decide between all the different courses between which the planner has to choose. It presupposes, in short, the existence of a complete ethical code in which all the different human values are allotted their due place.

103. 一套完备的道德规范，这个概念对我们来说是陌生的。要想理解它究竟意味着什么，需要我们发挥一些想象力。我们并不习惯于将道德规范看做是一套或多或少相对完备的东西。实际上，我们常常在没有那种明确的、社会的规范的指引下，在不同的价值关切之间作出选择。这并没有让我们感到惊讶，也没有让我们觉得我们的道德规范是不完备的。在这样的情形下应该怎样行事，在我们的社会中，人们既没有机会，也没有理由达成共识。然而，一旦所有资源都归社会所有，且要以社会的名义、按照一元化的单一计划使用时，关于“应该怎样行事”的各种决策就必须由一套“社会的”观点来指引了。在这样的世界里，我们很快就会发现，我们的道德规范充满了漏洞。

103. The conception of a complete ethical code is unfamiliar and it requires some effort of imagination to see what it involves. We are not in the habit of thinking of moral codes as more or less complete. The fact that we are constantly choosing between different values without a social code prescribing how we ought to choose, does not surprise us, and does not suggest to us that our moral code is incomplete. In our society there is neither occasion nor reason why people should develop common views about what should be done in such situations. But where all the means to be used are the property of society, and are to be used in the name of society according to a unitary plan, a “social” view about what ought to be done must guide all decisions. In such a world we should soon find that our moral code is full of gaps.

104. 我们无意在此讨论是否应该建立一套如此完备的道德规范。我们只需指出一个事实，那就是迄今为止，伴随文明的发展，个体行为受成规约束的范围正在稳步缩小。构成我们共同道德规范的规则越来越少，其性质也越来越宽泛。原始人的日常活动几乎完全被复杂的仪轨和无数禁忌所束缚，很难想象以不同于他人的方式行事。从那时起，人类的道德规范越来越倾向于只限定个体可以在其中随心所欲地行事的范围。而采用一套足以用来制定单一经济计划的道德准则，则意味着对这一文明趋势的彻底逆转。

104. We are not concerned here with the question whether it would be desirable to have such a complete ethical code. It may merely be pointed out that up to the present the growth of civilisation has been accompanied by a steady diminution of the sphere in which individual actions are bound by fixed rules. The rules of which our common moral code consists have progressively become fewer and more general in character. From the primitive man who was bound by an elaborate ritual in almost every one of his daily activities, who was limited by innumerable taboos, and who could scarcely conceive of doing things in a way different from his fellows, morals have more and more tended to become merely limits circumscribing the sphere within which the individual could behave as he liked. The adoption of a common ethical code comprehensive enough to determine a unitary economic plan would mean a complete reversal of this tendency.

105. 重要的是，对我们而言，这种完备的道德规范并不存在。试图按照单一计划指导一切经济活动的做法，将会引发无数只能用道德规范才能回答的问题，而我们现有的道德对这些问题却没有答案，人们对于“应该做什么”这个问题也并不存在一致看法。对于这类问题，人们要么没有明确的看法，要么只有彼此矛盾的看法，因为在我们所生活的自由社会中，人们从未有机会去思考这些问题，更不用说形成共同意见了。

106. The essential point for us is that no such complete ethical code exists. The attempt to direct all economic activity according to a single plan would raise innumerable questions to which the answer could be provided only by a moral rule, but to which existing morals have no answer and where there exists no agreed view on what ought to be done. People will have either no definite views or conflicting views on such questions, because in the free society in which we have lived there has been no occasion to think about them and still less to form common opinions about them.

107. 我们不具备这样一个包罗万象的价值尺度，不仅如此，任何一个头脑都无法兼顾来自不同人群的、彼此争夺资源且无限多样的需求，更无法给每个需求赋予明确的权重。就我们所讨论的问题而言，一个人想要实现的目标究竟是只涉及他自己的需求，还是也包含与他亲近的、甚至相对疏远的人的需求，这都不重要；或者说，这个人是一般意义上的利己主义

106. Not only do we not possess such an all-inclusive scale of values: it would be impossible for any mind to comprehend the infinite variety of different needs of different people which compete for the available resources and to attach a definite weight to each. For our problem it is of minor importance whether the ends for which any person cares comprehend only his own individual needs, or whether they include the needs of his closer or even those of his more distant fellows that is, whether he is egoistic or altruistic in the ordinary senses of these words. The point which is so important is the basic fact that it is impossible for any man to survey more than a limited field, to be aware of the urgency of more than a limited number of needs. Whether his interests centre round his own physical needs, or whether he takes a warm interest in the welfare of every human being he knows, the ends about which he can be concerned will always be only an infinitesimal fraction of the needs of all men.

107. 这个基本事实正是整个个人主义哲学的基础。它并不像人们通常所做的那样，先假定人是，或者应该是利己的或自私的。它的出发点不过是一个无可争辩的事实，即我们想象力的局限性决定了我们的价值尺度所衡量的范围不可能超出整个社会全部需求的一小部分；并且从严格意义上说，价值尺度只能存在于个体的头脑中，它们只以局部的价值尺度存在，必然彼此不同，甚至常常相互矛盾。由此，个人主义者得出结论：个体应当被允许在明确界定的范围内按照自己而非他人的价值观和偏好行事；在这样的范围内，个体的目标体系应当至高无上且不受他人支配。正是这种对“个体是其目标的最终裁决者”的承认，以及对“个体应该尽可能按照自己的观点主导自己行为”的信念，构成了个人主义立场的核心。

108. 上述观点当然并不排除对社会目标的承认，或者更确切地说，它并不否认个体目标之间存在某种交集；正是这种交集，让人们意识到为了追求共同目标而合作是明智的。然而，它也因此将此类共同行动限制在人们各自的目标存在交集的情形之下；它所谓的“社会目标”，不过是众多个体共有的目标而已，或者说，是个体为了换取他人帮助自己实现愿望而自愿为之做出贡献的目标。因此，共同行动只会在人们就共同目标达成一致的领域发生。这

107. This is the fundamental fact on which the whole philosophy of individualism is based. It does not assume, as is often asserted, that man is egoistic or selfish, or ought to be. It merely starts from the indisputable fact that the limits of our powers of imagination make it impossible to include in our scale of values more than a sector of the needs of the whole society, and that, since, strictly speaking, scales of value can exist only in individual minds, nothing but partial scales of values exist, scales which are inevitably different and often inconsistent with each other. From this the individualist concludes that the individuals should be allowed, within defined limits, to follow their own values and preferences rather than somebody else's, that within these spheres the individual's system of ends should be supreme and not subject to any dictation by others. It is this recognition of the individual as the ultimate judge of his ends, the belief that as far as possible his own views ought to govern his actions, that forms the essence of the individualist position.

108. This view does not, of course, exclude the recognition of social ends, or rather of a coincidence of individual ends which makes it advisable for men to combine for their pursuit. But it limits such common action to the instances where individual views coincide; what are called "social ends" are for it merely identical ends of many individuals - or ends to the achievement of which individuals are willing to contribute in return for the assistance they receive in the satisfaction of their own desires. Common action is thus limited to the fields where people agree on common ends. Very frequently these common ends will not be ultimate ends to the individuals, but means which different persons can use for different purposes. In fact, people are most likely to agree on common action where the common end is not an ultimate end to them, but a means capable of serving a great variety of purposes.

109. 当个体为了实现共同目标而合作时，他们为之设立的组织，比如政府，就会被赋予该组织的目标体系和手段。然而，如此设立的任何组织，仍然只是社会中众多“个体”中的一个。以政府为例，尽管它比任何其他组织都强大很多，但它实际上也只能在其独立且有限的领域里将自己的目标奉为至高无上的目标。该领域的边界取决于个体就特定目标达成一致的程度；目标所涉及的行动范围越大，他们就某一特定行动方案达成一致的可能性就越小。公民可能会一致同意政府执行某些职能，也可能会以多数赞成的方式同意政府执行另一些职能，依此类推，直到进入某些领域，在这些领域里，虽然每个人都希望政府以某种方式采取行动，但就政府究竟应该做什么这个问题，有多少不同的人就几乎有多少不同的看法。

109. When individuals combine in a joint effort to realise ends they have in common, the organisations, like the state, that they form for this purpose, are given their own system of ends and their own means. But any organisation thus formed remains one “person” among others, in the case of the state much more powerful than any of the others, it is true, yet still with its separate and limited sphere in which alone its ends are supreme. The limits of this sphere are determined by the extent to which the individuals agree on particular ends; and the probability that they will agree on a particular course of action necessarily decreases as the scope of such action extends. There are certain functions of the state on the exercise of which there will be practical unanimity among its citizens; there will be others on which there will be agreement of a substantial majority; and so on, till we come to fields where, although each individual might wish the state to act in some way, there will be almost as many views about what the government should do as there are different people.

110. 只有当政府行为被限定在人们存在共识的领域之内时，我们才能依靠自愿达成的共识来指挥它。在缺乏共识的领域，如果政府实施直接控制，就必然会压制个体自由。不仅如此，我们还不无遗憾地无法在无限扩大共同行动范围的同时，让个体在其自身领域内保持自由。一旦由政府控制所有资源的公共部门在整体上超过了一定比例，其行为的影响就会支配整个体系。即使由政府直接控制使用的资源只占全部可用资源的较大一部分，其决策对经济体系其余部分的影响也可以大到让它几乎可以间接控制一切的地步。比如，早在1928年，德国中央和地方政府直接控制了一半以上国民收入的

110. We can rely on voluntary agreement to guide the action of the state only so long as it is confined to spheres where agreement exists. But not only when the state undertakes direct control in fields where there is no such agreement is it bound to suppress individual freedom. We can unfortunately not indefinitely extend the sphere of common action and still leave the individual free in his own sphere. Once the communal sector, in which the state controls all the means, exceeds a certain proportion of the whole, the effects of its actions dominate the whole system. Although the state controls directly the use of only a large part of the available resources, the effects of its decisions on the remaining part of the economic system become so great that indirectly it controls almost everything. Where, as was, for example, true in

使用（当时官方估计为53%），从而间接掌控了这个国家几乎整个经济生活。在这种情况下，几乎没有任何个体的目标可以在不依靠政府行为的情况下实现；而指导政府行为的“社会价值尺度”也就必然囊括几乎所有个体的目标。

Germany as early as 1928, the central and local authorities directly control the use of more than half the national income (according to an official German estimate then, 53 per cent.) they control indirectly almost the whole economic life of the nation. There is, then, scarcely an individual end which is not dependent for its achievement on the action of the state, and the “social scale of values” which guides the state’s action must embrace practically all individual ends.

111. 当民主政体踏上计划之路，而在执行过程中，计划所要求的共识又远超实际存在的共识时，其必然后果不难预见。人民或许已经同意要采取指令型经济制度，因为他们被说服以为这种制度将带来巨大的繁荣。在形成这一决定的讨论中，“共同福祉”之类的词汇常常会被用来描述计划的目标。然而，这类描述不过是掩盖了人民对计划的目标缺乏真正共识这一事实。实际上，他们只是同意了要采用什么机制。然而，它是一种只能用于实现共同目标的机制；而一旦行政权力机构必须将人民对单一计划的要求转化为具体方案时，就会出现一个问题：一切行动的确切目标到底是什么？到那时，人们会发现，他们在计划的可取性上所达成的共识缺乏支撑，他们在计划所要服务的目标上并没有达成共识。如果人们都同意集中计划是必须的，却对其目标缺乏共识，那就好比一群人说好要结伴出行，却没有商量好目的地是哪里，结果他们可能会踏上一段大多数人根本不想去的旅程。计划会造成这样一种局面，即我们需要达成共识的议题比以前多很多；而在计划体系中，我们却无法只在有共识的事情上采取集体行动，相反，为了能够采取行动，我们被迫要在每一件事情上制造共识。这构成了计划体系的一个重要特征，并且比绝大多数其他特征更深刻地决定了计划体系的性质。

111. It is not difficult to see what must be the consequences when democracy embarks upon a course of planning which in its execution requires more agreement than in fact exists. The people may have agreed on adopting a system of directed economy because they have been convinced that it will produce great prosperity. In the discussions leading to the decision, the goal of planning will have been described by some such term as “common welfare” which only conceals the absence of real agreement on the ends of planning. Agreement will in fact exist only on the mechanism to be used. But it is a mechanism which can be used only for a common end; and the question of the precise goal towards which all activity is to be directed will arise as soon as the executive power has to translate the demand for a single plan into a particular plan. Then it will appear that the agreement on the desirability of planning is not supported by agreement on the ends the plan is to serve. The effect of the people agreeing that there must be central planning, without agreeing on the ends, will be rather as if a group of people were to commit themselves to take a journey together without agreeing where they want to go: with the result that they may all have to make a journey which most of them do not want at all. That planning creates a situation in which it is necessary for us to agree on a much larger number of topics than we have been used to, and that in a planned system we cannot confine collective action to the tasks on which we can agree, but are forced to produce agreement on everything in order that any action can be taken at all, is one of the features which contribute more than most to determining the character of a planned system.

112. 要求议会制定一份全面经济计划或许是全体人民一致表达的意愿，但这并不意味着人民或其代表们能够就任何一份具体计划达成共识。民主议会无力完成这项看似明确的人民委托，必然会引发人民对民主制度的不满。议会逐渐被视为低效的“空谈俱乐部”，无法或无力完成人民选择它们并交给他们的任务。人们愈发相信，要想实现有效的计划，就必须将指挥权“从政治中剥离”，交到专业人士、常任官员或独立的自治机构手中。

112. It may have been the unanimously expressed will of the people that parliament should prepare a comprehensive economic plan, yet neither the people nor its representatives need therefore be able to agree on any particular plan. The inability of democratic assemblies to carry out what seems to be a clear mandate of the people will inevitably cause dissatisfaction with democratic institutions. Parliaments come to be regarded as ineffective “talking shops”, unable or incompetent to carry out the tasks for which they have been chosen. The conviction grows that if efficient planning is to be done, the direction must be “taken out of politics” and placed in the hands of experts, permanent officials or independent autonomous bodies.

113. 社会主义者非常熟悉这种困境，早在近半个世纪以前，韦伯夫妇就开始抱怨“下议院应付其工作的能力日益不足”了。[1]最近，拉斯基教授进一步阐述了这一观点：

113. The difficulty is well known to socialists. It will soon be half a century since the Webbs began to complain of “the increased incapacity of the House of Commons to cope with its work”.[2] More recently, Professor Laski has elaborated the argument:

114. 目前的议会机制非常不适合迅速通过大量复杂的立法任务，这已是共识。事实上，国民政府[3]已经实质上承认了这一点，其经济和关税政策并未通过下议院的详细辩论，而是通过一套大规模的授权立法制度推行的。工党政府上台后将会借鉴这一先例，并在该先例上更进一步，将下议院的职能限制在其所能胜任的两项工作上：一个是传达公众不满，另一个是讨论其政策的一般性原则。它的法案将采取一般性条款的形式，授予相关政府部门广泛的权力；这些权力将通过“枢密院令”的形式行使，如果下议院认为必要，可以通过不信任动议对其发起挑战。最近，多诺莫尔委

114. It is common ground that the present parliamentary machine is quite unsuited to pass rapidly a great body of complicated legislation. The National Government, indeed, has in substance admitted this by implementing its economy and tariff measures not by detailed debate in the House of Commons but by a wholesale system of delegated legislation. A Labour Government would, I presume, build upon the amplitude of this precedent. It would confine the House of Commons to the two functions it can properly perform: the ventilation of grievances and the discussion of general principles of its measures. Its Bills would take the form of general formule conferring wide powers on the appropriate government departments; and those powers would be exercised by Order in Council which could, if desired, be attacked in the House by means of a vote of no confidence. The necessity and value of delegated legislation has recently been strongly reafhrmed by the Donoughmore Committee; and its extension is inevitable if the process of socialisation is not to be wrecked by the normal methods of obstruction which existing parliamentary procedure sanctions.

115. 为了明确指出社会主义政府绝不能让自己过多地受制于民主程序，拉斯基教授在同一篇文章的结尾提出了这样一个问题：“在向社会主义过渡时期，工党政府能否冒险让其政策在下次大选中被推翻呢？”他意味深长地未作回答。[4]

115. And to make it quite clear that a socialist government must not allow itself to be too much fettered by democratic procedure, Professor Laski at the end of the same article raised the question “whether in a period of transition to Socialism, a Labour Government can risk the overthrow of its measures as a result of the next general election” - and left it significantly unanswered.[5]

116. 在管理一国经济事务的细节方面，人人都承认议会效率低下，但重要的是要清楚地认识到其中的原因。这既不是个别议员的过错，也不是议会机构本身的问题。问题在于在他们所承担的任务中所蕴含的内在矛盾。他们被要求在全面管理国家资源的一切问题上制造出共识，而不是在有共识的事情上采取行动。然而，少数服从多数的决策制度并不适合这种任务。在有限的选项之间做选择时，或许能形成多数意见；但认为在每一件事上都必须存在多

116. It is important clearly to see the causes of this admitted ineffectiveness of parliaments when it comes to a detailed administration of the economic affairs of a nation. The fault is neither with the individual representatives nor with parliamentary institutions as such, but with the contradictions inherent in the task with which they are charged. They are not asked to act where they can agree, but to produce agreement on everything - the whole direction of the resources of the nation. For such a task the system of majority decision is, however, not suited. Majorities will be found where it is a choice between limited alternatives; but it is a

In a book (Democracy in Crisis, 1933, particularly p. 87) in which Professor Laski later elaborated these ideas, his determination that parliamentary democracy must not be allowed to form an obstacle to the realisation of socialism is even more plainly expressed: not only would a socialist government “take vast powers and legislate under them by ordinance and decree” and “suspend the classic formulæ of normal opposition”, but the “continuance of parliamentary government would depend on its [i.e. the Labour Government’s] possession of guarantees from the Conservative Party that its work of transformation would not be disrupted by repeal in the event of its defeat at the polls ”!
As Professor Laski invokes the authority of the Donoughmore Committee it may be worth recalling that Professor Laski was a member of that committee and presumably one of the authors of its report.

数意见，那就是一种迷信了。当潜在的积极行动方案多如牛毛时，没有理由要求每一个方案都以少数服从多数的原则来决定。或许，立法会的每一位议员都认为只要能制定出某种指导经济事务的具体计划总比没有计划强；然而，可能没有任何一个具体计划，能让多数人认为是比完全没有计划更可取的。 superstition to believe that there must be a majority view on everything. There is no reason why there should be a majority in favour of any one of the different possible courses of positive action if their number is legion. Every member of the legislative assembly might prefer some particular plan for the direction of economic activity to no plan, yet no one plan may appear preferable to a majority to no plan at all.

117. 同样，将一个完整的计划拆分成若干部分，然后就个别问题投票决定，这样做也无法制定出连贯一致的计划。让民主议会像审议普通法案那样逐条表决和修改全面经济计划，这种做法本身就是荒谬的。一个名副其实的经济计划必须具备一个一元化的构想。即使议会能循序渐进地就某些方案达成一致，最终的结果也必然无法让任何人满意。一套复杂的、各组成部分都要彼此细致协调的整体计划，不可能通过在相互冲突的观点之间找到妥协的方式制定出来。用这种方式制定一项经济计划甚至比用民主程序策划一场军事行动还更加不可能。与制定战争策略一样，最终必然要将任务授权给专业人士。

117. Nor can a coherent plan be achieved by breaking it up into parts and voting on particular issues. A democratic assembly voting and amending a comprehensive economic plan clause by clause, as it deliberates on an ordinary bill, makes nonsense. An economic plan, to deserve the name, must have a unitary conception. Even if parliament could, proceeding step by step, agree on some scheme, it would certainly in the end satisfy nobody. A complex whole where all the parts must be most carefully adjusted to each other, cannot be achieved through a compromise between conflicting views. To draw up an economic plan in this fashion is even less possible than, for example, successfully to plan a military campaign by democratic procedure. As in strategy it would become inevitable to delegate the task to the experts.

118. 然而，二者的不同之处在于，受命指挥一场战役的将军，其目标是单一的；在战役期间，他掌握的一切资源都必须只为这个目标服务。然而，对经济的计划者来说，他既不可能有这种单一目标，他掌握的资源也不可能受到类似的约束。对那位将军而言，他只有一个最高目标，无需权衡不同的、各自独立的目标。而经济计划的目标，或者目标的任何一个部分，都无法脱离具体计划来定义。经济问题的本质在于：只要制定经济计划，就意味着在彼此冲突或相互竞争的不同目标之间，或者说，是在不同人的不同需求之间做出选择。然而，哪些目标是冲突的？为了实现某些目标，必须

118. Yet the difference is that, while the general who is put in charge of a campaign is given a single end to which, for the duration of the campaign, all the means under his control have to be exclusively devoted, there can be no such single goal given to the economic planner, and no similar limitation of the means imposed upon him. The general has not got to balance different independent aims against each other; there is for him only one supreme goal. But the ends of an economic plan, or of any part of it, cannot be defined apart from the particular plan. It is the essence of the economic problem that the making of an economic plan involves the choice between conflicting or competing ends - different needs of different people. But which ends do so conflict, which will have to be sacrificed if we want to achieve certain others, in short, which are the alternatives between which we must choose, can only be known to those who know all the facts; and only they, the experts, are in a position to decide which of the different ends are to be given preference. It is inevitable that they should impose their scale of preferences on the community for which they plan.

119. 人们并不总是能够清楚地认识到这一点，而所谓授权，也常常因为被授权的工作具有技术特点而被合理化。但这并不意味着被授权出去的只是技术细节，甚至也不意味着议会无法理解技术细节是问题的根源。[6]民法结构的修订同样具有技术性，理解其全部含义也同样很难；然而，没有人会建议将这类立法授权给一个由专业人士组成的机构。事实上，在这些领域，立法并未超越一般规则的范畴，尚可达成真正的多数共识；但在管理经济活动方面，需要调节的利益之间存在的分歧是如此巨大，以至于几乎无法在民主议会中达成真正的共识。

119. This is not always clearly recognised and delegation is usually justified by the technical character of the task. But this does not mean that only the technical detail is delegated, or even that the inability of parliaments to understand the technical detail is the root of the difficulty.[7] Alterations in the structure of civil law are no less technical and no more difficult to appreciate in all their implications; yet nobody has yet seriously suggested that legislation there should be delegated to a body of experts. The fact is that in these fields legislation does not go beyond general rules on which true majority agreement can be achieved, while in the direction of economic activity the interests to be reconciled are so divergent that no true agreement is likely to be reached in a democratic assembly.

[7] It is instructive in this connection briefly to refer to the Government document in which in recent years these problems have been discussed. As long as thirteen years ago, that is before this country finally abandoned economic liberalism, the process of delegating legislative powers had already been carried to a point where it was felt necessary to appoint a committee to investigate “what safeguards are desirable or necessary to secure the sovereignty of Law”. In its report the “Donoughmore Committee” (Report of the [Lord Chancellor’s] Committee on Ministers’ Powers, Cmd. 4060, 1932) showed that even at that date Parliament had resorted “to the practice of wholesale and indiscriminate delegation” but regarded this (it was before we had really glanced into the totalitarian abyss!) as an inevitably and relatively innocuous development. And it is probably true that delegation as such need not be a danger to freedom. The interesting point is why delegation had become necessary on such a scale. First place among the causes enumerated in the report is given to the fact that “Parliament nowadays passes so many laws every year” and that “much of the detail is so technical as to be unsuitable for Parliamentary discussion”. But if this were all there would be no reason why the detail should not be worked out before rather than after Parliament passes a law. What is probably in many cases a much more important reason why, “if Parliament were not willing to delegate law-making power, Parliament would be unable to pass the kind and quantity of legislation which public opinion requires” is innocently revealed in the little sentence that “many of the laws affect people’s lives so closely that elasticity is essential”! What does this mean if not conferment of arbitrary power, power limited by no fixed principles and which in the opinion of Parliament cannot be limited by definite and unambiguous rules?

120. 然而，我们应当认识到，真正应该反对的并非授权法权本身。只反对授权本身，无异于将病症当作病因来反对；而且，由于这种病症本身可能只是由其他原因所导致的必然结果，反对它，反而会削弱论证的力量。只要地方政府被授予的权力仍然限于制定一般性规则，那么就可能存在非常充分的理由让地方而非中央政府来制定这些规则。真正应该反对的，是经常性地借助授权去处理那些无法通过一般规则规范、只能依靠自由裁量权处理的具体情况。在这种情况下，所谓授权，实际上意味着赋予某些当权者以权力，使其能够以法律的名义做出实质上属于专断的决定，即人们常说的“按个案具体情况酌情裁决”。

120. It should be recognised, however, that it is not the delegation of law-making power as such, which is so objectionable. To oppose delegation as such is to oppose a symptom instead of the cause and, as it may be a necessary result of other causes, to weaken the case. So long as the power that is delegated is merely the power to make general rules, there may be very good reasons why such rules should be laid down by local rather than by the central authority. The objectionable feature is that delegation is so often resorted to because the matter in hand cannot be regulated by general rules but only by the exercise of discretion in the decision of particular cases. In these instances delegation means that some authority is given power to make with the force of law what to all intents and purposes are arbitrary decisions (usually described as “judging the case on its merits”).

121. 将某些具体的技术性任务授权给独立机构，尽管是一种常规做法，但对于一个走上计划道路的民主政体来说，这不过是它逐步放弃权力的第一步。作为一种权宜之计，对于那些主张实施全面计划经济的人来说，授权并不能真正消除他们因民主的无能而产生的不耐烦。将某些具体权力授权给各自独立的机构，又给实施一套各方协调的单一计划制造了新障碍。即便通过这种权宜之计，民主国家成功地为经济活动的各个部分都制定了计划，它仍然要面临如何将这些各自独立的计划整合成一个一元化整体的问题。多个彼此独立的计划并不能构成一个完整的计划。实际上，计划者应该最先承认，有这些计划可能比没有计划还糟糕。然而，民主政体的立法机构总是在真正重大的问题上犹豫不决，迟迟不愿交出其决策权，只要它仍然如此，其他任何人都不可能制定出一份全面的计划。一方面，人们普遍认为计划是必要的，另一方面，民主议会却无力制定出这样的计划，这就会引发越来越强烈的呼吁，要求赋予政府或某个个人以自行负责、独立行事的

121. The delegation of particular technical tasks to separate bodies, while a regular feature, is yet only the first step in the process whereby a democracy which embarks on planning progressively relinquishes its powers. The expedient of delegation cannot really remove the causes which make all the advocates of comprehensive planning so impatient with the impotence of democracy. The delegation of particular powers to separate agencies creates a new obstacle to the achievement of a single co-ordinated plan. Even if, by this expedient, a democracy should succeed in planning every sector of economic activity, it would still have to face the problem of integrating these separate plans into a unitary whole. Many separate plans do not make a planned whole - in fact, as the planners ought to be the first to admit - they may be worse than no plan. But the democratic legislature will long hesitate to relinquish the decisions on really vital issues, and so long as it does so it makes it impossible for anyone else to provide the comprehensive plan. Yet agreement that planning is necessary, together with the inability of democratic assemblies to produce a plan, will evoke stronger and stronger demands that the government or some single individual should be given powers to act on their own responsibility. The belief is becoming more and more widespread that, if things are to get done, the responsible authorities must be freed from the fetters of democratic procedure.

122. 在走向计划的运动中，呼唤经济独裁者的出现是一个典型阶段，这在我们英国并不令人感到陌生。几年前，一位在研究英国问题方面颇有深刻见解的外国人、已故学者埃利·阿莱维就曾指出："如果将政治观点迥异的保守主义者尤斯塔斯·珀西勋爵、法西斯主义者奥斯瓦尔德·莫斯利爵士和社会主义者斯塔福德·克里普斯爵士的形象合成在一张照片里，我相信你会发现这张照片有一个主题，那就是他们会赞同：'我们正生活在经济混乱之中，除非在某种独裁式领导之下，否则我们无法摆脱这种局面。'"[8]从那以后，许多颇具影响力的公众人物又加入了这张照片，而它的主题却不曾有过实质性的改变。

122. The cry for an economic dictator is a characteristic stage in the movement towards planning, not unfamiliar in this country. It is now several years since one of the most acute of foreign students of England, the late Elie Halévy, suggested that "if you take a composite photograph of Lord Eustace Percy, Sir Oswald Mosley, and Sir Stafford Cripps, I think you would find this common feature - you would find them all agreeing to say: 'We are living in economic chaos and we cannot get out of it except under some kind of dictatorial leadership'."[9] The number of influential public men whose inclusion would not materially alter the features of the "composite photograph" has since grown considerably.

123. 在德国，甚至早在希特勒上台之前，这场运动就已经走得很远了。重要的是我们应该记住：在1933年之前的一段时间里，德国实际上已经进入了不得不以独裁方式加以统治的阶段。那时，没有人会怀疑，民主已经崩溃了，像布吕宁这样真诚的民主主义者的治理方式，也已经不比施莱谢尔或冯·帕平的专制统治更民主了。希特勒并不需要去亲手推翻民主，他只是利用了民主的衰败，并且在关键时刻赢得了许多人的支持。这些人虽然厌恶他，却仍然认为他是唯一一个有足够力量把事情办成的人。

123. In Germany, even before Hitler came into power, the movement had already progressed much further. It is important to remember that for some time before 1933 Germany had reached a stage in which it had, in effect, had to be governed dictatorially. Nobody could then doubt that for the time being democracy had broken down, and that sincere democrats like Brüning were no more able to govern democratically than Schleicher or von Papen. Hitler did not have to destroy democracy; he merely took advantage of the decay of democracy and at the critical moment obtained the support of many to whom, though they detested Hitler, he yet seemed the only man strong enough to get things done.

124. 计划者常常试图用这样一个论点来让我们接受这种发展：只要民主仍然保有最终控制权，其本质就不会受到影响。卡尔·曼海姆曾经这样写道:

125. 计划型社会与十九世纪社会之间的唯一（原文如此）区别在于，越来越多的社会生活领域，最终乃至所有领域，都将受到政府的控制。然而，既然议会主权[10]能够约束少数几项控制手段，那么它就同样可以约束大多数……在民主国家，在不放弃民主控制的前提下，议会主权可以通过授出“全权”而得到无限加强。[11]

126. 这种观点忽略了一个至关重要的区别。对于议会能够给出明确方向、目标早已达成共识，且只需被授权方落实细节的任务，议会当然能够对其执行加以控制。可是，如果授权的原因是在目标上没有达成真正共识、如果负责制定计划的机构不得不在连议会都不了解其内在冲突的目标之间做出选择、如果这个机构所能做的最多不过是向议会提交一份必须作为一个整体接受或拒绝的计划，那么，情形就完全不一样了。提交给议会的计划也许会，甚至很可能会遭到批评，但是因为备选计划不能得到大多数议员的赞同，被批评的部分又几乎总能被包装为整个计划不可或缺的组成部分，所以批评最终也是徒劳的。议会辩论，或许可以作为一个有用的安全阀得以保留，甚至还可以作为一种方便的媒介，用来传达官方对各种抱怨的回应；它也许还可以用来防止一些过于露骨的舞弊行为，或者在推动某些局部改进上偶有

124. The argument by which the planners usually try to reconcile us with this development is that so long as democracy retains ultimate control, the essentials of democracy are not affected. Thus Karl Mannheim writes:

125. The only [sic] way in which a planned society differs from that of the nineteenth century is that more and more spheres of social life, and ultimately each and all of them, are subjected to state control. But if a few controls can be held in check by parliamentary sovereignty, so can many.... in a democratic state sovereignty can be boundlessly strengthened by plenary powers without renouncing democratic control.[12]

126. This belief overlooks a vital distinction. Parliament can, of course, control the execution of tasks where it can give definite directions, where it has first agreed on the aim and merely delegates the working out of the detail. The situation is entirely different when the reason for the delegation is that there is no real agreement on the ends, when the body charged with the planning has to choose between ends of whose conflict parliament is not even aware, and when the most that can be done is to present to it a plan which has to be accepted or rejected as a whole. There may and probably will be criticism; but as no majority can agree on an alternative plan, and the parts objected to can almost always be represented as essential parts of the whole, it will remain quite ineffective. Parliamentary discussion may be retained as a useful safety-valve, and even more as a convenient medium through which the official answers to complaints are disseminated. It may even prevent some flagrant abuses and successfully insist on particular shortcomings being remedied. But it cannot direct. It will at best be reduced to choosing the persons who are to have practically absolute power. The whole system will tend towards that plebiscitarian dictatorship in which the head of the government is from time to time confirmed in his position by popular vote, but where he has all the powers at his command to make certain that the vote will go in the direction he desires.

127. 民主的代价在于：有意识地施行控制的可能性被限制在那些存在真正共识的领域，而在另一些领域，则必须听任事情自行发展。然而，在依靠集中计划运作的社会中，是否施行有意识的控制，则不能取决于多数人是否能够达成共识；少数人的意志常常必须被强加于人民，因为这样一群少数人是能够在相关议题上达成共识的最大群体。民主政府之所以能够成功运作，其原因在于且只在于，其职能被人们普遍接受的信条限制在多数人可以通过自由讨论并达成共识的领域。自由主义信条的伟大贡献在于，它将需要达成共识的议题范围缩减到在自由人的社会里人们有可能存在共识的范围。如今人们常说，民主制度将无法容忍“资本主义”。如果这里的“资本主义”指的是一种以“人们可以自由处置其私有财产”为基础的竞争制度，那么我们更应该认识到：只有在这个制度中，民主才是可能的。一旦民主受到集体主义信条支配，它必将走向自我毁灭。

127. It is the price of democracy that the possibilities of conscious control are restricted to the fields where true agreement exists, and that in some fields things must be left to chance. But in a society which for its functioning depends on central planning, this control cannot be made dependent on a majority being able to agree; it will often be necessary that the will of a small minority be imposed upon the people, because this minority will be the largest group able to agree among themselves on the question at issue. Democratic government has worked successfully where, and so long as, the functions of government were, by a widely accepted creed, restricted to fields where agreement among a majority could be achieved by free discussion; and it is the great merit of the liberal creed that it reduced the range of subjects on which agreement was necessary to one on which it was likely to exist in a society of free men. It is now often said that democracy will not tolerate “capitalism”. If “capitalism” means here a competitive system based on free disposal over private property, it is far more important to realise that only within this system is democracy possible. When it becomes dominated by a collectivist creed, democracy will inevitably destroy itself.

128. 不过，我们也无意将民主奉为圭臬。很可能存在这样一个事实，那就是我们这一代人对民主讨论和思考得太多，而对它所服务的那些价值却讨论和思考得太少。我们不能像阿克顿勋爵谈论自由那样谈论民主。他曾说自由“不是一种实现更高政治目标的手段。它本身就是最高的政治目标。我们之所以需要它，不是为了

128. We have no intention, however, of making a fetish of democracy. It may well be true that our generation talks and thinks too much of democracy and too little of the values which it serves. It cannot be said of democracy, as Lord Acton truly said of liberty, that it “is not a means to a higher political end. It is itself the highest political end. It is not for the sake of a good public administration that it is required, but for the security in the pursuit of the highest objects of civil society, and of private life.” Democracy is essentially a means, a utilitarian device for safeguarding internal peace and individual freedom. As such it is by no means infallible or certain. Nor must we forget that there has often been much more cultural and spiritual freedom under an autocratic rule than under some democracies - and it is at least conceivable that under the government of a very homogeneous and doctrinaire majority democratic government might be as oppressive as the worst dictatorship. Our point, however, is not that dictatorship must inevitably extirpate freedom, but rather that planning leads to dictatorship because dictatorship is the most effective instrument of coercion and the enforcement of ideals, and as such essential if central planning on a large scale is to be possible. The clash between planning and democracy arises simply from the fact that the latter is an obstacle to the suppression of freedom which the direction of economic activity requires. But in so far as democracy ceases to be a guarantee of individual freedom, it may well persist in some form under a totalitarian regime. A true “dictatorship of the proletariat”, even if democratic in form, if it undertook centrally to direct the economic system, would probably destroy personal freedom as completely as any autocracy has ever done.

129. 将民主视为一种受到威胁的重要价值加以关注，这种时髦的做法并非没有危险。它在很大程度上助长了一种具有误导性且毫无根据的观念：只要权力的最终来源是多数人的意志，它就不可能是专断的。许多人从这一观念中获得了某种虚假的安慰，而这种安慰正是人们普遍未能觉察我们所面临危险的一个重要原因。“只要权力是通过民主程序授予的，它就不可能是专断的”，这种观念并不成立，它所暗示的民主与专断的对立关系是完全错误的。防止权力专断的关键不在于权力的来源，而在于对权力的限制。民主对权力的控制或许可以防止权力变得专断，但仅靠民主的存在，并不能实现这个目的。如果民主做出决策，要执行一项必须

129. The fashionable concentration on democracy as the main value threatened is not without danger. It is largely responsible for the misleading and unfounded belief that so long as the ultimate source of power is the will of the majority, the power cannot be arbitrary. The false assurance which many people derive from this belief is an important cause of the general unawareness of the dangers which we face. There is no justification for the belief that so long as power is conferred by democratic procedure, it cannot be arbitrary; the contrast suggested by this statement is altogether false: it is not the source but the limitation of power which prevents it from being arbitrary. Democratic control may prevent power from becoming arbitrary, but it does not do so by its mere existence. If democracy resolves on a task which necessarily involves the use of power which cannot be guided by fixed rules, it must become arbitrary power.

形式法治的基本原则，强调每一案件都必须依据一般理性规则做出裁判，且这些规则应尽可能少有例外、并建立在逻辑涵摄的基础之上。然而，最近的法律社会学研究再次确认，这一原则只适用于资本主义自由竞争阶段。

卡尔·曼海姆

130. 在制度环境方面，自由国家与专制政府统治下的国家之间最明显的区别，莫过于前者遵循被称为“法治”的伟大原则。抛开所有技术细节不谈，法治意味着政府的一切行为都必须为事先确立并公开发布的规则所约束。这些规则让人们能够相当确切地预见当权者在给定情形中将如何运用其强制权力，并据此安排个人事务。[1]尽管这一理想永远无法臻于完美，因为立法者和那些受托执行法律的人都是可能犯错的人，但是，其要点却是足够明确的，即应尽可能减少留给掌握强制权力的行政机关的自由裁量权。通过改变人们在追求其目标时可能采用的手段，每一部法律都会在一定程度上限制个体自由，但于法治之下，政府却不得以临时起意的行为挫败个体的努力。在已知的游戏规则之内，个体应可自由追求自己的目标和愿望，

Chapter VI: PLANNING AND THE RULE OF LAW

Recent studies in the sociology of law once more confirm that the fundamental principle of formal law by which every case must be judged according to general rational precepts, which have as few exceptions as possible and are based on logical subsumptions, obtains only for the liberal competitive phase of capitalism.

Karl Mannheim

130. NOTHING distinguishes more clearly conditions in a free country from those in a country under arbitrary government than the observance in the former of the great principles known as the Rule of Law. Stripped of all technicalities this means that government in all its actions is bound by rules fixed and announced beforehand - rules which make it possible to foresee with fair certainty how the authority will use its coercive powers in given circumstances, and to plan one's individual affairs on the basis of this knowledge.[2] Though this ideal can never be perfectly achieved, since legislators as well as those to whom the administration of the law is entrusted are fallible men, the essential point, that the discretion left to the executive organs wielding coercive power should be reduced as much as possible, is clear enough. While every law restricts individual freedom to some extent by altering the means which people may use in the pursuit of their aims, under the Rule of Law the government is prevented from stultifying individual efforts by ad hoc action. Within the

[1] 根据A. V. 戴雪在《宪法研究导论》（第八版，第198页）中的经典论述，法治“首先意味着规范性法律具有相对于专断权力影响之上的、绝对的最高权威或主导地位，并排除政府方面存在的专断、特权，甚至广泛的自由裁量权”。然而，很大程度上正是由于戴雪的影响，法治这一术语后来在英国获得了一种更为狭义的技术性含义，我们在此不予讨论。“法治”，或者“法律的统治”这一概念，本来还有更广泛和更古老的含义，在英国，这种含义早已成为一种人们习以为常且鲜有讨论的传统；直到它在德国引发了新问题，才在十九世纪初德国人关于“法治国家”（Rechtsstaat）本质的讨论中得到了最为充分的阐释。

[2] According to the classical exposition by A. V. Dicey in The Law of the Constitution (8th ed., p. 198) the rule of law "means, in the first place, the absolute supremacy or predominance of regular law as opposed to the influence of arbitrary power, and excludes the existence of arbitrariness, of prerogative, or even of wide discretionary authority on the part of government". Largely as a result of Dicey's work the term has, however, in England acquired a narrower technical meaning which does not concern us here. The wider and older meaning of the concept of the rule or reign of law, which in England had become an established tradition which was more taken for granted than discussed, has been most fully elaborated, just because it raised what were there new problems, in the early nineteenth-century discussions in Germany about the nature of the Rechtsstaat.

known rules of the game the individual is free to pursue his personal ends and desires, certain that the powers of government will not be used deliberately to frustrate his efforts.

131. 因此，我们早先在“建立一个供个体以其决策引导生产活动永久性法律框架”与“由集中计划机构管理经济活动”之间所做的区分，实际上是法治政府与专断政府之间更具一般性的区分中的一个具体实例。法治政府的作用只限于制定规则，界定可用资源的使用条件，至于使用这些资源的目的，则交由个体自行决定；专制政府则为了实现某些具体目标而管理生产资料的使用。法治的规则表现为可以提前制定的形式规则，其目的不是满足特定人群的愿望和需求，而是为人们提供工具去追求各种个体目标。而且，这些规则是，或者应该是，长期有效的。这样人们就无法了解它们是否对一些人比对另一些人更有利。这些规则几乎可以被视为一种生产工具，其作用在于帮助人们预测他们必须与之合作的另外一些人的行动，而不是满足某些特定需要的手段。

131. The distinction we have drawn before between the creation of a permanent framework of laws within which the productive activity is guided by individual decisions, and the direction of economic activity by a central authority, is thus really a particular case of the more general distinction between the Rule of Law and arbitrary government. Under the first the government confines itself to fixing rules determining the conditions under which the available resources may be used, leaving to the individuals the decision for what ends they are to be used. Under the second the government directs the use of the means of production to particular ends. The first type of rules can be made in advance, in the shape of formal rules which do not aim at the wants and needs of particular people. They are intended to be merely instrumental in the pursuit of people's various individual ends. And they are, or ought to be, intended for such long periods that it is impossible to know whether they will assist particular people more than others. They could almost be described as a kind of instrument of production, helping people to predict the behaviour of those with whom they must collaborate, rather than as efforts towards the satisfaction of particular needs.

132. 而集体主义类型的经济计划则必然与此截然相反。政府计划部门无法做到只将自己的工作局限于为不特定人群提供机会，任由他们依自身意愿加以利用；它也无法做到事先将自己约束在一套旨在防止专断的一般性形式规则之内。它必须满足人们不时出现的实际需要，并在不同需要之间做出符合计划目的的取舍。它必须持续地解决那些仅靠形式原则无法解决的问题；在解决的同时，还必须在不同人的需要之间建立起孰轻孰重的秩序。当政府必须决定

132. Economic planning of the collectivist kind necessarily involves the very opposite of this. The planning authority cannot confine itself to providing opportunities for unknown people to make whatever use of them they like. It cannot tie itself down in advance to general and formal rules which prevent arbitrariness. It must provide for the actual needs of people as they arise and then choose deliberately between them. It must constantly decide questions which cannot be answered by formal principles only, and in making these decisions it must set up distinctions of merit between the needs of different people. When the government has to decide how many pigs are to be reared or how many buses are to be run, which coal mines are to operate, or at what prices boots are to be sold, these decisions cannot be deduced from formal principles, or settled for long periods in advance. They depend inevitably on the circumstances of the moment, and in making such decisions it will always be necessary to balance one against the other the interests of various persons and groups. In the end somebody's views will have to decide whose interests are more important; and these views must become part of the law of the land, a new distinction of rank which the coercive apparatus of government imposes upon the people.

133. 在实践中，我们在前文中用到的"形式法"或"形式正义"与"实质规则"之间的区分非常重要，同时也极难精确界定。不过，其背后所涉及的一般性原则其实相当简单。这两类规则之间的区别，就如同"规定《道路法规》中的交通规则"与"命令人们去往何处"之间的区别，或者更贴切地说，如同"设置路标"和"指挥人们走哪条路"之间的区别。形式规则预先告知人们，政府在某些情况下将采取什么行动，这些规则以一般性条款定义，不涉及具体时间、地点或特定的人；它们适用于任何人都可能遇到的典型情境。在这些情境中，形式规则的存在有助于实现大量不同的个体目标。在这些情境中，人们能够预知政府本身将会，或者它会要求其人民，以某种确定的方式行事。这种预知给了人们用以制定自己计划的手段。因此，人们可以预期，形式规则将被不确定的人群在无法详加预测的情境中加以利用，去实现他们自己决定的目标。从这个意义上讲，形式规则只是工具性的。事实上，我们不知道这些规则的具体后果；不知道它们会促进什么目标的实现；也不知道它们能惠及哪些人；它们只是被赋予了一种形式，最可能从整体上让所有受其

The distinction we have just used between formal law or justice and substantive rules is very important and at the same time most difficult to draw precisely in practice. Yet the general principle involved is simple enough. The difference between the two kinds of rules is the same as that between laying down a Rule of the Road, as in the Highway Code, and ordering people where to go; or, better still, between providing signposts and commanding people which road to take. The formal rules tell people in advance what action the state will take in certain types of situation, defined in general terms, without reference to time and place or particular people. They refer to typical situations into which anyone may get and in which the existence of such rules will be useful for a great variety of individual purposes. The knowledge that in such situations the state will act in a definite way, or require people to behave in a certain manner, is provided as a means for people to use in making their own plans. Formal rules are thus merely instrumental in the sense that they are expected to be useful to yet unknown people, for purposes for which these people will decide to use them, and in circumstances which cannot be foreseen in detail. In fact, that we do not know their concrete effect, that we do not know what particular ends these rules will further, or which particular people they will assist, that they are merely given the form most likely on the whole to benefit all the people affected by them, is the most important criterion of formal rules in the sense in which we here use this term. They do not involve a choice between particular ends or particular people, because we just cannot know beforehand by whom and in what way they will be used.

134. 在我们这个热衷于有意识地控制一切的时代，如果有人声称某种社会制度的可取之处恰恰在于我们对政府举措的具体效果不甚了解，甚至比在其它社会制度下了解得更少；如果有人认为某种社会管理方式之所以更优越，是因为我们对其确切结果一无所知；那或许会让我们认为这种说法十分悖谬。然而，正是这样的判断，体现了法治这一伟大的自由主义原则的基本原理。随着我们的讨论进一步深入，这种表面上的悖谬很快就会消解。

134. In our age, with its passion for conscious control of everything, it may appear paradoxical to claim as a virtue that under one system we shall know less about the particular effect of the measures the state takes than would be true under most other systems and that a method of social control should be deemed superior because of our ignorance of its precise results. Yet this consideration is in fact the rationale of the great liberal principle of the Rule of Law. And the apparent paradox dissolves rapidly when we follow the argument a little further.

135. 这个论点包括两个方面。首先是经济方面，在此只能简要陈述。政府应专注于制定适用于一般情境的规则；而在一切因时间、地点不同而不同的事务上，政府应该给予个体自由，因为只有身处具体情境中的个体才能充分了解这些情境，并调整自己的行为以与之相适应。要想让个体有效地利用其所掌握的知识制定计划，他就必须能够预见可能影响其计划的政府行为；而要想让政府行为可被个体预见，必须满足这样的条件：政府行为必须被“独立于无法预知且无法提前予以考虑的具体应用情境而设立”的规则所规范；并且，政府将无法预测依照这种规则所施行的行为的具体结果。反过来说，如果政府为了实现特定目标而指导个体的行动，其行为必然依据当下的全部具体情境来决定，因此也就失去了对个体的可预见性。于是，就出现了那个众所周知的事实：政府的“计划”越多，个体就越难计划。

135. This argument is two-fold; the first is economic and can here only briefly be stated. The state should confine itself to establishing rules applying to general types of situations, and should allow the individuals freedom in everything which depends on the circumstances of time and place, because only the individuals concerned in each instance can fully know these circumstances and adapt their actions to them. If the individuals are to be able to use their knowledge effectively in making, plans, they must be able to predict actions of the state which may affect these plans. But if the actions of the state are to be predictable, they must be determined by rules fixed independently of the concrete circumstances which can neither be foreseen nor taken into account beforehand: and the particular effects of such actions will be unpredictable. If, on the other hand, the state were to direct the individual’s actions so as to achieve particular ends, its action would have to be decided on the basis of the full circumstances of the moment and would therefore be unpredictable. Hence the familiar fact that the more the state “plans” the more difficult planning becomes for the individual.

136. 第二个方面涉及道德或政治问题，甚至更直接关乎我们讨论的主题。一旦政府能够精确地预见其行为会影响谁，那就意味着它能够令这些受影响的人处于别无选择的境地。凡是政府能够准确预见不同行动方案如何影响特定人群的地方，在不同目标之间作选择的也会是政府。如果我们想要创造对所有人开放的新机会，如果我们想要为人们提供可以自由加以利用的可能性，那么这些机会与可能性所带来的精确结果就不应该是可以被预见的。因此，一般规则，也就是区别于具体命令的真正的法律，必须以适用于无法详细预见的情境为宗旨；其对特定目标或特定人群的影响也因此必须是无法被提前知晓的。只有在这个意义上，立法者才有可能保持公正。所谓公正，就是不对那些只能靠抛硬币来解决的问题给出答案。在一切都能被精确预见的世界里，政府无论做什么，基本上都不可能保持公正。只要政府政策对特定人群的确切影响是已知的，只要政府的直接目标是实现这些具体影响，它就不可能不知道这些影响，因此它就无法保持公正，必然会偏袒一方，必然会把它的算计强加于人民，必然会代替人民选择目标而不是帮助他们实现目标。一项法律，一旦在制定的时候就能预见其具体影响，它就不再是只供人民使用的工具，反而成了立法者用来对付人民、实现其自身目标的手段。政府也从一件旨在帮助个体尽可能发展自己的实用性工具，变成了一个“道德”机构；这里的“道德”并非用来反衬“不道德”，它所描述的是这样一种政府：它将自己在一切道德问题上的看法强加于其所辖之人民，无论这些看法是高尚的，还是极其邪恶的。从这个意义上说，纳粹政府或任何其他集体主义政府都是“道德”政府，而自由主义政府则不是。

136. The second, moral or political, argument is even more directly relevant to the point under discussion. If the state is precisely to foresee the incidence of its actions, it means that it can leave those affected no choice. Wherever the state can exactly foresee the effects on particular people of alternative courses of action, it is also the state which chooses between the different ends. If we want to create new opportunities open to all, to offer chances of which people can make what use they like, the precise results cannot be foreseen. General rules, genuine laws as distinguished from specific orders, must therefore be intended to operate in circumstances which cannot be foreseen in detail, and, therefore, their effect on particular ends or particular people cannot be known beforehand. It is in this sense alone that it is at all possible for the legislator to be impartial. To be impartial means to have no answer to certain questions - to the kind of questions which, if we have to decide them, we decide by tossing a coin. In a world where everything was precisely foreseen, the state could hardly do anything and remain impartial. But where the precise effects of government policy on particular people are known, where the government aims directly at such particular effects, it cannot help knowing these effects, and therefore it cannot be impartial. It must, of necessity, take sides, impose its valuations upon people and, instead of assisting them in the advancement of their own ends, choose the ends for them. As soon as the particular effects are foreseen at the time a law is made, it ceases to be a mere instrument to be used by the people and becomes instead an instrument used by the law-giver upon the people and for his ends. The state ceases to be a piece of utilitarian machinery intended to help individuals in the fullest development of their individual personality and becomes a “moral” institution - where “moral” is not used in contrast to immoral, but describes an institution which imposes on its members its views on all moral questions, whether these views be moral or highly immoral. In this sense the Nazi or any other collectivist state is “moral”, while the liberal state is not.

137. 或许有人会说，上述种种并不会引发什么严重问题，因为在经济计划者必须做出决定的那类问题上，他无需也不应该被其个人偏见所左右，只需依靠何为“公平”、何为“合理”的普遍观念即可。那些在某些特定行业从事过计划工作的人通常会支持这种观点，他们发现，制定一个能让所有直接利益相关方都觉得公平并愿意接受的决定并没有什么无法克服的困难。当然，这种经验并不能证明什么，其原因在于只在某一行业内展开的计划对“利益相关方”的筛选。某种特定利益最直接的相关方并不必然是全社会整体利益的最佳评判者。比如这个最为典型的案例：当某个产业中的劳资双方就某种限制措施协商一致，共同攫取消费者利益时，他们可以毫不费力地按照以往收入分配比例或类似原则来分配其掠夺所得。然而，由成千上万，甚至几百万消费者承担的损失却被完全忽略不计，或被考虑得过于草率了。我们必须考察一些获益方和损失方同样清晰可见的情形，才能检验“公平”原则能否有效解决经济计划过程中产生的问题。在这类情形中，我们很快就会发现，像公平这样的一般性原则根本无法提供答案。当我们必须在增加医护人员工资和为病患提供更全面服务之间做出选择时；当我们必须在给儿童提供更多牛奶和为养牛人提供更高收入之间做出选择时；或者当我们在为失业者提供就业和为已经就业的人提供更高待遇之间做出选择时，除非有一套完整的价值体系，一套每个人、每个群体的每一种需求都被安排了确切位置的体系，否则我们就无从选择。

137. Perhaps it will be said that all this raises no serious problem because in the kind of questions which the economic planner would have to decide he need not and should not be guided by his individual prejudices, but could rely on the general conviction of what is fair and reasonable. This contention usually receives support from those who have experience of planning in a particular industry.and who find that there is no insuperable difficulty about arriving at a decision which all those immediately interested will accept as fair. The reason why this experience proves nothing is, of course, the selection of the “interests” concerned when planning is confined to a particular industry. Those most immediately interested in a particular issue are not necessarily the best judges of the interests of society as a whole. To take only the most characteristic case: when capital and labour in an industry agree on some policy of restriction and thus exploit the consumers, there is usually no difficulty about the division of the spoils in proportion to former earnings or on some similar principle. The loss which is divided between thousands or millions is usually either simply disregarded or quite inadequately considered. If we want to test the usefulness of the principle of “fairness” in deciding the kind of issues which arise in economic planning, we must apply it to some question where the gains and the losses are seen equally clearly. In such instances it is readily recognised that no general principle such as fairness can provide an answer. When we have to choose between higher wages for nurses or doctors and more extensive services for the sick, more milk for children and better wages for agricultural workers, or between employment for the unemployed or better wages for those already employed, nothing short of a complete system of values in which every want of every person or group has a definite place is necessary to provide an answer.

138. 事实上，随着计划的范围不断扩大，越来越多的法律条文需要参照何为“公平”、何为“合理”的观念加以限定和调整，这意味着越来越多的具体案件必须交给法官或当权者自行裁量。

138. In fact, as planning becomes more and more extensive, it becomes regularly necessary to qualify legal provisions increasingly by reference to what is “fair” or “reasonable”; this means that it becomes necessary to leave the decision of the concrete case more and more to the discretion of the judge or authority in question. One could write a history of the decline of the Rule of Law, the disappearance of the Rechtsstaat, in terms of the progressive introduction of these vague formulæ into legislation and jurisdiction, and of the increasing arbitrariness and uncertainty of, and the consequent disrespect for, the law and the judicature, which in these circumstances could not but become an instrument of policy. It is important to point out once more in this connection that this process of the decline of the Rule of Law had been going on steadily in Germany for some time before Hitler came into power, and that a policy well advanced towards totalitarian planning had already done a great deal of the work which Hitler completed.

139. 毫无疑问，计划必然会涉及人为地差别对待不同人群的具体需求，允许一个人做另一个人不被允许去做的事。它势必会设立法规，规定特定人群的生活水平应当达到什么程度，以及不同的人分别可以拥有什么，做什么。这实际上意味着向“身份决定一切”的统治模式的回归，是对亨利·梅因爵士那句著名论断所概括的“迄今为止总是从‘身份’向‘契约’转变的渐进型社会演进”方向的逆转。实际上，身份决定一切的统治模式的真正对立面，与其说是契约，不如说是法治。只有法治，形式法意义上的、不允许当权者为特定人群设立法律特权的法治，才能保障人人被法律平等对待，也才是专断统治的对立面。

139. There can be no doubt that planning necessarily involves deliberate discrimination between particular needs of different people, and allowing one man to do what another must be prevented from doing. It must lay down by a legal rule how well off particular people shall be and what different people are to be allowed to have and do. It means in effect a return to the rule of status, a reversal of the “movement of progressive societies” which, in the famous phrase of Sir Henry Maine, “has hitherto been a movement from status to contract”. Indeed, the Rule of Law, more than the rule of contract, should probably be regarded as the true opposite of the rule of status. It is the Rule of Law, in the sense of the rule of formal law, the absence of legal privileges of particular people designated by authority, which safeguards that equality before the law which is the opposite of arbitrary government.

140. 通过以上讨论，我们可以得出一个必然的、看似矛盾但实则不然的结论：法律面前的形式平等，即“人人被法律平等对待”，与任何刻意采取的、以实现不同人群之间物质平等或实质平等为目标的政府行为彼此冲突、实际上不相兼容；任何直接追求分配正义这一实质理想的政策，都必然导致法治的瓦解。要想让不

140. A necessary, and only apparently paradoxical, result of this is that formal equality before the law is in conflict, and in fact incompatible, with any activity of the government deliberately aiming at material or substantive equality of different people, and that any policy directly aiming at a substantive ideal of distributive justice must lead to the destruction of the Rule of Law. To produce the same result for different people it is necessary to treat them differently. To give different people the same objective opportunities is not to give them the same subjective chance. It cannot be denied that the Rule of Law produces economic inequality - all that can be claimed for it is that this inequality is not designed to affect particular people in a particular way. It is very significant and characteristic that socialists (and Nazis) have always protested against "merely" formal justice, that they have always objected to a law which had no views on how well off particular people ought to be,[4] and that they have always demanded a "socialisation of the law", attacked the independence of judges, and at the same time given their support to all such movements as the Freirechtsschule which undermined the Rule of Law.

141. 甚至可以说，要使法治发挥作用，有一套永无例外的规则比这套规则具体是什么更重要。实际上，只要同一套规则得到普遍遵守，规则的内容确实常常是次要的。回到前面的例子：车辆靠左还是靠右行驶并不重要，只要我们做法一致就好。重要的是，规则使我们能够准确预判他人的行为，而这就要求我们在所有情况下都要遵守它，即使在某种具体情况下我们会觉得它不合理。

141. It may even be said that for the Rule of Law to be effective it is more important that there should be a rule applied always without exceptions, than what this rule is. Often the content of the rule is indeed of minor importance, provided the same rule is universally enforced. To revert to a former example: it does not matter whether we all drive on the left- or on the right-hand side of the road so long as we all do the same. The important thing is that the rule enables us to predict other people's behaviour correctly, and this requires that it should apply to all cases - even if in a particular instance we feel it to be unjust.

142. 一方面是形式正义和在法律面前的形式平等，一方面是对实现实质正义和实质平等的理想的追求，这一对矛盾造成了对"特权"这个概念的广泛误会以及随之而来的滥用。这里仅讨论一种最重要的情形："特权"一词在财产权上的滥用。比如说，在过去的某些时期，只有贵族才能拥有土地的所有权，这无疑是一种特权；而在我们这个时代，如果只有当权者指定

142. The conflict between formal justice and formal equality before the law on the one hand, and the attempts to realise various ideals of substantive justice and equality on the other, also accounts for the widespread confusion about the concept of "privilege" and its consequent abuse. To mention only the most important instance of this abuse - the application of the term privilege to property as such. It would indeed be privilege if, for example, as has sometimes been the case in the past, landed property were reserved to members of the nobility.

[3] 因此，当纳粹主义的法律理论家卡尔·施米特将自由主义的法治国家与纳粹主义理想中的正义国家对立起来时，他并不完全是错误的，但是，那种与形式正义相反的正义，必然意味着对不同人群的差别对待。

[4] It is therefore not altogether false when the legal theorist of National-Socialism, Carl Schmitt, opposes to the liberal Rechtsstaat (i.e. the Rule of Law) the national-socialist ideal of the gerechte Staat (the just state) - only that the sort of justice which is opposed to formal justice necessarily implies discrimination between persons.

的特定人群才有权生产或销售某些特定商品，那当然也属于特权。然而，仅仅因为只有一部分人成功获得了任何人在相同规则下都能获得的私有财产，就将其称为特权，这就剥夺了“特权”一词的真正含义。

And it is privilege if, as is true in our time, the right to produce or sell particular things is reserved to particular people designated by authority. But to call private property as such, which all can acquire under the same rules, a privilege, because only some succeed in acquiring it, is depriving the word privilege of its meaning.

143. 其特定影响的不可预见性，是自由制度下形式法治的显著特征。这种不可预见性之所以也很重要，是因为它有助于我们澄清关乎这个制度本质的另一个误会，即认为自由制度的典型态度是主张政府不作为。政府究竟应该还是不应该“作为”或“干预”，这是一个完全错误的二元对立选择；而且，在描述自由主义政策所依据的原则时，“自由放任”是一个高度模糊且具有误导性的术语。当然，任何政府都必须有所作为，且政府的每一项作为都会涉及这样或那样的干预。但这不是重点。重点在于，个体是否能够预见政府的行动，并据以制定自己的计划，从而使政府无法控制其对规则机制的使用，而个体仍能确知自己在多大程度上能够免受他人干扰；或者说，重点在于，政府是否处于一种能够挫败个体活动的地位。政府控制度量衡（或以其它方式防止欺诈）当然是一种作为，而纵容暴力行为，比如听任罢工纠察队暴力阻止工人复工，则属于不作为。然而，政府在前一种情形中反而是遵守了自由主义原则，而在后一种情形中则没有。与此类似，政府制定的大多数事关生产的一般性和长期规则，比如建筑条例或工厂法，在特定情况下可能是好的规则，也可能是不好的规则，但只要制定者的本意是使其成为长期有效的规则，而不是用来优待或损害特定人群的话，它们就不会违背自由主义原则。诚然，在这些情形中，除了人们无法预测这些法规的长期影响之外，其对特定人群的短期影响则有可能是清晰可见的。但

143. The unpredictability of the particular effects, which is the distinguishing characteristic of the formal laws of a liberal system, is also important because it helps us to clear up another confusion about the nature of this system: the belief that its characteristic attitude is inaction of the state. The question whether the state should or should not “act” or “interfere” poses an altogether false alternative, and the term laissez-faire is a highly ambiguous - and misleading description of the principles on which a liberal policy is based. Of course, every state must act and every action of the state interferes with something or other. But that is not the point. The important question is whether the individual can foresee the action of the state and make use of this knowledge as a datum in forming his own plans, with the result that the state cannot control the use made of its machinery, and that the individual knows precisely how far he will be protected against interference from others, or whether the state is in a position to frustrate individual efforts. The state controlling weights and measures (or preventing fraud and deception in any other way) is certainly acting, while the state permitting the use of violence, for example, by strike pickets, is inactive. Yet it is in the first case that the state observes liberal principles and in the second that it does not. Similarly with respect to, most of the general and permanent rules which the state may establish with regard to production, such as building regulations or factory laws: these may be wise or unwise in the particular instance, but they do not conflict with liberal principles so long as they are intended to be permanent and are not used to favour or harm particular people. It is true that in these instances there will, apart from the long-run effects which cannot be predicted, also be short-run effects on particular people which may be clearly known. But with this kind of laws the short-run effects are in general not (or at least ought not to be) the guiding consideration. As these immediate and predictable effects become more important compared with the long-run effects, we approach the border-line where the distinction, however, clear in principle, becomes blurred in practice.

144. 唯有在自由主义时代，法治才被有意识地发展起来，并成为那个时代最伟大的成就之一；它不仅是自由的保障，更是自由在法律上的体现。正如伊曼努尔·康德所说（伏尔泰在他之前也曾用非常相似的措辞表达过）：“如果一个人无需听命于任何人，而只服从法律，那他就是自由的”。作为一个模糊的理想，法治的存在至少可以追溯到罗马时代，而在过去的几个世纪里，它所受到威胁从未像今天这样严重。立法者权力无限的观念，在某种程度上源自“最高权力为民所授”的理念，以及民主政府所体现的制度安排；而这一观念又被“只要一切政府行为均获立法机构正式授权，法治即得以维系”的观点所强化。这完全是对法治含义的误解。政府的一切行为在法律意义上合法与否，几乎与法治没有任何关系。即便政府的所作所为在法律意义上完全合法，却仍然可能不符合法治的原则。即便某人的所作所为得到了充分的法律授权，但这依然未能回答这样一个问题：法律赋予他的，究竟是专断行事的权力，还是按照法律明确规定的方式行事的义务。显然，希特勒通过严格的宪法程序获得了他不受限制的权力，因此无论他做什么在法律意义上都是合法的；然而，又有谁会以此为由，说法治在德国仍然存在呢？

144. The Rule of Law was consciously evolved only during the liberal age and is one of its greatest achievements, not only as a safeguard but as the legal embodiment of freedom. As Immanuel Kant put it (and Voltaire expressed it before him in very much the same terms), “Man is free if he needs to obey no person but solely the laws”. As a vague ideal it has, however, existed at least since Roman times, and during the last few centuries it has never been as seriously threatened as it is to-day. The idea that there is no limit to the powers of the legislator is in part a result of popular sovereignty and democratic government. It has been strengthened by the belief that so long as all actions of the state are duly authorised by legislation, the Rule of Law will be preserved. But this is completely to misconceive the meaning of the Rule of Law. This rule has little to do with the question whether all actions of government are legal in the juridical sense. They may well be and yet not conform to the Rule of Law. The fact that somebody has full legal authority to act in the way he does gives no answer to the question whether the law gives him power to act arbitrarily or whether the law prescribes unequivocally how he has to act. It may well be that Hitler has obtained his unlimited powers in a strictly constitutional manner and that whatever he does is therefore legal in the juridical sense. But who would suggest for that reason that the Rule of Law still prevails in Germany?

145. 因此，说法治无法在计划型社会中得以维持，并不是说这种社会中政府的行为不合法，

145. To say that in a planned society the Rule of Law cannot hold is, therefore, not to say that the actions of the government will not be legal or that such a society will necessarily be lawless. It means only that the use of the government's coercive powers will no longer be limited and determined by pre-established rules. The law can, and to make a central direction of economic activity possible must, legalise what to all intents and purposes remains arbitrary action. If the law says that such a Board or Authority may do what it pleases, anything that Board or Authority does is legal - but its actions are certainly not subject to the Rule of Law. By giving the government unlimited powers the most arbitrary rule can be made legal: and in this way a democracy may set up the most complete despotism imaginable.[6]

146. 然而，如果立法的目的是要让政府部门管理经济生活，那么，法律就要授权它们在无法预见的情形中，根据无法以一般形式表述的原则做出并实施其决策。其后果是，随着计划范围的扩大，将立法权下放给形形色色的委员会和管理局的情形会变得愈发普遍。不久前，刚刚故去的赫瓦特勋爵就曾提醒过我们关注达林法官在上次大战前的某个案件中的判词："去年议会竟颁布了法令，规定对农业委员会所行之事免于追责的程度甚至达到了议会自身才享有的高度"。这种情形在当时还很罕见，可从那以后，却成了几乎每天发生的事情。日复一日，总有新的政府部门被赋予最广泛的权力，在不受固定规则约束的情况下，它们几乎拥有无限的自由裁量权去规制人民的各项活动。

146. If, however, the law is to enable authorities to direct economic life, it must give them powers to make and enforce decisions in circumstances which cannot be foreseen and on principles which cannot be stated in generic form. The consequence is that as planning extends, the delegation of legislative powers to divers Boards and Authorities becomes increasingly common. When before the last war, in a case to which the late Lord Hewart has recently drawn attention, Mr. Justice Darling said "that Parliament had enacted only last year that the Board of Agriculture in acting as they did should be no more impeachable than Parliament itself", this was still a rare thing. It has since become an almost daily occurrence. Constantly the broadest powers are conferred on new authorities which, without being bound by fixed rules, have almost unlimited discretion in regulating this or that activity of the people.

[5] 这一矛盾，并不像十九世纪一些人所误解的那样，是自由与法律之间的对立。正如约翰·洛克早已明确指出的那样：没有法律，就不可能有自由。这一矛盾，实际上是两种不同法律之间的矛盾。这两种法律的区别，大到几乎不应该再用同一个名称来称呼它们的地步：一种是法治的法律，是提前制定的一般原则，一套"游戏规则"，使个体能够预见政府的强制机器将如何运作，预见他和其他公民在特定情境中被允许做什么，或被要求做什么；另一种，是赋予当权者实际权力的法律，使其能够按照自己的判断去做它任何认为合适的事。因此，在民主政体中，如果不是每一次利益冲突都依照事先制定的规则加以裁决，而是"具体个案具体分析"，那么法治显然无法得到维系。

[6] The conflict is thus not, as it has often been misconceived in nineteenth-century discussions, one between liberty and law. As John Locke had already made clear, there can be no liberty without law. The conflict is between different kinds of law, law so different that it should hardly be called by the same name: one is the law of the Rule of Law, general principles laid down beforehand, the "rules of the game" which enable individuals to foresee how the coercive apparatus of the state will be used, or what he and his fellow-citizens will be allowed to do, or made to do, in stated circumstances. The other kind of law gives in effect the authority power to do what it thinks fit to do. Thus the Rule of Law could clearly not be preserved in a democracy that undertook to decide every conflict of interests not according to rules previously laid down, but "on its merits".

147. 因此，法治意味着将立法的范围限制在被称为“形式法”的一般规则之内；它排除了直接针对特定人群的立法，也排除了让人能够为了实现差别对待不同人群的目标而使用政府强制权力的立法。法治并不意味着所有事务都由法律来规制，相反，它要求政府只能在法律预先界定的情形中，按照一种可以预见其使用方式的形式使用其强制权力。因此，某一具体法律有可能是违反法治的。但凡否认这一点的人，恐怕都只好承认：既然德国、意大利和俄国的独裁者手中的绝对权力都是通过宪法程序攫取的，那么这几个国家都还可以算是法治国家。[7]

147. The Rule of Law thus implies limits to the scope of legislation: it restricts it to the kind of general rules known as formal law, and excludes legislation either directly aimed at particular people, or at enabling anybody to use the coercive power of the state for the purpose of such discrimination. It means, not that everything is regulated by law, but, on the contrary, that the coercive power of the state can be used only in cases defined in advance by the law and in such a way that it can be foreseen how it will be used. A particular enactment can thus infringe the Rule of Law. Anyone ready to deny this would have to contend that whether the Rule of Law prevails to-day in Germany, Italy, or Russia, depends on whether the dictators have obtained their absolute power by constitutional means.[8]

148. 法治，究竟是像在某些国家那样明文载入《权利法案》或宪法典，还是体现为根深蒂固的传统，这相对来说并不重要。但我们不难看出，无论采取何种形式，凡是上述公认的对立法权力的限制，都是对个体不可让渡以及人类不容侵犯的权利的承认。

148. Whether, as in some countries, the main applications of the Rule of Law are laid down in a Bill of Rights or a Constitutional Code, or whether the principle is merely a firmly established tradition, matters comparatively little. But it will readily be seen that whatever form it takes, any such recognised limitations of the powers of legislation imply the recognition of the inalienable right of the individual, inviolable rights of man.

[7] 立法行为侵犯法治的另一个例证，就是本国历史上人尽皆知的“褫夺公权法案”。在刑法领域，法治通常由拉丁格言“罪刑法定”（nulla poena sine lege，无法律即不处罚）来表达。这一规则的本质在于：法律必须在特定案件发生之前，就已经作为一项普遍规则而存在。在亨利八世统治时期的那桩著名案件中，议会作出决议：罗彻斯特主教的厨师“理查德·罗斯应被处以烹刑，且不得援引神职人员豁免权”。如今，没有人会认为这一决议符合法治的原则。虽然法治已成为所有自由国家刑事诉讼程序中不可或缺的一部分，但在极权体制下，它却无法存续。正如 E. B. 阿什顿所精辟指出的那样，自由主义的准则已被“有罪必罚”（nullum crimen sine poena，无罪不罚）的原则所取代，即无论法律是否明确规定，任何“罪行”都不得免于处罚。他说：“政府的权力并不止于惩罚违法者。社会有权采取一切在其看来有必要的措施保护其利益。遵守既有法律，只不过是诸多要求中较为基本的一条罢了”。（见 E. B. 阿什顿，《法西斯：其国家与思想》，1937年，第119页）。当然，究竟什么才算是对“社会利益”的侵犯，则由当权者来裁定。

[8] Another illustration of an infringement of the Rule of Law by legislation is the case of the bill of attainder, familiar in the history of this country. The form which the Rule of Law takes in criminal law is usually expressed by the Latin tag nulla poena sine lege - no punishment without a law expressly prescribing it. The essence of this rule is that the law must have existed as a general rule before the individual case arose to which it is to be applied. Nobody would argue that, when in a famous case in Henry VIII's reign Parliament resolved with respect to the Bishop of Rochester's cook "that the said Richard Rose shall be boiled to death without having the advantage of his clergy", this act was performed under the Rule of Law. But while the Rule of Law had become an essential part of criminal procedure in all liberal countries, it cannot be preserved in totalitarian regimes. There, as E. B. Ashton has well expressed it, the liberal maxim is replaced by the principles nullum crimen sine poena - no "crime" must remain without punishment, whether the law explicitly provides for it or not. "The rights of the state do not end with punishing law breakers. The community is entitled to whatever may seem necessary to the protection of its interests - of which observance of the law, as it stands, is only one of the more elementary requirements" (E. B. Ashton, The Fascist, His State and Mind, 1937, p. 119). What is an infringement of "the interests of the community" is, of course, decided by the authorities.

149. 像赫伯特·乔治·威尔斯先生这种带头倡导最全面集中计划的人居然也会撰文热烈地为人权辩护，这固然显得苍白无力，却也是许多知识分子被他们所信奉的自相矛盾的理念带入某种错乱境地的典型表现。威尔斯先生想要维护的个体权利必将妨碍他所追求的计划体系。在某种程度上，他似乎也意识到了这一困境，因此我们会发现，在他所起草的《人权宣言》中，有许多条款都被各种额外的限制条件所束缚，以至于变得毫无意义。比如，他在《宣言》中称，每个人都"有权在不受任何歧视性限制的情况下买卖任何可以合法交易的物品"，这本来是值得赞许的，但他接着又做了一个令整个条款失效的补充："该权利仅适用于在数量和条件上均符合公共利益的交易"。因为对任何交易施加的任何限制措施都可以被说成是为了"公共利益"的需要，所以实际上也就没有哪种限制措施是该条款能够有效阻止，也没有哪项个人权利是能够被其保障的了。我们再来看看他的另一条基础条款。《宣言》指出，人人"有权从事任何合法职业"，且"有权获得有偿工作，有权在各种就业机会向其开放时自由选择"。然而，它不仅没有说明由谁来决定某项具体工作是否对某人"开放"，反而增加了一条："他可以自荐从事某一工作，并让自己的自荐被公示、接受或驳回"。这表明威尔斯先生的设想是，由某个权威部门决定一个人是否"有资格"出任某项具体工作。这显然与选择职业的自由背道而驰。在被计划的世界里，当交通工具和货币都被控制，甚至产业布局都被计划时，如何保障"旅行和迁徙的自由"？当纸张的供应和所有的分销渠道都被政府计划部门控制时，又如何保障新闻自由？对于这种问题，威尔斯先生与所有其它计划者一样，几乎没有给出什么答案。

149. It is pathetic, but characteristic of the muddle into which many of our intellectuals have been led by the conflicting ideals in which they believe, that a leading advocate of the most comprehensive central planning like Mr. H. G. Wells should at the same time write an ardent defence of the Rights of Man. The individual rights which Mr. Wells hopes to preserve would inevitably obstruct the planning which he desires. To some extent he seems to realise the dilemma, and we find therefore the provisions of his proposed "Declaration of the Rights of Man" so hedged about with qualifications that they lose all significance. While, for instance, his Declaration proclaims that every man "shall have the right to buy and sell without any discriminatory restrictions anything which may be lawfully bought and sold", which is admirable, he immediately proceeds to make the whole provision nugatory by adding that it applies only to buying and selling "in such quantities and with such reservations as are compatible with the common welfare". But since, of course, all restrictions ever imposed upon buying or selling anything are supposed to be necessary in the interest of the "common welfare", there is really no restriction which this clause effectively prevents, and no right of the individual that is safeguarded by it. Or, to take another basic clause, the Declaration states that every man "may engage in any lawful occupation" and that "he is entitled to paid employment and to a free choice whenever there is any variety of employment open to him". It is not stated, however, who is to decide whether a particular employment is "open" to a particular person, and the added provision that "he may suggest employment for himself and have his claim publicly considered, accepted or dismissed' shows that Mr. Wells is thinking in terms of an authority which decides whether a man is "entitled" to a particular position - which certainly means the opposite of free choice of occupation. And how in a planned world "freedom of travel and migration" is to be secured when not only the means of communication and currencies are controlled, but also the location of industries planned, or how the freedom of the press is to be safeguarded when the supply of paper and all the channels of distribution are controlled by the planning authority, are questions to which Mr. Wells provides as little answer as any other planner.

150. 在这方面，更多的改革家表现出远比威尔斯先生更为一以贯之的立场。自社会主义运动兴起之初，他们就一直在抨击所谓“形而上”的个体权利观念，坚持认为在一个理性有序的世界里，将没有个体权利，只有个体义务。事实上，这已经成为被我们的“进步人士”所普遍持有的态度。谁以侵犯个体权利为理由抗议某项限制措施，谁就最容易被扣上“反动分子”的帽子。甚至像《经济学人》这样的自由派刊物，几年前也拿法国人，偏偏是法国人，来给我们做榜样，称他们已经汲取了这样一个教训：

150. In this respect much more consistency is shown by the more numerous reformers who, ever since the beginning of the socialist movement, have attacked the “metaphysical” idea of individual rights and insisted that in a rationally ordered world there will be no individual rights but only individual duties. This, indeed, has become the much more common attitude of our so-called progressives, and few things are more certain to expose one to the reproach of being a reactionary than if one protests against a measure on the grounds that it is a violation of the rights of the individual. Even a liberal paper like The Economist was a few years ago holding up to us the example of the French, of all people, who had learnt the lesson

151. 民主政府，与独裁政权一样，必须始终（原文如此）保有在必要时动用全权的能力，而这并不意味着牺牲其民主和代议制的本质。就行政事务而言，无论在何种情形下，都不存政府永远不可触碰的个体权利禁区。一个由人民自由选择的，受反对派充分和公开监督的政府，它能够并且应当拥有的统治权力是没有边界的。

151. that democratic government no less than dictatorship must always [sic] have plenary powers in posse, without sacrificing their democratic and representative character. There is no restrictive penumbra of individual rights that can never be touched by government in administrative matters whatever the circumstances. There is no limit to the power of ruling which can and should be taken by a government freely chosen by the people and can be fully and openly criticised by an opposition.

152. 当然，在战争时期，这或许是不可避免的，即便是自由、公开的批评也有必要在战时受到限制。然而，上述引文中那个“始终”一词说明《经济学人》并不将这种做法视为一种令人遗憾的、仅限于战时的必要措施。然而，这种希望将战时必要措施变成永久性制度安排的观点，当然是与法治的维系不相容的，它将直接导致极权政府的产生。尽管如此，这正是所有想让政府管理经济生活的人必须坚持的观点。

152. This may be inevitable in wartime when, of course, even free and open criticism is necessarily restricted. But the “always” in the statement quoted does not suggest that The Economist regards it as a regrettable wartime necessity. Yet as a permanent institution this view is certainly incompatible with the preservation of the Rule of Law, and it leads straight to the totalitarian state. It is, however, the view which all those who want the government to direct economic life must hold.

153. 一旦政府开始全面控制经济生活，对个体权利或对少数民族平等权利的哪怕仅仅是形式上的承认，也都随之变得毫无意义，中欧诸国的经验已经充分证明了这一点。在这些国家我们可以看到，无需在字面上违反任何旨在保护少数民族权利的法律条文，只需利用经济政策中那些被广泛认可的手段，就可以推行严酷的少数民族歧视政策。因为某些特定行业或经营活动主要掌握在少数民族手中，利用经济政策作为手段对其施行压迫就变得十分便利；因此，许多表面上针对某个行业或某个阶级的措施，实际上是针对某个少数民族的。尽管如此，对于那些急于看清计划在实践中会产生什么政治结果的人来说，事实已经充分证明，这种表面上无伤大雅的“政府主导产业发展”的原则为歧视和压迫政策提供了几乎无限的可能性。

153. How even a formal recognition of individual rights, or of the equal rights of minorities, loses all significance in a state which embarks on a complete control of economic life, has been amply demonstrated by the experience of the various Central European countries. It has been shown there that it is possible to pursue a policy of ruthless discrimination against national minorities by the use of recognised instruments of economic policy, without ever infringing the letter of the statutory protection of minority rights. This oppression by means of economic policy was greatly facilitated by the fact that particular industries or activities were largely in the hands of a national minority so that many a measure aimed ostensibly against an industry or class was in fact aimed at a national minority. But the almost boundless possibilities for a policy of discrimination and oppression provided by such apparently innocuous principles as “government control of the development of industries” have been amply demonstrated to all those desirous of seeing how the political consequences of planning appear in practice.

希莱尔·贝洛克

154. 大多数曾经从实践层面认真思考过自己工作的计划者几乎都不会怀疑，指令型经济或多或少都必须依靠某种独裁方式运作。如果要想对这样一种由许多相互关联的活动所构成的复杂系统加以有意识的管理，那么，就需要由一支专家团队来完成这个任务，且最终的责任和权力必须掌握在一位不受民主程序约束的总指挥手中。非常明显，这种安排是集中计划基本理论的必然要求，理应得到计划者们相当普遍的认同。计划者们会安慰我们说，这种独裁式的管理将“只”被用在经济事务上。比如，美国最著名的计划者之一斯图尔特·蔡斯先生就曾向我们保证：在计划型社会，“只要不涉足经济事务，政治民主就可以存续”。这种保证，通常还伴随一种暗示：在生活中那些并不重要，或应该被视为不重要的事务中放弃自由，我们将能获得更大的自由，去追求更高层次的价值。基于这些保证和暗示，那些反对政治独裁的人也要呼吁一位经济独裁者的出现了。

156. 这些论调能打动我们最善良的天性，常常吸引最优秀的头脑。如果计划真的能帮助我们摆脱一些不那么重要的事情带给我们的烦恼，让我们轻松地拥有“生活朴素、思想高尚”的人生，又有谁会贬低这样的理想呢？如果我们的经济活动真的只涉及生活中那些比较庸俗甚至市侩的一面，我们当然应该不遗余力地去寻找一种方式，让自己从对物质目标的过度关注中解脱出来；将这些事情交给几个政府职能机构

Chapter VII: ECONOMIC CONTROL AND TOTALITARIANISM

The control of the production of wealth is the control of human life itself.

Hilaire Belloc

155. MOST planners who have seriously considered the practical aspects of their task have little doubt that a directed economy must be run on more or less dictatorial lines. That the complex system of interrelated activities, if it is to be consciously directed at all, must be directed by a single staff of experts, and that ultimate responsibility and power must rest in the hands of a commander-in-chief, whose actions must not be fettered by democratic procedure, is too obvious a consequence of underlying ideas of central planning not to command fairly general assent. The consolation our planners offer us is that this authoritarian direction will apply “only” to economic matters. One of the most prominent American planners, Mr. Stuart Chase, assures us, for instance, that in a planned society “political democracy can remain if it confines itself to all but economic matter”. Such assurances are usually accompanied by the suggestion that by giving up freedom in what are, or ought to be, the less important aspects of our lives, we shall obtain greater freedom in the pursuit of higher values. On this ground people who abhor the idea of a political dictatorship often clamour for a dictator in the economic field.

155. The arguments used appeal to our best instincts and often attract the finest minds. If planning really did free us from the less important cares and so made it easier to render our existence one of plain living and high thinking, who would wish to belittle such an ideal? If our economic activities really concerned only the inferior or even more sordid sides of life, of course we ought to endeavour by all means to find a way to relieve ourselves from the excessive care for material ends, and, leaving them to be cared for by some piece of utilitarian machinery, set our minds free for the higher things of life.

156. 权力对经济生活的干预只涉及次要事务，人们从这个想法中获得某种宽慰，从而轻视了追求经济目标的自由所面临的威胁。不幸的是，这种宽慰是完全没有保证的。它在很大程度上源自一种错误观点，即我们能够将单纯的经济目标与生活中的其他目标区分开来。然而，除非是对病态的守财奴而言，单纯的经济目标并不存在。对于理性的人来说，他的任何行为，其最终目标从来都不是经济目标。严格来说，并没有什么所谓的“经济动机”，只有在追求其他目标的过程中发挥作用的经济因素。我们日常语言中的那个颇具误导性的“经济动机”，只是指人们对一般性机会的渴望，也就是人们希望自己拥有一种能力，去实现自己将来想要实现的任何目标。[1]我们对金钱孜孜以求，那是因为在我们享受自己的工作成果时，金钱可以让我们有最广泛的选择。在现代社会，只需限制我们的金钱收入，就能让我们感受到穷困带给我们的那种束手束脚的感觉；于是许多人开始憎恨金钱，将金钱视为这些束缚的象征。但他们犯了一个错误，错误在于他们把传递束缚之力的媒介当成了束缚的原因。更为正确的观点是：金钱是人类发明的最伟大的自由主义工具之一。在当今社会，金钱让穷人的生活选择变得惊人地丰富，甚至已经超过了几代人之前只有富人能够享受的程度。用“非经济激励”取代“金钱动机”，这是许多社会主义者的一贯主张。只要认真思考一下这个主张究竟意味着什么，我们就能更清楚地认识到金钱的这一功用有多么重要。假如各种报酬都不再以金钱

156. Unfortunately the assurance people derive from this belief that the power which is exercised over economic life is a power over matters of secondary importance only, and which makes them take lightly the threat to the freedom of our economic pursuits, is altogether unwarranted. It is largely a consequence of the erroneous belief that there are purely economic ends separate from the other ends of life. Yet, apart from the pathological case of the miser, there is no such thing. The ultimate ends of the activities of reasonable beings are never economic. Strictly speaking there is no “economic motive” but only economic factors conditioning our striving for other ends. What in ordinary language is misleadingly called the “economic motive” means merely the desire for general opportunity, the desire for power to achieve unspecified ends.[2] If we strive for money it is because it offers us the widest choice in enjoying the fruits of our efforts. Because in modern society it is through the limitation of our money incomes that we are made to feel the restrictions which our relative poverty still imposes upon us, many have come to hate money as the symbol of these restrictions. But this is to mistake for the cause the medium through which a force makes itself felt. It would be much truer to say that money is one of the greatest instruments of freedom ever invented by man. It is money which in existing society opens an astounding range of choice to the poor man, a range greater than that which not many generations ago was open to the wealthy. We shall better understand the significance of this service of money if we consider what it would really mean if, as so many socialists characteristically propose, the “pecuniary motive” were largely displaced by “non-economic incentives”. If all rewards, instead of being offered in money, were offered in the form of public distinctions or privileges, positions of power over other men, or better housing r better food, opportunities for travel or education, this would merely mean that the recipient would no longer be allowed to choose, and that, whoever fixed the reward, determined not only its size but also the particular form in which it should be enjoyed.

157. 一旦我们认识到并不存在孤立的经济动机，认识到我们尚有权决定让经济上的得与失影响我们的哪部分需求或欲望，我们就可以更容易地看到“经济问题只影响次要生活目标”这种普遍观点背后的重要真相；也能更容易地理解人们为什么常常对“单纯”经济考量抱有轻蔑的态度了。在某种意义上说，这种轻蔑在市场经济中是成立的，但也只在自由的市场经济中才成立。只要我们能自由地处置自己的收入和财产，在所有我们能够满足的欲望中，经济损失能够剥夺的，将始终只是我们认为最不重要的那部分。因此，“单纯”的经济损失，不过是我们尚可将其影响转嫁到次要需求上的损失。只有当我们说，某样我们失去的东西的价值远远超出其经济价值，甚至根本无法从经济上来衡量时，那才意味着我们必须承担失去它所造成的无法转嫁的损失。在经济收益方面，道理也是如此。换句话说，经济上的变化通常只能影响我们全部需求中较为边缘的、“边际”的那些部分。还有很多事情，远比经济得失所能影响的那些事情更重要；对我们而言，它们的重要性甚至超越了受经济起伏影响的舒适生活乃至许多生活必需品的重要性。与这些事情相比，我们在经济上究竟是穷一点还是富一点，“肮脏的金钱”看起来就不那么重要了。这就让很多人轻信，像经济计划这样只会影响我们经济利益的事情，不会严重影响到我们更基本的生活价值。

158. Once we realise that there is no separate economic motive and that an economic gain or economic loss is merely a gain or a loss where it is still in our power to decide which of our needs or desires shall be affected, it is also easier to see the important kernel of truth in the general belief that economic matters affect only the less important ends of life, and to understand the contempt in which “merely” economic considerations are often held. In a sense this is quite justified in a market economy - but only in such a free economy. So long as we can freely dispose over our income and all our possessions, economic loss will always deprive us only of what we regard as the least important of the desires we were able to satisfy. A “merely” economic loss is thus one whose effect we can still make fall on our less important needs, while when we say that the value of something we have lost is much greater than its economic value, or that it cannot even be estimated in economic terms, this means that we must bear the loss where it falls. And similarly with an economic gain. Economic changes, in other words, usually affect only the fringe, the “margin”, of our needs. There are many things which are more important than anything which economic gains or losses are likely to affect, which for us stand high above the amenities and even above many of the necessities of life which are affected by the economic ups and downs. Compared with them, the “filthy lucre”, the question whether we are economically somewhat worse or better off, seems of little importance. This makes many people believe that anything which, like economic planning, affects only our economic interests, cannot seriously interfere with the more basic values of life.

159. 然而，这却是一个错误的结论。对我们来说，经济价值之所以不如许多事情重要，恰恰是因为我们在经济事务中仍然是自由的，仍能决定什么比较重要，什么不那么重要；我们或许还可以这么说，那恰恰是因为在当今社会，我们生活中的经济问题要靠自己来解决。一旦我们对经济目标的追求被控制，那就意味着，除非我们公开说清楚我们从事经济活动的具体目标，我们将处处被控制。然而，即使我们把具体目标说清楚了，也还得获得批准。这样一来，我们的一切实际上就都被控制了。

158. This, however, is an erroneous conclusion. Economic values are less important to us than many things precisely because in economic matters we are free to decide what to us is more, and what less, important. Or, as we might say, because in the present society it is we who have to solve the economic problems of our lives. To be controlled in our economic pursuits means to be always controlled unless we declare our specific purpose. Or, since when we declare our specific purpose we shall also have to get it approved, we should really be controlled in everything.

159. 因此，经济计划所引发的问题，不只在于我们能否按照自己喜欢的方式去满足我们觉得重要的需求。更重要的是，在判断哪些需求对我们来说更重要或者更不重要的时候，究竟是我们自己说了算，还是计划者说了算。经济计划对我们的影响，远不止于我们不屑地谈及“单纯经济考量”时所想到的边缘需求，实际上它意味着：作为个体，我们将不再被允许自行决定我们应该把什么视为边缘需求。

159. The question raised by economic planning is, therefore, not merely whether we shall be able to satisfy what we regard as our more or less important needs in the way we prefer. It is whether it shall be we who decide what is more, and what is less, important for us, or whether this is to be decided by the planner. Economic planning would not affect merely those of our marginal needs that we have in mind when we speak contemptuously about the merely economic. It would, in effect, mean that we as individuals should no longer be allowed to decide what we regard as marginal.

160. 掌管一切经济活动的当权者不仅要控制我们生活中相对庸俗的事务，它还要控制如何在我们的不同目标之间分配有限的资源。谁控制了经济活动，谁就控制了实现各种目标所需要的资源；因此也就必然要决定哪些应该予以满足，哪些则不应该。这才是事情的关键所在。对经济的控制不仅是控制人类生活中可以与其他部分相互分割的那一部分，它还要控制供我们实现各种目标的资源。无论是谁，只要他单独控制了这些资源，他就势必决定这些资源应该服务于哪些目标，以及哪些价值更重要、哪些不那么重要。简而言之，他将决定人们应该相信什么，应该为什么而奋斗。集中计划意味着由集体而非个体解决经济问题，但这同时意

160. The authority directing all economic activity would control not merely the part of our lives which is concerned with inferior things; it would control the allocation of the limited means for all our ends. And whoever controls all economic activity controls the means for all our ends, and must therefore decide which are to be satisfied and which not. This is really the crux of the matter. Economic control is not merely control of a sector of human life which can be separated from the rest; it is the control of the means for all our ends. And whoever has sole control of the means must also determine which ends are to be served, which values are to be rated higher and which lower, in short, what men should believe and strive for. Central planning means that the economic problem is to be solved by the community instead of by the individual; but this involves that it must also be the community, or rather its representatives, who must decide the relative importance of the different needs.

161. 计划者许诺给我们的所谓经济自由，准确地说，意味着我们再也无需自己解决自己的经济问题，而为了解决这些问题所须做出的痛苦抉择，也将由他人代劳。在现代条件下，我们几乎在所有事情上都依赖他人提供的资源，因此，经济计划将支配我们生活的全部。从基本需求到与家人朋友的关系，从工作性质到闲暇时光的利用，几乎没有哪件事能免于计划者“有意识的控制”。[3]

161. The so-called economic freedom which the planners promise us means precisely that we are to be relieved of the necessity of solving our own economic problems and that the bitter choices which this often involves are to be made for us. Since under modern conditions we are for almost everything dependent on means which our fellow men provide, economic planning would involve direction of almost the whole of our life. There is hardly an aspect of it, from our primary needs to our relations with our family and friends, from the nature of our work to the use of our leisure, over which the planner would not exercise his “conscious control”.[4]

162. 即便计划者选择不以直接控制消费的方式行使其权力，他对我们私人生活的支配同样彻底。计划型社会可能在一定范围内采取配给制或类似手段，但计划者支配我们私人生活的权力并不依赖于这些手段；即便消费者在名义上可以按照自己的意愿自由支配收入，计划者的支配能力也几乎不会减弱。在计划型社会中，当权者有权控制一切消费的根源在于他对生产的控制。

162. The power of the planner over our private lives would be no less complete if he chose not to exercise it by direct control of our consumption. Although a planned society would probably to some extent employ rationing and similar devices, the power of the planner over our private lives does not depend on this, and would be hardly less effective if the consumer were nominally free to spend his income as he pleased. The source of this power over all consumption which in a planned society the authority would possess would be their control over production.

[3] 外币兑换领域最能说明经济控制对整个生活的控制程度。乍一看，政府对外币兑换交易的控制似乎对私人生活影响最小，因此大多数人可能对其漠不关心。然而，欧洲大陆多数国家的经验让有思想的人认识到，外币兑换交易控制是通向极权主义、压制个人自由之路上的决定性一步。事实上，它把个人彻底置于政府的暴政之下，不仅剥夺了富人，而且剥夺了所有人逃脱控制的手段。一旦个人失去自由旅行的权利，无法自由购买外国书籍或期刊，一旦所有与外国接触的渠道，都只供官方意识形态批准或认为确有必要的人使用，那么对思想的控制效率将远远超过十七世纪和十八世纪任何一个专制政府所能做到的程度。

[4] The extent of the control over all life that economic control confers is nowhere better illustrated than in the field of foreign exchanges. Nothing would at first seem to affect private life less than a state control of the dealings in foreign exchange, and most people will regard its introduction with complete indifference. Yet the experience of most continental countries has taught thoughtful people to regard this step as the decisive advance on the path to totalitarianism and the suppression of individual liberty. It is in fact the complete delivery of the individual to the tyranny of the state, the final suppression of all means of escape - not merely for the rich, but for everybody. Once the individual is no longer free to travel, no longer free to buy foreign books or journals, once all the means of foreign contact can be restricted to those of whom official opinion approves or for whom it is regarded as necessary, the effective control of opinion is much greater than that ever exercised by any of the absolutist governments of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

163. 在竞争型社会，我们之所以拥有选择自由，是因为如果一个人拒绝满足我们的愿望，我们可以求诸另一个人。但是，如果我们面对的是一个垄断者，那就只能听其摆布了。而掌控整个经济体系的当权者将是人们所能想象的最强大的垄断者。尽管我们大概不必担心这样的当权者会像私人垄断者那样利用其权力，其目的想必也不是为了谋取最大的经济利益，但他完全有能力决定在什么条件下能让我们得到什么。他不仅会决定给我们提供的商品和服务的种类及数量，还要主导这些商品和服务在不同地区和不同群体之间的分配。如果他愿意，甚至可以任意地、以任何程度区别对待不同的人。只要我们还记得大多数人推崇计划的原因，还会怀疑这种权力将被用于推进当权者认可的目标并压制其不认可的追求吗?

163. Our freedom of choice in a competitive society rests on the fact that, if one person refuses to satisfy our wishes we can turn to another. But if we face a monopolist we are at his mercy. And an authority directing the whole economic system would be the most powerful monopolist conceivable. While we need probably not be afraid that such an authority would exploit this power in the manner in which a private monopolist would do so, while its purpose would presumably not be the extortion of maximum financial gain, it would have complete power to decide what we are to be given and on what terms. It would not only decide what commodities and services were to be available, and in what quantities; it would be able to direct their distribution between districts and groups and could, if it wished, discriminate between persons to any degree it liked. If we remember why planning is advocated by most people, can there be much doubt that this power would be used for the ends of which the authority approves and to prevent the pursuits of ends which it disapproves?

164. 控制生产和价格带来的权力几乎是无限的。在竞争型社会，我们购买一件商品的价格，或者我们以物易物的交换比率，取决于其他社会成员因为我们获得某一物品而无法获得的其他物品的数量。这个价格并不是由任何人的主观意志决定的。如果实现目标的某种方式对我们来说太过昂贵，我们可以自由地尝试其他方式。我们实现目标的障碍，并非源于有人不赞成我们的目标，而是我们需要的资源在别处也被需要。而在指令型经济中，当权者监视着人们追求的目标，可以肯定的是，它将利用其权力支持一些目标，阻挠另一些目标。我们应该得到什么，将由他人认为我们应该喜欢什么或不该喜欢什么的看法决定，而不再取决于我们自己的看法。而且，既然当权者有权挫败任何逃避其指令的努力，那么，他对我们消费的控制，几乎能够达到直接告诉我们应该如何支配我们收入的程度。

164. The power conferred by the control of production and prices is almost unlimited. In a competitive society the prices we have to pay for a thing, the rate at which we can get one thing for another, depend on the quantities of other things of which, by taking one, we deprive the other members of society. This price is not determined by the conscious will of anybody. And if one way of achieving our ends proves too expensive for us, we are free to try other ways. The obstacles in our path are not due to somebody disapproving of our ends, but to the fact that the same means are also wanted elsewhere. In a directed economy, where the authority watches over the ends pursued, it is certain that it would use its powers to assist some ends and to prevent the realisation of others. Not our own view, but somebody else's, of what we ought to like or dislike would determine what we should get. And since the authority would have the power to thwart any efforts to elude its guidance, it would control what we consume almost as effectively as if it directly told us how to spend our income.

165. 不过，当权者在以他的意志塑造和“引导”我们的日常生活时，不只是，甚至并不主要是把我们当作消费者，而是把我们当作生产者看待。在生活中，我们的这两种身份是无法分割的。我们大多数人花在工作上的时间占据了生活的很大一部分；而我们的工作常常也决定了我们居住的地方以及我们的生活圈子。所以，就我们的幸福而言，选择工作的些许自由或许比在闲暇时自由支配我们的收入更为重要。

165. Not only in our capacity as consumers, however, and not even mainly in that capacity, would the will of the authority shape and “guide” our daily lives. It would do so even more in our position as producers. These two aspects of our lives cannot be separated; and as for most of us the time we spend at our work is a large part of our whole lives, and as our job usually also determines the place where and the people among whom we live, some freedom in choosing our work is, probably, even more important for our happiness than freedom to spend our income during the hours of leisure.

166. 毫无疑问，即便在最理想的世界，这种自由也十分有限。能够拥有丰富职业选择的人并不多。但重要的是，我们尚有一些选择，还不至于被完全束缚在别人为我们安排的，或者我们曾经选择的那份工作上。如果一份工作变得相当难以忍受，或者我们又倾心于另一份工作，有能力的人几乎总是能找到办法，哪怕做出一些牺牲，也可以实现自己的目标。没有什么比明知无论怎样努力也无法改变现状更令人难以忍受了。即便我们可能永远也没有勇气去做出必要的牺牲，但如果心里知道，只要足够努力就有机会摆脱现状，许多本来难以忍受的处境也会变得好受一些了。

166. No doubt it is true that even in the best of worlds this freedom will be very limited. Few people have ever an abundance of choice of occupation. But what matters is that we have some choice, that we are not absolutely tied to a particular job which has been chosen for us, or which we may have chosen in the past, and that if one position becomes quite intolerable, or if we set our heart on another, there is almost always a way for the able, some sacrifice at the price of which he may achieve his goal. Nothing makes conditions more unbearable than the knowledge that no effort of ours can change them; and even if we should never have the strength of mind to make the necessary sacrifice, the knowledge that we could escape if we only strove hard enough makes many otherwise intolerable positions bearable.

167. 这并不是说，在我们当下的社会，或者在过去那个最自由的时代，我们已经做到最好；更不是说，我们已经无需付出更多努力去为人们提供更丰富的职业选择。与其他国家一样，我们国家的政府在传播职业知识和就业信息，促进人员流动等方面还有很多事可做。但关键是，那种真正能够增加职业选择的政府行为与当下普遍提倡和实践的“计划”几乎完全是背道而驰的。诚然，大多数计划者都承诺，在新的计划型世界里，自由选择职业的权利将得到严

167. This is not to say that in this respect all is for the best in our present world, or has been so in the most liberal past, and that there is not much that could be done to improve the opportunities of choice open to the people. Here as elsewhere the state can do a great deal to help the spreading of knowledge and information and to assist mobility. But the point is that the kind of state action which really would increase opportunity is almost precisely the opposite of the “planning” which is now generally advocated and practised. Most planners, it is true, promise that in the new planned world free choice of occupation will be scrupulously preserved or even increased. But there they promise more than they can possibly fulfil. If they want to plan they must control the entry into the different trades and occupations, or the terms of remuneration, or both. In almost all known instances of planning the establishment of such controls and restrictions was among the first measures taken. If such control were universally practised and exercised by a single planning authority, one needs little imagination to see what would become of the "free choice of occupation" promised. The "freedom of choice" would be purely fictitious, a mere promise to practise no discrimination where in the nature of the case discrimination must be practised, and where all one could hope would be that the selection would be made on what the authority believed to be objective grounds.

168. 即便政府计划部门只负责制定雇用条件，并通过调整这些条件来调节就业人数，情况也不会有什么不同。用规定薪酬标准的方法将某些群体排除在许多行业之外的效果，并不亚于专门颁布禁止措施。一个相貌平平却强烈渴望成为销售员的姑娘，一个不甚强壮却一心想要从事其身体难以承受之工作的男孩，以及那些总体上能力较弱或不太能够胜任工作的人，他们在竞争型社会里未必会遭到排斥，因为只要他们足够看重那份工作，往往可以先在经济收入上做些让步，来换取一个从头做起的机会，然后再利用自己起初不太明显的特质取得成功。但是，如果当权者将整个行业的薪酬标准固定下来，并且以某种"客观的"测试筛选应聘者，那么，应聘者对工作的渴望程度就变得不那么重要了。那些在资质上与标准有异，或者性格不同一般的人，即便其特点正好符合某位雇主的要求，他们也无法与雇主协商，以某种特别的安排形成雇佣关系；那些宁愿接受不规律的工作时间，宁愿靠微薄和不确定的收入换取逍遥自在、不受约束的生活的人，也将无法

168. There would be little difference if the planning authority confined itself to fixing the terms of employment and tried to regulate numbers by adjusting these terms. By prescribing the remuneration it would no less effectively bar groups of people from entering many trades than by specifically excluding them. A rather plain girl who badly wants to become a saleswoman, a weakly boy who has set his heart on a job where his weakness handicaps him, as well as in general the apparently less able or less suitable are not necessarily excluded in a competitive society; if they value the position sufficiently, they will frequently be able to get a start by a financial sacrifice and will later make good through qualities which at first are not so obvious. But when the authority fixes the remuneration for a whole category and the selection among the candidates is made by an objective test, the strength of their desire for the job will count for very little. The person whose qualifications are not of the standard type, or whose temperament is not of the ordinary kind, will no longer be able to come to special arrangements with an employer whose dispositions will fit in with his special needs: the person who prefers irregular hours or even a happy-go-lucky existence with a small and perhaps uncertain income to a regular routine will no longer have the choice. Conditions will be without exception what in some measure they inevitably are in a large organisation - or rather worse, because there will be no possibility of escape. We shall no longer be free to be rational or efficient only when and where we think it worth while, we shall all have to conform to the standards which the planning authority must fix in order to simplify its task. To make this immense task manageable it will have to reduce the diversity of human capacities and inclinations to a few categories of readily interchangeable units and deliberately to disregard minor personal differences. Although the professed aim of planning would be that man should cease to be a mere means, in fact - since it would be impossible to take account in the plan of individual likes and dislikes - the individual would more than ever become a mere means, to be used by the authority in the service of such abstractions as the “social welfare” or the “good of the community”.

169. 在竞争型社会，大多数东西都可以通过付出某种代价获得，尽管代价往往高得近乎残忍。这一事实的重要性，无论怎样强调都不为过。然而，在与之相对的另一种社会，人们没有完整的选择自由，只有必须遵守的命令和禁令，到了最后，还得仰仗权贵的恩宠。

169. That in a competitive society most things can be had at a price - though it is often a cruelly high price we have to pay, is a fact the importance of which can hardly be overrated. The alternative is not, however, complete freedom of choice, but orders and prohibitions which must be obeyed and, in the last resort, the favour of the mighty.

170. 在这些议题上普遍存在思维混乱中，有一种尤为突出：“在竞争型社会，大多数东西都可以通过付出某种代价获得”这一事实竟会成为招人诟病的罪名。那些反对用“金钱关系”衡量生命中更高价值的人，竟然不允许我们为了追求更高价值去牺牲较低层次的需求，而且这种取舍还要他人替我们做决定，这样的要求不仅显得十分古怪，而且很难说它体现了对个体尊严的真正尊重。生命与健康、美丽与美德、荣誉与心灵的平静，往往只能在付出巨大的物质代价后才能得以保全；而且一定会有人情愿选择付出这样的代价去捍卫这些价值，这些都不容

170. It is significant of the confusion prevailing on all these subjects that it should have become a cause for reproach that in a competitive society almost everything can be had at a price. If the people who protest against the higher values of life being brought into the “cash nexus” that we should not be allowed to sacrifice our lesser needs in order to preserve the higher values, and that the choice should be made for us, this demand must be regarded as rather peculiar and scarcely testifies to great respect for the dignity of the individual. That life and health, beauty and virtue, honour and peace of mind, can often be preserved only at considerable material cost, and that somebody must make the choice, is as undeniable as that we all are sometimes not prepared to make the material sacrifices necessary to protect those higher values against all injury. To take only one example: we could, of course, reduce casualties by motor accidents to zero if we were willing to bear the cost - if in no other way - by abolishing motor-cars. And the same is true of thousands of other instances in which we are constantly risking life and health and all the fine values of the spirit, of ourselves and of our fellow men, to further what we at the same time contemptuously describe as our material comfort. Nor can it be otherwise since all our ends compete for the same means; and we could not strive for anything but these absolute values if they were on no account to be endangered.

171. 严酷的现实常常逼迫人们做出苦涩的选择，他们希望摆脱这种苦涩并不令人感到惊讶。然而，很少有人会愿意通过让别人替自己做选择来解脱这种痛苦。他们只是希望根本不必做选择。而且，他们还很容易相信，实际上选择并不是必须的，而是他们所处的那个特定的经济制度强加给他们的。事实上，真正让他们耿耿于怀的还是经济问题[6]本身。

171. That people should wish to be relieved of the bitter choice which hard facts often impose upon them is not surprising. But few want to be relieved through the choice being made for them by others. People just wish that the choice should not be necessary at all. And they are only too ready to believe that the choice is not really necessary, that it is imposed upon them merely by the particular economic system under which we live. What they resent is in truth that there is an economic problem.

172. 就在人们一厢情愿地以为经济问题已经不复存在的时候，“潜在富足”这一不负责任的说辞更是印证了他们的幻觉。按照这种说法，如果“潜在富足”成为现实，就再也没有什么经济问题能够逼迫人们去做选择了。这个骗术一直是社会主义的宣传手段，自社会主义出现以来，历经百年，虽名目多变，始终不变的是它显而易见的虚假本质。在这一百多年里，许多人鼓吹“潜在富足”，却从来没有人提出过可行

172. In their wishful belief that there is really no longer an economic problem people have been confirmed by irresponsible talk about “potential plenty” - which, if it were a fact, would indeed mean that there is no economic problem which makes the choice inevitable. But although this snare has served socialist propaganda under various names as long as socialism has existed, it is still as palpably untrue as it was when it was first used over a hundred years ago. In all this time not one of the many people who have used it has produced a workable plan of how production could be increased so as to abolish even in Western Europe what we regard as poverty - not to speak of the world as a whole. The reader may take it that whoever talks about potential plenty is either dishonest or does not know what he is talking about.[8] Yet it is this false hope as much as anything which drives us along the road to planning.

[5] 绝对价值（absolute values），在哲学和伦理学的领域，特别是在德国哲学传统中，指那些被认为是普遍的、不受相对条件或特定环境影响的、不应该被物质化或与经济交换挂钩的价值。这些价值通常被视为最基本、最重要的，不容妥协的原则，如生命、健康、美德、自由、正义、精神上的美好、人的尊严等。-译注

[6] “经济问题”（economic problem）是经济学中的专有名词，指由于资源的稀缺性和人类欲望的无限性，社会与个人必须在不同的目标之间做出取舍的困境。这个问题的核心是如何有效地配置有限的资源，以满足人类的多种需求。-译注

的计划，告诉我们如何提高生产才能消除我们所说贫困，哪怕只在西欧，更不用说整个世界了。读者大可断定：凡是鼓吹潜在富足的人，要么是不诚实，要么是根本不知道自己在说什么。[7]然而，正是这种虚假的希望，与其他因素一道，推动我们走上了计划的道路。

173. 尽管这场群众运动仍在从这种错误观点中获益，但计划经济的生产能力明显高于竞争体制的观点，正逐渐被大多数研究该问题的学者所抛弃。甚至很多持有社会主义观点、认真研究过集中计划问题的经济学家，如今也只能满足于对计划型社会的效率能与竞争型社会持平保持希望了。他们提倡计划的理由，已经不再是因为它能带来更高的生产力，而是因为它能帮我们实现更公平、更公正的财富分配。事实上，在支持计划的论点当中，这是唯一可供严肃讨论的了。不可否认，要想确保财富分配符合某种预先制定的标准，要想有意识地决定谁该拥有什么，我们必须对整个经济体系进行计划。然而，剩下的问题是：与饱受诟病的、让经济机制自由运行所带给人们的不满与压迫相比，我们为了实现某些人心中所谓的正义理想而付出的代价，难道不会更大吗?

173. While the popular movement still profits by this false belief, the claim that a planned economy would produce a substantially larger output than the competitive system is being progressively abandoned by most students of the problem. Even a good many economists with socialist views who have seriously studied the problems of central planning are now content to hope that a planned society will equal the efficiency of a competitive system; they advocate planning no longer because of its superior productivity but because it will enable us to secure a more just and equitable distribution of wealth. This is, indeed, the only argument for planning which can be seriously pressed. It is indisputable that if we want to secure a distribution of wealth which conforms to some predetermined standard, if we want consciously to decide who is to have what, we must plan the whole economic system. But the question remains whether the price we should have to pay for the realisation of somebody's ideal of justice is not bound to be more discontent and more oppression

[8] To justify these strong words the following conclusions may be quoted at which Mr. Colin Clark, one of the best known among the younger economic statisticians, and a man of undoubted progressive views and a strictly scientific outlook, has arrived in his Conditions of Economic Progress (1940, pp. 3-4): The "oft-repeated phrases about poverty in the midst of plenty, and the problems of production having already been solved if only we understood the problem of distribution, turn out to be the most untruthful of all modern clichés.... The under-utilisation of productive capacity is a question of considerable importance only in the U.S.A., though in certain years also it has been of some importance in Great Britain, Germany and France, but for most of the world it is entirely subsidiary to the more important fact that, with productive resources fully employed, they can produce so little. The age of plenty will still be a long while in coming.... If preventable unemployment were eliminated throughout the trade cycle, this would mean a distinct improvement in the standard of living of the population of the U.S.A., but from the standpoint of the world as a whole it would only make a small contribution towards the much greater problem of raising the real income of the bulk of the world population to anything like a civilised standard."

than was ever caused by the much abused free play of economic forces.

174. 如果我们为了排解这些忧虑而寻求安慰，将集中计划看作是人类社会在经历了短暂的自由经济时期之后的一种回归，重拾在大多数历史时期里始终支配经济活动的纽带和规则，并且，如果因为这个原因，我们就认为个人自由受到的侵犯并不比自由放任时代之前更严重，那我们实际上是在欺骗自己。这是一种危险的幻觉。即便在欧洲历史上对经济生活管制最为严格的时期，也不过是建立了一个一般性的、半永久性的规则框架。在这个框架中，个体仍然保留了广阔的自由空间。当时可用的控制手段，充其量只够实施一些非常笼统的管制。即便是最彻底的控制，也只涉及到个体参与社会分工的那些活动。在更广泛的范围内，那时的人们仍然可以靠自己的产品自给自足，并按自己的选择自由行事。

174. We should be seriously deceiving ourselves if for these apprehensions we sought comfort in the consideration that the adoption of central planning would merely mean a return, after a brief spell of a free economy, to the ties and regulations which have governed economic activity through most ages, and that, therefore, the infringements of personal liberty need not be greater than they were before the age of laissez-faire. This is a dangerous illusion. Even during the periods of European history when the regimentation of economic life went furthest, it amounted to little more than the creation of a general and semi-permanent framework of rules within which the individual preserved a wide free sphere. The apparatus of control then available would not have been adequate to impose more than very general directions. And even where the control was most complete it extended only to those activities of a person through which he took part in the social division of labour. In the much wider sphere in which he then still lived on his own products he was free to act as he chose.

175. 如今，情况已完全不同了。在自由主义时代，不断深化的劳动分工让我们几乎所有的活动都成了社会运作的一部分。这一变化是我们无法逆转的，因为正是有了它，我们才能在人口大幅增长的情况下勉强维持与当下大致相当的生活水平。然而，也正因为如此，如果竞争被集中计划所取代，那么，我们的生活被集中管理的程度，要远比以前任何时候都要高；而且，因为我们如今生活的几乎每一个方面都依赖于他人的经济活动，这种管理不可能止步于我们通常所理解的“经济活动”。[9]对“以集体方式

175. The situation is now entirely different. During the liberal era the progressive division of labour has created a situation where almost every one of our activities is part of a social process. This is a development which we cannot reverse since it is only because of it that we can maintain the vastly increased population at anything like present standards. But, in consequence, the substitution of central planning for competition would require central direction of a much greater part of our lives than was ever attempted before. It could not stop at what we regard as our economic activities, because we are now for almost every part of our lives dependent on somebody else's economic activities.[10] The passion for the “collective satisfaction of our needs”, with which our socialists have so well prepared the way for totalitarianism, and which wants us to take our pleasures as well as our necessities at the appointed time and in the prescribed form, of course, partly intended as a means of political education. But it is also the result of the exigencies of planning, which consists essentially in depriving us of choice, in order to give us whatever fits best into the plan and that at a time determined by the plan.

176. 我们常说，没有经济自由，政治自由便毫无意义。这句话本身没有问题，但我们说这句话的意思，与计划者说这话的意思恐怕完全不同。作为一切其他自由之先决条件的那种经济自由，并不是社会主义者向我们许诺的那种“免于经济烦恼的自由”、那种必须同时解除个人选择的必要和选择的能力才能拥有的自由。真正的经济自由，必须是我们从事经济活动的自由，它与选择的权利相伴而生，也必然带有这种权利的风险与责任。

176. It is often said that political freedom is meaningless without economic freedom. This is true enough, but in a sense almost opposite from that in which the phrase is used by our planners. The economic freedom which is the prerequisite of any other freedom cannot be the freedom from economic care which the socialists promise us and which can be obtained only by relieving the individual at the same time of the necessity and of the power of choice; it must be the freedom of our economic activity which, with the right of choice, inevitably also carries the risk and the responsibility of that right.

[10] It is no accident that in the totalitarian countries, be it Russia or Germany or Italy, the question of how to organise the people’s leisure should have become a problem of planning. The Germans have even invented for this problem the horrible and self-contradictory name of Freizeitgestaltung (literally: the shaping of the use made of the people’s free time) as if it were still “free time” when it has to be spent in the way ordained by authority.

对平等的痴迷熄灭了对自由的冀望，葬送了人世间最值得珍惜的机遇。

阿克顿勋爵

177. 值得我们注意的是，对竞争最常见的一个批评，竟是它的“盲目”。无独有偶，“盲目”还是古人赋予正义女神的特征。尽管竞争和正义的共同之处不多，一视同仁却是二者都值得称道的属性。重要的是，在制定法律规则的时候，我们不应能够预测到，执行这些法律规则将会对哪些人有利、对哪些人不利；与之同样重要的是，我们不能预知谁将受到好运的眷顾，谁又会遭遇不幸；以及一个人得到的奖赏与惩罚只应取决于他的能力和运气；而不取决于某个人对“谁该怎么奖，谁该怎么罚”的看法。无论如何，在竞争环境中，机遇与运气往往与技能与远见一样能够决定不同人的命运。

179. 究竟是建立一种人人都能按照某种绝对而普遍适用的标准获得其应得之物的制度，还是一种个人所得部分地取决于偶然事件与运气好坏的制度？对我们来说，这个选择并不成立。我们真正能够选择的，在另外两种制度之间：在一种制度中，少数人的意志决定谁应当得到什么；在另一种制度中，个人所得至少部分地取决于能力和进取心，部分地取决于无法预见的环境因素。自由企业制度不可避免地以私有财产为基础，在某种程度上还依赖财产的继承，因此，在这个制度下机会并不平等，但这不应影响我们做出正确的选择。诚然，我们有充分的理由去减少这种机会上的不平等，但前提应该是承认人与人之间的秉赋差异，并保持该过程的非人格化特征。在这个过程中，每个

The finest opportunity ever given to the world was thrown away because the passion for equality made vain the hope for freedom.

178. IT is significant that one of the commonest objections to competition is that it is “blind”. It is not irrelevant to recall that to the ancients blindness was an attribute of their deity of justice. Although competition and justice may have little else in common, it is as much a commendation of competition as of justice that it is no respecter of persons. That it is impossible to foretell who will be the lucky ones or whom disaster will strike, that rewards and penalties are not shared out according to somebody’s views about the merits or demerits of different people, but depend on their capacity and their luck, is as important as that in framing legal rules we should not be able to predict which particular person will gain and which will lose by their application. And this is none the less true because in competition chance and good luck are often as important as skill and foresight in determining the fate of different people.

178. The choice open to us is not between a system in which everybody will get what he deserves according to some absolute and universal standard of right, and one where the individual shares are determined partly by accident or good or ill chance, but between a system where it is the will of a few persons that decides who is to get what, and one where it depends at least partly on the ability and enterprise of the people concerned and partly on unforeseeable circumstances. This is no less relevant because in a system of free enterprise chances are not equal, since such a system is necessarily based on private property and (though perhaps not with the same necessity) on inheritance, with the differences in opportunity which these create. There is indeed a strong case for reducing this inequality of opportunity as far as congenital differences permit and as it is possible to do so without destroying the impersonal character of the process by which everybody has to take his chance and no person's view about what is right and desirable overrules that of others.

179. 在竞争型社会中，穷人的机会远不如富人多，但这并不会改变一个事实：这种社会里的穷人比另一种社会中有着更高物质生活的人所享有的自由要多得多。尽管在竞争型社会中，白手起家的人变得非常富有的机会远不如继承了一笔财产的人，但他毕竟能有这样的机会，不仅如此，竞争体系还是唯一一种能让他只需依靠自己而无需依靠有权势者恩赐的体系；而且在这个体系中，任何人都无法阻挠他为变得富有而作出的努力。只因为我们已经忘记了不自由的滋味，才常常对一个显而易见的事实视而不见：在我们这个国家，一名低收入的非熟练工人塑造自己生活的自由，无论怎么看，都超过了德国的许多小企业主，或者俄国的高薪工程师或经理人。为了遵从自己的意愿，他有时可能需要付出高昂的代价，甚至在很多人看来过于高昂，但是无论是换个工作也好，换个住处也好，公开发表一些观点也好，还是以自己的方式享受闲暇时光也好，他做这一切，都不会遇到绝对无法克服的障碍，他的人身安全和自由也不会受到威胁，更不会被野蛮的暴力把他困在长官指配给他的任务和环境里。

180. 事实上，只需废除私人的财产性收入，即便保留不同人群劳动所得的差异，大多数社会主义者的正义理想就算是实现了。[1]被他们遗忘

179. The fact that the opportunities open to the poor in a competitive society are much more restricted than those open to the rich does not make it less true that in such a society the poor are much more free than a person commanding much greater material comfort in a different type of society. Although under competition the probability that a man who starts poor will reach great wealth is much smaller than is true of the man who has inherited property, it is not only possible for the former, but the competitive system is the only one where it depends solely on him and not on the favours of the mighty, and where nobody can prevent a man from attempting to achieve this result. It is only because we have forgotten what unfreedom means that we often overlook the patent fact that in every real sense a badly paid unskilled worker in this country has more freedom to shape his life than many a small entrepreneur in Germany or a much better paid engineer or manager in Russia. Whether it is a question of changing his job or the place where he lives, of professing certain views or of spending his leisure in a particular manner, although sometimes the price he may have to pay for following his inclinations may be high, and to many appear too high, there are no absolute impediments, no dangers to bodily security and freedom that confine him by brute force to the task and the environment to which a superior has assigned him.

180. That the ideal of justice of most socialists would be satisfied if merely private income from property were abolished and the differences between the earned incomes of different people remained what they are now, is true.[2] What these people forget is that in transferring all property in the means of production to the state they put the state in a position whereby its action must in effect decide all other incomes. The power thus given to the state and the demand that the state should use it to "plan" means nothing else than that it should use it in full awareness of all these effects.

[1] 我们很可能习惯性地高估了财产性收入差异造成收入不平等的程度，也就因此高估了废除财产性收入对消除主要不平等的作用。我们掌握的关于苏俄收入分配的有限资料，并未显示苏俄收入不平等的程度比资本主义社会显著更低。马克斯·伊士曼提供了一些俄国官方资料中的资料（《俄罗斯社会主义的终结》，1937年，第30－34页），其中显示俄国最高工资和最低工资之间的差距与美国处于相同水平，约50比1；而根据詹姆斯·伯纳姆所引用的列昂·托洛茨基在1939年的估计（《管理革命》，1941年，第43页），苏联人口中较富裕的11%或12%获得了大约50%的国民收入。这一差距比美国更为显著，在美国，人口中收入较多10%只得到大约35%的国民收入。

的是，将全部生产资料所有权交予政府，等于是把政府放在了一个其行为实际上必将决定所有其他收入的位置上。赋予政府这样的权力，并要求政府用它推行计划，那将无异于要求政府在充分了解这一安排的一切后果的情况下行使这项权力。

181. 以为这种权力不过是从别人手里转给政府的权力，这种观点是错误的。这种权力是一种新创造出来的权力，是在竞争型社会中从来没有人拥有过的权力。只要财产分散在众多所有者手中，他们中的任何一个人单独行动时，都不可能拥有决定某个特定个人收入和地位的排他性权力；没有人会受制于他，除非那个人能提供比任何人都更优渥的条件。

181. To believe that the power which is thus conferred on the state is merely transferred to it from others is erroneous. It is a power which is newly created and which in a competitive society nobody possesses. So long as property is divided among many owners, none of them acting independently has exclusive power to determine the income and position of particular people - nobody is tied to him except by the fact that he may offer better terms than anybody else.

182. 我们这一代人已经忘记了，私有财产制度是自由最重要的保障，对有产者如此，对无产者也是如此。正是因为生产资料的控制权分散在许多独立行动的个体手中，才不会有任何人能够拥有完全控制我们的权力，我们作为个体才能安排自己的事务。如果所有生产资料都集中在一个人的手里，不管它在名义上属于整个"社会"，还是某个独裁者，谁掌握生产资料的控制权，谁就拥有了支配我们一切的权力。设想在某个少数民族或宗教少数群体中有一位成员，即便他自己没有财产，但他所在社区的其他成员拥有财产，并因此可以雇佣他；如果私有财产被废除，他将成为"公共财产"名义上的所有者之一；如果说这个人在废除私有财产之前更自由，难道会有人不同意吗？设想有一位

182. What our generation has forgotten is that the system of private property is the most important guarantee of freedom, not only for those who own property, but scarcely less for those who do not. It is only because the control of the means of production is divided among many people acting independently that nobody has complete power over us, that we as individuals can decide what to do with ourselves. If all the means of production were vested in a single hand, whether it be nominally that of "society" as a whole, or that of a dictator, whoever exercises this control has complete power over us. Who can seriously doubt that a member of a small racial or religious minority will be freer with no property so long as fellow members of his community have property and are therefore able to employ him, than he would be if private property were abolished and he became owner of a nominal share in the communal property. Or that the power which a multiple

[2] It is probable that we habitually overestimate the extent to which inequality of incomes is mainly caused by income derived from property, and therefore the extent to which the major inequalities would be abolished by abolishing income from property. What little information we have about the distribution of incomes in Soviet Russia does not suggest that the inequalities are there substantially smaller than in a capitalist society. Max Eastman (The End of Socialism in Russia, 1937, pp. 30-4) gives some information from official Russian sources which suggest that the difference between the highest and the lowest salaries paid in Russia is of the same order of magnitude (about 50 to 1) as in the United States; and Leon Trotsky, according to an article quoted by James Burnham (The Managerial Revolution, 1941, p. 43), estimated as late as 1939 that "the upper 11 or 12 per cent. of the Soviet population now receives approximately 50 per cent. of the national income. This differentiation is sharper than in the United States, where the upper 10 per cent. of the population receives approximately 35 per cent. of the national income."

百万富翁，他可能是我的邻居，也可能是我的雇主；另有一位最基层的政府官员，他握有政府强制权力，单凭他的裁决就能决定我能否被允许以某种方式生活或工作；如果说这位官员能够施加于我的权力远远大于那位富翁，难道会有人怀疑吗？一个富人握有权力的世界，总好过只有握有权力的人才能成为富人的世界，这一点又有谁会否认呢？

183. 看到像马克斯·伊士曼这样著名的老共产主义者也对这一真理有了新的认识，真是既感到唏嘘，又感到鼓舞。他在一篇近作中写道：

185. 在回应这种担忧时，有时人们会说，计划者是没有理由去决定个体收入的。决定国民收入中不同人的分配份额，其社会和政治上的困难都非常明显，在把这项任务委派给某个政府部门时，即便是最老练的计划者也会感到非常为难。几乎所有意识到这其中所涉及的问题的

millionaire, who may be my neighbour and perhaps my employer, has over me is very much less than that which the smallest fonctionaire possesses who wields the coercive power of the state and on whose discretion it depends whether and how I am to be allowed to live or to work? And who will deny that a world in which the wealthy are powerful is still a better world than one in which only the already powerful can acquire wealth?

183. It is pathetic, yet at the same time encouraging, to find as prominent an old communist as Mr. Max Eastman rediscovering this truth:

184. It seems obvious to me now [he writes in a recent article] - though I have been slow, I must say, in coming to the conclusion - that the institution of private property is one of the main things that have given man that limited amount of free and equalness that Marx hoped to render infinite by abolishing this institution. Strangely enough Marx was the first to see this. He is the one who informed us, looking backwards, that the evolution of private capitalism with its free market had been a precondition for the evolution of all our democratic freedoms. It never occurred to him, looking forward, that if this was so, these other freedoms might disappear with the abolition of the free market.[4]

185. It is sometimes said, in answer to such apprehensions, that there is no reason why the planner should determine the incomes of individuals. The social and political difficulties involved in deciding the shares of different people in the national income are so obvious that even the most inveterate planner may well hesitate before he charges any authority with this task. Probably everybody who realises what it involves would prefer to confine planning to production, to use it only to secure a “rational organisation of industry”, leaving the distribution of incomes as far as possible to impersonal forces. Although it is impossible to direct industry without exercising some influence on distribution, and although no planner will wish to leave distribution entirely to the forces of the market, they would probably all prefer to confine themselves to seeing that this distribution conforms to certain general rules of equity and fairness, that extreme inequalities are avoided, and that the relation between the remuneration of the major classes is just, without undertaking the responsibility for the position of particular people within their class, or for the gradations and differentiations between smaller groups and individuals.

186. 我们已经看到，所有经济现象之间密切的相互依存性使得计划很难恰好在我们希望它停下来的地方戛然而止；一旦市场的自由运作被阻碍到某种程度，计划者将被迫扩大其控制的范围，直至发展为一种包罗万象的控制。在这个过程中，那些让我们无法在希望的地方将有计划的控制停下来的经济考量，又被某些在计划扩张过程中日益显现的社会或政治倾向有力地强化了。

186. We have already seen that the close interdependence of all economic phenomena makes it difficult to stop planning just where we wish, and that, once the free working of the market is impeded beyond a certain degree, the planner will be forced to extend his controls till they become all-comprehensive. These economic considerations, which explain why it is impossible to stop deliberate control just where we should wish, are strongly reinforced by certain social or political tendencies whose strength makes itself increasingly felt as planning extends.

187. 个体的社会地位不再由非人格化机制所决定，也不再源自众人各自努力竞争的结果，而要取决于当权者的主观决策；这种情况一旦出现得越来越多，并且广泛被人们接受，人们对自己在社会秩序中的地位所持的态度就必然会发生改变。总有些不平等，让遭受不公的人感到不公；总有些失望，让沮丧的人觉得不平；总有些厄运，让被击中的人认为那是他不应承受的。然而，当这些事情发生在一个被刻意引导的社会时，人们的反应将与没有人刻意引导的时候截然不同。由非人格化机制造成的不平

187. Once it becomes increasingly true, and is generally recognised, that the position of the individual is determined not by impersonal forces, not as a result of the competitive effort of many, but by the deliberate decision of authority, the attitude of the people towards their position in the social order necessarily changes. There will always exist inequalities which will appear unjust to those who suffer from them, disappointments which will appear unmerited, and strokes of misfortune which those hit have not deserved. But when these things occur in a society which is consciously directed, the way in which people will react will be very different from what it is when they are nobody’s

conscious choice. Inequality is undoubtedly more readily borne, and affects the dignity of the person much less, if it is determined by impersonal forces, than when it is due to design. In a competitive society it is no slight to a person, no offence to his dignity, to be told by any particular firm that it has no need for his services, or that it cannot offer him a better job. It is true that in periods of prolonged mass-unemployment the effect on many may be very similar. But there are other and better methods to prevent that scourge than central direction. But the unemployment or the loss of income which will always affect some in any society is certainly less degrading if it is the result of misfortune and not deliberately imposed by authority. However bitter the experience, it would be very much worse in a planned society. There individuals will have to decide not whether a person is needed for a particular job, but whether he is of use for anything, and how useful he is. His position in life must be assigned to him by somebody else.

188. 只要是有可能降临到每个人头上的苦难，人们都会比较愿意忍受；但如果苦难源自当权者的决定，忍受起来就不那么容易了。在一架冰冷的机器中充当一枚齿轮就已经够糟糕的了，如果还永远无法摆脱它，总是被固定在同一个地方，服从于他人替我们指定的上司，那就糟糕透了。当意识到自己的处境是人为安排的结果时，人们对这种处境的不满必然会与日俱增。

188. While people will submit to suffering which may hit anyone, they will not so easily submit to suffering which is the result of the decision of authority. It may be bad to be just a cog in an impersonal machine; but it is infinitely worse if we can no longer leave it, if we are tied to our place and to the superiors who have been chosen for us. Dissatisfaction of everybody with his lot will inevitably grow with the consciousness that it is the result of deliberate human decision.

189. 一旦政府以正义之名实施计划，它就无法推卸为每个人的命运或社会地位做决定的责任。在计划型社会，我们都知道，我们的生活比别人更好还是更差，不再是因为没有人能够控制、且无法确切预知的境遇，而是因为某个当权者做出的决定。我们为了改善自己处境而付出的全部努力，不再是尽可能预测生活环境中我们无法控制的变化并为之做好准备，而是

189. Once government has embarked upon planning for the sake of justice, it cannot refuse responsibility for anybody’s fate or position. In a planned society, we shall all know that we are better or worse off than others, not because of circumstances which nobody controls, and which it is impossible to foresee with certainty, but because some authority wills it. And all our efforts directed towards improving our position will have to aim, not at foreseeing and preparing as well as we can for the circumstances over which we have no control, but at influencing in our favour the authority which has all the power. The nightmare of English nineteenth-century political thinkers: the state in which “no avenue to wealth and honour would exist save through the government”[6] would be realised in a completeness which they never imagined - though familiar enough in some countries which have since passed to totalitarianism.

190. 只要政府承担起计划整个经济生活的任务，不同个体和群体的社会地位应该如何安排的问题，就将不可避免地成为核心政治问题。由于只有政府的强制权力才能决定谁拥有什么，所以，唯一值得争取的，将是一份参与行使这种权力的资格。到时候，将不再有什么经济或社会问题不是政治问题，因为任何问题的解决，都只取决于谁掌握强制权力，以及在每一种情形中，谁的观点总能胜出。

190. As soon as the state takes upon itself the task of planning the whole economic life, the problem of the due station of the different individuals and groups must indeed inevitably become the central political problem. As the coercive power of the state will alone decide who is to have what, the only power worth having will be a share in the exercise of this directing power. There will be no economic or social questions that would not be political questions in the sense that their solution will depend exclusively on who wields the coercive power, on whose are the views that will prevail on all occasions.

191. 据我所知，让那句著名的“谁，对谁?”在俄国流传开来的人是列宁。在苏维埃统治的最初几年，人们用这句“口头禅”来概括社会主义社会存在的普遍问题。[7]谁计划谁，谁指挥谁、支配谁，谁替他人决定他们在社会中的位置，谁又只能由他人分配自己应得的一切？这些问题必然都成了只能由最高权力决定的核心问题。

191. I believe it was Lenin himself who introduced to Russia the famous phrase “who, whom?” - during the early years of Soviet rule the byword in which the people summed up the universal problem of a socialist society.[8] Who plans whom, who directs and dominates whom, who assigns to other people their station in life, and who is to have his due allotted by others? These become necessarily the central issues to be decided solely by the supreme power.

192. 最近，有一位美国的政治学者进一步发挥了列宁的这句话，提出任何政府的问题都可以归结为“谁、在何时、以何种方式、得到什么”的问题。从某种意义上说，这个观点并非没有

192. More recently an American student of politics has enlarged upon Lenin’s phrase and asserted that the problem of all government is “who gets what, when, and how?” In a way this is not untrue. That all government affects the relative position of

道理。事实上，任何政府都会影响不同人的相对地位；而在任何制度中，我们的生活中几乎没有哪一方面能够不受政府行为的影响。无论政府做点什么，都必然会对“谁、在何时、以何种方式、得到什么”这个问题产生某种影响。

193. 然而，在这些影响当中，有两点根本性的区别需要厘清。第一种区别，我们之前已经讨论过，即在采取特定措施时，其对特定个体的影响是否无法预知，并且是否因此不以此类特定影响为目的。第二种区别，在于政府行为的范围究竟是决定了任何人在任何时候的一切所得，还是只影响到某些人在某些时候以某些方式获得的某些所得。自由制度与极权制度的全部区别，就体现在这两点区别之上。

194. 自由制度和全面计划型制度之间的对比，典型地体现在纳粹分子和社会主义者共同的抱怨当中。他们都指责“经济与政治的人为分离”，都主张政治主导经济。这些指责和主张大概意味着，不仅经济机制至今仍被允许服务于政府政策之外的目标，而且经济权力也可以脱离政府的指挥，去追求政府未必赞同的目标。然而，与此相对的情形不仅意味着只应存在一个权力，而且握有这唯一权力的统治集团将控制全人类所追求的全部目标，尤其要掌握决定每一个体在社会中所处地位的全部权力。

195. 可以肯定的是，一个承担起管理经济活动的政府，必然会运用其权力实现某些人关于分配正义的理想。然而，它能怎样、又将怎样行使这种权力？它将遵循，或应该遵循什么原则？那些必将出现，且必须为了实现计划的目

different people and that there is under any system scarcely an aspect of our lives which may not be affected by government action, is certainly true. In so far as government does anything at all, its action will always have some effect on “who gets what, when, and how”.

193. There are, however, two fundamental distinctions to be made. First, particular measures may be taken without the possibility of knowing how they will affect particular individuals and therefore without aiming at such particular effects. This point we have already discussed. Secondly, it is the extent of the activities of the government which decides whether everything that any person gets at any time depends on the government, or whether its influence is confined to whether some people will get some things in some way at some time. Here lies the whole difference between a free and a totalitarian system.

194. The contrast between a liberal and a totally planned system is characteristically illustrated by the common complaints of Nazis and socialists of the “artificial separations of economics and politics”, and their equally common demand for the dominance of politics over economics. These phrases presumably mean not only that economic forces are now allowed to work for ends which are not part of the policy of the government, but also that economic power can be used independently of government direction and for ends of which the government may not approve. But the alternative is not merely that there should be only one power, but that this single power, the ruling group, should have control over all human ends, and particularly that it should have complete power over the position of each individual in society.

195. That a government which undertakes to direct economic activity will have to use its power to realise somebody’s ideal of distributive justice is certain. But how can and how will it use that power? By what principles will it or ought it to be guided? Is there a definite answer to the innumerable questions of relative merits that will arise and which will have to be solved deliberately? Is there a scale of values on which reasonable people can be expected to agree, which would justify a new hierarchical order of society, and is likely to satisfy the demands for justice?

的而予以解决的无数个“谁该分多少”的问题，都会有确切答案吗？另外，是否存在这样一套价值尺度，既能为一种新的社会等级秩序赋予正当性，又能满足人们对正义的诉求，同时还能为理性的人所认同呢？

196. 能够明确回答这些问题的，只有一个一般性原则，一条简单的规则，那就是平等，即在所有人类所能掌控的事情上，实现所有个体完全且绝对的平等。如果这个原则被普遍认为是可取的（姑且不考虑其否可行性，即“激励是否充分”的问题），它将为分配正义这一模糊不清的概念赋予清晰的含义，并为计划者提供明确的指引。然而，没有什么能比认为人们普遍向往这种机械式的平等更脱离事实了。从来没有一个以完全平等为目标的社会主义运动得到过人们实质性的支持。社会主义承诺的不是绝对平等，而是更公正、更平等的分配。它真正追求的不是绝对意义上的平等，它唯一认真追求的目标，是“更大的平等”。

196. There is only one general principle, one simple rule which would indeed provide a definite answer to all these questions: equality, complete and absolute equality of all individuals in all those points which are subject to human control. If this were generally regarded as desirable (quite apart from the question whether it would be practicable, i.e., whether it would provide adequate incentives), it would give the vague idea of distributive justice a clear meaning and would give the planner definite guidance. But nothing is further from the truth than that people in general regard mechanical equality of this kind as desirable. No socialist movement which aimed at complete equality has ever gained substantial support. What socialism promised was not an absolutely equal, but a more just and more equal distribution. Not equality in the absolute sense, but “greater equality” is the only goal which is seriously aimed at.

197. 尽管这两种理想听起来非常相似，但就我们讨论的问题而言，二者却有着天壤之别。绝对平等能够清晰界定计划者的任务，而对“更大平等”的追求无非是对现状不满的表达，它只是否定性的，且不提供任何可操作的原则。只要我们还不准备承认，朝着完全平等方向的每一步举措都是可取的，那么，在计划者必须决策的几乎每一个问题上，“追求更大平等”的诉求都无法为他提供答案。

197. Though these two ideals sound very similar, they are as different as possible as far as our problem is concerned. While absolute equality would clearly determine the planner’s task, the desire for greater equality is merely negative, no more than an expression of dislike of the present state of affairs; and so long as we are not prepared to say that every move in the direction towards complete equality is desirable, it answers scarcely any of the questions the planner will have to decide.

198. 这么说并非是在玩弄字眼。我们在此面对的是一个至关重要的问题，而我们所用术语的相似性却极易将其掩盖。或许，人们就何为“完全平等”达成的共识尚可用来回答计划者必须解决的各种“谁该分多少”的问题，但“实现更大平

198. This is not a quibble about words. We face here a crucial issue which the similarity of the terms used is apt to conceal. While agreement on complete equality would answer all the problems of merit the planner must answer, the formula of the approach to greater equality answers practically none. Its content is hardly more definite than the phrases “common good” or “social welfare”. It does not free us from the necessity of deciding in every particular instance between the merits of particular individuals or groups, and gives us no help in that decision. All it tells us in effect is to take from the rich as much as we can. But when it comes to the distribution of the spoils, the problem is the same as if the formula of “greater equality” had never been conceived.

199. 大多数人都不愿承认，我们并不拥有一套足以帮助我们解决这些问题的道德标准：即便不那么完美，至少能比竞争体系解决得更让人满意吧？难道我们不知道什么是“公道价格”，什么是“合理工资”吗？难道我们不能依靠人民所具备的强烈的公平意识吗？即便我们暂时还不能在一些具体案例中就何为公道、何为合理达成完全共识，如果给人民机会去见证自己理想的实现，人民的看法难道不会很快凝聚成更明确的标准吗？

199. Most people find it difficult to admit that we do not possess moral standards which would enable us to settle these questions - if not perfectly, at least to greater general satisfaction than is done by the competitive system. Have we not all some idea of what is a “just price” or a “fair wage”? Can we not rely on the strong sense of fairness of the people? And even if we do not now agree fully on what is just or fair in a particular case, would popular ideas not soon consolidate into more definite standards if people were given an opportunity to see their ideals realised?

200. 遗憾的是，这些愿望几乎没有任何依据。我们现有的标准衍生于我们所熟悉的竞争体系。一旦竞争消失，这些标准也必然会很快消失。我们在说到公道价格或合理工资时，要么指惯常的价格或工资，即过去的经验让人们所期望的回报，要么是指在不存在垄断剥削的情形下本会出现的价格或工资。唯一值得一提的例外，就是曾经有过的一种工人应该获得其“全部劳动产出”的主张；而这一主张也是众多社会主义学说的源头。不过，当下已经没有多少社会主义者还会相信，在社会主义社会中，每个行业的全部产出都应该由该行业的工人们分享；因为这将意味着，资本投入大的行业中，工人收入高，资本投入少的行业中，工人收入

200. Unfortunately there is little ground for such hopes. What standards we have are derived from the competitive regime we have known, and would necessarily disappear soon after the disappearance of competition. What we mean by a just price, or a fair wage, is either the customary price or wage, the return which past experience has made people expect, or the price or wage that would exist if there were no monopolistic exploitation. The only important exception to this used to be the claim of the workers to the “full produce of their labour”, to which so much of socialist doctrine traces back. But there are few socialists to-day who believe that in a socialist society the output of each industry would be entirely shared by the workers of that industry; for this would mean that workers in industries using a great deal of capital would have a much larger income than those in industries using little capital, which most socialists would regard as very unjust. And it is now fairly generally agreed that this particular claim was based on an erroneous interpretation of the facts. But once the claim of the individual worker to the whole of “his” product is disallowed, and the whole of the return from capital is to be divided among all workers, the problem of how to divide it raises the same basic issue.

201. 假如对某种商品或服务的需求量被独立固定下来，那么这种商品的“公道价格”或这种服务的“合理报酬”或许可以用客观的方式加以确定；假如在不考虑成本的情况下给定需求量，计划者或许可以尝试计算出提供相应产量所需支付的价格或工资。然而，每种商品的生产数量实际上必须由计划者决定，这样的话，价格或报酬怎样才算合理也就由他决定了。如果计划者认为社会上不再需要那么多建筑师或钟表匠，且愿意以较低报酬留在这些行业中的人已经足够满足社会需要，那么所谓的“合理报酬”就会较低。在决定不同目标的相对重要性时，计划者也就同时决定了不同群体和个体的相对重要性。他必须对这些后果加以考虑，并有意识地在不同目标的重要性与其决策所造成的后果之间寻找平衡，因为他本不应该只将人视为资源。然而，这也将意味着，他不可避免地要对不同人群的处境实施直接控制。

201. What the “just price” of a particular commodity or the “fair” remuneration for a particular service is, might conceivably be determined objectively if the quantities needed were independently fixed. If these were given irrespective of cost, the planner might try to find what price or wage is necessary to bring forth this supply. But the planner must also decide how much is to be produced of each kind of goods, and in so doing he determines what will be the just price or fair wage to pay. If the planner decides that fewer architects or watch-makers are wanted and that the need can be met by those who are willing to stay in the trade at a lower remuneration, the “fair” wage will be lower. In deciding the relative importance of the different ends, the planner also decides the relative importance of the different groups and persons. As he is not supposed to treat the people merely as a means, he must take account of these effects and consciously balance the importance of the different ends against the effects of his decision. This means, however, that he will necessarily exercise direct control over the conditions of the different people.

202. 这种控制对个体之间相对经济地位所施加的影响，并不亚于其对不同行业的影响。一般来说，我们总是太习惯于以为，同一行业或职业的从业者们收入大体是相同的。其实，不管是医生、建筑师、作家、演员、拳手、骑师，还是水管工、园丁、杂货店主或者裁缝，每个行业里最成功者和最不成功者之间的收入差距，与有产阶级和无产阶级之间的收入差异一样巨大。无疑，计划者会尝试设立不同分类来将收入标准化，但无论是固化个体收入水平，

202. This applies to the relative position of individuals no less than to that of the different occupational groups. We are in general far too apt to think of incomes within a given trade or profession as more or less uniform. But the differences between the incomes, not only of the most and the least successful doctor or architect, writer or cinema actor, boxer or jockey, but also of the more and the less successful plumber or market gardener, grocer or tailor, are as great as those between the propertied and the property-less classes. And although, no doubt, there would be some attempt at standardisation by creating categories, the necessity of discrimination between individuals would remain the same, whether it were exercised by fixing their individual incomes or by allocating them to particular categories.

203. 至于，在自由社会，人们是否会屈服于这种控制，或者，一旦屈服是否仍能保持自由，我们无需多言。就整个问题而言，约翰·斯图亚特·密尔在近一百年所写的这段文字，至今依旧是未变的真理：

203. We need say no more about the likelihood of men in a free society submitting to such control - or about their remaining free if they submitted. On the whole question what John Stuart Mill wrote nearly a hundred years ago remains equally true today:

204. 某种固定规则，比如平等的规则，人们或许会予以默认；偶然性或外在的必然性，人们或许也能够接受；但是，如果让少数几个人掂量每个人，依着他们的喜好和判断来决定多给这个人一点，少给那个人一点，那就无法容忍了，除非人们相信这发号施令的是超凡之人，并且得到了可怕的超自然力量的加持。[9]

204. A fixed rule, like that of equality, might be acquiesced in, and so might chance, or an external necessity; but that a handful of human beings should weigh everybody in the balance, and give more to one and less to another at their sole pleasure and judgement, would not be borne unless from persons believed to be more than men, and backed by supernatural terrors.[10]

205. 只要追求社会主义的人还只是一个人数有限且成员相当同质的群体，这些问题就还不至于演变成公开的冲突。只有当这样的群体数量多到其成员合起来构成一个国家人口的大多数，并且共同尝试开展一项真正的社会主义政策实践时，他们之间的冲突才会变得明显起来。接着，一个迫切的问题就会迅速出现：在众多不同理想中，究竟该将哪一套强加在所有人头上，并将全国的资源集中起来为其服务？要想让计划取得成功，必须在基本价值观层面建立共识；正因为如此，对我们物质自由的控制才会如此直接地触及我们的精神自由。

205. These difficulties need not lead to open clashes so long as socialism is merely the aspiration of a limited and fairly homogeneous group. They come to the surface only when a socialist policy is actually attempted with the support of the many different groups which together compose the majority of a people. Then it soon becomes the one burning question which of the different sets of ideals shall be imposed upon all by making the whole resources of the country serve it. It is because successful planning requires the creation of a common view on the essential values that the restriction of our freedom with regard to material things touches so directly on our spiritual freedom.

[10] . S. Mill, Principles of Political Economy, Bk. I, Ch. II, Para. 4.

206. 社会主义者就像自身有着良好教养却培养出粗俗子女的父母，过去，他们一直希望用教育来解决这个问题。但是在这方面，教育究竟意味着什么呢？当然，我们已经知道，知识不能创造新的基本价值观；对于人为排定不同人群社会地位秩序关系所引起的道德分歧，再多的学问也不能让人们建立共识。要想让某个具体计划具有正当性，需要的不是建立在理性上的信念，而是对某种教义的皈依。事实上，各国的社会主义者都率先认识到，他们肩负的使命要求大众普遍接受一套共同的世界观，一套明确的价值体系。在发动一场由这样一种单一世界观支撑的群众运动的过程中，社会主义者率先发明了大部分后来才被纳粹和法西斯分子熟练运用的思想灌输工具。

206. Socialists, the cultivated parents of the barbarous offspring they have produced, traditionally hope to solve this problem by education. But what does education mean in this respect? Surely we have learnt that knowledge cannot create new ethical values, that no amount of learning will lead people to hold the same views on the moral issues which a conscious ordering of all social relations raises. It is not rational conviction but the acceptance of a creed which is required to justify a particular plan. And, indeed, socialists everywhere were the first to recognise that the task they had set themselves required the general acceptance of a common Weltanschauung, of a definite set of values. It was in these efforts to produce a mass movement supported by such a single world view, that the socialists first created most of the instruments of indoctrination of which Nazis and Fascists have made such effective use.

207. 在德国和意大利，纳粹和法西斯的确没有什么东西是需要自己发明的了。各种渗透到生活方方面面的新式政治运动，早已被社会主义者引入这两个国家。政党要包揽一个人从摇篮到坟墓的一切活动，引导他对一切事物的看法，并要求他自觉地用党的世界观看待一切问题，这种思想最早就是由社会主义者付诸实践的。一位奥地利社会主义作家在谈及奥地利的社会主义运动时，曾经自豪地说，该运动的一个“典型特征，就是在每一个活动领域都为工人和职员设立了专门组织”。[11]不过，尽管在这方面奥地利社会的主义者走得更远，但其它国家的情况其实也大同小异。最先把孩童从小放进政治组织，以保证他们长大成为“优秀无产阶级接班人”的，不是法西斯分子而是社会主义者；最先想到在党内俱乐部里举办竞技运动会、足球比赛和徒步旅行，以保证其成员不受其他思想影响的，不是法西斯分子而是社会主义者；

207. In Germany and Italy the Nazis and Fascists did indeed not have much to invent. The usages of the new political movements which pervaded all aspects of life had in both countries already been introduced by the socialists. The idea of a political party which embraces all activities of the individual from the cradle to the grave, which claims to guide his views on everything, and which delights in making all problems questions of party - Weltanschauung, was first put into practice by the socialists. An Austrian socialist writer, speaking of the socialist movement of his country, reports with pride that it was its “characteristic feature that it created special organisations for every field of activities of workers and employees”.[12] But though the Austrian socialists may have gone further in this respect than others, the situation was not very different elsewhere. It was not the Fascists but the socialists who began to collect children from the tenderest age into political organisations to make sure that they grew up as good proletarians. It was not the Fascists but the socialists who first thought of organising sports and games, football and hiking, in party clubs where the members would not be infected by other views. It was the socialists who first insisted that the party member should distinguish himself from others by the modes of greeting and the forms of address. It was they who by their organisation of “cells” and devices for the permanent supervision of private life created the prototype of the totalitarian party. Balilla and Hitlerjugend, Dopolavoro and Kraft durch Freude, political uniforms and military party formations, are all little more than imitations of older socialist institutions.[14]

208. 只要某个国家的社会主义运动与通常是技术水平较高的产业工人这样的特殊群体在利益上紧密绑定，就比较容易在“不同社会成员应该拥有什么样的社会地位”的问题上形成共识。社会主义运动直接关注的，就是某一特定群体的社会地位，并以提高该群体相对于其他群体的地位为目标。然而，问题的性质逐渐发生了改变。随着社会主义运动的发展，每个人都会越发清楚地认识到，他的收入和总体社会地位是由强制性国家机器决定的；只有加入某个有能力代表他的利益去影响或控制政府机构的组织，他才能维持或改善自己的地位。当社会主义发展进入这个阶段后，各种所谓“压力集团”纷纷出现。在这些集团之间的利益争夺战中，最贫穷且人数最多的群体未必能占上风。至于那些公开宣布代表某一特定群体利益的早期社会主义政党，即使他们最先进入这个领域、最先设计了吸引手工劳动者的整个意识形态，也不一定占有先发优势。他们的成功，以及他们对整套信条的坚持，势必引发强烈的抵制。这种抵制并非来自资本家，而是来自那些同样一无所有、却因产业精英的崛起而感到自身相对地位受到威胁的庞大阶层。

208. So long as the socialist movement in a country is closely bound up with the interests of a particular group, usually the more highly skilled industrial workers, the problem of creating a common view on the desirable status of the different members of society is comparatively simple. The movement is immediately concerned with the status of one particular group and its aim is to raise that status relatively to other groups. The character of the problem changes, however, as in the course of the progressive advance towards socialism it becomes more and more evident to everybody that his income and general position is determined by the coercive apparatus of the state, that he can maintain or improve his position only as a member of an organised group capable of influencing or controlling the state machine in his interest. In the tug-of-war between the various pressure groups which arises at this stage, it is by no means necessary that the interests of the poorest and most numerous groups should prevail. Nor is it necessarily an advantage for the older socialist parties, who avowedly represented the interests of a particular group, to have been the first in the field, and to have designed their whole ideology to appeal to the manual workers in industry. Their very success, and their insistence on the acceptance of the whole creed, is bound to create a powerful counter-movement - not by the capitalists, but by the very large and equally propertyless classes who find their relative status threatened by the advance of the élite of the industrial workers.

[13] 本国的政治性“读书俱乐部”也是一个不容忽视的类似案例。

[14] The political “book clubs” in this country provide a not unimportant parallel.

209. 即便在尚未受马克思主义教条主导的国家，社会主义理论和社会主义策略也都建立在一个共同的概念上，即社会可以划分为既有共同利益，也存在利益冲突的两个阶级：资本家和产业工人。社会主义一直指望着旧中产阶级会迅速消亡，却完全忽视了一个新中产阶级的崛起：一支由无数文员、打字员、行政人员、学校教师、小商人、小官吏以及底层专业人士组成的庞大军团。曾有一段时间，这个阶层向工人运动输送了不少领袖人物。但随着他们的地位相较于产业工人而言明显下降，那些引导产业工人的理想也就失去了对这一阶层的吸引力。尽管从他们对资本主义制度的不满以及希望按照其正义观有计划地分配财富这一点来看，他们都是社会主义者，然而，事实证明，他们的正义观与早期社会主义政党在实践中所体现的正义观早已大相径庭。

209. Socialist theory and socialist tactics, even where they have not been dominated by Marxist dogma, have been based everywhere on the idea of a division of society into two classes with common but mutually conflicting interests: capitalists and industrial workers. Socialism counted on a rapid disappearance of the old middle class and completely disregarded the rise of a new middle class, the countless army of clerks and typists, administrative workers and school teachers, tradesmen and small officials, and the lower ranks of the professions. For a time these classes often provided many of the leaders of the labour movement. But as it became increasingly clear that the position of those classes was deteriorating relatively to that of the industrial workers, the ideals which guided the latter lost much of their appeal to the others. While they were all socialists in the sense that they disliked the capitalist system and wanted a deliberate sharing out of wealth according to their ideas of justice, these ideas proved to be very different from those embodied in the practice of the older socialist parties.

210. 早期社会主义政党曾经以提高某些职业群体的相对经济地位为手段，成功地争取到他们的支持。但这一手段并不能用来争取所有人的支持。一些与之竞争的社会主义运动必然会出现，并得到那些在这个过程中社会地位相对下降的群体的拥护。人们常说，法西斯主义和纳粹主义是一种“中产阶级的社会主义”。虽然这种说法不无道理，但是，这些发生在意大利和德国的新型社会主义运动的支持者们，在经济上已经很难再被称为中产阶级了。这种运动在很大程度上是一个新的弱势阶层对产业工人运动造就的工人贵族的反抗。几无疑问，任何一种单独的经济因素对这些运动所起的推动作用，都比不上嫉妒的力量：那是失意的专业人士、受过大学教育的工程师或律师，以及普通“白领无产阶级”对收入高出他们好几倍的机车司机、排字工人以及其他有势力的工会会员的嫉妒。同样毋庸置疑的是，就货币收入而言，

210. The means which the old socialist parties had successfully employed to secure the support of one occupational group - the raising of their relative economic position - cannot be used to secure the support of all. There are bound to arise rival socialist movements that appeal to the support of those whose relative position is worsened. There is a great deal of truth in the often heard statement that Fascism and National Socialism are a sort of middle-class socialism - only that in Italy and Germany the supporters of these new movements were economically hardly a middle class any longer. It was to a large extent a revolt of a new under-privileged class against the labour aristocracy which the industrial labour movement had created. There can be little doubt that no single economic factor has contributed more to help these movements than the envy of the unsuccessful professional man, the university trained engineer or lawyer, and of the “white collared proletariat” in general, of the engine driver or compositor and other members of the strongest trade unions whose income was many times theirs. Nor can there be much doubt that in terms of money income the average member of the rank and file of the Nazi movement in its early years was poorer than the average trade unionist or member of the older socialist party - a circumstance which only gained poignancy from the fact that the former had often seen better days and were frequently still living in surroundings which were the result of this past. The expression “class struggle à rebours”, current in Italy at the time of the rise of Fascism, did point to a very important aspect of the movement. The conflict between the Fascist or National-Socialist and the older socialist parties must indeed very largely be regarded as the kind of conflict which is bound to arise between rival socialist factions. There was no difference between them about the question of it being the will of the state which should assign to each person his proper place in society. But there were, as there always will be, most profound differences about what are the proper places of the different classes and groups.

211. 早期社会主义领导人一直把他们的政党视为未来全面社会主义运动天然的先锋力量。他们很难理解，为什么每一次将社会主义手段运用于更大范围时，都会让广大贫困阶层转而怨恨他们。早期社会主义政党或某些特定行业中有组织的工人通常不难与本行业雇主达成共同行动的默契，然而，大量的其他阶层却被冷落了。那些被冷落阶层的看法似乎不无道理：工人运动中生活更富足的群体看起来更像是剥削阶级，而不再像是被剥削阶级了。[15]

211. The old socialist leaders, who had always regarded their parties as the natural spearhead of the future general movement towards socialism, found it difficult to understand that with every extension in the use of socialist methods the resentment of large poor classes should turn against them. But while the old socialist parties, or the organised labour in particular industries, had usually not found it unduly difficult to come to an understanding for joint action with the employers in their particular industries, very large classes were left out in the cold. To them, and not without some justification, the more prosperous sections of the labour movement seemed to belong to the exploiting rather than to the exploited class.[16]

212. 下层中产阶级所受的教育和训练令他们渴望担任领导职务，认为自己有资格成为领导阶层的一员，这种情形加重了他们的怨气。法西

212. The resentment of the lower middle class, from which Fascism and National Socialism recruited so large a proportion of their supporters, was intensified by the fact that their education and

[15] 十二年前，欧洲著名的社会主义知识分子之一、后来与纳粹相处甚欢的亨德里克·德·曼就曾观察到：“自社会主义诞生以来，反资本主义的怨恨首次转向了反对社会主义运动”（《社会主义与国家法西斯主义》，波茨坦，1931，第6页）。

[16] It is now twelve years since one of the leading European socialist intellectuals, Hendrick de Man (who has since consistently developed further and made his peace with the Nazis), observed that “for the first time since the beginning of socialism, anti-capitalist resentments are turning against the socialist movement” (Sozialismus und National-Faszismus, Potsdam, 1931, p. 6).

斯主义和纳粹主义的支持者大部分都是从这个阶层中吸收的。他们当中的年轻一代则受社会主义教育影响，蔑视逐利行为，嫌弃有风险却独立自主的工作，成群结队地涌入有保障且薪水稳定的工作；他们想要的，是既能带给他们收入，又能带给他们权力的社会地位，在他们看来，这是他们所受的教育赋予他们的权利。尽管他们相信组织化的社会，但他们期望在组织化社会中获得的地位，却不同于由劳工统治的社会所能提供给他们的地位。他们随时准备采用早期社会主义的手段，却打算用这些手段服务一个不同的阶级。新型社会主义运动所能吸引的，正是这些认同政府掌控所有经济活动的必要性，却反对产业工人中的贵族阶层利用其政治力量所追求的目标的支持者。 training had in many instances made them aspire to directing positions, and that they regarded themselves as entitled to be members of the directing class. While the younger generation, out of that contempt for profit-making fostered by socialist teaching, spurned independent positions which involved risk, and flocked in ever-increasing numbers into salaried positions which promised security, they demanded a place yielding them the income and power to which in their opinion their training entitled them. While they believed in an organised society, they expected a place in that society very different from that which society ruled by labour seemed to offer. They were quite ready to take over the methods of the older socialism but intended to employ them in the service of a different class. The movement was able to attract all those who, while they agreed on the desirability of the state controlling all economic activity, disagreed with the ends for which the aristocracy of the industrial workers used their political strength.

213. 这场新型社会主义运动从一开始就拥有若干策略上的优势。当时，劳工社会主义已经在民主和自由的世界中成长起来，它调整了自己的策略来适应这个世界，并吸收了许多自由主义的理想；其倡导者仍然相信，只要建立社会主义就能解决一切问题。另一方面，法西斯主义和纳粹主义产生于一个管制程度日益加深的社会，这个社会逐渐意识到，具有民主和国际主义特征的社会主义正追求着互不兼容的理想。法西斯主义和纳粹主义的策略产生于一个已经被社会主义政策及其导致的问题所主导的世界。它们并不幻想，民主方案能解决那些需要人们达成的共识远超合理预期的问题；它们也不幻想，理性力量能针对计划必然引发的、不同人或群体的需求的相对重要性问题上做出裁决；它们同样不幻想，“平等”这剂良方能够提供什么答案。它们知道，一个集结了足够多的支持者来拥护一种新的社会等级秩序，并公

213. The new socialist movement started with several tactical advantages. Labour socialism had grown in a democratic and liberal world, adapting its tactics to it and taking over many of the ideals of liberalism. Its protagonists still believed that the creation of socialism as such would solve all problems. Fascism and National-Socialism, on the other hand, grew out of the experience of an increasingly regulated society awakening to the fact that democratic and international socialism was aiming at incompatible ideals. Their tactics were developed in a world already dominated by socialist policy and the problems it creates. They had no illusions about the possibility of a democratic solution of problems which require more agreement among people than can reasonably be expected. They had no illusions about the capacity of reason to decide all the questions of the relative importance of the wants of different men or groups which planning inevitably raises, or about the formula of equality providing an answer. They knew that the strongest group which rallied enough supporters in favour of a new hierarchical order of society, and which frankly promised privileges to the classes to which it appealed, was likely to obtain the support of all those who were disappointed because they had been promised equality but found that they had merely furthered the interest of a particular class. Above all they were successful because they offered a theory, or Weltanschauung, which seemed to justify the privileges they promised to their supporters.

整个社会将成为一个管理处，成为一个劳动平等、报酬平等的工厂。

列宁·1917

在一个国家里，如果政府是唯一的雇主，反抗就意味着慢慢饿死。“不劳动者不得食”这个古训，已经被“不服从者不得食”所取代。

托洛茨基·1937

214. 就像站不住脚的“经济自由”一样，经济保障也常常、甚至更有理由被描绘成实现真正自由不可或缺的条件。从某种意义上说，这种观点既正确，又重要。在无法相信自己能够通过自己的努力找到出路的情况下，人们很难有独立的思想或者坚强的品格。然而，“经济保障”这个概念和该领域的大多数其他术语一样，意思模糊且充满歧义；正因为如此，人们对追求保障的普遍认可，会变成对自由的一种威胁。事实上，当保障被理解得过于绝对时，对它的普遍追求不仅完全无助于自由的实现，反而会构成对自由最严重的威胁。

215. 从一开始就将两种类型的保障做好区分或许是有益的：一种是有限保障。这种保障是给所有人的保障，因此它不是特权，而是人们的合理愿望；另一种是绝对保障。在自由社会中，这种保障不是所有人都能得到的，而且除了极少的例外，它也不应作为一种特权授予任何人，比如为了确保法官地位的完全独立性而授予法官的绝对保障就是这样的例外。就这两种保障而言，前者是免于严重物质匮乏的保障，它确保每个人都能获得最低限度的生活物资；后者则是维持某种生活水平的保障，或者

Chapter IX: SECURITY AND FREEDOM

The whole of society will have become a single office and a single factory with equality of work and equality of pay.

V. I. Lenin, 1917.

In a country where the sole employer is the State, opposition means death by slow starvation. The old principle: who does not work shall not eat, has been replaced by a new one: who does not obey shall not eat.

L. Trotsky, 1937.

214. LIKE the spurious “economic freedom”, and with more justice, economic security is often represented as an indispensable condition of real liberty. In a sense this is both true and important. Independence of mind or strength of character are rarely found among those who cannot be confident that they will make their way by their own effort. Yet the idea of economic security is no less vague and ambiguous than most other terms in this field; and because of this the general approval given to the demand for security may become a danger to liberty. Indeed, when security is understood in too absolute a sense, the general striving for it, far from increasing the chances of freedom, becomes the gravest threat to it.

215. It will be well to contrast at the outset the two kinds of security: the limited one, which can be achieved for all, and which is therefore no privilege but a legitimate object of desire; and the absolute security which in a free society cannot be achieved for all and which ought not to be given as a privilege - except in a few special instances such as that of the judges, where complete independence is of paramount importance. These two kinds of security are, first, security against severe physical privation, the certainty of a given minimum of sustenance for all; and, secondly, the security of a given standard of life, or of the relative position which one person or group enjoys compared with others; or, as we may put it briefly, the security of a minimum income and the security of the particular income a person is thought to deserve. We shall presently see that this distinction largely coincides with the distinction between the security which can be provided for all outside of and supplementary to the market system, and the security which can be provided only for some and only by controlling or abolishing the market.

216. 我们这样一个已经达到普遍富裕水平的社会，在不危及普遍自由的情况下，没有理由不为所有人提供第一种保障。当然，在提供这种保障时应当确保何种具体标准，仍有一些棘手的问题有待解决；其中尤为重要的问题是：那些因为享有这样的保障而依赖社会的人是否应该无限期地享有与其他人完全一样的自由。[1]这些问题如果不能加以谨慎处理，很可能会引发严重甚至危险的政治问题。但可以肯定的是，给每个人提供最低限度的食物、住所和衣物等足以维持健康和工作能力的物资是我们能够做到的。事实上，对于我们这个国家相当大的一部分人口来说，这种保障早就实现了。

216. There is no reason why in a society that has reached the general level of wealth which ours has attained, the first kind of security should not be guaranteed to all without endangering general freedom. There are difficult questions about the precise standard which should thus be assured; there is particularly the important question whether those who thus rely on the community should indefinitely enjoy all the same liberties as the rest.[2] An incautious handling of these questions might well cause serious and perhaps even dangerous political problems; but there can be no doubt that some minimum of food, shelter, and clothing, sufficient to preserve health and the capacity to work, can be assured to everybody. Indeed, for a considerable part of the population of this country this sort of security has long been achieved.

217. 同样，政府也没有任何理由不帮助个体去应对生活中那些因其不确定性而几乎无人可以做好充分准备的常见风险。在诸如疾病和意外事故等情形中，提供援助并不必然会降低人们规避这类灾害的愿望，也不会削弱他们克服其后果的努力。简单地说，在此类情形中，我们面对的是真正的“可保风险”[3]，因此，由政府协助建立一套全面的社会保险制度的理由是十分

217. Nor is there any reason why the state should not assist the individuals in providing for those common hazards of life against which, because of their uncertainty, few individuals can make adequate provision. Where, as in the case of sickness and accident, neither the desire to avoid such calamities nor the efforts to overcome their consequences are as a rule weakened by the provision of assistance, where, in short, we deal with genuinely insurable risks, the case for the state helping to organise a comprehensive system

[1] 如果仅仅因为一个国家的公民身份就赋予了享有比其他国家更高生活水平的权利，那么就会引发严重的国际关系问题，这些问题不应太轻率地予以忽视。

[2] There are also serious problems of international relations which arise if mere citizenship of a country confers the right to a standard of living higher than elsewhere, and which ought not to be dismissed too lightly.

[3] 可保风险（insurable risk）：保险行业中的常用概念，指那些能够由保险机制承担的风险类型。通常具有偶然性、可测性、不具有灾难性，并适合通过风险分摊进行保障。-译注

of social insurance is very strong. There are many points of detail where those wishing to preserve the competitive system and those wishing to supersede it by something different will disagree on the details of such schemes; and it is possible under the name of social insurance to introduce measures which tend to make competition more or less ineffective. But there is no incompatibility in principle between the state providing greater security in this way and the preservation of individual freedom. To the same category belongs also the increase of security through the state rendering assistance to the victims of such “acts of God” as earthquakes and floods. Wherever communal action can mitigate disasters against which the individual can neither attempt to guard himself, nor make provision for the consequences, such communal action should undoubtedly be taken.

218. 最后，还有一个极为重要的问题，那就是如何应对经济活动的总体波动，以及伴随而来的周期性大规模失业。这无疑是我们这个时代最严峻和最紧迫的问题之一。但是，尽管解决这个问题需要大量良性意义上的计划，但它并不要求，或者至少无需要求采取其倡导者提出的、旨在取代市场的那一类特殊计划。事实上，许多经济学家都寄望于在货币政策领域找到甚至与十九世纪自由主义原则都不会发生抵触的最终解决方案。当然，还有一些经济学家认为，要想真正解决这个问题，必须巧妙地选择时机，开展规模巨大的公共工程。这种方式可能给竞争领域带来更加严厉的限制。在进行这种尝试时，我们必须谨慎行事，以免使整体经济活动逐步变得愈发依赖于政府支出的方向和规模。然而，在我看来，在应对经济保障面临的最严重威胁时，这既不是唯一的，也不是最有希望的解决方案。无论在什么情况下，我们为应对波动所做的必要努力，都不应导致我们选择那种对自由构成如此威胁的计划。

218. There is, finally, the supremely important problem of combating general fluctuations of economic activity and the recurrent waves of large-scale unemployment which accompany them. This is, of course, one of the gravest and most pressing problems of our time. But, though its solution will require much planning in the good sense, it does not - or at least need not - require that special kind of planning which according to its advocates is to replace the market. Many economists hope indeed that the ultimate remedy may be found in the field of monetary policy, which would involve nothing incompatible even with nineteenth-century liberalism. Others, it is true, believe that real success can be expected only from the skilful timing of public works undertaken on a very large scale. This might lead to much more serious restrictions of the competitive sphere, and in experimenting in this direction we shall have carefully to watch our step if we are to avoid making all economic activity progressively more dependent on the direction and volume of government expenditure. But this is neither the only, nor, in my opinion, the most promising way of meeting the gravest threat to economic security. In any case, the very necessary efforts to secure protection against these fluctuations do not lead to the kind of planning which constitutes such a threat to our freedom.

219. 真正对自由构成隐蔽且充满诱惑的危害的，是为了提供另一种保障而推行的计划：它旨在保护某些个体或群体，使之免于经历尽管并非人们应得、却每天都在竞争社会中发生的收入减少；也免于遭受尽管在道义上缺乏正当理由，却与竞争体系如影随形、足以使人陷入困境的经济损失。因此，要求这类保障，是对“公正报酬”的另一种表达，这种报酬取决于对一个人“应得报酬”的主观评价，却与他付出努力所得到的客观结果无关。这种保障或公正，恐怕与自由选择职业的权利是不可调和的。

219. The planning for security which has such an insidious effect on liberty is that for security of a different kind. It is planning designed to protect individuals or groups against diminutions of their income which although in no way deserved yet in a competitive society occur daily, against losses imposing severe hardships having no moral justification yet inseparable from the competitive system. This demand for security is thus another form of the demand for a just remuneration, a remuneration commensurate with the subjective merits and not with the objective results of a man's efforts. This kind of security or justice seems irreconcilable with freedom to choose one's employment.

220. 在任何一种社会制度中，如果要让人们靠自己的选择在不同行业或职业之间流动，那么从业者在各行业的收入水平就应当与他们的工作带给社会其他成员的实际价值相一致，即便该收入水平与从业者对“应得报酬”的主观评价不一致。一个人获得的报酬通常与他的努力及愿望相当，但在任何一种社会形式中，情况并非总是如此，尤其是，在不少情况下，由于无法预见的环境改变，某些行业或特殊技能的社会价值会发生变化。比如，我们都熟悉这样的悲剧：一种对社会颇有益处的发明，能让受过良好训练的人辛苦学来的技能突然失去价值。在过去一百年的历史中，这种例子屡见不鲜，其中有些在转瞬间就能影响了成千上万的人。

220. In any system which for the distribution of men between the different trades and occupations relies on their own choice it is necessary that the remuneration in these trades should correspond to their usefulness to the other members of society, even if this should stand in no relation to subjective merit. Although the results achieved will often be commensurate with efforts and intentions, this cannot always be true in any form of society. It will particularly not be true in the many instances where the usefulness of some trade or special skill is changed by circumstances which could not be foreseen. We all know the tragic plight of the highly trained man whose hard-learned skill has suddenly lost its value because of some invention which greatly benefits the rest of society. The history of the last hundred years is full of instances of this kind, some of them affecting hundreds of thousands of people at a time.

221. 如果一个人工作努力，技能高超，又毫无过错，却要遭受收入锐减和希望破灭的痛苦，这无疑有违我们的正义感。如果遭受这类不幸的人提出要求，希望政府出面干预以保障他们

221. That anybody should suffer a great diminution of his income and bitter disappointment of all his hopes through no fault of his own, and despite hard work and exceptional skill, undoubtedly offends our sense of justice. The demands of those who suffer in this way, for state interference on their behalf to safeguard their legitimate expectations, are certain to receive popular sympathy and support. The general approval of these demands has had the effect that governments everywhere have taken action, not merely to protect the people so threatened from severe hardship and privation, but to secure to them the continued receipt of their former income and to shelter them from the vicissitudes of the market.[5]

222. 然而，只要还允许人们保留哪怕一点选择职业的自由，就无法给所有人提供收入的稳定性。而如果只将这种保障提供给一部分人，它就必然会成为一种以牺牲他人的保障为代价的特权。不难看出，只有取消一切选择职业的自由，才能保障所有人的收入不变。然而，虽然人们常常认为，对这种被视为合理期望的普遍保障是应当追求的理想，但它从来没有被认真尝试过。人们一直在做的，就是零敲碎打地给某个群体一点保障，再给另一个群体一点保障。其结果只能是让那些被冷落的人愈发没有安全感。难怪，随着获得保障的特权愈发地珍贵，对它的需求也就愈发地迫切了。最终，人们将愿意付出任何代价换取保障，甚至连失去自由也在所不惜了。

222. Certainty of a given income can, however, not be given to all if any freedom in the choice of one's occupation is to be allowed. And if it is provided for some it becomes a privilege at the expense of others whose security is thereby necessarily diminished. That security of an invariable income can be provided for all only by the abolition of all freedom in the choice of one's employment is easily shown. Yet, although such a general guarantee of legitimate expectation is often regarded as the ideal to be aimed at, it is not a thing which is seriously attempted. What is constantly being done is to grant this kind of security piecemeal, to this group and to that, with the result that for those who are left out in the cold the insecurity constantly increases. No wonder that in consequence the value attached to the privilege of security constantly increases, the demand for it becomes more and more urgent, till in the end no price, not even that of liberty, appears too high.

223. 如果有些人的社会价值因为其无法预见且不能控制的环境变化而降低，就要保护他们免受平白无故的损失；同时，如果有些人因为同样的原因而导致其社会价值增加，就要阻止他们获得平白无故的收益，那么某项工作的报酬很快就会失去其与实际社会价值的关联。它将取决于某个当权者对一个人"本应该做到什

223. If those whose usefulness is reduced by circumstances which they could neither foresee nor control were to be protected against undeserved loss, and those whose usefulness has been increased in the same way were prevented from making an unmerited gain, remuneration would soon cease to have any relation to actual usefulness. It would depend on the views held by some authority about what a person ought to have done, what he ought to have foreseen, and how

[4] 关于如何在自由社会中减轻这些困苦，威廉·哈罗德·赫特教授最近在一本书中提出了非常有趣的建议，这本书值得仔细研究。（《重建计划》，1943年）。

[5] Very interesting suggestions of how these hardships might be mitigated within a liberal society, have recently been put forward by Professor W. H. Hutt in a book which will repay careful study (Plan for Reconstruction, 1943).

么”、“本应该预见到什么”，以及他的意图是好是坏的看法。在很大程度上，这种看法必然是专断的。将这一原则付诸实施，必然会导致从事相同工作的人获得不同的报酬。如此一来，报酬的差别就再也不足以激励人们做出对社会有益的职业改变。受影响的人甚至都无法判断，做出某种改变的好处是否抵得上它所带来的麻烦。 good or bad his intentions were. Such decisions could not but be to a large extent arbitrary. The application of this principle would necessarily bring it about that people doing the same work would receive different remuneration. The differences in remuneration would then no longer present an adequate inducement to people to make the changes which are socially desirable and it would not even be possible for the individuals affected to judge whether a particular change is worth the trouble it causes.

224. 然而，在任何社会中，人力在不同行业间的分布必然会不断地发生变化。然而，如果这种变化不再以金钱上的、与“应得报酬”的主观评价并无必然联系的“奖赏”或“惩罚”来实现，那就只能以直接命令加以推动。当一个人的收入被保证了，他就不会被允许只因为喜欢一份工作就留在这份工作上，也不能随意选择另一份他想要的工作。既然他不用承担保留一份工作的损失，也得不到重选一份工作的好处，变与不变就只能交给那些掌控收入分配的人替他做决定了。

224. But if the changes in the distribution of men between different employments, which are constantly necessary in any society, can no longer be brought about by pecuniary “rewards” and “penalties” (which have no necessary connection with subjective merit), they must be brought about by direct orders. When a person’s income is guaranteed he can neither be allowed to stay in his job merely because he likes it, nor to choose what other work he would like to do. As it is not he who makes the gain or suffers the loss dependent on his moving or not moving, the choice must be made for him by those who control the distribution of the available income.

225. 当人们泛泛地谈论起在这种情形中产生的“激励是否充分”的问题时，仿佛它主要是一个“人们是否愿意尽其所能”的问题。这一点固然重要，但并不是问题的全部，甚至不是最重要的部分。它并不只是一个“要想让人们在工作中尽其所能，就必须让他们觉得值得这样做”的问题。更重要的是，如果我们希望把选择的自由留给他们，使他们能够判断自己应该从事什么职业，就必须为他们提供一些现成的、易于理解的尺度，让他们能够衡量不同职业对社会的重要性。无论是谁，在选择职业时，如果不同职业给他带来的好处与它们的实际社会价值之间没有任何关联，那么即便他怀着世界上最美好的愿望，也不可能作出理性的选择。如果因为某种变化，不同工作的实际社会价值发生了

225. The problem of adequate incentives which arises here is commonly discussed as if it were a problem mainly of the willingness of people to do their best. But this, although important, is not the whole, nor even the most important, aspect of the problem. It is not merely that if we want people to give their best we must make it worth while for them. What is more important is that if we want to leave them the choice, if they are to be able to judge what they ought to do, they must be given some readily intelligible yardstick by which to measure the social importance of the different occupations. Even with the best will in the world it would be impossible for anyone intelligently to choose between various alternatives if the advantages they offered him stood in no relation to their usefulness to society. To know whether as the result of a change a man ought to leave a trade and an environment which he has come to like, and exchange it for another, it is necessary that the changed relative value of these occupations to society should find expression in the remunerations they offer.

226. 当然，在现实世界中，除非与其自身利益直接相关，人们实际上不太可能长时间在工作中尽其所能，也正因为如此，这个问题才更加重要。至少，对很多人来说，需要一些外部压力才能让他们尽力工作。从这个意义上说，无论是在普通劳动领域，还是在管理活动领域，“激励”问题都是一个非常现实的问题。一位在政府计划工作方面拥有丰富经验的美国工程师曾经清楚地指出，如果像计划所要求的那样，将工程管理方法应用于整个国家的管理，会引起“难以解决的纪律问题”。他是这样解释的：

226. The problem is, of course, even more important because in the world as it is men are, in fact, not likely to give their best for long periods unless their own interests are directly involved. At least for great numbers some external pressure is needed if they are to give their best. The problem of incentives in this sense is a very real one, both in the sphere of ordinary labour and in those of the managerial activities. The application of the engineering technique to a whole nation - and this is what planning means - “raises problems of discipline which are hard to solve”, as has been well described by an American engineer with great experience in government planning, who has clearly seen the problem.

227. 要想做好一项工程，在项目地附近应该有一个相对较大的非计划性经济区域。要有一个可以招募工人的地方；有了这样的地方，在解雇一个工人的时候，才能让他从工作岗位消失、将他在工资表里注销。如果没有这样一个自由的人力储备，那就只能依靠像对待奴隶一样的体罚来维持纪律了。[6]

227. In order to do an engineering job, [he explains], there ought to be surrounding the work a comparatively large area of unplanned economic action. There should be a place from which workers can be drawn, and when a worker is fired he should vanish from the job and from the pay-roll. In the absence of such a free reservoir discipline cannot be maintained without corporal punishment, as with slave labour.[7]

228. 在管理活动领域，针对疏忽失职行为的纪律惩戒虽以另一种形式出现，但其严酷性却不亚于普通劳动领域。曾经有人精辟地指出：在竞争型经济中，最终制裁的执行者是法警；而在计划型经济中，最终制裁的执行者则是绞刑师。[8]每一位工厂管理者都会被赋予相当大的权

228. In the sphere of executive work the problem of sanctions for negligence arises in a different but no less serious form. It has been well said that while the last resort of a competitive economy is the bailiff, the ultimate sanction of a planned economy is the hangman.[9] The powers the manager of any plant will have to be given will still be considerable. But no more than in the case of the worker can the manager's position and income in a planned system be made to depend merely on the success or failure of the work under his direction. As neither the risk nor the gain is his, it cannot be his personal judgment, but whether he does what he ought to have done according to some established rule, which must decide. A mistake he "ought" to have avoided is not his own affair, it is a crime against the community and must be treated as such. While so long as he keeps to the safe path of objectively ascertainable duty he may be surer of his income than the capitalist entrepreneur, the danger which threatens him in case of real failure is worse than bankruptcy. He may be economically secure so long as he satisfies his superiors, but this security is bought at the price of the safety of freedom and life.

229. 摆在我们面前的，实际上是两种社会运行模式之间不可调和的、相当根本的冲突。基于它们各自表现出的典型特征，这两种模式通常被描述为“商业型”和“军事型”社会。使用这两个术语或许不够恰当，因为它们会把人们的注意力引向无关紧要的方面，从而看不清我们面临的一个真正的、没有第三种可能的二选一局面：一种是个体要承担全部的选择和风险，一种是他二者都不承担。在很多方面，军队确实最接近我们所熟悉的第二种模式。在这种模式中，工作和人力等都由上级调配；物资短缺时，每个人都同样要减少配给。这是唯一能够为个人提供全面经济保障的制度，如果将其扩展到整个社会，就能实现所有社会成员的经济保障。然而，这种保障与军事生活中对自由的限制和等级秩序是不可分割的，它是一种兵营式的保障。

229. The conflict with which we have to deal is indeed a quite fundamental one between two irreconcilable types of social organisation, which, from the most characteristic forms in which they appear, have often been described as the commercial and the military type of society. The terms were, perhaps, unfortunate, because they direct attention to unessentials and make it difficult to see that we face here a real alternative and that there is no third possibility. Either both the choice and the risk rest with the individual or he is relieved of both. The army does indeed in many ways represent the closest approach familiar to us to the second type of organisation, where work and worker alike are allotted by authority and where, if the available means are scanty, everybody is alike put on short commons. This is the only system in which the individual can be conceded full economic security and through the extension of which to the whole of society it can be achieved for all its members. This security is, however, inseparable from the restrictions on liberty and the hierarchical order of military life - it is the security of the barracks.

230. 当然，在一个总体上自由的社会中，完全可以按照这一原则对若干特定领域加以规划。有些人就是偏爱这种必然限制个人自由的生活

230. It is possible, of course, to organise sections of an otherwise free society on this principle and there is no reason why this form of life, with its necessary restrictions on individual liberty, should not be open to those who prefer it. Indeed, some voluntary labour service on military lines might well be the best form for the state to provide the certainty of an opportunity for work and a minimum income for all. That proposals of this sort have in the past proved so little acceptable is due to the fact that those who are willing to surrender their freedom for security have always demanded that if they give up their full freedom it should also be taken from those not prepared to do so. For this claim it is difficult to find a justification.

方式，没有理由不允许他们选择这样的生活。事实上，某种自愿性的军事化“劳动役”制度，或许正是政府确保每个人都有确定的就业机会以及最低收入保障的最佳方式。过去，这类建议之所以很少被人接受，是因为那些愿意为了保障而放弃自由的人总是要求，如果他们放弃了全部自由，那些不愿意的人应该被剥夺自由。对于这样的要求，要让人觉得它合理，实在是太难了。

231. 然而，将军事型组织推广到整个社会将会是一番什么景象，我们所熟悉的军事型组织只能给我们一个非常不充分的想象。如果只是将整个社会生活的一部分按照军事化方式来管理，那么身处其中的人所承受的不自由还有得到缓解的余地，因为当他们被约束得过于难以忍受时，还可以转往自由的领域。按照那种让很多社会主义者心醉神迷的理想，整个社会将变得像一间巨大的工厂；而如果想知道那样的社会是什么样子，我们只需看看古代的斯巴达或者当代的德国就够了。在德国，经历了两三代人的演进，这样的社会已经接近实现了。

231. The military type of organisation as we know it gives us, however, only a very inadequate picture of what it would be like if it were extended to the whole of society. So long as only a part of society is organised on military lines, the unfreedom of the members of the military organisation is mitigated by the fact that there is still a free sphere to which they can move if the restrictions become too irksome. If we want to form a picture of what society would be like if, according to the ideal which has seduced so many socialists, it was organised as a single great factory, we have to look to ancient Sparta, or to contemporary Germany, which after moving for two or three generations in this direction, has now so nearly reached it.

232. 在一个习惯于自由的社会中，不太会有很多人愿意主动付出这样的代价去换取保障。尽管如此，当下各国正在推行的政策，将保障的特权时而给予这个群体、时而给予那个群体，迅速形成了一种社会氛围，让人们对保障的追求渐渐超越了对自由的热爱。究其原因，就是因为在这种政策下，每给一个群体完全保障，其余群体的不安全感必然会随之增加。这个道理就好比总有一部分人可以从一块尺寸会发生变化的蛋糕中分得大小不变的一块，那么其余的人所能分得的部分，其波动幅度必然会比整块蛋糕的波动幅度更大。原本竞争体系为人们

232. In a society used to freedom it is unlikely that many people would be ready deliberately to purchase security at this price. But the policies which are now followed everywhere, which hand out the privilege of security, now to this group and now to that, are nevertheless rapidly creating conditions in which the striving for security tends to become stronger than the love of freedom. The reason for this is that with every grant of complete security to one group the insecurity of the rest necessarily increases. If you guarantee to some a fixed part of a variable cake, the share left to the rest is bound to fluctuate proportionally more than the size of the whole. And the essential element of security which the competitive system offers, the great variety of opportunities, is more and more

提供的那种保障的基本要素，即机会的多样性，也就愈发地减少了。

234. 直到最近一个时期，此类限制措施，尤其是影响到社会中间阶层的限制措施，才在我们这个国家达到值得重视的规模，而我们尚未认识到它们的全部后果。在这样一个因为这些措施而变得愈发僵化的社会，一些人被排斥在受庇护的职业之外；而那些有工作的幸运儿，因

233. Within the market system, security can be granted to particular groups only by the kind of planning known as restrictionism (which includes, however, almost all the planning which is actually practised!). “Control”, i.e. limitation of output so that prices will secure an “adequate” return, is the only way in which in a market economy producers can be guaranteed a certain income. But this necessarily involves a reduction of opportunities open to others. If the producer, be he entrepreneur or worker, is to be protected against underbidding by outsiders, it means that others who are worse off are precluded from sharing in the relatively greater prosperity of the controlled industries. Every restriction on the freedom of entry into a trade reduces the security of all those outside it. And as the number of those whose income is secured in this manner increases, the field of alternative opportunities is restricted which are open to anyone who suffers a loss of income; and for those unfavourably affected by any change the chance of avoiding a fatal diminution of their income is correspondingly diminished. And if, as has become increasingly true, in each trade in which conditions improve, the members are allowed to exclude others in order to secure to themselves the full gain in the form of higher wages or profits, those in the trades where demand has fallen have nowhere to go and every change becomes the cause of large unemployment. There can be little doubt that it is largely a consequence of the striving for security by these means in the last decades that unemployment and thus insecurity for large sections of the population has so much increased.

234. In this country such restrictions, especially those affecting the intermediate strata of society, have comparatively recent times, and we have scarcely yet realised their full consequences. The utter hopelessness of the position of those who, in a society which has thus grown rigid, are left outside the range of sheltered occupation, and the magnitude of the gulf which separates them from the fortunate possessor of jobs for whom protection against competition has made it unnecessary to budge ever so little to make room for those without can only be appreciated by those who have experienced it. It is not a question of the fortunate ones giving up their places, but merely that they should share in the common misfortune by some reduction of their incomes, or frequently even merely by some sacrifice of their prospects of improvement. The protection of their “standard of life”, of the “fair price”, or the “professional income” to which they regard themselves as entitled, and in the protection of which they receive the support of the state, precludes this. In consequence, instead of prices, wages, and individual incomes, it is now employment and production which have become subject to violent fluctuations. There has never been a worse and more cruel exploitation of one class by another than that of the weaker or less fortunate members of a group of producers by the well-established which has been made possible by the “regulation” of competition. Few catchwords have done so much harm as the ideal of a “stabilisation” of particular prices (or wages) which, while securing the income of some, makes the position of the rest more and more precarious.

235. 因此，我们越是试图通过干预市场体系的方式来提供全面保障，缺乏安全感的情形就越严重；而且，更糟糕的是，享有特权的人所获得的安全感与弱势群体日益增加的不安全感之间，其反差也愈发显著。保障越是一种特权，那些被排除在特权之外的人所面临的危险就越大，保障的标价也就越高。随着享有特权的人群不断扩大，以及这些人的安全感与其他人的不安之间的差距越来越大，一套全新的社会价值观就会随之浮现。赋予一个人地位和声望的，不再是自立，而是保障；让一位年轻人获得结婚资格的，不再是他对未来取得成就的信心，而是领取养老金的资格；与此同时，那些被拒绝进入特权体系避风港享受稳定薪水的年轻人将沦为“贱民”，终其一生陷在没有安全感

235. Thus, the more we try to provide full security by interfering with the market system, the greater the insecurity becomes; and, what is worse, the greater becomes the contrast between the security of those to whom it is granted as a privilege and the ever-increasing insecurity of the under-privileged. And the more security becomes a privilege, and the greater the danger to those excluded from it, the higher will security be prized. As the number of the privileged increases and the difference between their security and the insecurity of the others increases, a completely new set of social values gradually arises. It is no longer independence but security which gives rank and status, the certain right to a pension more than confidence in his making good which makes a young man eligible for marriage, while insecurity becomes the dreaded state of the pariah in which those who in their youth have been refused admission to the haven of a salaried position remain for life.

236. 通过政府容许或支持的限制性措施获得保障已然成为一种普遍现象，随着时间的推移，这种现象引发了一种渐进的社会变革。在这一变革中，正如在其他许多方面一样，德国一马当先，其他国家则亦步亦趋。促进这一变革的，还有社会主义教义带来的另一种影响：它蓄意贬低一切涉及经济风险的活动，在道德上谴责吸引人们冒险追求却只有少数人才能获得的收益。我们不能责备我们的年轻人只喜欢特权体系内薪水稳定的工作，不愿冒经营企业的风险，因为他们从小就被教育说前者更高尚，更无私，更不计较个人利益。在学校教育和媒体舆论中，企业精神是不光彩的，赚钱是不道德的，雇佣一百人是剥削，指挥一百人是光荣，今天的年轻一代正是在这样的环境中成长起来的。老一辈人或许觉得这种说法夸大了现实，可大学教师们的日常经验却不容置疑的表明，反资本主义宣传已经使价值观的改变远远走到了这个国家制度改变的前面。问题在于，为了满足新需求而改变制度，我们是否会在不经意间毁掉我们仍然更为看重的价值呢?

236. The general endeavour to achieve security by restrictive measures, tolerated or supported by the state, has in the course of time produced a progressive transformation of society - a transformation in which, as in so many other ways, Germany has led and the other countries have followed. This development has been hastened by another effect of socialist teaching, the deliberate disparagement of all activities involving economic risk and the moral opprobrium cast on the gains which make risks worth taking but which only few can win. We cannot blame our young men when they prefer the safe, salaried position to the risk of enterprise after they have heard from their earliest youth the former described as the superior, more unselfish and disinterested occupation. The younger generation of to-day has grown up in a world in which in school and press the spirit of commercial enterprise has been represented as disreputable and the making of profit as immoral, where to employ a hundred people is represented as exploitation but to command the same number as honourable. Older people may regard this as an exaggeration of the present state of affairs, but the daily experience of the University teacher leaves little doubt that as a result of anticapitalist propaganda values have already altered far in advance of the change in institutions which has yet taken place in this country. The question is whether by changing our institutions to satisfy the new demands, we shall not unwittingly destroy values which we still rate higher.

237. 对保障的追求胜过了对自立的追求，这引发了社会结构的变化；而最能说明这种变化的，莫过于十年前或者二十年前典型的英国式社会与德国式社会的对比了。无论军队在德国的影响有多大，如果将英国人眼中德国社会的“军事化”特征主要归因于此，那就大错特错了。其中的差别，远比这种归因更为深刻。在德国，即便在受军队影响微乎其微的社会圈层

237. The change in the structure of society involved in the victory of the ideal of security over that of independence cannot be better illustrated than by a comparison of what ten or twenty years ago could still be regarded as the English and the German type of society. However great the influence of the army may have been in the latter country, it is a grave mistake to ascribe what the Englishman regarded as the “military” character of German society mainly to that influence. The difference went much deeper than could be explained on that ground, and the peculiar attributes of German society existed no less in circles in which the properly military influence was negligible than in those in which it was strong. It was not so much that at almost all times a larger part of the German people was organised for war than was true in other countries, but that the same type of organisation was employed for so many other purposes, which gave German society its peculiar character. It was that a larger part of the civil life of Germany than of any other country was deliberately organised from the top, that so large a proportion of her people did not regard themselves as independent but as appointed functionaries, which gave her social structure its peculiar character. Germany had, as the Germans themselves boasted, for long been a Beamtenstaat in which not only in the Civil Service proper but in almost all spheres of life income and status were assigned and guaranteed by some authority.

238. 尽管自由的精神未必能在任何国家被武力所消灭，但像它在德国被慢慢窒息的那种过程，恐怕是任何一个民族都难以抵御的。如果只有成为薪水稳定的政府公职人员才能获得荣誉和地位，如果按部就班地完成被分配的任务比选择体现自己价值的工作更值得称赞，如果一切无法获得官方等级制度认可或者没有固定收入的工作都被视为低人一等、甚至不体面的工作，那么，这种社会中，指望很多人会长久地把自由置于保障之上，就未免太过奢望了。如果除了依附性地位带来的保障，其他任何保障都极不稳定；如果一个人无论成功还是失败，只要没有依附性地位带来的保障就被人瞧不起，那么，在这样的社会中，也就没有几个人能够抵挡住用自由换取保障的诱惑了。一旦事情发展到这种地步，自由实际上就成了一个讽刺，因为谁想获得它，谁就得舍弃这个世界上大多数美好的事物。在这种情况下，越来越多的人会相信这个观点：没有经济上的保障，自由就“不值得拥有”；他们宁愿牺牲自由去换

238. While it is doubtful whether the spirit of freedom can anywhere be extirpated by force, it is not certain that any people would successfully withstand the process by which it was slowly smothered in Germany. Where distinction and rank is achieved almost exclusively by becoming a salaried servant of the state, where to do one’s assigned duty is regarded as more laudable than to choose one’s own field of usefulness, where all pursuits that do not give a recognised place in the official hierarchy or a claim to a fixed income are regarded as inferior and even somewhat disreputable, it is too much to expect that many will long prefer freedom to security. And where the alternative to security in a dependent position is a most precarious position, in which one is despised alike for success and for failure, only few will resist the temptation of safety at the price of freedom. Once things have gone so far, liberty indeed becomes almost a mockery, since it can be purchased only by the sacrifice of most of the good things of this earth. In this state it is little surprising that more and more people should come to feel that without economic security liberty is “not worth having” and that they are willing to sacrifice their liberty for security. But it is disquieting to find Professor Harold Laski in this country employing the very same argument which has perhaps done more than any other to induce the German people to sacrifice their liberty.[11]

239. There can be no question that adequate security against severe privation, and the reduction of the avoidable causes of misdirected effort and consequent disappointment, will have to be one of the main goals of policy. But if these endeavours are to be successful and not to destroy individual freedom, security must be provided outside the market and competition be left to function unobstructed. Some security is essential if freedom is to be preserved, because most men are willing to bear the risk which freedom inevitably involves only so long as that risk is not too great. But while this is a truth of which we must never lose sight, nothing is more fatal than the present fashion among intellectual leaders of extolling security at the expense of freedom. It is essential that we should re-learn frankly to face the fact that freedom can only be had at a price and that as individuals we must be prepared to make severe material sacrifices to preserve our liberty. If we want to retain this we must regain the conviction on which the rule of liberty in the Anglo-Saxon countries has been based and which Benjamin Franklin expressed in a phrase applicable to us in our lives as individuals no less than as nations: “Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety.”

[10] H. J. 拉斯基在《现代国家中的自由》（企鹅丛书版，1937 年，第 51 页）中写道：“凡是了解穷人的日常生活、了解那种对迫在眉睫的灾难挥之不去的恐惧、以及对那永难企及之美所做的断续追寻的人，都会深刻地意识到，如果没有经济保障，自由便不值得拥有。”

[11] H. J. Laski, Liberty in the Modern State (Pelican edition 1937, p. 51): “Those who know the normal life of the poor, its haunting sense of impending disaster, its fitful search for beauty which perpetually eludes, will realise well enough that, without economic security, liberty is not worth having.”

第十章 何以最坏者爬得最高

权力容易腐化，绝对权力绝对使人腐化。

阿克顿勋爵

240. 现在，我们必须检视一种观点。对许多认为极权主义的出现有其必然性的人来说，这种观点会令其感到安慰；而对许多如果完全了解了极权主义的本质就会竭力反抗的人来说，它会严重地削弱他们的反抗。这种观点认为：极权主义政权中最令人厌恶的特征产生于历史的偶然，也就是说这些政权碰巧是由一帮流氓和暴徒建立的。有人辩称：如果说，德国建立了极权主义政权，让施特莱歇尔、基林格、莱伊、海内斯、希姆莱和海德里希这样一群人掌了权，这当然只能证明德国人性格之邪恶，却不足以证明这些人的崛起是极权制度带来的必然结果；如果这种制度对实现某些重要目标来说是必须的，那么，为什么就不能由正派的人来运作它，让它为整个社会的福祉服务呢?

241. 我们一定不能欺骗自己，以为凡是好人就一定是民主主义者，或者一定愿意在政府中行使一部分权力。其实，许多人都宁愿把这种事交给他们觉得更胜任的人去做。这样做未必明智，不过，赞成“好人独裁”倒也没什么不好或者不光彩的地方。我们已经听到有人这样为极权主义辩解，说它是一种强大的制度，既能行善也可作恶，它被用于什么目标完全取决于独裁者本人。有些人认为我们不必害怕这种制度，只需担心这种制度被坏人掌控的危险；为了提前消除这样的危险，这些人甚至希望看到极权制度能被好人及时地建立起来。

Chapter X: WHY THE WORST GET ON TOP

Lord Acton

240. WE must now examine a belief from which many who regard the advent of totalitarianism as inevitable derive consolation and which seriously weakens the resistance of many others who would oppose it with all their might if they fully apprehended its nature. It is the belief that the most repellent features of the totalitarian regimes are due to the historical accident that they were established by groups of blackguards and thugs. Surely, it is argued, if in Germany the creation of a totalitarian regime brought the Streichers and Killingers, the Leys and Heines, the Himmlers and Heydrichs to power, this may prove the viciousness of the German character, but not that the rise of such people is the necessary consequence of a totalitarian system. Why should it not be possible that the same sort of system, if it be necessary to achieve important ends, be run by decent people for the good of the community as a whole?

241. We must not deceive ourselves into believing that all good people must be democrats or will necessarily wish to have a share in the government. Many, no doubt, would rather entrust it to somebody whom they think more competent. Although this might be unwise, there is nothing bad or dishonourable in approving a dictatorship of the good. Totalitarianism, we can already hear it argued, is a powerful system alike for good and evil, and the purpose for which it will be used depends entirely on the dictators. And those who think that it is not the system which we need fear, but the danger that it might be run by bad men, might even be tempted to forestal this danger by seeing that it is established in time by good men.

242. 可以肯定，假设英国出现一种“法西斯”制度，它将与意大利或德国的模式大不一样；同样可以肯定的是，假设向这一“法西斯”制度的转变不以暴力实现，我们也许还可以指望出现一种比他们更好的领导人。至于我本人，如果我不得不生活在一种法西斯制度之下，我当然宁愿它是由英国人而不是其他人所运行的法西斯制度。然而，以我们目前的标准来判断，这一切并不意味着英国式的法西斯制度最终会与它的原型有很大区别，也不意味着它能让人觉得更容易忍受。我们有充分的理由相信，我们现在看到的极权制度最糟糕的特征，并非偶然得来的副产品，而是这个制度迟早会产生的现象。当信奉民主制度的政治家开始为社会经济生活做计划时，他很快会面临这样的两难选择：要么僭取独裁的权力，要么放弃计划；同样，极权主义独裁者上台不久也会面临选择：要么背弃一般道德准则，要么坐等失败。正是因为这个原因，在一个朝着极权主义发展的社会中，不择手段和无所顾忌的人更容易获得成功。谁看不到这一点，谁就还没有真正理解极权主义政权与自由主义政权之间的巨大鸿沟，也没有理解集体主义的整个道德氛围与本质上属于个人主义的西方文明之间的根本区别。

242. No doubt an English “fascist” system would greatly differ from the Italian or German models; no doubt if the transition were effected without violence, we might expect to get a better type of leader. And if I had to live under a fascist system I have no doubt that I would rather live under one run by Englishmen than under one run by anybody else. Yet all this does not mean that, judged on our present standards, a British fascist system would in the end prove so very different or much less intolerable than its prototypes. There are strong reasons for believing that what to us appear the worst features of the existing totalitarian systems are not accidental by-products, but phenomena which totalitarianism is certain sooner or later to produce. Just as the democratic statesman who sets out to plan economic life will soon be confronted with the alternative of either assuming dictatorial powers or abandoning his plans, so the totalitarian dictator would soon have to choose between disregard of ordinary morals and failure. It is for this reason that the unscrupulous and uninhibited are likely to be more successful in a society tending towards totalitarianism. Who does not see this has not yet grasped the full width of the gulf which separates totalitarianism from a liberal regime, the utter difference between the whole moral atmosphere under collectivism and the essentially individualist Western civilisation.

243. 当然，有关“集体主义的道德基础”，过去曾经有过颇多争论，但我们在这里要讨论的并非集体主义的道德基础，而是它的道德后果。通常情况下，对于集体主义道德层面的讨论，往往聚焦于两个问题：一是我们当下的道德信念是否要求我们实行集体主义；二是若要让集体主义产生预期的结果，需要什么样的道德信念。而我们的问题是：集体主义式的社会规划本身将产生怎样的道德观念，或者说，什么样的道德观念有可能支配这种社会。道德与制度之间的相互作用很可能导致这样一种结果：产

243. The “moral basis of collectivism” has, of course, been much debated in the past; but what concerns us here is not its moral basis but its moral results. The usual discussions of the ethical aspects of collectivism refer to the question whether collectivism is demanded by existing moral convictions; or what moral convictions would be required if collectivism is to produce the hoped-for results. Our question, however, is what moral views will be produced by a collectivist organisation of society, or what views are likely to rule it. The interaction between morals and institutions may well have the effect that the ethics produced by collectivism will be altogether different from the moral ideals that lead to the demand for collectivism. While we are apt to think that, since the desire for a collectivist system springs from high moral motives, such a system must be the breeding ground for the highest virtues, there is, in fact, no reason why any system should necessarily enhance those attitudes which serve the purpose for which it was designed. The ruling moral views will depend partly on the qualities that will lead individuals to success in a collectivist or totalitarian system, and partly on the requirements of the totalitarian machinery.

244. 讨论至此，我们必须简要回顾一下民主制度被压制、极权主义政权建立之前的那个阶段。那时，影响局势的主导因素是人们对迅速、果断的政府行动的普遍要求，是人们对迟缓、拖沓的民主程序的不满；这一切让“无论如何都要行动起来”成了目标。也是在那时，最具号召力的，是那些看起来足够强大、足够坚决、“能把事办成”的人或政党。“强大”在这里不只意味着在议会席位数量上占优，因为让人们不满的正是议会少数服从多数决策制度的低效。人们寻求的是拥有稳定坚实的支持力量，善于激发信心，让人们相信他能做成任何他想做之事的人。在这个背景下，按军事化方式组织起来的新型政党就应运而生了。

244. We must here return for a moment to the position which precedes the suppression of democratic institutions and the creation of a totalitarian regime. In this stage it is the general demand for quick and determined government action that is the dominating element in the situation, dissatisfaction with the slow and cumbersome course of democratic procedure which makes action for action’s sake the goal. It is then the man or the party who seems strong and resolute enough “to get things done” who exercises the greatest appeal. “Strong” in this sense means not merely a numerical majority - it is the ineffectiveness of parliamentary majorities with which people are dissatisfied. What they will seek is somebody with such solid support as to inspire confidence that he can carry out whatever he wants. It is here that the new type of party, organised on military lines, comes in.

245. 中欧各国的社会主义政党已经让广大民众习惯了那种竭尽所能侵占成员私人生活的半军事化政治组织。一个组织若是想要获得压倒性的权力，它所需要做的，不过是在某种程度上将这种半军事化政治组织的行事原则向前推进一步，不再寻求在那些要等许久才举行一次的选举中锁定大量选票，而是从一个规模更小，但组织性更为严密的队伍的绝对且毫无保留的

245. In the Central European countries the socialist parties had familiarised the masses with political organisations of a semimilitary character designed to absorb as much as possible of the private life of the members. All that was wanted to give one group overwhelming power was to carry the same principle somewhat further, to seek strength not in the assured votes of huge numbers at occasional elections, but in the absolute and unreserved support of a smaller but more thoroughly organised body. The chance of imposing a totalitarian regime

on a whole people depends on the leader first collecting round him a group which is prepared voluntarily to submit to that totalitarian discipline which they are to impose by force upon the rest. Although the socialist parties had the strength to get anything if they had cared to use force, they were reluctant to do so. They had, without knowing it, set themselves a task which only the ruthless, ready to disregard the barriers of accepted morals, can execute.

246. 当然，社会主义只能通过多数社会主义者无法认同的手段付诸实践，这是过往许多社会改革家早已习得的教训。早期社会主义政党受其民主理想的束缚，并不具备完成他们自己选择的任务所需的冷酷无情。颇具典型意义的是，在德国和意大利，法西斯主义的崛起都是以各社会主义政党拒绝承担执政责任为前奏的。当时，这些政党都不愿意全心全意地采用他们自己首开先河的手段，只是幻想着奇迹发生，期待多数人能够就一套规划整个社会的具体计划达成共识；而另一些人却已经明白，在计划型社会中，问题不再是多数人赞成什么，而是其成员的思想已经一致到足以统一指挥一切社会事务的最大单体组织是谁；或者，如果还没有这样一个在规模上大到足以贯彻其观念的组织，那么问题就是：如何创建它以及谁能成功地创建它。

246. That socialism can be put into practice only by methods which most socialists disapprove is, of course, a lesson learnt by many social reformers in the past. The old socialist parties were inhibited by their democratic ideals, they did not possess the ruthlessness required for the performance of their chosen task. It is characteristic that both in Germany and Italy the success of Fascism was preceded by the refusal of the socialist parties to take over the responsibilities of government. They were unwilling wholeheartedly to employ the methods to which they had pointed the way. They still hoped for the miracle of a majority agreeing on a particular plan for the organisation of the whole of society; others had already learnt the lesson that in a planned society the question can no longer be on what a majority of the people agree, but what is the largest single group whose members agree sufficiently to make unified direction of all affairs possible; or, if no such group large enough to enforce its views exists, how it can be created and who will succeed in creating it.

247. 有三个主要原因可以解释，为什么这样一种人数众多、势力强大且观点趋同的组织总是倾向于由社会上最坏的而不是最优秀的成员组成。按照我们的标准，这种组织在遴选其成员时所依据的原则几乎完全是负面的。

247. There are three main reasons why such a numerous and strong group with fairly homogeneous views is not likely to be formed by the best but rather by the worst elements of any society. By our standards the principles on which such a group would be selected will be almost entirely negative.

248. 首先，一般来说，个体的受教育程度和智力水平越高，其观点和品味就越多样，在何为重要，何为不重要的价值判断上，也就越不容

248. In the first instance, it is probably true that in general the higher the education and intelligence of individuals becomes, the more their views and tastes are differentiated and the less likely they are to agree on a particular hierarchy of values. It is a corollary of this that if we wish to find a high degree of uniformity and similarity of outlook, we have to descend to the regions of lower moral and intellectual standards where the more primitive and “common” instincts and tastes prevail. This does not mean that the majority of people have low moral standards; it merely means that the largest group of people whose values are very similar are the people with low standards. It is, as it were, the lowest common denominator which unites the largest number of people. If a numerous group is needed, strong enough to impose their views on the values of life on all the rest, it will never be those with highly differentiated and developed tastes - it will be those who form the “mass” in the derogatory sense of the term, the least original and independent, who will be able to put the weight of their numbers behind their particular ideals.

249. 然而，如果一个潜在的独裁者只依靠一群其简单而原始的本能恰好非常相似的人，对他们的事业而言，这群人在数量上恐怕还不够份量。为了壮大队伍，他还得让更多的人转而信奉同一种简单的信条。

249. If, however, a potential dictator had to rely entirely on those whose uncomplicated and primitive instincts happen to be very similar, their number would scarcely give sufficient weight to their endeavours. He will have to increase their numbers by converting more to the same simple creed.

250. 在这种情况下，这位独裁者要用到第二条负面遴选原则去赢得一群既听话又容易受蒙蔽的人对他的支持。这些人没有自己的坚定信念，但只要有人反复地、足够大声地向他们的耳朵里灌输，他们随时愿意接受一套现成的价值体系。让极权主义政党的队伍不断壮大的，正是这些思想模糊、不够成熟、容易被左右、被激发出愤怒和坏情绪的人。

250. Here comes in the second negative principle of selection: he will be able to obtain the support of all the docile and gullible, who have no strong convictions of their own but are prepared to accept a ready-made system of values if it is only drummed into their ears sufficiently loudly and frequently. It will be those whose vague and imperfectly formed ideas are easily swayed and whose passions and emotions are readily aroused who will thus swell the ranks of the totalitarian party.

251. 第三条，或许也是最重要的一条负面遴选原则，体现在老练的政治煽动家刻意将支持者熔铸成紧密团结、高度同质化的整体的情形中。或许这是人性中的一条法则：相较于正向

251. It is in connection with the deliberate effort of the skilful demagogue to weld together a closely coherent and homogeneous body of supporters that the third and perhaps most important negative element of selection enters. It seems to be almost a law of human nature that it is easier for people to agree on a negative programme, on the hatred of an enemy, on the envy of those better off, than on any positive task. The contrast between the “we” and the “they”, the common fight against those outside the group, seems to be an essential ingredient in any creed which will solidly knit together a group for common action. It is consequently always employed by those who seek, not merely support of a policy, but the unreserved allegiance of huge masses. From their point of view it has the great advantage of leaving them greater freedom of action than almost any positive programme. The enemy, whether he be internal like the “Jew” or the “Kulak”, or external, seems to be an indispensable requisite in the armoury of a totalitarian leader.

252. 在德国，犹太人成了敌人，后来这个位置又被所谓的“金权国家”[1]所取代；这与俄国人选择富农做敌人一样，同样都是整个运动赖以建立的那种反资本主义仇恨的结果。犹太人之所以在德国和奥地利被视为资本主义的代表，是因为在这两个国家，犹太人实际上被排斥在更受尊重的职业之外，他们更容易从事传统上被大多数阶层所厌恶的商业活动。外来族群只被允许从事不受尊重的行业，却因此更被人不尊重，这已经不是什么新鲜事了。德国的反犹主义和反资本主义同出一源，这一事实对理解德国发生的一切具有重要意义，遗憾的是，我们这些外国人却很少能够真正把握这一点。

252. That in Germany it was the Jew who became the enemy till his place was taken by the “plutocracies” was no less a result of the anti-capitalist resentment on which the whole movement was based than the selection of the Kulak in Russia. In Germany and Austria the Jew had come to be regarded as the representative of capitalism because a traditional dislike of large classes of the population for commercial pursuits had left these more readily accessible to a group that was practically excluded from the more highly esteemed occupations. It is the old story of the alien race being admitted only to the less respected trades and then being hated still more for practising them. The fact that German anti-semitism and anti-capitalism spring from the same root is of great importance for the understanding of what has happened there, but this is rarely grasped by foreign observers.

253. 如果只将集体主义政策趋向于民族主义化这一普遍现象归结为统治者需要毫不迟疑的支持，那就可能让我们忽略另一个同样重要的原

253. To treat the universal tendency of collectivist policy to become nationalistic as due entirely to the necessity for securing unhesitating support would be to neglect another and no less important factor.

因。我们完全可以这样问：一个不只为某个有限群体[2]服务的集体主义纲领是否真的存在？集体主义是否真的能够以不同于国家主义、种族主义或者阶级本位主义等特殊主义[3]的形式存在？如果一个人认为他与他的组织中的其他成员拥有共同目标和共同利益，那就意味着他预设了这样一个前提，那就是他们在观点和思想上的相似程度超过了人类个体仅仅作为人类存在时所能达到的水平。即便他无法结识所有成员，但这些人至少得与他身边的熟人属于同一类人，以相同的方式思考和交谈，讨论的也是相同的事物。只有这样，他才能与这些人建立起彼此之间的身份认同。除非为统治阶层的少数精英所利用，否则一个世界范围的集体主义似乎是难以想象的。这种集体主义不仅一定会造成技术上的难题，而且，更为重要的是，还会引发我们的社会主义者都不愿意面对的道德问题。例如，如果英国无产者认为，因为生产资料源于剥削，于是他便有权平分英国当下生产资料的收益及其支配权；那么，根据同样的原则，身处英国殖民地的所有印度人也同样有权分享相应份额的英国生产资料的收益及其支配权。然而，又有哪一个社会主义者会认真考虑让全世界人民来平分现有的生产资料呢？他们都认为生产资料只属于特定国家而不属于全人类，尽管，即便在一国之内，他们也很少敢于主张抽调一部分“属于”富裕地区的生产设备去接济贫困地区。社会主义者并不准备将他们所郑重宣布的对其同胞应尽的义务施予外国人。从一以贯之的集体主义观点来看，那些自

It may indeed be questioned whether anybody can realistically conceive of a collectivist programme other than in the service of a limited group, whether collectivism can exist in any other form than that of some kind of particularism, be it nationalism, racialism, or class-ism. The belief in the community of aims and interests with fellow-men seems to presuppose a greater degree of similarity of outlook and thought than exists between men merely as human beings. If the other members of one's group cannot all be personally known, they must at least be of the same kind as those around us, think and talk in the same way and about the same kind of things, in order that we may identify ourselves with them. Collectivism on a world scale seems to be unthinkable - except in the service of a small ruling élite. It would certainly raise not only technical but above all moral problems which none of our socialists are willing to face. If the English proletarian is entitled to an equal share of the income now derived from England's capital resources, and of the control of their use, because they are the result of exploitation, so on the same principle all the Indians would be entitled not only to the income from but also to the use of a proportional share of the British capital. But what socialists seriously contemplate the equal division of existing capital resources among the people of the world? They all regard the capital as belonging not to humanity but to the nation - though even within the nation few would dare to advocate that the richer regions should be deprived of some of "their" capital equipment in order to help the poorer regions. What socialists proclaim as a duty towards the fellow members of the existing states, they are not prepared to grant to the foreigner. From a consistent collectivist point of view the claims of the "Have-Not" nations for a new division of the world are entirely justified - though, if consistently applied, those who demand it most loudly would lose by it almost as much as the richest nations. They are, therefore, careful not to base their claims on any equalitarian principles but on their pretended superior capacity to organise other peoples.

[2] “有限群体”（limited group），似乎亦可译为“特定群体”、“小群体”。作者用这个概念，指出集体主义纲领只能为某些特定的人或者群体服务，而不是为所有的人服务。-译注

命“一无所有”的国家[4]要求重新瓜分世界的主张完全是正当的。不过，如果一以贯之地这样做，对那些对此要求最强烈的国家来说，其损失几乎会和最富有的国家一样大。因此，他们在提出自己的主张时，总是小心翼翼地避免以平均主义原则为基础，只是自诩更有能力替其他国家做主。

254. 集体主义哲学的固有矛盾之一在于，它一方面以从个人主义发展而来的人文主义道德为基础，一方面却只能在相对较小的群体中付诸实践。只有在理论层面，社会主义才是国际主义的；一旦付诸实践，无论是在俄国还是在德国，它就成了暴烈的民族主义。这也是为什么西方世界大多数人所想象的“自由社会主义”纯属理论上的空谈，社会主义实践在各国都走向极权的原因之一。[5]集体主义容不下那种自由主义博大的人道主义；它所能容纳的，只是极权主义那种狭隘的特殊主义。

254. One of the inherent contradictions of the collectivist philosophy is, that while basing itself on the humanistic morals which individualism has developed, it is practicable only within a relatively small group. That socialism so long as it remains theoretical, is internationalist, while as soon as it is put into practice, whether in Russia or in Germany, it becomes violently nationalist, is one of the reasons why “liberal socialism” as most people in the Western world imagine it is purely theoretical, while the practice of socialism is everywhere totalitarian.[6] Collectivism has no room for the wide humanitarianism of liberalism but only for the narrow particularism of the totalitarian.

255. 如果“集体”或政府优先于个人而存在，如果它们拥有独立于个体之外并且高于个体之上的目标，那么只有为这些目标工作的人才能被视为集体的成员。这种观点的必然结果是：一个人只有成为集体的一员，也就是说，只有在他为且只为集体认可的共同目标而工作时才会受到尊重；仅仅作为一个人，他没有尊严，他全部的尊严只来自他作为组织成员的身份。实际上，“人类”这个概念本身，以及由此而来的一切形式的国际主义，都完全是个人主义人类观的产物，在集体主义思想体系中不可能有它

255. If the “community” or the state are prior to the individual, if they have ends of their own independent of and superior to those of the individuals, only those individuals who work for the same ends can be regarded as members of the community. It is a necessary consequence of this view that a person is respected only as a member of the group, that is, only if and in so far as he works for the recognised common ends, and that he derives his whole dignity only from this membership and not merely from being man. Indeed, the very concepts of humanity and therefore of any form of internationalism are entirely products of the individualist view of man, and there can be no place for them in a collectivist

[4] “一无所有”的国家（Have-not nations）是20世纪30年代的特定政治术语，特指德、意、日等轴心国，它们借用社会主义的重分配逻辑，主张作为“国际无产阶级”有权重新瓜分英美等富裕国家掌控的世界资源。-译注

256. 集体主义的“集体”，只能存在于个体之间存在共同目标，或者能够形成共同目标的范围之内；除了这一基本事实之外，还有若干具有助推作用的因素，强化了集体主义向特殊主义及排他性转变的倾向。其中最重要的一个因素是：个体往往是出于自卑感才产生将自己归属于某个组织的欲望，因此只有当其作为组织成员的身份赋予他某种相对于外人的优越感时，他的欲望才能得到满足。有时候，进一步诱使他将自己的人格融入组织人格的，似乎是这样一个事实：他自知他必须在组织内部加以克制的暴烈本性，可以在对外人的集体行动中肆意释放。R · 尼布尔曾写过一本《道德的人与不道德的社会》，尽管我们很难赞同他在这本书中得出的结论，其书名却揭示了一个深刻的真理。如他在另一篇文章中所写到的那样：的确，“现代人越来越倾向于想象自己是道德的，因为他们将自己的恶行都托付了给日益庞大的组织。”[9]以组织的名义行动，似乎能让人摆脱作为个体在组织内必须遵守的许多道德约束。

257. 多数计划者之所以对国际主义抱有明显敌意，可以进一步从下述事实中找到原因：在当今世界，一个组织与外部世界的所有联系，都会成为其在能够尝试计划的范围内有效实施计

system of thought.[8]

256. Apart from the basic fact that the community of collectivism can extend only as far as the unity of purpose of the individuals exists or can be created, several contributory factors strengthen the tendency of collectivism to become particularist and exclusive. Of these one of the most important is that the desire of the individual to identify himself with a group is very frequently the result of a feeling of inferiority, and that therefore his want will only be satisfied if membership of the group confers some superiority over outsiders. Sometimes, it seems, the very fact that these violent instincts which the individual knows he must curb within the group can be given a free range in the collective action towards the outsider, becomes a further inducement for merging personality in that of the group. There is a profound truth expressed in the title of R. Niebuhr’s Moral Man and Immoral Society - however little we can follow him in the conclusions he draws from his thesis. There is indeed, as he says elsewhere, “an increasing tendency among modern men to imagine themselves ethical because they have delegated their vices to larger and larger groups.”[10] To act on behalf of a group seems to free people of many of the moral restraints which control their behaviour as individuals within the group.

257. The definitely antagonistic attitude which most planners take towards internationalism is further explained by the fact that in the existing world all outside contacts of a group are obstacles to their effectively planning the sphere in which they can

“自来有一千种民族，因此有一千种目标。只是要锁住这匹千颈怪兽的枷锁，仍然缺乏；缺乏一个大目标。人类好像还没有一个大目标。

兄弟们哟，请告诉我，假使人类的目标仍然缺乏，不是连人类也缺乏的么？”（楚图南译）

[8] It is entirely in the spirit of collectivism when Nietzsche makes his Zarathustra say:
“A thousand goals have existed hitherto, for a thousand people existed. But the fetter for the thousand necks is still lacking, the one goal is still lacking. Humanity has no goal yet.
“But tell me, I pray, my brethren: if the goal be lacking to humanity is not humanity itself lacking?”

attempt it. It is therefore no accident that, as the editor of one of the most comprehensive collective studies on planning has discovered to his chagrin, “most ‘planners’ are militant nationalists”.[12]

258. 社会主义计划者的民族主义和帝国主义倾向，虽然并不总是像韦伯夫妇和另外一些早期费边社成员那样表现得明目张胆，却也比一般人所知道的要普遍得多。韦伯夫妇等人对计划体制的热情，典型地表现为对有实力的庞大政治实体的崇拜和对小国的蔑视。历史学家埃利·阿莱维在谈及他四十年前初识韦伯夫妇的情景时有过这样的记述：

258. The nationalist and imperialist propensities of socialist planners, much more common than is generally recognised, are not always as flagrant as, for example, in the case of the Webbs and some of the other early Fabians, with whom enthusiasm for planning was characteristically combined with the veneration for the large and powerful political units and a contempt for the small state. The historian Elie Halévy, speaking of the Webbs when he first knew them forty years ago, records that

259. 他们的社会主义是强烈反自由主义的。他们并不憎恨保守党，事实上，他们对保守党格外宽容，但他们对格莱斯顿式的自由主义却毫不留情。当时正值布尔战争期间，出于自由和人道的信念，激进的自由主义者和刚开始组建工党的人都慷慨地站在布尔人一边，反对英国帝国主义。但是韦伯夫妇和他们的朋友萧伯纳却站在另一立场，公然支持帝国主义。弱小国家的独立对推崇自由的个人主义者来说或许意义重大，但对他们这些集体主义者来说却一文不值。我至今还记得西德尼·韦伯对我说，未来属于那些大型的行政国家，一边由官员实施治理、一边由警察维持秩序。

259. their socialism was profoundly anti-liberal. They did not hate the Tories, indeed they were extraordinarily lenient to them, but they had no mercy for Gladstonian Liberalism. It was the time of the Boer War and both the advanced liberals and the men who were beginning to form the Labour Party had generously sided with the Boers against British Imperialism, in the name of freedom and humanity. But the two Webbs and their friend, Bernard Shaw, stood apart. They were ostentatiously imperialistic. The independence of small nations might mean something to the liberal individualist. It meant nothing to collectivists like themselves. I can still hear Sidney Webb explaining to me that the future belonged to the great administrative nations, where the officials govern and the police keep order.

260. 阿莱维还在另一篇文章中引用了萧伯纳在大约同一时期的论断，“世界必然属于既大又强的国家，小国要么并入大国的版图，要么被彻底消灭。”[13]

260. And elsewhere Halévy quotes Bernard Shaw arguing, about the same time, that “the world is to the big and powerful states by necessity; and the little ones must come within their border or be crushed out of existence”.[14]

261. 要是阿莱维的这些文字所描绘的是德国纳粹的早期人物，那倒也不会令人感到十分惊讶。我之所以不厌其详地引述这些文字，是因为它们为我们提供了一个极为典型的例证，说明了对权力的崇拜如何轻而易举地将社会主义引向了民族主义，并且深刻影响了所有集体主义者的道德观。论及小国的权利，马克思和恩格斯的观点比大多数一贯持有集体主义立场的人好不到哪里去；而对捷克人或波兰人的看法，他们偶尔发表的见解也与当代纳粹分子如出一辙。[15]

261. I have quoted at length these passages, which would not surprise one in a description of the German ancestors of national socialism, because they provide so characteristic an example of that glorification of power which easily leads from socialism to nationalism and which profoundly affects the ethical views of all collectivists. So far as the rights of small nations are concerned, Marx and Engels were little better than most other consistent collectivists, and the views they occasionally expressed about Czechs or Poles resemble those of contemporary National Socialists. 262. 从伟大的十九世纪个人主义社会哲学家，如阿克顿勋爵和雅各布·布克哈特，到继承了自由主义传统的当代社会主义者，如伯特兰·罗素，权力在他们眼中始终是至恶；而对严格的集体主义者而言，权力本身就是目的。这不仅是因为，正如罗素清楚指出的那样：以统一计划管理社会生活的愿望在很大程度上源于对权力的欲望；[17]它更是源于这样一个事实：为了实现其目标，集体主义者必须创造出一种前所未有的、人支配人的巨大权力，而他们的成败则取决于他们获得这种权力的程度。

262. While to the great individualist social philosophers of the nineteenth century, to a Lord Acton or Jacob Burckhardt, down to contemporary socialists, like Bertrand Russell, who have inherited the liberal tradition, power itself has always appeared the arch-evil, to the strict collectivist it is a goal in itself. It is not only, as Russell has so well described, that the desire to organise social life according to a unitary plan itself springs largely from a desire for power.[18] It is even more the outcome of the fact that in order to achieve their end collectivists must create power - power over men wielded by other men - of a magnitude never before known, and that their success will depend on the extent to which they achieve such power.

263. 许多自由社会主义者在推动其事业时，被一种可悲的幻觉所误导，以为只要剥夺个人主义制度下个人所拥有的权力，并将其转交给“社会”，他们就能消灭权力；即便如此，前文所述集体主义者必须创造出巨大权力以实现其目标的论点依然成立。凡是带有这种幻觉的人都忽略了一个事实：当权力被集中起来服务于某个

263. This remains true even though many liberal socialists are guided in their endeavours by the tragic illusion that by depriving private individuals of the power they possess in an individualist system, and by transferring this power to society, they can thereby extinguish power. What all those who argue in this manner overlook is that by concentrating power so that it can be used in the service of a single plan, it is not merely transferred but infinitely heightened; that by uniting in the hands of some single body power formerly exercised independently by many, an amount of power is created infinitely greater than any that existed before, so much more far-reaching as almost to be different in kind. It is entirely fallacious when it is sometimes argued that the great power exercised by a Central Planning Board would be “no greater than the power collectively exercised by private boards of directors”.[21] There is, in a competitive society, nobody who can exercise even a fraction of the power which a socialist planning board would possess, and if nobody can consciously use the power, it is just an abuse of words to assert that it rests with all the capitalists put together.[22] It is merely a play upon words to speak of the “power collectively exercised by private boards of directors” so long as they do not combine to concerted action - which would, of course, mean the end of competition and the creation of a planned economy. To split or decentralise power is necessarily to reduce the absolute amount of power and the competitive system is the only system designed to minimise by decentralisation the power exercised by man over man.

264. 在此前的论述中，我们已经看到经济目标与政治目标的分离如何构成了个人自由的根本保证，以及这种分离如何因此遭到各种集体主义者的攻击。现在，我们必须进一步指出：如今常常被提出的“以政治权力取代经济权力”的要求，必然意味着用一种让人无从逃避的权力，去取代一种本身始终有限的权力。所谓经

264. We have seen before how the separation of economic and political aims is an essential guarantee of individual freedom and how it is consequently attacked by all collectivists. To this we must now add that the “substitution of political for economic power” now so often demanded means necessarily the substitution of power from which there is no escape for a power which is always limited. What is called economic power,

[20] 我们不能让自己被这样一个事实所迷惑，即“权力”这个词，除了用来指人类之间的关系之外，还有一种非人格化（或者说拟人化）的意义，用来表示所有决定性因素。当然，世间万物的发生总会有其决定因素，从这个意义上讲，存在的“权力”总量似乎始终是不变的。但对于由人类自觉行使的权力而言，情况却并非如此。

[22] We must not allow ourselves to be deceived by the fact that the word power, apart from the sense in which it is used with respect to human beings, is also used in an impersonal (or rather anthropomorphic) sense for any determining cause. Of course there will always be something that determines everything that happens, and in this sense the amount of power existing must always be the same. But this is not true of the power consciously wielded by human beings.

济权力，虽然它也可能成为一种胁迫工具，但在私人手里，它从来不是一种排他的或无所不包的权力，也从来不是一种能够控制一个人全部生活的权力。但是，一旦将其集中起来作为政治权力的工具，它将使人处于无法摆脱它的状态，几乎与奴役无异。

while it can be an instrument of coercion, is in the hands of private individuals never exclusive or complete power, never power over the whole life of a person. But centralised as an instrument of political power it creates a degree of dependence scarcely distinguishable from slavery.

265. 每一种集体主义制度，都具有两个核心特征：其一，它需要一套被广泛接受的组织目标体系；其二，它有压倒一切的愿望，要将实现这些目标的最大权力赋予该组织。从这两个特征中，又滋生出一种特殊的道德体系。该道德体系在某些方面与我们的道德一致，在另一些方面却尖锐对立；然而，二者之间的一点不同，甚至让我们怀疑它是否还能被称为道德：它不允许个人按照自己的良知行事，甚至根本不承认有什么一般性规则，是个体在任何情况下都必须或者可以遵循的。这使得集体主义道德与我们所熟悉的道德迥然不同，以至于我们难以发现它确实拥有的那些原则。

265. From the two central features of every collectivist system, the need for a commonly accepted system of ends of the group, and the all-overriding desire to give to the group the maximum of power to achieve these ends, grows a definite system of morals, which on some points coincides and on others violently contrasts with ours - but differs from it in one point which makes it doubtful whether we can call it morals: that it does not leave the individual conscience free to apply its own rules and does not even know any general rules which the individual is required or allowed to observe in all circumstances. This makes collectivist morals so different from what we have known as morals that we find it difficult to discover any principle in them, which they nevertheless possess.

266. 这种原则上的区别，与我们在讨论法治时已经考虑过的区别大体相同。尽管个人主义伦理的规则在许多方面并不十分精确，但它们与形式法律一样，都具有一般性和绝对性。它们所规定或禁止的，是那种一般性的行为，而不论该行为在特定情境中的最终目标是善还是恶。无论其在具体情境中是否造成了伤害，欺骗、偷窃，折磨、背叛，始终都是恶行。即便在某种情形中没有人遭受不良后果，即便是出于某种高尚的目的，这些行为属于恶行的事实也无法改变。即便我们有时不得不在不同的恶之间做出选择，但恶终究是恶。在个人主义伦

266. The difference of principle is very much the same as that which we have already considered in connection with the Rule of Law. Like formal law the rules of individualist ethics, however unprecise they may be in many respects, are general and absolute; they prescribe or prohibit a general type of action irrespective of whether in the particular instance the ultimate purpose is good or bad. To cheat or steal, to torture or betray a confidence, is held to be bad, irrespective of whether or not in the particular instance any harm follows from it. Neither the fact that in a given instance nobody may be the worse for it, nor any high purpose for which such an act may have been committed, can alter the fact that it is bad. Though we may sometimes be forced to choose between different evils they remain evils. The principle that the end justifies the means is in individualist ethics regarded as the denial of all morals. In collectivist ethics it becomes necessarily the supreme rule; there is literally nothing which the consistent collectivist must not be prepared to do if it serves “the good of the whole”, because the “good of the whole” is to him the only criterion of what ought to be done. The raison d’état, in which collectivist ethics has found its most explicit formulation, knows no other limit than that set by expediency - the suitability of the particular act for the end in view. And what the raison d’état affirms with respect to the relations between different countries applies equally to the relations between different individuals within the collectivist state. There can be no limit to what its citizen must be prepared to do, no act which his conscience must prevent him from committing, if it is necessary for an end which the community has set itself or which his superiors order him to achieve.

267. 集体主义伦理缺乏绝对的形式规则，但这显然不意味着集体主义社会不会鼓励对其有用的、排斥对其无用的个人习惯。恰恰相反，它对个人生活习惯的关注程度远高于个人主义社会。要成为对集体主义社会有用的一员，一个人需要具备一些明确的、必须通过不断训练加以强化的品质。我们之所以将这些品质称为“有用的习惯”，而几乎无法将其称为美德，是因为个体永远不被允许将这些习惯所代表的规则置于任何明确的命令之上，也不能让它们妨碍他所属的集体实现任何特定目标。可以说，这些规则只能在具体命令或具体目标未能全面覆盖的地方起到拾遗补漏的作用，但永远不能成为对抗当权者意志的理由。

267. The absence of absolute formal rules in collectivist ethics does not, of course, mean that there are not some useful habits of the individuals which a collectivist community will encourage, and others which it will discourage. Quite the reverse; it will take a much greater interest in the individual’s habits of life than an individualist community. To be a useful member of a collectivist society requires very definite qualities which must be strengthened by constant practice. The reason why we designate these qualities as “useful habits” and can hardly describe them as moral virtues is that the individual could never be allowed to put these rules above any definite orders, or to let them become an obstacle to the achievement of any of the particular aims of his community. They only serve, as it were, to fill any gaps which direct orders or the designation of particular aims may leave, but they can never justify a conflict with the will of the authority.

268. 在集体主义体制中，有些美德将会继续被推崇，有些则会逐渐消失，这两种美德之间的区别可以通过对以下两种美德的比较得到很好的诠释：一种美德，是德国人，或者更准确地说，是“典型的普鲁士人”所拥有的、即便他们的死敌也不得不承认的美德；另一种美德，是人们普遍认为德国人缺乏的，而英国人却向来因其表现卓越而有理由引以为傲的美德。几乎没有人会否认，德国人总体上勤奋守纪，做事彻底，精力充沛到不近人情的地步，执行任何任务时都认真专注；他们拥有强烈的秩序感、责任心和对上级的严格服从；他们经常表现出极大的自我牺牲精神，以及面对人身危险时的巨大勇气。这些品质，让德国人成为擅长完成指定任务的高效工具，并因此在旧普鲁士国家和新普鲁士主导的帝国被精心培养。人们往往认为“典型德国人”缺乏的，是一些个人主义的美德，其中包括对他人及他人观点的宽容和尊重、独立思考的能力、正直的品格，以及面对上级时坚持自己信念的勇气，即德国人自己也常能意识到他们所缺乏的“公民勇气”；还包括对病弱者的体恤，以及只有在个人自由的古老传统中才能培养出来的对权力的适度鄙视和反感。他们似乎还缺乏在自由社会中维系人与人之间交往的那些虽然细微却很重要的品质，比如友善、幽默、谦逊、尊重隐私以及相信邻人的善意等。

268. The differences between the virtues which will continue to be esteemed under a collectivist system and those which will disappear is well illustrated by a comparison of the virtues which even their worst enemies admit the Germans, or rather the “typical Prussian”, to possess, and those of which they are commonly thought lacking and in which the English people, with some justification, used to pride themselves as excelling. Few people will deny that the Germans on the whole are industrious and disciplined, thorough and energetic to the degree of ruthlessness, conscientious and single-minded in any tasks they undertake, that they possess a strong sense of order, duty, and strict obedience to authority, and that they often show great readiness to make personal sacrifices and great courage in physical danger. All these make the German an efficient instrument in carrying out an assigned task, and they have accordingly been carefully nurtured in the old Prussian state and the new Prussian-dominated Reich. What the “typical German” is often thought to lack are the individualist virtues of tolerance and respect for other individuals and their opinions, of independence of mind and that uprightness of character and readiness to defend one’s own convictions against a superior which the Germans themselves, usually conscious that they lack it, call Zzvilcourage, of consideration for the weak and infirm, and of that healthy contempt and dislike of power which only an old tradition of personal liberty creates. Deficient they seem also in most of those little yet so important qualities which facilitate the intercourse between men in a free society: kindliness and a sense of humour, personal modesty, and respect for the privacy and belief in the good intentions of one’s neighbour.

269. 经过以上讨论，如果我们再说这些个人主义美德同时也是名副其实的社会性美德，也就不会令人感到惊讶了。它们使社会交往更加顺畅，也使自上而下的控制变得不那么必要，同时也更加困难。在个人主义或商业型社会盛行的地方，这些美德会蓬勃发展；而越是在集体主义或军事型社会占主导地位的地方，它们就

269. After what we have already said it will not cause surprise that these individualist virtues are at the same time eminently social virtues, virtues which smooth social contacts and which make control from above less necessary and at the same time more difficult. They are virtues which flourish wherever the individualist or commercial type of society has prevailed and which are missing according as the collectivist or military type of society predominates - a difference which is, or was, as noticeable between the various regions of Germany as it has now become of the views which rule in Germany and those characteristic of the West. Till recently, at least, in those parts of Germany which have been longest exposed to the civilising forces of commerce, the old commercial towns of the south and west and the Hanse towns, the general moral concepts were probably much more akin to those of the Western people than to those which have now become dominant all over Germany.

270. 然而，如果因为极权主义国家的广大民众毫无保留地支持一种在我们看来否定了大多数道德价值的制度，就认为他们缺乏道德热情，那将是极不公允的。对于他们中的绝大多数人而言，事实恐怕恰恰相反：他们在纳粹主义或共产主义这类运动中投入的道德情感，其强度恐怕只有历史上人们在那些伟大的宗教运动中的投入才能够与之相比。一旦将个体视为工具，只可服务于所谓社会或国家这样更高实体的目标，极权主义政权的大多数令我们恐惧的特征就必然会接踵而至。从集体主义立场出发，不容异己、残酷镇压异见者、完全无视个体的生命和福祉，都是这一基本前提之下原发的和不可避免的后果。集体主义者对此直言不讳，同时还会宣称他的制度比那个允许个人“私利”阻碍社会目标全面实现的制度更优越。追求个人幸福本身是不道德的，只有履行被赋予的义务才值得称颂，当德国哲学家一次次真诚地做出这样的表示时，无论对那些在不同传统中成长起来的人来说多么难以理解，他们完全是真诚的。

271. 哪里有压倒一切的共同目标，哪里就不再有一般性道德或规则的容身之地。在战争时期，我们都曾经在有限的范围内有过这样的体

270. It would, however, be highly unjust to regard the masses of the totalitarian people as devoid of moral fervor because they give unstinted support to a system which to us seems a denial of most moral values. For the great majority of them the opposite is probably true: the intensity of the moral emotions behind a movement like that of National-Socialism or communism can probably be compared only to those of the great religious movements of history. Once you admit that the individual is merely a means to serve the ends of the higher entity called society or the nation, most of those features of totalitarian regimes which horrify us follow of necessity. From the collectivist standpoint intolerance and brutal suppression of dissent, the complete disregard of the life and happiness of the individual, are essential and unavoidable consequences of this basic premise, and the collectivist can admit this and at the same time claim that his system is superior to one in which the “selfish” interests of the individual are allowed to obstruct the full realisation of the ends the community pursues. When German philosophers again and again represent the striving for personal happiness as itself immoral and only the fulfilment of an imposed duty as praise-worthy, they are perfectly sincere, however difficult this may be to understand for those who have been brought up in a different tradition.

271. Where there is one common all-overriding end there is no room for any general morals or rules. To a limited extent we ourselves experience this in wartime. But even war and the greatest peril had led in this country only to a very moderate approach to totalitarianism, very little setting aside of all other values in the service of a single purpose. But where a few specific ends dominate the whole of society, it is inevitable that occasionally cruelty may become a duty, that acts which revolt all our feeling, such as the shooting of hostages or the killing of the old or sick, should be treated as mere matters of expediency, that the compulsory uprooting and transportation of hundreds of thousands should become an instrument of policy approved by almost everybody except the victims, or that suggestions like that of a “conscription of woman for breeding purposes” can be seriously contemplated. There is always in the eyes of the collectivist a greater goal which these acts serve and which to him justifies them because the pursuit of the common end of society can know no limits in any rights or values of any individual.

272. But while for the mass of the citizens of the totalitarian state it is often unselfish devotion to an ideal, although one that is repellent to us, which makes them approve and even perform such deeds, this cannot be pleaded for those who guide its policy. To be a useful assistant in the running of a totalitarian state it is not enough that a man should be prepared to accept specious justification of vile deeds, he must himself be prepared actively to break every moral rule he has ever known if this seems necessary to achieve the end set for him. Since it is the supreme leader who alone determines the ends, his instruments must have no moral convictions of their own. They must, above all, be unreservedly committed to the person of the leader; but next to this the most important thing is that they should be completely unprincipled and literally capable of everything. They must have no ideals of their own which they want to realise, no ideas about right or wrong which might interfere with the intentions of the leader. There is thus in the positions of power little to attract those who hold moral beliefs of the kind which in the past have guided the European peoples, little which could compensate for the distastefulness of many of the particular tasks, and little opportunity to gratify any more idealistic desires, to recompense for the undeniable risk, the sacrifice of most of the pleasures of private life and of personal independence which the posts of great responsibility involve. The only tastes which are satisfied are the taste for power as such, the pleasure of being obeyed and of being part of a well-functioning and immensely powerful machine to which everything else must give way.

273. 尽管极权主义权力机器中的领导职位对我们标准中的所谓好人来说几乎没有什么吸引力，并且反而有许多令其望而却步的地方，可对那些冷酷无情、无所不为的人来说，它却意味着特殊的机遇。有些工作，没人会怀疑它涉及恶行，但为了实现某种更高目标，总得有人去做，而且还必须像完成其他工作那样，做到专业、高效。既然总有一些坏事需要人去做，而那些仍然受到传统道德约束的人都不愿做，那么，甘愿作恶就成了晋升和掌权的必经之路。在极权主义社会中，涉及酷刑、恐吓、蓄意欺骗和秘密监视的职位比比皆是：无论是盖世太保还是集中营的管理机构，无论是宣传部还是冲锋队或党卫军，亦或是意大利或俄国的同类机构，都不是表达人道主义情怀的地方。然而，通往极权国家权力顶峰的道路正是由这样的职位铺就的。美国一位著名经济学家对集体主义国家当权者的职责进行简要梳理之后，得出了非常真实的结论：

273. Yet while there is little that is likely to induce men who are good by our standards to aspire to leading positions in the totalitarian machine, and much to deter them, there will be special opportunities for the ruthless and unscrupulous. There will be jobs to be done about the badness of which taken by themselves nobody has any doubt, but which have to be done in the service of some higher end, and which have to be executed with the same expertness and efficiency as any others. And as there will be need for actions which are bad in themselves, and which all those still influenced by traditional morals will be reluctant to perform, the readiness to do bad things becomes a path to promotion and power. The positions in a totalitarian society in which it is necessary to practice cruelty and intimidation, deliberate deception and spying, are numerous. Neither the Gestapo nor the administration of a concentration camp, neither the Ministry of Propaganda nor the SA or SS (or their Italian or Russian counterparts) are suitable places for the exercise of humanitarian feelings. Yet it is through positions like these that the road to the highest positions in the totalitarian state leads. It is only too true when a distinguished American economist concludes from a similar brief enumeration of the duties of the authorities of a collectivist state that

275. 不过，我们无法在本章中穷尽对这个话题的讨论。领导人的遴选问题还与另一种广泛的问题密切相关，即遴选的依据与其说是候选人持有的观点，还不如说是他顺从地跟随一套变幻莫测的教条的意愿。而这又将把我们引向极权主义最典型的道德特征之一，即它与一切可以统称为“求真”的美德之间的关系，以及它对这种美德所造成的影响。这是一个极其重大的问题，必须另辟一章专门讨论。

275. We cannot, however, exhaust this subject here. The problem of the selection of the leaders is closely bound up with the wide problem of selection according to the opinions held, or rather according to the readiness with which a person conforms to an ever-changing set of doctrines. And this leads us to one of the most characteristic moral features of totalitarianism, its relation to, and its effect on, all the virtues falling under the general heading of truthfulness. This is so big a subject that it requires a separate chapter.

值得注意的是，无论在哪里，思想的国有化始终与工业的国有化同时发生。

爱德华·哈莱特·卡尔

276. 要想让人人都服务于社会计划所追求的单一目标体系，最有效的办法就是让他们相信这些目标；要想让一个极权体制有效运转，只强迫每个人都为了同样的目标工作还不够，更重要的是人民必须开始把这些目标视作自己的目标。虽然替人民选择并强迫他们接受某些信念是必要的，但这些信念必须成为他们自己的信念，成为一种被普遍接受的、能让人人都自发地按照计划者所希望的方式去行动的信条。如果说，极权国家中人民的压迫感通常远不如自由国家中许多人想象的那样强烈，那是因为极权政府成功地做到了让人民按照它们所希望的方式去思考。

277. 当然，这一切都是靠各种形式的宣传来实现的。如今，宣传的技术已经广为人知，我们无需多言。唯一需要强调的是，无论是宣传本身，还是它所采用的技术，都不是极权主义所独有的；在极权国家，彻底改变了宣传的性质与效果的，是一切宣传皆服务于同一个目标，所有的宣传工具都协调一致地朝着同一个方向影响个体，从而创造出典型的、全体人民在思想上的“协调划一”。结果，与那些由彼此独立、相互竞争的机构为着不同的目的而做的宣传相比，极权国家宣传工作的效果，无论是在规模上，还是在性质上都不同。如果所有时事信息的来源都被有效地置于一个单一控制之下，那就不再只是一个说服人民接受这种观点还是那种观点的问题了。在这种情形下，技术高超的宣传家就有了按照他选择的任何方向塑

Chapter XI: THE END OF TRUTH

It is significant that the nationalisation of thought has proceeded everywhere pari passu with the nationalisation of industry.

276. THE most effective way of making everybody serve the single system of ends towards which the social plan is directed is to make everybody believe in those ends. To make a totalitarian system function efficiently it is not enough that everybody should be forced to work for the same ends. It is essential that the people should come to regard them as their own ends. Although the beliefs must be chosen for the people and imposed upon them, they must become their beliefs, a generally accepted creed which makes the individuals as far as possible act spontaneously in the way the planner wants. If the feeling of oppression in totalitarian countries is in general much less acute than most people in liberal countries imagine, this is because the totalitarian governments succeed to a high degree in making people think as they want them to.

277. This is, of course, brought about by the various forms of propaganda. Its technique is now so familiar that we need say little about it. The only point that needs to be stressed is that neither propaganda in itself, nor the techniques employed, are peculiar to totalitarianism, and that what so completely changes its nature and effect in a totalitarian state is that all propaganda serves the same goal, that all the instruments of propaganda are co-ordinated to influence the individuals in the same direction and to produce the characteristic Gleschschaltung of all minds. As a result, the effect of propaganda in totalitarian countries is different not only in magnitude but in kind from that of the propaganda made for different ends by independent and competing agencies. If all the sources of current information are effectively under one single control, it is no longer a question of merely persuading the people of this or that. The skilful propagandist then has power to mould their minds in any direction he chooses and even the most intelligent and independent people cannot entirely escape that influence if they are long isolated from all other sources of information.

278. 在极权国家，宣传所拥有的这种地位，让它具备了一种独特的力量去影响人民的思想。然而，这种独特的道德影响并非产生于极权主义宣传的技术，而是产生于它的目的和它所覆盖的范围。如果宣传的目的不过是向人们灌输那种指导一切社会活动的一整套价值体系，那么它还只是我们曾经讨论过的集体主义道德特征的一种具体体现而已；如果宣传的目的仅仅是教给人们一套明确的、全面的道德准则，那么问题也不过是这套道德准则是好是坏而已。而我们早已知道，极权主义社会的那套道德准则不太会吸引我们；我们也知道，即便是以指令型经济的手段追求平等，也必然导致官方强加的不平等，即以专制的方式决定每个人在新的等级秩序中的地位；我们还知道，在那套准则中，我们道德中绝大多数的人道主义元素，对人类生命、对弱者，以及对普遍意义上的个体的尊重等，都将消失殆尽。然而，无论这一切多么令多数人反感，尽管这种宣传意味着道德标准的改变，但它还不至于是完全反道德的。这样一种价值体系的某些道德特征甚至会吸引那些带有一丝保守主义色彩的、最严苛的道德家，在他们看来，这些特征似乎比自由社会那些比较宽松的道德标准还要更可取一些。

278. While in the totalitarian states this status of propaganda gives it a unique power over the minds of the people, the peculiar moral effects arise not from the technique but from the object and scope of totalitarian propaganda. If it could be confined to indoctrinating the people with the whole system of values towards which the social effort is directed, propaganda would represent merely a particular manifestation of the characteristic features of collectivist morals which we have already considered. If its object were merely to teach the people a definite and comprehensive moral code, the problem would be solely whether this moral code is good or bad. We have seen that the moral code of a totalitarian society is not likely to appeal to us, that even the striving for equality by means of a directed economy can only result in an officially enforced inequality - an authoritarian determination of the status of each individual in the new hierarchical order; that most of the humanitarian elements of our morals, the respect for human life, for the weak and for the individual generally, will disappear. However repellent this may be to most people, and though it involves a change in moral standards, it is not necessarily entirely anti-moral. Some features of such a system may even appeal to the sternest moralists of a conservative tint and seem to them preferable to the softer standards of a liberal society.

279. 不过，我们现在要在这里讨论的，是极权主义宣传所产生的更为深刻的道德后果。这些后果之所以对所有道德都具有破坏性，是因为它们会侵蚀所有道德的共同基础之一：对真理的感知和尊重。就其本质而言，极权主义宣传不可能只停留在价值层面，也不可能只涉及个体多少都要与社会主流观点保持一致的“观念问

279. The moral consequences of totalitarian propaganda which we must now consider are, however, of an even more profound kind. They are destructive of all morals because they undermine one of the foundations of all morals, the sense of and the respect for truth. From the nature of its task, totalitarian propaganda cannot confine itself to values, to questions of opinion and moral convictions in which the individual always will conform more or less to the views ruling his community, but must extend to questions of fact where human intelligence is involved in a different way. This is so, firstly, because in order to induce people to accept the official values, these must be justified, or shown to be connected with the values already held by the people, which usually will involve assertions about causal connections between means and ends; and, secondly, because the distinction between ends and means, between the goal aimed at and the measures taken to achieve it, is in fact never so clear-cut and definite as any general discussion of these problems is apt to suggest; and because, therefore, people must be brought to agree not only with the ultimate aims but also with the views about the facts and possibilities on which the particular measures are based.

280. 我们已经知道，那种获得人们普遍赞同的、完备的道德规范，也就是经济计划中所蕴含的无所不包的价值体系，在自由社会当中并不存在，它只能被创造出来。但我们一定不能假设，计划者在着手处理其任务时会意识到有这种需要；或者，即便他意识到，我们也不能假设他有可能预先将如此完备的一套规范创造出来。只有在推进计划的过程中，他才会发现不同需求之间的冲突；并在必要时做出决策。而在他做决策之前，并不存在什么能够指导他做决策的、抽象意义上的价值规范；这种规范必须随着具体决策被创造出来。我们也已经知道，由于无法将一般性价值问题与具体决策问题分开，民主机构既无法决定计划的技术细节，更无法决定指导计划的价值体系。

280. We have seen that agreement on that complete ethical code, that all-comprehensive system of values which is implicit in an economic plan, does not exist in a free society but would have to be created. But we must not assume that the planner will approach his task aware of that need, or that, even if he were aware of it, it would be possible to create such a comprehensive code in advance. He only finds out about the conflicts between different needs as he goes along, and has to make his decisions as the necessity arises. The code of values guiding his decisions does not exist in abstracto before the decisions have to be made, it has to be created with the particular decisions. We have also seen how this inability to separate the general problem of values from the particular decisions makes it impossible that a democratic body, while unable to decide the technical details of a plan, should yet determine the values guiding it.

281. 由于政府在处理其事务时并没有明确的道德准则可供依据，它不得不持续地根据个案的具体情况作出决策，并且必须向人民证明，或者至少要以某种方式让人民相信，它所做的决

the right decisions. Although those responsible for a decision may have been guided by no more than prejudice, some guiding principle will have to be stated publicly if the community is not merely passively to submit but actively to support the measure. The need to rationalise the likes and dislikes which, for lack of anything else, must guide the planner in many of his decisions, and the necessity of stating his reasons in a form in which they will appeal to as many people as possible, will force him to construct theories, i.e. assertions about the connections between facts, which then become an integral part of the governing doctrine. This process of creating a "myth" to justify his action need not be conscious. The totalitarian leader may be guided merely by an instinctive dislike of the state of things he has found and a desire to create a new hierarchical order which conforms better to his conception of merit, he may merely know that he dislikes the Jews who seemed to be so successful in an order which did not provide a satisfactory place for him, and that he loves and admires the tall blond man, the "aristocratic" figure of the novels of his youth. So he will readily embrace theories which seem to provide a rational justification for the prejudices which he shares with many of his fellows. Thus a pseudo-scientific theory becomes part of the official creed which to a greater or lesser degree directs everybody's action. Or the widespread dislike of the industrial civilisation and a romantic yearning for country life, together with a (probably erroneous) idea about the special value of country people as soldiers, provides the basis for another myth: Blut und Boden (blood and soil), expresses not merely ultimate values but a whole host of beliefs about cause and effect which once they have become ideals directing the activity of the whole community must not be questioned.

282. 极权制度的各种理论家早已清楚地预见到，要想引导和凝聚民众的力量，需要借助这类官方理论作为工具。柏拉图所谓的"高尚的谎言"、索雷尔所谓的"神话"，与纳粹的种族主义教义以及墨索里尼的法西斯法团国家理论，其实都具备同样的作用。这些理论都是基于对事

282. The need for such official doctrines as an instrument of directing and rallying the efforts of the people has been clearly foreseen by the various theoreticians of the totalitarian system. Plato's "noble lies" and Sorel's "myths" serve the same purpose as the racial doctrine of the Nazis or the theory of the corporative state of Mussolini. They are all necessarily based on particular views about facts which are then elaborated into scientific theories in order to justify a preconceived opinion.

283. 要让人们接受他们必须为之服务的价值体系有其正当性，最有效的方法是说服他们，让他们以为这些价值体系实际上与他们自己（或者至少是他们当中最优秀的那些人）一直奉行的价值体系完全相同，只是以前没有得到恰当的理解或认识罢了。在这样一种假象下，人们被引导着将自己对“旧神”的崇拜转移到“新神”身上，以为这些“新神”正是自己内心一直隐约认同的东西，只是过去的认识很模糊而已。实现这一目的最高效的技术，就是沿用旧的词语，同时改变其含义。彻底地歪曲语言、用改变了意义的词语表达新政权的理想，在极权主义政权的种种特征中，几乎没有哪种能够像这种做法那样，在误导不明就里的人的同时，还成了整个知识与思想界的普遍风气。

283. The most effective way of making people accept the validity of the values they are to serve is to persuade them that they are really the same as those which they, or at least the best among them, have always held, but which were not properly understood or recognised before. The people are made to transfer their allegiance from the old gods to the new under the pretence that the new gods really are what their sound instinct had always told them but what before they had only dimly seen. And the most efficient technique to this end is to use the old words but change their meaning. Few traits of totalitarian regimes are at the same time so confusing to the superficial observer and yet so characteristic of the whole intellectual climate as the complete perversion of language, the change of meaning of the words by which the ideals of the new regimes are expressed.

284. 在这方面受害最深的，显然是“自由”这个词。像在其他地方一样，这个词在极权国家也可以毫无顾忌地使用。实际上，几乎可以这样说：无论在哪里，我们所理解的那种自由所遭到的破坏，几乎总是以向人民许诺某种新自由的名义进行的；而我们理应将这种情形视为一种警告，去提防那些向我们许诺“以新自由取代旧自由”[1]的诱惑者。甚至在我们英国人当中，也开始出现“为自由而计划的人”，向我们兜售“群体的集体自由”。这种自由的本质究竟是什么，我们可以从它的鼓吹者觉得有必要给我们的保证中看出来：“很自然，有计划的自由的到

284. The worst sufferer in this respect is, of course, the word liberty. It is a word used as freely in totalitarian states as elsewhere. Indeed it could almost be said - and it should serve as a warning to us to be on our guard against all the tempters who promise us New Liberties for Old[2] - that wherever liberty as we understand it has been destroyed, this has almost always been done in the name of some new freedom promised to the people. Even among us we have “planners for freedom” who promise us a “collective freedom for the group”, the nature of which may be gathered from the fact that its advocate finds it necessary to assure us that “naturally the advent of planned freedom does not mean that all [sic] earlier forms of freedom must be abolished”. Dr. Karl Mannheim, from whose work[5] these sentences are taken, at least warns us that “a conception of freedom modelled on the preceding age is an obstacle to any real understanding of the problem”. But his use of the word freedom is as misleading as it is in the mouth of totalitarian politicians. Like their freedom the “collective freedom” he offers us is not the freedom of the members of society but the unlimited freedom of the planner to do with society what he pleases.[6] It is the confusion of freedom with power carried to the extreme.

285. 当然，就“自由”这个词被扭曲这一具体案例而言，早就有一长串德国哲学家，尤其是不少社会主义理论家，为之做了充分的铺垫。词义被彻底反转并充当起极权主义宣传工具的词汇远不止“freedom”和“liberty”这两个词，我们已经看到，“正义”和“法律”、“权利”和“平等”等词语也遭遇了同样的命运。这份清单还可以继续列下去，直到几乎所有常用的道德和政治术语都被囊括其中。

285. In this particular case the perversion of the meaning of the word has, of course, been well prepared by a long line of German philosophers, and not least by many of the theoreticians of socialism. But freedom or liberty are by no means the only words whose meaning has been changed into their opposites to make them serve as instruments of totalitarian propaganda. We have already seen how the same happens to justice and law, right and equality. The list could be extended till it included almost all moral and political terms in general use.

286. 如果一个人没有亲身经历这个过程，他就很难理解这种词义扭曲的程度之深、它所引发的混乱，以及它为一切理性讨论设置的障碍。这就好比有两个兄弟，其中一人开始拥抱了这种新的政治信仰，过不了多久，他说的话就会变成另一种语言，让兄弟之间任何真正的交流都变得不可能了，这样的事情，也只有亲眼见了才能理解。对描述政治理想的词汇加以扭曲，并不是孤立的事件，而是一个持续不断的

286. If one has not oneself experienced this process, it is difficult to appreciate the magnitude of this change of the meaning of words, the confusion which it causes, and the barriers to any rational discussion which it creates. It has to be seen to be understood how, if one of two brothers embraces the new faith, after a short while he appears to speak a different language which makes any real communication between them impossible. And the confusion becomes worse because this change of meaning of the words describing political ideals is not a single event but a continuous process, a technique

[4] 彼得·德鲁克先生在《经济人的末日》一书中准确地指出，“自由越少，谈论‘新自由’的人就越多。”然而，这个新自由不过是一个词汇，它所掩盖的，是与欧洲对自由的理解完全相反的东西。……然而，在欧洲鼓吹的新自由是与个人权利相对的多数人权利。”

[5] Man and Society in an Age of Reconstruction, p. 377.

[6] Mr. Peter Drucker (The End of Economic Man, p. 74) correctly observes that “the less freedom there is, the more there is talk of the ‘new freedom’. Yet this new freedom is a mere word which covers the exact contradiction of all that Europe ever understood by freedom. ... The new freedom which is preached in Europe is, however, the right of the majority against the individual.”

过程，是一门被有意识或无意识地用来操控人民的技术，正因为如此，混淆语言概念的情况变得愈发糟糕起来。随着这个过程的延续，整个语言系统渐渐被掏空，词汇只剩下一点残留的情感色彩，既可以表达一种意思，也可以表达相反的意思，成为被抽去确切含义的空壳。

employed consciously or unconsciously to direct the people. Gradually, as this process continues, the whole language becomes despoiled, words become empty shells deprived of any definite meaning, as capable of denoting one thing as its opposite and used solely for the emotional associations which still adhere to them.

287. 剥夺绝大部分人的独立思想并不难。但是，对于少部分仍然保持批判倾向的人，也必须令其噤声。从前文我们已经知道，人们被迫接受的，并不止于那种旨在指导一切社会活动的计划赖之为基础的道德规范。由于这套规范的许多内容永远不会被明文列出，许多指导性的价值尺度也只隐含在计划当中，所以计划的每一个细节，或者说，实际上政府的每一个行为，都必须是不可冒犯和不可批评的。要使人民毫不犹豫地支持共同行动，就必须让他们相信，不仅其目的是正确的，所选择的手段也是正当的。因此，对计划所依据的事实的所有看法，都将纳入必须予以强制奉行的官方教义。任何公开批评，甚至只是表示怀疑，都必须予以压制，因为它们会削弱公众的支持。正如韦伯夫妇在谈到俄国每个企业的情况时所说的那样："在工作进行期间，任何对计划能否成功的公开怀疑甚至担忧，都是不忠甚至背叛的行为，因为它可能动摇其他工作人员的意志和努力。"[7]而如果人们怀疑和担忧的，不仅是某个企业的兴衰，而是整个社会计划的成败，那就更要被当作蓄意破坏来对待了。

287. It is not difficult to deprive the great majority of independent thought. But the minority who will retain an inclination to criticise must also be silenced. We have already seen why coercion cannot be confined to the acceptance of the ethical code underlying the plan according to which all social activity is directed. Since many parts of this code will never be explicitly stated, since many parts of the guiding scale of values will exist only implicitly in the plan, the plan itself in every detail, in fact every act of the government, must become sacrosanct and exempt from criticism. If the people are to support the common effort without hesitation, they must be convinced that not only the end aimed at but also the means chosen are the right ones. The official creed, to which adherence must be enforced, will therefore comprise all the views about facts on which the plan is based. Public criticism or even expressions of doubt must be suppressed because they tend to weaken public support. As the Webbs report of the position in every Russian enterprise: "Whilst the work is in progress, any public expression of doubt, or even fear that the plan will not be successful, is an act of disloyalty and even of treachery because of its possible effects on the will and on the efforts of the rest of the staff."[8] When the doubt or fear expressed concerns not the success of a particular enterprise but of the whole social plan, it must even more be treated as sabotage.

288. 因此，与价值观一样，事实与理论也必须成为官方理论的管控对象。学校、报刊、广播

288. Facts and theories must thus become no less the object of an official doctrine than views about values. And the whole apparatus for spreading knowledge, the schools and the press, wireless and cinema, will be used exclusively to spread those views which, whether true or false, will strengthen the belief in the rightness of the decisions taken by the authority; and all information that might cause doubt or hesitation will be withheld. The probable effect on the people's loyalty to the system becomes the only criterion for deciding whether a particular piece of information is to be published or suppressed. The situation in a totalitarian state is permanently and in all fields the same that it is elsewhere in some fields in wartime. Everything which might cause doubt about the wisdom of the government or create discontent will be kept from the people. The basis of unfavourable comparisons with conditions elsewhere, the knowledge of possible alternatives to the course actually taken, information which might suggest failure on the part of the government to live up to its promises or to take advantage of opportunities to improve conditions, will all be suppressed. There is consequently no field where the systematic control of information will not be practised and uniformity of views not enforced.

289. 这种做法甚至波及到显然与政治利益毫无关系的领域。尤其是，所有的科学学科都受到了影响，甚至连最抽象的学科也未能幸免。不难理解且已经被经验所充分证明的是，在极权体制下，在诸如历史、法律、经济这类直接涉及人类事务并因而最能直接影响政治观点的学科当中，不带立场地探求真理是不被允许的，捍卫官方观点才是它们唯一的目标。在所有极权国家中，这类学科实际上都已经沦为高产的政治神话工厂，专门为统治者生产操纵臣民思想和意志的工具。不难理解，在这些领域，他们甚至不再装出追求真理的样子，连哪些理论可以传授和出版都由当权者说了算了。

289. This applies even to fields apparently most remote from any political interests, and particularly to all the sciences, even the most abstract. That in the disciplines dealing directly with human affairs and therefore most immediately affecting political views, such as history, law, or economics, the disinterested search for truth cannot be allowed in a totalitarian system, and the vindication of the official views becomes the sole object, is easily seen and has been amply confirmed by experience. These disciplines have indeed in all totalitarian countries become the most fertile factories of the official myths which the rulers use to guide the minds and wills of their subjects. It is not surprising that in these spheres even the pretence that they search for truth is abandoned and that the authorities decide what doctrines ought to be taught and published.

290. 然而，极权主义对思想的控制竟然也蔓延到一些初看起来毫无政治意义的学科。有些时候，人们很难解释为什么有些理论会遭到官方

290. Totalitarian control of opinion extends, however, also to subjects which at first seem to have no political significance. Sometimes it is difficult to explain why particular doctrines should be officially proscribed or why others should be encouraged, and it is curious that these likes and dislikes are apparently somewhat similar in the different totalitarian systems. In particular, they all seem to have in common an intense dislike of the more abstract forms of thought - a dislike characteristically also shown by many of the collectivists among our scientists. Whether the theory of relativity is represented as a “semitic attack on the foundation of Christian and Nordic physics” or opposed because it is “in conflict with dialectical materialism and Marxist dogma” comes very much to the same thing. Nor does it make much difference whether certain theorems of mathematical statistics are attacked because they “form part of the class struggle on the ideological frontier and are a product of the historical rôle of mathematics as the servant of the bourgeoisie”, or whether the whole subject is condemned because “it provides no guarantee that it will serve the interest of the people”. It seems that pure mathematics is no less a victim and that even the holding of particular views about the nature of continuity can be ascribed to “bourgeois prejudices”. According to the Webbs the Journal for Marxist-Leninist Natural Sciences has the following slogans: “We stand for Party in Mathematics. We stand for the purity of Marxist-Leninist theory in surgery.” The situation seems to be very similar in Germany. The Journal of the National-Socialist Association of Mathematicians is full of “party in mathematics”, and one of the best known German physicists, the Nobel prizeman Lennard, has summed up his life work under the title German Physics in Four Volumes!

291. 谴责任何单纯出于自身目的而不附带其他动机的人类活动，这完全符合极权主义的整体精神。“为科学而科学”，“为艺术而艺术”，都会招致纳粹分子、我们的社会主义知识分子和共产主义者的憎恨。一切活动都必须从人为设定的社会目的中证明其正当性。绝不允许任何自发的、不受政府指导的活动，因为这类活动可能产生无法预见的、计划之外的结果，甚至产

291. It is entirely in keeping with the whole spirit of totalitarianism that it condemns any human activity done for its own sake and without ulterior purpose. Science for science’ sake, art for art’s sake, are equally abhorrent to the Nazis, our socialist intellectuals, and the communists. Every activity must derive its justification from a conscious social purpose. There must be no spontaneous, unguided activity, because it might produce results which cannot be foreseen and for which the plan does not provide. It might produce something new, undreamt of in the philosophy of the planner. The principle extends even to games and amusements. I leave it to the reader to guess whether it was in Germany or in Russia where chess-players were officially exhorted that “we must finish once and for all with the neutrality of chess. We must condemn once and for all the formula ‘chess for the sake of chess’ like the formula ‘art for art’s sake’”.

292. 这些反常现象或许令人难以置信，我们仍需保持警惕，切不可只将它们视为与计划或极权制度的本质无关的、偶然产生的副产品。事实并非如此。直接导致这些现象出现的，是用“一元化的整体观念”管理一切的欲望，是不惜一切代价都要坚持的、要求人们不断为之牺牲的观点，也是把人民的知识和信仰当成工具以实现单一目的的普遍思想。一旦科学不再服务于真理，而是服务于某个阶级、社会或国家的利益，那么论证与讨论的唯一任务，就变成了捍卫并进一步传播那些施加于整个社会生活的官方信条。就像纳粹的司法部长所言，每一种新的科学理论必须面对的问题是：它“是否为了整个民族的最大利益而服务于国家社会主义？”

292. Incredible as some of these aberrations may appear, we must yet be on our guard not to dismiss them as mere accidental by-products which have nothing to do with the essential character of a planned or totalitarian system. They are not. They are a direct result of that same desire to see everything directed by a “unitary conception of the whole”, of the need to uphold at all costs the views in the service of which people are asked to make constant sacrifices, and of the general idea that the knowledge and beliefs of the people are an instrument to be used for a single purpose. Once science has to serve, not truth, but the interests of a class, a community, or a state, the sole task of argument and discussion is to vindicate and to spread still further the beliefs by which the whole life of the community is directed. As the Nazi Minister of Justice has explained, the question which every new scientific theory must ask itself is: “Do I serve National-Socialism for the greatest benefit of all?”

293. “真理”这个词也失去了原有的含义。它不再指代那些有待发现的、可以在任一具体情形中，仅凭个人良知即可判断其证据是否成立，或其宣称者是否可信的事物；它变成了某种只有当权者才能界定的东西，某种为了计划行动的统一性而必须相信的东西，某种可能为了适应计划行动的需要而被变更的东西。

293. The word truth itself ceases to have its old meaning. It describes no longer something to be found, with the individual conscience as the sole arbiter of whether in any particular instance the evidence (or the standing of those proclaiming it) warrants a belief; it becomes something to be laid down by authority, something which has to be believed in the interest of the unity of the organised effort, and which may have to be altered as the exigencies of this organised effort require it.

[9] 典故出自莎士比亚《哈姆雷特》第一幕第五场。原文：There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, / Than are dreamt of in your philosophy. 卞之琳译：“你知道天地间有许多事情，霍拉旭，绝不是你们的哲学所梦想得到的”。-译注

294. 这种情形在知识与思想界形成了一种普遍的风气，造成了对真理彻底玩世不恭的态度，对真理意义的感知消失了，独立探索的精神湮灭了，人们也不再相信以理服人的力量了，每个知识领域的意见分歧都变成需要当权者裁决的政治问题，所有这一切，只有亲身经历才能体会，短短几句话无法说清其严重程度。或许最令人担心的是，对思想自由的轻视，并非只出现在极权制度建立之后；它还广泛存在于那些拥抱集体主义信条、在仍然维持自由制度的国家被誉为思想领袖的知识分子当中。只要是以社会主义的名义，最残酷的压迫也被容忍了；甚至还有一些自称代表自由国家科学家的人，也公开鼓吹建立极权制度了；不仅如此，不容异见的做法也被公开称赞了。我们最近不是看到了吗？一位专门撰写科学论著的英国作家甚至替宗教裁判所辩护，因为在他看来，“只要是为了保护一个新兴阶级”，宗教裁判所的所作所为就是“对科学有益的”。[10]显然，这个观点与纳粹迫害科学家、焚烧科学书籍、系统性地消灭被征服民族的知识阶层时所依据的观点没有什么不同。

294. The general intellectual climate which this produces, the spirit of complete cynicism as regards truth which it engenders, the loss of the sense of even the meaning of truth, the disappearance of the spirit of independent inquiry and of the belief in the power of rational conviction, the way in which differences of opinion in every branch of knowledge become political issues to be decided by authority, are all things which one must personally experience - no short description can convey their extent. Perhaps the most alarming fact is that contempt for intellectual liberty is not a thing which arises only once the totalitarian system is established, but one which can be found everywhere among intellectuals who have embraced a collectivist faith and who are acclaimed as intellectual leaders even in countries still under a liberal regime. Not only is even the worst oppression condoned if it is committed in the name of socialism, and the creation of a totalitarian system openly advocated by people who pretend to speak for the scientists of liberal countries; intolerance too is openly extolled. Have we not recently seen a British scientific writer defend even Inquisition because in his opinion it “is beneficial to science when it protects a rising class”?[11] This view is, of course, practically indistinguishable from the views which led the Nazis to the persecution of men of science, the burning of scientific books, and the systematic eradication of the intelligentsia of the subjected people.

295. 当然，想要把所谓对人民有益的信条强加于人民的欲望并不是什么新鲜事，也并非我们这个时代所独有。然而，真正新鲜的，是许多知识分子为这种企图辩护的论证方式。他们说，在我们的社会中不存在真正的思想自由，因为大众的观点和品味是被宣传、广告、上层阶级的示范作用以及其它环境因素塑造的。这些因素不可避免地将人们的思想引入早已成型

295. The desire to force upon the people a creed which is regarded as salutary for them is, of course, not a thing that is new or peculiar to our time. New, however, is the argument by which many of our intellectuals try to justify such attempts. There is no real freedom of thought in our society, so it is said, because the opinions and tastes of the masses are shaped by propaganda, by advertising, by the example of the upper classes, and by other environmental factors which inevitably force the thinking of the people into well-worn grooves. From this it is concluded that if the ideals and tastes of the great majority are always fashioned by circumstances which we can control, we ought to use this power deliberately to turn the thoughts of the people in what we think is a desirable direction.

296. 或许我们可以这么说，绝大多数人都不太具备独立思考的能力。在多数问题上，他们只接受现成的观点；无论是从出生起就被灌输的某种观念，还是后来经他人引导接受的另一种观念，都一样能让他们心满意足。在任何社会，思想自由或许都只对一小部分人具有直接意义。然而，这并不意味着任何人有资格或有权力去决定应该将这种自由留给哪些人；它当然也不能为任何一个群体所僭取的、决定人民应该想什么和信什么的权力做合理性辩护。有人认为，既然在任何一种社会制度中，大多数人都要接受某个人的领导，那么，让所有人都接受同一个人的领导也没什么不同。这种观点完全是一种思维混乱的表现。思想自由，从来不意味着所有人都拥有同样程度的独立思考能力，可如果因此就贬低它的价值，那就彻底忽视了它真正的价值所在。要使思想自由成为推动思想进步的原动力，关键不在于每个人都能任意思考或者写作，而在于任何观点和任何主张都可以被人加以论证。只要异见不被压制，就总会有人质疑支配着其同时代人的主流观念，并将新的思想置于辩论和传播的双重考验之下。

296. Probably it is true enough that the great majority are rarely capable of thinking independently, that on most questions they accept views which they find ready-made, and that they will be equally content if born or coaxed into one set of beliefs or another. In any society freedom of thought will probably be of direct significance only for a small minority. But this does not mean that anyone is competent, or ought to have power, to select those to whom this freedom is to be reserved. It certainly does not justify the presumption of any group of people to claim the right to determine what people ought to think or believe. It shows a complete confusion of thought to suggest that, because under any sort of system the majority of people follow the lead of somebody, it makes no difference if everybody has to follow the same lead. To deprecate the value of intellectual freedom because it will never mean for everybody the same possibility of independent thought is completely to miss the reasons which give intellectual freedom its value. What is essential to make it serve its function as the prime mover of intellectual progress is not that everybody may be able to think or write anything, but that any cause or idea may be argued by somebody. So long as dissent is not suppressed, there will always be some who will query the ideas ruling their contemporaries and put new ideas to the test of argument and propaganda.

297. 正是拥有不同知识、不同观点的个体之间的这种互动，赋予了思想以生命。人类理性的成长是一个以这些差异的存在为基础的社会进程。这一成长的本质在于其结果无法预测，也就是说我们无法预知哪些观点有助于理性的成长，哪些则不然；简而言之，只要我们用既有的观点主导它，就无法做到不妨碍它。“计划”

297. This interaction of individuals, possessing different knowledge and different views, is what constitutes the life of thought. The growth of reason is a social process based on the existence of such differences. It is of its essence that its results cannot be predicted, that we cannot know which views will assist this growth and which will not - in short, that this growth cannot be governed by any views which we now possess without at the same time limiting it. To “plan” or “organise” the growth of mind, or, for that matter, progress in general, is a contradiction in terms. The idea that the human mind ought “consciously” to control its own development confuses individual reason, which alone can “consciously control” anything, with the interpersonal process to which its growth is due. By attempting to control it we are merely setting bounds to its development and must sooner or later produce a stagnation of thought and a decline of reason.

或者“规划”人类理性的发展或者广泛意义上的人类进步，这本身就是自相矛盾的说法。认为人类理性应该“有意识”地控制其自身发展的观点，将“能够有意识地控制任何事物的个体理性”与“人类理性的成长赖之为基础的个体互动过程”混淆了。控制人类理性发展的企图，不过是为这一发展设定界限，迟早会导致思想的停滞和理性的衰退。

298. 集体主义思想的悲剧在于，它起初是要让理性居于至高地位，最终却因曲解了理性赖以成长的过程而毁掉了它。这种初衷与结果的矛盾确实存在于各种集体主义学说及其对“有意识的”控制或“有意识的”计划的主张当中，也正是因为这个矛盾，这些学说必然会走到要求某个个体的思想居于至高地位的地步。只有用个人主义的方法来研究社会现象，才能让我们承认那些引导理性成长的、超越个体的力量。因此，个人主义的态度，是面对社会进程的谦卑，是对其他观点的宽容，也是与“知识的傲慢”截然相反的一种态度；而全面指导社会进程这一要求的根源，正是这种“知识的傲慢”。

298. The tragedy of collectivist thought is that while it starts out to make reason supreme, it ends by destroying reason because it misconceives the process on which the growth of reason depends. It may indeed be said that it is the paradox of all collectivist doctrine and its demand for the “conscious” control or “conscious” planning that they necessarily lead to the demand that the mind of some individual should rule supreme - while only the individualist approach to social phenomena makes us recognise the super-individual forces which guide the growth of reason. Individualism is thus an attitude of humility before this social process and of tolerance to other opinions, and is the exact opposite of that intellectual hubris which is at the root of the demand for comprehensive direction of the social process.

亚瑟·穆勒·范登布鲁克

299. 人们常犯的错误，就是以为纳粹主义只不过是对理性的反叛，是一场缺乏思想背景的非理性运动。如果真是如此，这场运动反倒不会像现在这么危险了。这种观点恰恰与事实相反，而且极具误导性。纳粹主义理论是一次漫长的思想演变的结果，这一过程吸引了一批在德国国内外都有巨大影响力的思想家参与其中。无论人们如何评价这些理论所依据的前提，不可否认的是，提出这些新理论的人都是曾在整个欧洲思想界留下深刻印记的、才华横溢的著述者。他们提出的这套思想体系是以一种决绝的逻辑一致性发展起来的，一旦接受其前提，就无法跳出其逻辑。简单说，这套体系就是一种摆脱了一切有可能阻碍其目的实现的个人主义传统残余的、纯粹的集体主义。

300. 尽管这一思想演进的过程是由德国思想家引领的，但他们绝不是唯一的参与者。在这一持续不断的过程中，托马斯·卡莱尔和休斯顿·斯图尔特·张伯伦、奥古斯特·孔德和乔治·索雷尔的参与程度都丝毫不亚于任何一位德国人。R·D·巴特勒先生最近在他的《纳粹主义的根源》一书中对纳粹主义这一思想流派在德国的演变进行了详尽的梳理。他发现，一百五十年来，它以几乎不变且不断重复的形式持续存在于德国。这个结论固然令人不安，却也容易夸大这种思想在1914年前的德国所具有的重要性。它不过是当时德国众多思想流派中的一种而已；那个时期的德国，或许比任何其它

Chapter XII: THE SOCIALIST ROOTS OF NAZIISM

A. Moeller van den Bruck

299. IT is a common mistake to regard National-Socialism as a mere revolt against reason, an irrational movement without intellectual background. If that were so, the movement would be much less dangerous than it is. But nothing could be further from the truth or more misleading. The doctrines of National-Socialism are the culmination of a long evolution of thought, a process in which thinkers who have had great influence far beyond the confines of Germany have taken part. Whatever one may think of the premises from which they started, it cannot be denied that the men who produced the new doctrines were powerful writers who left the impress of their ideas on the whole of European thought. Their system was developed with ruthless consistency. Once one accepts the premises from which it starts, there is no escape from its logic. It is simply collectivism freed from all traces of an individualist tradition which might hamper its realisation.

300. Though in this development German thinkers have taken the lead, they were by no means alone. Thomas Carlyle and Houston Stewart Chamberlain, Auguste Comte and Georges Sorel are as much a part of that continuous development as any Germans. The development of this strand of thought within Germany has been well traced recently by Mr. R. D. Butler in his study of The Roots of National Socialism. But although its persistence there through a hundred and fifty years in almost unchanged and ever-recurring form, which emerges from that study, is rather frightening, it is easy to exaggerate the importance these ideas had in Germany before 1914. They were only one strand of thought among a people then perhaps more varied in its views than any other. And they were on the whole represented by a small minority and held in as great contempt by the majority of Germans as they were in other countries.

301. 那么，究竟是什么原因，使得这种原本只是由一个反自由主义的少数派所持有的思想最终赢得了大多数德国人，乃至几乎全体德国青年的支持呢？其原因，不仅仅是德国的战败、人们的苦难以及民族主义浪潮的高涨；更不是像很多人愿意相信的那样，是资本主义对社会主义发展的反扑。恰恰相反，将纳粹思想推上了权力舞台的，恰恰是来自社会主义阵营的支持，促成其掌权的，不是一个强大的资产阶级的帮助，反而是一个强大的资产阶级的缺席。

301. What, then, caused these views held by a reactionary minority finally to gain the support of the great majority of Germans and practically the whole of her youth? It was not merely the defeat, the suffering, and the wave of nationalism which led to their success. Still less was the cause, as so many people wish to believe, a capitalist reaction against the advance of socialism. On the contrary, the support which brought these ideas to power came precisely from the socialist camp. It was certainly not through the bourgeoisie, but rather through the absence of a strong bourgeoisie, that they were helped to power.

302. 指导上一代德国统治阶层的理论所反对的，不是马克思主义中的社会主义，而是马克思主义中的自由主义成分，它的国际主义和民主思想。这些自由主义成分构成了实现社会主义的障碍，随着这一事实愈发清晰，左翼社会主义者开始愈发向右翼社会主义者靠拢。正是因为左右两派反资本主义力量的联合，也正是因为“激进的”和“保守的”两派社会主义的融合，与自由主义有关的一切才被赶出了德国。

302. The doctrines which had guided the ruling elements in Germany for the past generation were not opposed to the socialism in Marxism, but to the liberal elements contained in it, its internationalism and its democracy. And as it became increasingly clear that it was just these elements which formed obstacles to the realisation of socialism, the socialists of the left approached more and more to those of the right. It was the union of the anti-capitalist forces of the right and the left, the fusion of radical and conservative socialism, which drove out from Germany everything that was liberal.

303. 在德国，社会主义和民族主义之间的联系从一开始就十分紧密。值得注意的是，纳粹主义最重要的几位先驱费希特、洛贝尔图斯和拉萨尔，同时也被尊为社会主义之父。在马克思主义形式的理论社会主义主导德国工人运动时，其中的专制主义和民族主义成分曾经一度退居幕后。但这种情况并没有持续很久。[1]从1914年起，马克思主义派别的社会主义队伍中

303. The connection between socialism and nationalism in Germany was close from the beginning. It is significant that the most important ancestors of National-Socialism - Fichte, Rodbertus, and Lassaile - are at the same time acknowledged fathers of socialism. While theoretical socialism in its Marxist form was directing the German labour movement, the authoritarian and nationalist element receded for a time into the background. But not for long.[2] From 1914 onwards there arose from the ranks of Marxist socialism one teacher

[1] 这种退居幕后也是局部的。1892年，社会民主党领袖之一奥古斯特·倍倍尔曾对俾斯麦说：“帝国宰相尽可放心，德国社会民主党某种程度上正是一所为军国主义培养人才的预备学校！”

[2] And only partially. In 1892 one of the leaders of the social-democratic party, August Bebel, was able to tell Bismarck that “the Imperial Chancellor can rest assured that German Social Democracy is a sort of preparatory school for militarism” !

after another who led, not the conservatives and reactionaries, but the hardworking labourer and idealist youth into the national-socialist fold. It was only thereafter that the tide of nationalist socialism attained major importance and rapidly grew into the Hitlerian doctrine. The war hysteria of 1914, which, just because of the German defeat, was never fully cured, is the beginning of the modern development which produced National-Socialism, and it was largely with the assistance of old socialists that it rose during this period.

304. 在纳粹主义的崛起过程中，最早的、在某种意义上最具代表性的人物或许是已故的维尔纳·桑巴特教授。1915年，他曾出版过一部臭名昭著的著作：《商人与英雄》。最初、桑巴特是一位信奉马克思主义的社会主义者。直到1909年，他还在自豪地宣称他一生的大部分时间都在为卡尔·马克思的思想而奋斗。若论社会主义思想和反资本主义情绪在德国的传播，他的贡献几乎无人能比。如果说德国思想界在俄国革命之前被马克思主义成分渗透程度之深远超其它国家，那么这在很大程度上也要归功于桑巴特。他一度被视为受迫害的社会主义知识分子的杰出代表，因其观点激进而无法获得大学教席。甚至在上一次大战之后，尽管他在政治立场上已经不再是一名马克思主义者，但他的研究依然保持着马克思主义的方法；作为历史学家，无论是在德国，还是在其他国家，他的著作都有很广泛的影响力。这种影响，在众多英美计划者的著作中体现得尤其明显。

304. Perhaps the first, and in some ways the most characteristic, representative of this development is the late Professor Werner Sombart, whose notorious Handler und Helden (Merchants and Heroes) appeared in 1915. Sombart had begun as a Marxian socialist, and as late as 1909 could assert with pride that he had devoted the greater part of his life to fighting for the ideas of Karl Marx. He had done as much as any man to spread socialist ideas and anti-capitalist resentment of varying shades throughout Germany; and if German thought became penetrated with Marxian elements in a way that was true of no other country till the Russian revolution, this was in a large measure due to Sombart. At one time he was regarded as the outstanding representative of the persecuted socialist intelligentsia, unable, because of his radical views, to obtain a University chair. And even after the last war the influence, inside and outside Germany of his work as a historian, which remained Marxist in approach after he had ceased to be a Marxist in politics, was most extensive and is particularly noticeable in the works of many of the English and American planners.

305. 这位曾经的社会主义者在他那部战争时期出版的著作中指出，他欣然接受“德国战争”，并将其视为发生在英国商业文明与德国英雄文化之间的一场不可避免的冲突。他对英国人的“商业”观念鄙视到了极点，认为他们的尚武精

305. In his war book this old socialist welcomed the “German War” as the inevitable conflict between the commercial civilisation of England and the heroic culture of Germany. His contempt for the “commercial” views of the English people, who had lost all warlike instincts, is unlimited. Nothing is more contemptible in his eyes than the universal striving after the happiness of the individual; and what he describes as the leading maxim of English morals: be just "that it may be well with thee and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the land" is to him "the most infamous maxim which has ever been pronounced by a commercial mind". The "German idea of the state" as formulated by Fichte, Lassalle, and Rodbertus, is that the state is neither founded nor formed by individuals, nor an aggregate of individuals, nor is its purpose to serve any interest of individuals. It is a Volksgemeinschaft in which the individual has no rights but only duties. Claims of the individual are always an outcome of the commercial spirit. "The ideas of 1789"- Liberty, Equality Fraternity - are characteristically commercial ideals which have no other purpose but to secure certain advantages to individuals.

神早已荡然无存。在他看来，世人对个体幸福的普遍追求是最可鄙的；那句被他称为引领英国人的道德格言："行公义使你得福，也使你在地上的日子得以长久"[3]，是"头脑中充斥着商业思想的人所能说出的最无耻的格言"。他认为，所谓"德国的国家观念"，正如费希特、拉萨尔和洛贝尔图斯所表述的那样，其含义就是国家既非由个体建立，也非由个体组成，更不是个体的集合，其目的也不服务于任何个体的利益；它是一个"民族共同体"，个体在其中没有权利，只有义务。个体的主张始终是商业精神的产物，而所谓的"1789思想"[4]所倡导的自由、平等、博爱，也都是典型的商业理想，除了保证某些个体的利益之外，没有任何其他意义。

306. 1914年之前，面对英国人在商业理想、舒适生活和体育运动等方面不断取得进展的局面，真正的德国英雄主义理想全都面临致命的威胁。英国人民彻底地堕落了，每个工会成员也都陷入了"安逸的泥沼"，不仅如此，他们甚至开始"感染"其他国家的人民。唯有战争才能帮助德国人重新意识到他们实际上是勇士民族；他们的一切活动，尤其是一切经济活动，都必须服从军事目的。桑巴特知道，其他国家的人因为德国人视战争为神圣而看不起他们，而他自己却以此为傲。在他看来，将战争视为不人道和无意义的，本身就是商业观念的产物。有一种比个体生活更高的生活，那就是民族的生活和国家的生活。个体存在的目的就是为了这种更高的生活而牺牲自己。对桑巴特来说，战争是英雄人生观的终极体现，而与英国的战争就是与对立之理想的战争，是对追求个人自由以及英国式舒适生活的商业理想的战

306. Before 1914 all the true German ideals of a heroic life were in deadly danger before the continuous advance of English commercial ideals, English comfort, and English sport. The English people had not only themselves become completely corrupted, every trade unionist being sunk in the "morass of comfort", but they had begun to infect all other peoples. Only the war had helped the Germans to remember that they were really a people of warriors, a people among whom all activities and particularly all economic activities were subordinated to military ends. Sombart knew that the Germans were held in contempt by other people because they regard war as sacred - but he glories init. To regard war as inhuman and senseless is a product of commercial views. There is a life higher than the individual life, the life of the people and the life of the state, and it is the purpose of the individual to sacrifice himself for that higher life. War is to Sombart the consummation of the heroic view of life, and the war against England is the war against the opposite ideal, the commercial ideal of individual freedom and of English comfort, which in his eyes finds its

307. 如果说当年桑巴特的激烈言辞甚至对大多数德国人来说都过于激进的话，另一位德国教授则以一种更温和、更学术，却因此也更有效的形式提出了本质上与桑巴特相同的观点。这位教授就是约翰·普朗格。他与桑巴特一样，也是研究马克思的重量级权威学者，其《马克思与黑格尔》一书，开启了现代黑格尔研究在马克思主义学界的复兴；他最初秉持的思想无疑具有真正的社会主义性质。在他众多的战时出版物中，最重要的是一部篇幅不长，却在当时引起广泛讨论，并且书名本身就颇具深意的的著作：《1789与1914：政治思想史上的象征性岁月》。这部著作讨论了“1789思想”（自由的理想）和“1914思想”（规划的理想）之间的冲突。与所有把科学理想粗暴地应用于解决社会问题并从中构建出社会主义理论的社会主义者一样，普朗格教授认为，而且颇为正确地强调，规划是社会主义的本质，是十九世纪早期法国社会主义运动的根本。而马克思以及马克思主义对抽象的自由观念的狂热而乌托邦式的坚持，则是对这一基本思想的背叛。他认为，直到他写作这部著作的时候，规划的思想才重新获得其应有的地位；尤其在德国，这一思想得到了最透彻的理解和最充分的实现；而在其他国家，这一趋势也已经出现，赫伯特·乔治·威尔斯先生的著作便是一个例证。（普朗格教授深受威尔斯先生所著《美国的未来》一书的启发，并将其视为现代社会主义的领军人物之一。）因此，普朗格教授主张，英国与德国之间的战争实际上是一场两种对立原则之间的冲突；这场“世界经济大战”，是现代历史上精神斗争的第三个伟大纪元，其意义堪比宗教改

307. If Sombart’s outburst was at the time too much even for most Germans, another German professor arrived at essentially the same ideas in a more moderate and more scholarly, but for that reason even more effective, form. Professor Johann Plenge was as great an authority on Marx as Sombart. His book on Marx und Hegel marks the beginning of the modern Hegel-renaissance among Marxian scholars; and there can be no doubt about the genuinely socialist nature of the convictions with which he started. Among his numerous war publications the most important is a small but at the time widely discussed book with the significant title: 1789 and 1914. The Symbolic Years in the History of the Political Mind. It is devoted to the conflict between the “Ideas of 1789”, the ideal of freedom, and the “Ideas of 1914”, the ideal of organisation. Organisation is to him, as to all socialists who derive their socialism from a crude application of scientific ideals to the problems of society, the essence of socialism. It was, as he rightly emphasises, the root of the socialist movement at its inception in early nineteenth-century France. Marx and Marxism have betrayed this basic idea of socialism by their fanatic but utopian adherence to the abstract idea of freedom. Only now was the idea of organisation again coming into its own, elsewhere, as witnessed by the work of Mr. H. G. Wells (by whose Future in America Professor Plenge was profoundly influenced, and whom he describes as one of the outstanding figures of modern socialism), but particularly in Germany, where it is best understood and most fully realised. The war between England and Germany is therefore really a conflict between two opposite principles. The “Economic World War” is the third great epoch of spiritual struggle in modern history. It is of equal importance with the Reformation and the bourgeois revolution of liberty. It is the struggle for the victory of the new forces born out of the advanced economic life of the nineteenth century: socialism and organisation.

308. 在思想领域，德国是一切社会主义梦想最坚定的倡导者；在现实领域，她又是规划程度最高的经济制度最有力的建设者。二十世纪是我们的世纪。无论战争结果如何，我们都是模范民族。我们的思想将决定人类生活的目标。当前，世界历史正呈现出这样一幅壮观的景象：在我们这边，一种新的、伟大的生活理想正朝着最终胜利的方向迈进；与此同时，在英国，世界历史上的一个原则正在走向最后的崩溃。

308. Because in the sphere of ideas Germany was the most convinced exponent of all socialist dreams, and in the sphere of reality she was the most powerful architect of the most highly organised economic system. - In us is the twentieth century. However the war may end, we are the exemplary people. Our ideas will determine the aims of the life of humanity - World History experiences at present the colossal spectacle that with us a new great ideal of life penetrates to final victory, while at the same time in England one of the World- Historical principles finally collapses.

309. 他还认为，1914年德国建立的战时经济

309. The war economy created in Germany in 1914

310. 是社会主义社会的第一次实现，其精神也是社会主义精神的第一次、超越诉求层面且并非表面化的展现。战争的需要在德国的经济生活中确立了社会主义思想。因此，在保卫我们国家的战争中，我们为人类贡献了“1914思想”，贡献了德国的规划概念以及国家社会主义的“民族共同体”的概念……不经意间，我们国家的、以及工业领域的整个政治生活，都已经上升到了一个更高阶段。国家和经济生活构成了一个新的统一体……私人活动领域处处体现出典型的、公务员式的对经济工作的责任感。[普朗格教授坦言尚未成熟或完备的]经济生活中新的法团组织制度[5]是世界上从未有过的、国家生活的最高形式。

310. is the first realisation of a socialist society and its spirit the first active, and not merely demanding, appearance of a socialist spirit. The needs of the war have established the socialist idea in German economic life, and thus the defence of our nation produced for humanity the idea of 1914, the idea of German organisation, the people's community (Volksgemeinschaft) of national socialism.... Without our really noticing it the whole of our political life in state and industry has risen to a higher stage. State and economic life form a new unity. ... The feeling of economic responsibility which characterises the work of the civil servant pervades all private activity. ... The new German corporative constitution of economic life [which Professor Plenge admits is not yet ripe or complete] is the highest form of life of the state which has ever been known on earth.

311. 尽管在很大程度上要通过个体对整体完全且自愿的服从才能实现自由和规划这两种理想之间的调和，普朗格教授最初仍然希望能够做到这一点。然而，这些自由主义思想的痕迹很快就从他的著作中消失了。到了1918年，社会主义与强权政治的结合已经在他的头脑中日臻完善。战争结束之前不久，他在社会主义期刊《钟声》上这样号召他的同胞：

311. At first Professor Plenge still hoped to reconcile the ideal of liberty and the ideal of organisation, although largely through the complete but voluntary submission of the individual to the whole. But these traces of liberal ideas soon disappear from his writings. By 1918 the union between socialism and ruthless power politics had become complete in his mind. Shortly before the end of the war he exhorted his compatriots in the socialist journal Die Glocke in the following manner:

312. 现在是时候正视现实了：社会主义必须是一种权力政治，因为它本质就是规划。它必须夺取权力，切不可盲目地破坏权力。在民族战争时期，对社会主义而言，最重要和最关键的问题无疑是：究竟哪个民族堪称规划各民族的模范领导者，并因此理应掌握权力？

312. It is high time to recognise the fact that socialism must be power policy, because it is to be organisation. Socialism has to win power: it must never blindly destroy power. And the most important and critical question for socialism in the time of war of peoples is necessarily this: what people is pre-eminently summoned to power, because it is the exemplary leader in the organisation of peoples?

313. 而且，他还预见了几乎所有后来为希特勒的“新秩序”辩护的那些思想：

313. And he forecast all the ideas which were finally to justify Hitler's New Order:

314. 仅从社会主义的，也就是规划的视角来看，民族自决的绝对权利，不就是个人主义的经济无政府状态所主张的权利吗？难道我们愿意在经济生活中赋予个体完全的自决权吗？一以贯之的社会主义只能以历史上实际形成的实力对比为基础，相应地赋予各民族纳入帝国体系并参与其政治和经济生活的权利。

314. Just from the point of view of socialism, which is organisation, is not an absolute right of self-determination of the peoples the right of individualistic economic anarchy? Are we willing to grant complete self-determination to the individual in economic life? Consistent socialism can accord to the people a right to incorporation only in accordance with the real distribution of forces historically determined.

315. 普朗格所明确表达的那些理想在德国科学家和工程师的圈子里颇受欢迎；甚至，说不准他的那些理想就是从这个圈子里产生的。这些人与他们今天的英国同行一样，强烈呼吁用集中计划的方式把生活的各个方面都规划起来。他们当中的代表人物，是著名化学家威廉·奥

315. The ideals which Plenge expressed so clearly were especially popular among, and perhaps even derive from, certain circles of German scientists and engineers who, precisely as is now so loudly demanded by their English counterparts, clamoured for the centrally planned organisation of all aspects of life. Leading among these was the famous chemist Wilhelm Ostwald, one of whose

316. 德国想要规划欧洲，而欧洲一直缺的就是规划。我现在要告诉你们德国的一个伟大秘密：我们，或者，也许应该说我们德意志民族，已经发现了“规划”的重大意义。就在别的国家还生活在个人主义制度中的时候，我们已经有了规划制度。

316. Germany wants to organise Europe which up to now still lacks organisation. I will explain to you now Germany's great secret: we, or perhaps the German race, have discovered the significance of organisation. While the other nations still live under the regime of individualism, we have already achieved that of organisation.

317. 与这些思想非常相似的观点，在德国大权独握的“原料总管”瓦尔特·拉特瑙的办公室里也很流行。在任何较为完整的纳粹思想发展史中，这位瓦尔特·拉特瑙都应占有相当重要的位置，尽管，如果他能意识到他所倡导的经济极权主义造成的后果，他自己也会不寒而栗。他以著书立说的方式，很可能比任何人都更深刻地影响了在上次大战期间及之后成长起来的那一代德国人的经济观念。他的几位最紧密的合作者后来都成了戈林的五年计划[6]管理机构的骨干力量。另外，前马克思主义者弗里德里希·诺曼的理论中也存在大量类似的思想，他的著作《中欧》大概是德国所有战时出版物中发行量最大的一本。[7]然而，最充分地发展了这些思想并将其广泛传播的，是一位活跃的社会主义政治家。他就是帝国议会中社会民主党左翼成员保罗·伦施。伦施在他的早期著作中，早就将那场战争描述为“英国资产阶级在社会主义进步面前的逃遁”，并且解释了社会主义的自由理想与英国的自由理想在概念上的差异。但是

317. Ideas very similar to these were current in the offices of the German raw material dictator, Walter Rathenau, who, although he would have shuddered had he realised the consequences of his totalitarian economics, yet deserves a considerable place in any fuller history of the growth of Nazi ideas. Through his writings he has probably, more than any other man, determined the economic views of the generation which grew up in Germany during and immediately after the last war; and some of his closest collaborators were later to form the backbone of the staff of Goering's Five Year Plan administration. Very similar also was much of the teaching of another former Marxist, Friedrich Naumann, whose Mitteleuropa reached probably the greatest circulation of any war book in Germany.[8] But it was left to an active socialist politician, a member of the left wing of the social-democratic party in the Reichstag, to develop these ideas most fully and to spread them far and wide. Paul Lensch had already in earlier books described the war as "the flight of the English bourgeoisie before the advance of socialism", and explained how different were the socialist ideal of freedom and the English conception. But only in his third and most successful war book, his Three Years of World Revolution,[9] were his characteristic ideas, under the influence of Plenge, to achieve full development. Lensch bases his argument on an interesting and in many respects accurate historical account of how the adoption of protection by Bismarck had made possible in Germany a development towards that industrial concentration and cartellisation which, from his Marxist standpoint, represented a higher state of industrial development.

直到他出版了第三部著作，也是最成功的一部战时著作《世界革命的三年》，他那些在普朗格的影响下产生的、独具代表性的思想才得到充分发展。[10]伦施的论证建立在一段颇有见地且在诸多方面都相当准确的历史叙述之上，他解释了俾斯麦推行的保护主义政策如何使德国经济向产业集中和卡特尔化方向发展成为可能。从他的马克思主义观点来看，这代表了工业发展的更高阶段。

318. 俾斯麦在1879年所做的决策，让德国承担起了革命者的角色；也就是说，在与世界其他国家的关系中，德国代表着一种更高级、更先进的经济制度。认识到这一点，我们就应该明白，在当前这场世界革命中，德国代表的是革命的一方，而她最大的对手英国，则代表反革命的一方。这一事实表明，从历史发展的视角来看，无论是自由共和制国家，还是君主专制国家，其政体对该国是否应被视为自由主义国家并不具有决定性影响。或者更直白地说，我们的自由主义概念、民主概念等等，都源自英国的个人主义思想。基于这种思想，凡是政府软弱的国家即是自由的国家，而对个人自由的任何限制，都被视为专制和军国主义的产物。

318. The result of Bismarck's decision of the year 1879 was that Germany took on the rôle of the revolutionary; that is to say, of a state whose position in relation to the rest of the world is that of a representative of a higher and more advanced economic system. Having realised this, we should perceive that in the present World Revolution Germany represents the revolutionary, and her greatest antagonist, England, the counter-revolutionary side. This fact proves how little the constitution of a country, whether it be liberal and republican or monarchic and autocratic, affects the question whether, from the point of view of historical development, that country is to be regarded as liberal or not. Or, to put it more plainly, our conceptions of Liberalism, Democracy, and so forth, are derived from the ideas of English Individualism, according to which a state with a weak government is a liberal state, and every restriction upon the freedom of the individual is conceived as the product of autocracy and militarism.

319. 伦施认为，在得到历史拣选，代表这种更高经济生活的德国，

319. In Germany, the "historically appointed representative" of this higher form of economic life,

一切先决条件。因此，德国胜利地屹立不倒，击败她的敌人，完成她彻底改变世界的历史使命，这必然成为每个社会主义政党的重大关切。协约国对德国的战争无异于前资本主义时代的下层资产阶级为挽回其自身的衰落所做的挣扎。

prerequisite conditions of Socialism had already become established there. And hence it was necessarily a vital concern of any socialist party that Germany should triumphantly hold her own against her enemies, and thereby be able to fulfil her historic mission of revolutionising the world. Hence the war of the Entente against Germany resembled the attempt of the lower bourgeoisie of the pre-capitalistic age to prevent the decline of their own class.

321. [伦施接着写到]：对资本的规划在战前无意识地开始，在战争期间有意识地推进，并将在战后系统地延续。这并非源于对任何规划艺术的追求，也不是因为社会主义已经被公认为社会发展的更高原则。如今在实践中推动社会主义发展的先锋阶级，理论上都曾经是社会主义公开的反对者，或者至少在不久之前还是如此。社会主义正在到来，事实上，在某种程度上它已经到来了，而我们的生活再也不能离不开社会主义了。

321. That organisation of Capital [Lensch continues] which began unconsciously before the war, and which during the war has been continued consciously, will be systematically continued after the war. Not through any desire for any arts of organisation nor yet because socialism has been recognised as a higher principle of social development. The classes who are to-day the practical pioneers of socialism are, in theory, its avowed opponents, or, at any rate, were so up to a short time ago. Socialism is coming, and in fact has to some extent already arrived, since we can no longer live without it.

322. 在他看来，唯一还在跟这种趋势对抗的，是自由主义者。

322. The only people who still oppose this tendency are the liberals.

323. 德国整个受过教育的资产阶级都属于这个阶层，他们习惯于下意识地按照英国人的标准思考问题。他们头脑中那些“自由”、“民权”、宪政和议会制度的政治观点，全都源自个人主义世界观；这种世界观从英国古典自由主义发展而来，并在十九世纪五十年代、六十年代和七十年代被德国资产阶级的代表人物所采纳。然而，就像已经过时的英国自由主义早已被这场战争所粉碎一样，那些标准也已经过时，而且支离破碎了。现在的当务之急，是摒弃这些沿袭而来的政治观念，努力形成一

323. This class of people, who unconsciously reason from English standards, comprises the whole educated German bourgeoisie. Their political notions of “freedom” and “civic right”, of constitutionalism and parliamentarianism, are derived from that individualistic conception of the world, of which English Liberalism is a Classical embodiment, and which was adopted by the spokesmen of the German bourgeoisie in the ’fifties, ’sixties, and ’seventies of the nineteenth century. But these standards are old-fashioned and shattered, just as old-fashioned English Liberalism has been shattered by this war. What has to be done now is to get rid of these inherited political ideas and to assist the growth of a new conception of State and Society. In this sphere also Socialism must present a conscious and determined opposition to individualism. In this connection it is an astonishing fact that, in the so-called "reactionary" Germany, the working classes have won for themselves a much more solid and powerful position in the life of the state than is the case either in England or in France.

324. 伦施随后又提出了一种颇具真实性且值得深思的观点：

324. Lensch follows this up with a consideration which again contains much truth and which deserves to be pondered:

325. 由于社会民主派人士在[普遍]选举权的帮助下在帝国议会、州议会、市政委员会、劳资争议仲裁机构、疾病救助基金等机构占据了他们所能占据的每一个职位，他们非常深入地渗透到国家的有机体中；但他们为此付出的代价是，国家反过来也对工人阶级施加了深刻的影响。诚然，经过长达五十年艰苦的社会主义努力之后，现在这个国家已经不再是1867年首次实施普选权时的那个样子了。然而，社会民主运动也不再是当时的那个社会民主运动了。国家经历了一个“社会主义化”的过程，而社会民主运动则经历了一个“国家化”的过程。

325. Since the Social Democrats, by the aid of this [universal] suffrage, occupied every post which they could obtain in the Reichstag, the State Parliament, the municipal councils, the courts for the settlement of trade disputes, the sick funds, and so forth, they penetrated very deeply into the organism of the state; but the price which they had to pay for this was that the state, in its turn, exercised a profound influence upon the working classes. To be sure, as the result of strenuous socialistic labours for fifty years, the state is no longer the same as it was in the year 1867, when universal suffrage first came into operation ; but then, Social Democracy, in its turn, is no longer the same as it was at the time. The state has undergone a process of socialisation, and Social Democracy has undergone a process of nationalisation.

326. 普朗格和伦施又转而为纳粹主义最直接的宗师们提供了核心思想，尤其值得一提的，是奥斯瓦尔德·斯宾格勒和亚瑟·穆勒·范登布

326. Plenge and Lensch in turn have provided the leading ideas for the immediate masters of National-Socialism, particularly Oswald Spengler and A. Moeller van den Bruck, to mention only the two best-known names.[12] Opinions may differ in how far the former can be regarded as a socialist. But that in his tract on Prusstanism and Socialism, which appeared in 1920, he merely gave expression to ideas widely held by German socialists will now be evident. A few specimens of his argument will suffice. "Old Prussian spirit and socialist conviction, which to-day hate each other with the hatred of brothers, are one and the same." The representatives of Western civilisation in Germany, the German liberals, are "the invisible English army which after the battle of Jena, Napoleon left behind on German soil". To Spengler, men like Hardenberg and Humboldt and all the other liberal reformers were "English". But this "English" spirit will be turned out by the German revolution which began in 1914.

327. 西方的最后的三个国家分别以自由、平等、共同体这三个著名的词汇，确立了对不同社会存在形态的追求，即自由的议会主义、社会民主主义和威权社会主义[13]……德国人，更确切地说，普鲁士人从本能上会这么想：权力属于"整体"……每个人都被安排了属于他自己的位置。一个人要么发号施令，要么服从。这就是十八世纪以来的威权社会主义。就英国的自由主义和法国的民主主义而言，它本质上是反自由的、反民主的。……在德国，尽管有许多令人讨厌和名声不好的思想分歧，但唯有自由主义，在整个德国的土地上始终是遭到鄙夷的。

327. The three last nations of the Occident have aimed at three forms of existence, represented by famous watchwords: Freedom, Equality, Community. They appear in the political forms of liberal Parliamentarianism, social Democracy, and authoritarian socialism.[14] ... The German, more correctly, Prussian, instinct is: the power belongs to the whole.... Everyone is given his place. One commands or obeys.

[11] 纳粹主义产生时期的许多其他知识分子领袖也受到普朗格和伦施的影响，如奥特玛·施潘、汉斯·弗赖尔、卡尔·施米特和恩斯特·荣格等。关于这些人，读者可以参考奥雷尔·科尔奈的有趣研究：《对西方的战争》（1938）。不过，这本书也有不足之处，它只关注了战后的时期，而在这个时期，这些思想早已被民族主义者接受了。它忽略了社会主义的创造者。

[12] The same applies to many others of the intellectual leaders of the generation which has produced Nazism, such as Othmar Spann, Hans Freyer, Carl Schmitt, and Ernst Jünger. On these compare the interesting study by Aurel Kolnai, The War against the West, 1938, which suffers, however, from the defect that, by confining itself to the post-war period when these ideals had already been taken over by the nationalists, it overlooks their socialist creators.

[13] 这一斯宾格勒式的说法，在纳粹宪法理论的首要权威卡尔·施米特那里也得到了呼应。他在一段常被引用的论述中指出，政府形态的演变分"三个辩证阶段：从十七、十八世纪的绝对国家，到十九世纪自由主义的中立国家，再到国家与社会合二为一的极权国家"（卡尔·施米特：《宪法的守护者》，图宾根，1931年，第79页）。

[14] This Spenglerian formula finds its echo in an often quoted statement of Carl Schmitt, the leading Nazi expert on constitutional law, according to which the evolution of government proceeds " in three dialectic stages: from the absolute state of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries through the neutral state of the liberal nineteenth century to the totalitarian state in which state and society as identical" (C. Schmitt, Der Hüter der Verfassung, Tübingen, 1931, Pp. 79).

This is, since the eighteenth century, authoritarian socialism, essentially illiberal and anti-democratic, in so far as English Liberalism and French Democracy are meant.... There are in Germany many hated and ill-reputed contrasts, but liberalism alone is contemptible on German soil.

328. 英国的社会结构是按贫富划分的，普鲁士的社会结构则是按命令者和服从者划分的。因此，阶层划分在两国代表着根本不同的意义。

328. The structure of the English nation is based on the distinction between rich and poor, that of the Prussian on that between command and obedience. The meaning of class distinction is accordingly fundamentally different in the two countries.

329. 斯宾格勒指出了英国的竞争体系和普鲁士的“经济行政体系”之间的本质区别，并且有意识地沿袭伦施的理论说明了，自俾斯麦以来，对经济活动的主动规划逐步呈现出更明显的社会主义形态；接着他写道：

329. After pointing out the essential difference between the English competitive system and the Prussian system of “economic administration”, and after showing (consciously following Lensch) how since Bismarck the deliberate organisation of economic activity had progressively assumed more socialist forms, Spengler continues:

330. 在普鲁士，曾经存在着一个真正意义上的国家，它体现了国家这个词最宏大的定义。严格地说，这里不存在“私人”这种身份。在这个像钟表一样精确运转的系统中，每个人都是其中的一环。因此，不能像议会主义所设想的那样，把公共事务交由私人来处理。处理公共事务属于行政职能，负责公共事务的政客是公职人员，是“整体”的公仆。

330. In Prussia there existed a real state in the most ambitious meaning of the word. There could be, strictly speaking, no private persons. Everybody who lived within the system that worked with the precision of a clockwork, was in some way a link in it. The conduct of public business could therefore not be in the hands of private people, as is supposed by Parliamentarianism. It was an Amt and the responsible politician was a civil servant, a servant of the whole.

331. 他提出：“普鲁士思想”要求每个人都成为政府公职人员，一切工资薪水都由政府决定，尤其是对一切财产的管理也将成为有薪职务。未来的国家将是一个全民担任公职的国家。但是，

331. The “Prussian idea” requires that everybody should become a state official, that all wages and salaries be fixed by the state. The administration of all property, in particular, becomes a salaried function. The state of the future will be a Beamtenstaat. But

332. 未来究竟是让贸易支配国家，还是让国家支配贸易，这是一个不仅关乎德国、也关乎世界，而且必须由德国为全世界解决的决定性问题。在这个问题面前，普鲁士主义和社会主义是一样的……它们都反对我们社会中残留的“英国味”。

332. the decisive question not only for Germany, but for the world, which must be solved by Germany for the world is: Is in future trade to govern the state, or the state to govern trade? In the face of this question Prussianism and Socialism are the same.... Prussianism and Socialism combat the England in our midst.

333. 与上述观点相差无几，纳粹主义的“先师圣人”穆勒·范登布鲁克也将那次世界大战称作一场自由主义和社会主义之间的战争：“我们输给了西方，社会主义输给了自由主义。”[15]因此，他与斯宾格勒一样，都将自由主义当成头号敌人。他自豪地指出这样一个事实：

333. It was only a step from this for the patron-saint of National-Socialism Moeller van den Bruck to proclaim the World War a war between liberalism and socialism: “We have lost the war against theWest. Socialism has lost it against Liberalism.”[16] As with Spengler, liberalism is, therefore, the arch-enemy. Moeller van den Bruck glories in the fact that

334. 今天的德国，已经没有自由主义者了，只有年轻的革命者和年轻的保守派。谁还愿意做个自由主义者呢?……自由主义是一种生活哲学，而今天的德国青年对它只会感到恶心、愤怒和一种特殊的轻蔑，因为没有什么东西比这种哲学更异类、更可憎，也没有什么比它更与他们的思想格格不入了。今天的德国青年视自由主义者为头号敌人。

334. there are no liberals in Germany to-day; there are young revolutionaries: there are young conservatives. But who would be a liberal? ... Liberalism is a philosophy of life from which German youth now turns with nausea, with wrath, with quite peculiar scorn, for there is none more foreign, more repugnant, more opposed to its philosophy. German youth to-day recognises the liberal as the arch-enemy.

335. 穆勒·范登布鲁克的《第三帝国》一书，旨在为德国人提供一种契合其民族性格、且未受西方自由主义思想玷污的社会主义。就这一点而言，它的确做到了。

335. Moeller van den Bruck’s Third Reich was intended to give the Germans a socialism adapted to their nature and undefiled by Western liberal ideas. And so it did.

336. 上述这几位学者绝不是孤立现象。早在1922年，一位立场超然的观察家就曾提及那时在德国出现的一种“奇诡的、乍一看又颇令人吃惊的现象”：

336. These writers were by no means isolated phenomena. As early as 1922 a detached observer could speak of a “peculiar and, on a first glance, surprising phenomenon” then to be observed in Germany:

337. 这种观点认为，反对资本主义秩序的斗争，就是以精神和经济规划为武器，继续对抗协约国的战争，是一条通往“实践社会主义”的道路，也是向德意志民族最优

[15] 穆勒·范登布鲁克：《社会主义与对外政策》，1933年，第87、90、100页。该著作中的几篇文章，尤其是《列宁与凯恩斯》一文，对正文中讨论的论点作了最为充分的阐述；这些文章最初发表于1919年至1923年之间。

[16] Moeller van den Bruck, Soztalismus und Aussenpolitik, 1933, pp. 87, 90, and 100. The articles here reprinted, particularly the article on “Lenin and Keynes” which discusses most fully the contention discussed in the text, were first published between 1919 and 1923.

秀、最高尚的传统的回归。[17]

people to their best and noblest traditions.[18]

338. Fight against liberalism in all its forms, liberalism that had defeated Germany, was the common idea which united socialists and conservatives in one common front. At first it was mainly in the German Youth Movement, almost entirely socialist in inspiration and outlook, where these ideas were most readily accepted and the fusion of socialism and nationalism completed. In the later ’twenties and till the advent to power of Hitler a circle of young men gathered round the journal Die Tat and led by Ferdinand Fried became the chief exponent of this tradition in the intellectual sphere. Fried’s Ende des Kapitalismus is perhaps the most characteristic product of this group of Edelnazis, as they were known in Germany, and is particularly disquieting because of its resemblance to so much of the literature which we see in England to-day, where we can watch the same drawing together of the socialists of the Left and the Right, and nearly the same contempt of all that is liberal in the old sense. “Conservative Socialism” (and, in other circles, “Religious Socialism”) was the slogan under which a large number of writers prepared the atmosphere in which “National-Socialism” succeeded. It is “conservative socialism” which is the dominant trend in this country now. Had the war against the Western powers “with the weapons of the spirit and of economic organisation” not almost succeeded before the real war began?

[17] K·普里布拉姆：《德意志民族主义与德意志社会主义》，收录于《社会科学与社会政治档案》，第49卷，1922年，第298-299页。作者进一步提到，哲学家马克斯·舍勒宣扬“德国的社会主义世界使命”，以及马克思主义者K·科尔施撰写关于新“民族共同体”精神的文章，均持有类似观点。

[18] K. Pribram, “Deutscher Nationalismus und Deutscher Sozialismus”, in Archiv fűr Sozialwissenschaft und Soztalpolitik, vol. 49, 1922, pp. 298-9. The writer mentions as further examples the philosopher Max Scheler preaching “the socialist world mission of Germany”, and the Marxist K. Korsch writing on the spirit of the new Volksgemeinschaft, as arguing in the same vein.

第十三章 我们当中的极权主义者

《泰晤士报》

339. 或许是因为极权政府所犯下的种种恶行在规模上太过巨大，英国人非但没有更加担心这种制度有朝一日也可能在自己的国家出现，反而更加确信了这种事情绝不会在这里发生。当我们将目光望向纳粹德国，我们与他们之间仿佛隔着一道巨大的鸿沟，这让我们觉得，发生在他们那里的事情与我们国家未来的发展看起来不可能有任何关联。两国之间的差异还在不断扩大，这似乎也足以驳斥那种“我们正朝着与他们相似的方向发展”的观点。然而，让我们不要忘记，如果把今天正在德国发生的事情放到十五年前，不仅同样会让九成的德国人觉得不可思议，甚至会让最敌视他们的外国观察家也感到难以置信，尽管他们现在装出一副未卜先知的模样。

340. 然而，正如前文所指出的那样，英国当下的种种现象，并非与今天的德国，而是与二三十年前的德国愈发地相似。许多当年被认为是“德国特色”的现象，如今在英国也已经十分常见了；而且还有不少迹象表明我们还在进一步朝着他们的方向发展。我们已经讨论过其中最为显著的一点：右翼与左翼在经济观点上的日益趋同，以及他们对曾经构成英国主流政治基础的自由主义的共同反对。为了佐证这一点，我们可以援引哈罗德·尼科尔森先生的权威论述。他曾经指出：在上届保守党政府期间，保守党后座议员中那些“最有才华的人……骨子里

Chapter XIII: THE TOTALITARIANS IN OUR MIDST

When authority presents itself in the guise of organisation it develops charms fascinating enough to convert communities of free people into totalitarian States.

The Times

339. PROBABLY it is true that the very magnitude of the outrages committed by the totalitarian governments, instead of increasing the fear that such a system might one day arise in this country, has rather strengthened the assurance that it cannot happen here. When we look to Nazi Germany the gulf which separates us seems so immense that nothing that happens there can possess relevance for any possible development in this country. And the fact that the difference has steadily become greater seems to refute any suggestion that we may be moving in a similar direction. But let us not forget that fifteen years ago the possibility of such a thing happening in Germany would have appeared just as fantastic, not only to nine-tenths of the Germans themselves, but also to the most hostile foreign observers (however wise they may now pretend to have been).

340. As suggested earlier in these pages, however, it is not the present Germany but the Germany of twenty or thirty years ago to which conditions in this country show an ever-increasing resemblance. There are many features which were then regarded as “typically German” and which are now equally familiar in this country, and many symptoms that point to a further development in the same direction. We have already mentioned the most significant, the increasing similarity between the economic views of the Right and Left and their common opposition to the Liberalism that used to be the common basis of most English politics. We have the authority of Mr. Harold Nicolson for the statement that during the last Conservative government, among the back-benchers of the 都是社会主义者”。[1]而且，我们几乎可以肯定地说，正如费边社时期一样，许多社会主义者对保守党的同情甚至超过了他们对自由党的同情。与此密切相关的现象还有很多：日益增长的对国家的崇拜，对权力的仰慕，好大喜功的倾向，对将一切纳入“规划”（我们现在称之为“计划”）的热情，以及六十年前冯·特雷奇克在谈及德国人时曾为之深感痛心的那种“不愿将任何事情交给自然成长的朴素力量去解决”的心态，在当下的英国，这些现象的显著程度丝毫不亚于当年的德国。

Conservative party “the most gifted... were all socialists at heart”;[2] and there can be little question that, as in the days of the Fabians, many socialists have more sympathy with the Conservatives than with the Liberals. There are many other features closely related to this. The increasing veneration for the state, the admiration of power, and of bigness for bigness’ sake, the enthusiasm for “organisation” of everything (we now call it planning), and that “inability to leave anything to the simple power of organic growth”, which even H. v. Treitschke deplored in the Germans sixty years ago, are all scarcely less marked in this country now than they were in Germany.

341. 上次大战期间，英国人曾经就英、德两国在政治与道德问题上的区别有过不少讨论。今天，只需重读其中一些较为严肃的讨论，我们就能清楚地意识到，过去二十年间，英国已经在“德国道路”上走了多远。或许可以这样说，与现在相比，那个时代的英国公众总体上能够更准确地认识自己与德国人的区别。可是，如果说那时的英国人还能为自己独特的传统而感到自豪，那么到了今天，大多数英国人对于当年公认的“典型英国式”政治观点，已经不是明确地加以否定，就是多少有些羞于表示认同了。毫不夸张地说，越是当年世人眼中最具英国特色的政治问题或社会问题著述者，越容易在当下被自己国家的人民所遗忘。像莫利勋爵、亨利·西季威克、阿克顿勋爵或阿尔伯特·韦恩·戴雪这样的人物，当时都是自由主义英国最具政治智慧的杰出代表，受到全世界的仰慕，可是在现在这一代人眼里，他们只不过是过气的维多利亚时代的老古董罢了。也许最能清楚地体现这种变化的是：在当代英国的政治著述中，不乏对俾斯麦的推崇，而当年轻一

341. How far in the last twenty years England has travelled on the German path is brought home to one with extraordinary vividness if one now reads some of the more serious discussions of the differences between British and German views on political and moral issues which appeared in this country during the last war. It is probably true to say that then the British public had in general a truer appreciation of these differences than it has now; but while the people of this country were then proud of their distinctive tradition, there are few of the political views then regarded as characteristically English of which the majority of people in this country do not now seem half ashamed, if they do not positively repudiate them. It is scarcely an exaggeration to say that the more typically English a writer on political or social problems then appeared to the world, the more is he to-day forgotten in his own country. Men like Lord Morley or Henry Sidgwick, Lord Acton or A. V. Dicey, who were then admired in the world at large as outstanding examples of the political wisdom of liberal England, are to the present generation largely obsolete Victorians. Perhaps nothing shows this change more clearly than that, while there is no lack of sympathetic treatment of Bismarck in contemporary English literature, the name of Gladstone is rarely mentioned by the

342. 在仔细研读了几部英国学者讨论上次大战期间德国主流思想的著作之后，我发现其中几乎每一个字都可以用来表达当下英国政治著述中那些最显著的观点。我真希望能用不多的几段文字，充分表达我因此所感受到的不安。我只引用一小段凯恩斯勋爵写于1915年的文字，讲述的是他在阅读雅菲教授发表的一篇颇具代表性的文章时所感受到的一个“噩梦”。他是这样写的：

342. I wish I could in a few paragraphs adequately convey the alarming impression gained from the perusal of a few of the English works on the ideas dominating the Germany of the last war, where almost every word could be applied to the views most conspicuous in current English literature. I shall merely quote one brief passage by Lord Keynes, describing in 1915 the “nightmare” which he found expounded in a typical German work of that period: he describes how according to a German author

343. 根据这位德国作者的观点，“即便在和平时期，工业生活也要保持战时动员状态。”这正是他所谓的“我们工业生活的军事化”的含义，也是他这篇文章的标题。他认为：“个人主义必须彻底终结；必须建立一套以加强国家规划的统一性、追求最大程度的效能为目的的规章制度，这套制度的目的并非追求更大的个人幸福，其提高个人利益的作用只是间接的。”雅菲教授对此竟如此毫不讳言，而这种骇人听闻的理论，竟也被他奉为一种理想主义。他还认为：“整个国家将成长为一个‘闭合的统一体’，实际上变成柏拉图所认为的理想国家应该有的样子，一个‘放大的个体’”。他特别指出，“即将到来的和平将强化政府在工业领域采取行动的想法……外国投资、移民以及近年来将整个世界视为一个市场的工业政策都过于危险。当下正在消亡的旧工业秩序是以利润为基础的；而那个不谋求利润的、强大的二十世纪新德国，将彻底终结百年前从英国传来的资本主义制度。”[3]

343. even in peace industrial life must remain mobilised. This is what he means by speaking of the “militarisation of our industrial life” [the title of the work reviewed]. Individualism must come to an end absolutely. A system of regulations must be set up, the object of which is not the greater happiness of the individual (Professor Jaffé is not ashamed to say this in so many words), but the strengthening of the organised unity of the state for the object of attaining the maximum degree of efficiency (Leistungsfahigkeit), the influence of which on individual advantage is only indirect. - This hideous doctrine is enshrined in a sort of idealism. The nation will grow into a “closed unity” and will become, in fact, what Plato declared it should be - “Der Mensch im Grossen”. In particular, the coming peace will bring with it a strengthening of the idea of State action in industry.... Foreign investment, emigration, the industrial policy which in recent years had regarded the whole world as a market, are too dangerous. The old order of industry, which is dying to-day, is based on Profit; and the new Germany of the twentieth-century Power without consideration of

Profit is to make an end of that system of Capitalism, which came over from England one hundred years ago.[4]

344. 据我所知，至今还没有哪位英国学者敢于像雅菲教授那样公开贬低个人幸福，除此之外，这段文字中又有哪句话不能在当下的英国政治著述中找到影子呢?

344. Except that no English author has yet to my knowledge dared openly to disparage individual happiness, is there a passage in this which is not mirrored in much of contemporary English literature?

345. 毫无疑问，如今除了那些在德国和其它一些国家为极权主义铺平了道路的思想，极权主义本身的许多原则也正在越来越多的国家令人们感到着迷。在我们英国，愿意全盘接受极权主义的人即便有，也是极少数。然而，几乎每一种极权主义的特色都已经被这样或那样的人建议我们照着去模仿了。实际上，希特勒的那一套，也已经没有哪一条还没有被形形色色的英国人所推荐，用来实现我们的目的了。尤为特别的是，做出如此推荐的人当中，有许多毫无疑问是希特勒的死敌，而他们之所以成为希特勒死敌，只是因为他们反对希特勒那套体系中某一个特定方面而已。我们永远不要忘记，希特勒的反犹太主义将许多人赶出了他的国家，或者变成了他的敌人，但无论从哪个角度看，他们当中的许多人都是彻头彻尾的德国式极权主义者。[5]

345. And, undoubtedly, not merely the ideas which in Germany and elsewhere prepared totalitarianism, but also many of the principles of totalitarianism itself are what exercises an increasing fascination in many other countries. Although few people, if anybody, in this country would probably be ready to swallow totalitarianism whole, there are few single features which we have not yet been advised by somebody or other to imitate. Indeed, there is scarcely a leaf out of Hitler's book which somebody or other in this country has not recommended us to take and use for our own purposes. This applies particularly to many people who are undoubtedly Hitler's mortal enemies because of one special feature in his system. We should never forget that the anti-semitism of Hitler has driven from his country, or turned into his enemies, many people who in every respect are confirmed totalitarians of the German type.[6]

[4] Economic Journal, 1915, p. 450.

[5] 特别是当我们讨论曾经的社会主义者转变成纳粹分子的比例时，重要的是要记住，这一比例的真正意义只有在这样一种比较中才能显现出来：不是把它与全部曾经的社会主义者人数相比较，而是与那些无论如何都不会因其出身而被阻止发生这种转变的人数相比较。事实上，德国政治流亡者有一个令人惊讶的特点：来自左翼的难民中，按照德国定义的非犹太人数量相对较少。我们不是经常听到有人先做一些假意的铺垫，接着才开始实际上赞美德国体制吗？例如最近的一次会议上，有人在列举"值得借鉴的极权主义经济动员技术的特点"之前，做了这样的开场白："希特勒先生并不是我的理想人物……完全不是。因为我自己不容忽视的个人原因，希特勒先生不可能成为我的理想人物，但是……。"

[6] Especially when we consider the proportion of former socialists who have become Nazis it is important to remember that the true significance of this ratio is seen only if we compare it, not with the total number of former socialists, but with the number of those whose conversion would not in any case have been prevented by their ancestry. In fact, one of the surprising features of the political emigration from Germany is the comparatively small number of refugees from the Left who are not "Jews" in the German sense of the term. - How often do we not hear eulogies of the German system prefaced by some statement such as the following with which at a recent conference an enumeration of the "features of the totalitarian technique of economic mobilisation which are worth thinking about" was introduced: "Herr Hitler is not my ideal - far from it. There are very pressing personal reasons why Herr Hitler should not be my ideal, but..."

346. 在德国，某些政治著述曾经摧毁了人们对西方文明的信仰，并制造出使纳粹主义得以成功的心态；而当下英国许多政治著述与它们的相似程度之高，几乎无法用一般的语言加以充分描述。这种相似性更多体现在处理问题的态度上，而不在具体论证上：两个国家的著作都表现出随时准备切断与过往文化的联系的态度，都将一切都押在某一具体社会实验的成功之上。与当年的德国一样，在我们这个国家，大多数为极权主义开道的著作都出自真诚的理想主义者之手，其作者往往具有相当高的学术造诣。因此，尽管在数以百计持有相似观点的作者当中挑选谁来举例都可能会显得不够公平，但为了说明这种情况在英国已经发展到何种程度，我实在没有别的办法，只能特意挑选几位在真诚与无私方面都无可置疑的著述者作为例证。然而，尽管我希望通过这种方式来说明那些滋生极权主义的观点正在我们这个国家迅速蔓延，我却几乎没有办法很好地把同样重要的、两国在情绪氛围上的相似性说清楚。即便我们能够轻易地看出某些现象正是我们所熟悉的那种社会发展的征兆，要想厘清这种征兆，我们仍然需要深入了解所有在思想和语言方面发生的微妙变化。我所挑选的这类著述者常说，有必要用“宏大”的思想对抗“渺小”的思想，用崭新的、“动态”的、“全局”的思维方式代替陈旧的、“僵化”的、“局限”的思维方式。与这些人接触，我们会逐渐认识到，这些看上去十分荒谬的说法，体现了同一种“知识分子态度”，而我们所关注的，只是这种态度的表现而已。

346. No description in general terms can give an adequate idea of the similarity of much of current English political literature to the works which destroyed the belief in Western civilisation in Germany and created the state of mind in which Nazism could become successful. The similarity is even more one of the temper with which the problems are approached than of the specific arguments used - a similar readiness to break all cultural ties with the past and to stake everything on the success of a particular experiment. As was also true in Germany, most of the works which are preparing the way for a totalitarian course in this country are the product of sincere idealists and often of men of considerable intellectual distinction. So, although it is invidious to single out particular persons as illustrations where similar views are advocated by hundreds of others, I see no other way of demonstrating effectively how far this development has actually advanced in this country. I shall deliberately choose as illustrations authors whose sincerity and disinterestedness are above suspicion. But though I hope in this way to show how the views from which totalitarianism springs are now rapidly spreading here, I stand little chance of conveying successfully the equally important similarity in the emotional atmosphere. An extensive investigation into all the subtle changes in thought and language would be necessary to make explicit what one readily enough recognises as symptoms of a familiar development. Through meeting the kind of people who talk about the necessity of opposing “big” ideas to “small” ones and of replacing the old “static” or “partial” thinking by the new “dynamic” or “global” way one learns to recognise that what at first appears sheer nonsense is a sign of the same intellectual attitude with whose manifestations we can alone concern ourselves here.

347. 我所要举的第一组例子，出自爱德华·哈莱特·卡尔教授这位才华横溢的学者近几年颇受关注的两部著作：《二十年危机》与《和平的条件》。在当代英国的诸多著述中，恐怕很

347. My first examples are two works by a gifted scholar, which in the last few years have attracted much attention. There are, perhaps, few other instances in contemporary English literature where the influence of the specific German ideas with which we are concerned is so marked as in Professor E. H. Carr's books on the Twenty Years' Crisis and the Conditions of Peace.

348. 在这两部著作的第一部中，卡尔教授坦承自己是"历史学派'现实主义"的坚定追随者，"该学派发源于德国，其发展脉络可以追溯到黑格尔和马克思这两个伟大的名字"。他解释说，所谓现实主义者，就是"将道德视为一种政治函数"[7]的人，他们"在逻辑上无法接受除事实之外的任何价值标准。"这种"现实主义"与十八世纪的"乌托邦"思想形成了真正的、德国式的对照，后者"本质上是个人主义的，因为它将人类的良心作为最终的裁决者"。然而，旧道德及其"抽象的一般性原则"都必须予以抛弃，因为"经验主义者坚持具体个案具体分析的原则"。换句话说，除了权宜之计，其他什么都不重要；他甚至明确告诉我们"'契约必得信守'并非一项道德原则"。卡尔教授似乎完全不以为意的是：如果没有抽象的一般性原则，"具体个案具体分析"就成了纯粹的主观臆断；如果没有道德约束力，他作为国际关系专家所关切的国际条约也就没有任何意义了。

348. In the first of these two books Professor Carr frankly confessed himself an adherent of "the 'historical school' of realists [which] had its home in Germany and [whose] development can be traced through the great names of Hegel and Marx". A realist, he explains, is one "who makes morality a function of politics" and who "cannot logically accept any standard of value save that of fact". This "realism" is contrasted, in truly German fashion, with the "utopian " thought dating from the eighteenth century "which was essentially individualist in that it made the human conscience the final court of appeal". But the old morals with their "abstract general principles" must disappear because "the empiricist treats the concrete case on its individual merits". In other words, nothing but expediency matters, and we are even assured that "the rule pacta sunt servanda is not a moral principle". That without abstract general principles merit becomes solely a matter of arbitrary opinion, and that international treaties, if they are not morally binding, have no meaning whatever, does not seem to worry Professor Carr.

349. 实际上，尽管卡尔教授并未明言，但他认为英国在上次战争中似乎是站错了队。只要重新读一读二十五年前英国宣布的那些战争目标，再将其与卡尔教授现在的观点加以比较，任何人都不难发现，当年英国人眼中的德国观点，如今正是卡尔教授的观点。他大概会争辩说，那个时候英国所表达的与德国不同的观点，不过是英国式伪善的产物。卡尔教授几乎看不到，当年英国所坚持的理想与当今德国所实践的理想之间有多么大的差别，最能证明这

349. According to Professor Carr, indeed, although he does not explicitly say so, it appears that England fought the last war on the wrong side. Anyone who re-reads now the statements of British war aims of twenty-five years ago and compares them with Professor Carr's present views will readily see that what were then believed to be the German views are now those of Professor Carr who would presumably argue that the different views then professed in this country were merely a product of British hypocrisy. How little difference he is able to see between the ideals held in this country and those practised by present-day Germany is best

[7] 政治函数，function of politics。函数，是一个数学概念，表示某一变量随另一变量变化的对应关系。卡尔教授借用这一概念，表达了道德取决于政治现实并随政治变化而变化的观点。-译注

350. 一位国家社会主义的核心成员曾经断言：“凡有利于德国人民的事皆正确，凡伤害他们的事皆错误”。事实上，他这么说，只不过是将本国的国家利益等同于普遍正义罢了，而这件事，威尔逊总统、汤因比教授、塞西尔勋爵以及许多其他人早已替英语国家做过了。

350. it is true that when a prominent National-Socialist asserts that “anything that benefits the German people is right, anything that harms them is wrong” he is merely propounding the same identification of national interest with universal right which has already been established for English-speaking countries by [President] Wilson, Professor Toynbee, Lord Cecil, and many others.

351. 卡尔教授的著作专注于国际关系问题，他在这些著作中表达的典型的极权主义倾向也主要集中在这一领域。然而，稍微了解一下他所构想的未来社会，就会发现其中也相当充分地体现出极权主义的模式。人们有时甚至搞不清楚这种相似性是偶然的，还是他刻意为之。比如，当他断言，“我们已经很难从常见于十九世纪思想的’社会’与‘国家’的区别中找出多少意义了”的时候，他是否意识到，这恰恰是纳粹极权主义理论领军人物卡尔·施米特教授的理论，而且事实上，还是施米特教授本人在其理论中用到“极权主义”这一术语时给出的核心内涵？又或者，当他说“舆论的大规模生产是商品的大规模生产的必然结果”，所以“许多人心中至今存在的对‘宣传’一词的偏见，与对‘政府管制工业与贸易’的偏见如出一辙”时，他是否意识到，这实际上是在为纳粹所施行的那种舆论管制做辩护呢？

351. Since Professor Carr’s books are devoted to international problems it is mainly in that field that their characteristic tendency becomes apparent. But from the glimpses one gets of the character of the future society which he contemplates, it appears also to be quite on the totalitarian model. Sometimes one even wonders whether the resemblance is accidental or deliberate. Does Professor Carr, for example, realise, when he asserts that “we can no longer find much meaning in the distinction familiar to nineteenth-century thought between ‘society’ and ‘state’”, that this is precisely the doctrine of Professor Carl Schmitt, the leading Nazi theoretician of totalitarianism, and, in fact, the essence of the definition of totalitarianism which that author has given to that term which he himself had introduced? Or that the view that “the mass production of opinion is the corollary of the mass-production of goods” and that, therefore, “the prejudice which the word propaganda still exerts in many minds to-day is closely parallel to the prejudice against control of industry and trade” is really an apology for a regimentation of opinion of the kind practised by the Nazis?

352. 卡尔教授在他较近出版的《和平的条件》一书中以非常明确而肯定的态度回答了我们在上一章结尾提出的问题：

352. In his more recent Conditions of Peace Professor Carr answers with an emphatic affirmative the question with which we concluded the last chapter:

353. 胜利者在和平中落败，让苏俄和德国占了上风，因为前者还在继续鼓吹并部分地践行那些曾经有效、如今却颇具

353. The victors lost the peace, and Soviet Russia and Germany won it, because the former continued to preach, and in part to apply, the once valid, but now disruptive ideals of the rights of nations and laissez-faire capitalism, whereas the latter, consciously or unconsciously borne forward on the tide of the twentieth century, were striving to build up the world in larger units under centralised planning and control.

破坏性的民族权利及自由放任的资本主义理念；而后者，却有意无意地被二十世纪的浪潮所推动，在集中计划和统一控制方针的引领下，努力建设一个由更大的政治经济实体构成的世界。

354. 卡尔教授还将以德国为领导的东方社会主义革命对抗西方自由主义的斗争论调完整地变成了自己的主张：

354. Professor Carr completely makes his own the German battle-cry of the socialist revolution of the East against the liberal West in which Germany was the leader:

355. 始于上次大战的这场革命，是过去二十年来每一次重要政治运动的推动力……它是一场对抗自由民主、民族自决和自由放任经济等十九世纪自由主义主导思想的革命。

355. the revolution which began in the last war, which has been the driving force of every significant political movement in the last twenty years... a revolution against the predominant ideas of the nineteenth century: liberal democracy, national self-determination and laissez-faire economics.

356. 卡尔教授说的并不错：“这场对十九世纪信仰的挑战，在从未真正接受过这种信仰的德国找到了它最强有力的主角之一，这几乎是必然的”。他将这种发展称为必然，正是沿袭了黑格尔和马克思以来每一位伪历史学家的全部宿命论观点：“我们掌握世界发展的方向，顺之者昌，逆之者亡。”

356. As he himself rightly says “it was almost inevitable that this challenge to nineteenth-century beliefs which she had never really shared should find in Germany one of its strongest protagonists”. With all the fatalistic belief of every pseudo-historian since Hegel and Marx this development is represented as inevitable: “we know the direction in which the world is moving, and we must bow to it or perish.”

357. 将这种发展视为必然，其信心正是典型地建立在一些人们耳熟能详的经济学谬论之上的，例如技术的发展必然导致垄断普遍增加的谬论，例如所谓“潜在富足”的谬论，以及常见于卡尔教授这类著作中的各种其他流行口号等。卡尔教授并不是经济学家，他的经济学论证一般都经不起严肃的推敲。但无论是他不擅长经济学论证这个事实，还是他对“经济因素在社会生活中的重要性正在迅速下降”的判断，都未能阻止他基于经济学论点预测发展的必然性；也未能阻止他提出这样的核心诉求：将来要“以经济学术语为主导去重新解释’平等’和‘自

357. The conviction that this trend is inevitable is characteristically based on familiar economic fallaciles - the presumed necessity of the general growth of monopolies in consequence of technological developments, the alleged “potential plenty”, and all the other popular catchwords which appear in works of this kind. Professor Carr is not an economist and his economic argument generally will not bear serious examination. But neither this, nor his belief characteristically held at the same time, that the importance of the economic factor in social life is rapidly decreasing, preventhim from basing on economic arguments all his predictions about the inevitable developments or from presenting as his main demands for the future “the reinterpretation in predominantly economic terms of the democratic ideals of 'equality' and 'liberty'"!

358. 尽管卡尔教授明知德国"从未真正接受过"那些自由主义经济学家的思想，而且十九世纪德国所实践的，反而大多是他现在所倡导的原则，可他还是坚持将那些思想称为"十九世纪思想"。若论对那些思想的蔑视程度，卡尔教授堪比我们在上一章所引用的任何一个德国学者。他甚至沿袭了弗里德里希·李斯特首创的一套德国式观点，认为自由贸易政策"只决定于、且只有利于十九世纪英国的特殊利益"。而现在，"人为地创造某种程度经济上的自给自足，才是有序社会存在的一个必要条件"。在他看来，靠"消除贸易壁垒"或者恢复十九世纪自由放任原则的方式来"重新回到一个更加分散化和普遍化[8]的世界贸易"是"不可想象的"。未来属于德国式的广域经济："唯有对欧洲生活进行有计划的重新规划，我们才能得到我们所期望的结果，而这正是希特勒已经在做的事"！

358. Professor Carr's contempt for all the ideas of liberal economists (which he insists on calling nineteenth-century ideas, though he knows that Germany "had never really shared" them and had already in the nineteenth century practised most of the principles he now advocates), is as profound as that of any of the German writers quoted in the last chapter. He even takes over the German thesis, originated by Friedrich List, that Free Trade was a policy dictated solely by, and appropriate only to, the special interests of England in the nineteenth century. Now, however, "the artificial production of some degree of autarky is a necessary condition of orderly social existence". To bring about a "return to a more dispersed and generalised world trade... by a 'removal of trade barriers' or by a resuscitation of the laissez-faire principles of the nineteenth century" is "unthinkable". The future belongs to Grossraumwirtschaft of the German kind: "the result which we desire can be won only by a deliberate reorganisation of European life such as Hitler has undertaken"!

359. 对卡尔教授有了上述了解之后，再看到他著作中那个颇具其特点的章节名称《战争的道德功能》，我们就不会感到特别惊讶了。在这一章节中，卡尔教授以一种居高临下的姿态，替那些"沉浸在十九世纪传统中，坚持认为战争既无意义又无目的的善良人（尤其是英语国家的人）"感到遗憾；同时为战争这种能"促进社会团结最有力的工具"所创造的"意义和目的感"感到欣喜。尽管这些论调并不陌生，但在英国学者的著作当中读到它们，却是出人意料的。

359. After all this one is hardly surprised to find a characteristic section headed "The Moral Functions of War", in which Professor Carr condescendingly pities "the well-meaning people (especially in English-speaking countries) who, steeped in the nineteenth-century tradition, persist in regarding war as senseless and devoid of purpose", and rejoices in the "sense of meaning and purpose" which war, "the most powerful instrument of social solidarity", creates. This is all very familiar - but it was not in the works of English scholars that one expected to find these views.

[8] "分散化"（dispersed）与"普遍化"（generalised）是十九世纪古典自由主义多边贸易体制的核心特征。"分散化"指国际贸易不由权力集中调配，而是由无数独立的私人经济主体分散决策；"普遍化"则指贸易规则具有普适性与非歧视性，面向全球开放，而非局限于特定帝国的排他性势力范围。-译注

361. 科学家煽动对社会进行“科学”规划，这是德国近百年思想发展中的特征之一，我们对此给予的关注尚不足够。如今，这一特征正在以几乎相同的形式出现在英国。在德国，科学技术专家被允许对社会及政治舆论的形成施加非常独特的影响，这极大地促进了这个国家“全方位”自上而下地规划社会的理想。几乎没有人还记得，在德国现代史上，极具政治影响力的教授阶层所扮演的角色甚至可以与法国政治传统中的律师阶层相提并论。[9]近年来，这些既是学者又是政治家的人士很少站在自由的一边。他们常常以理性为名表现出不容忍的态度；以专家自居，对普通人做事方式感到不耐烦；蔑视一切未经“高级头脑”依据科学蓝图精心规划的事物；所有这些现象，在对英国构成实质性影响之前，早已在德国人的公共生活中为好几代人所熟悉了。从1840年至1940年间，德国将其教育系统全面而且彻底地从“人文教育”转变为“实科教育”[10]，这种转变对整个民族造成的影响，或许没有几个国家的类似教育变革能够望其项背。[11]

360. Possibly we have not yet given enough attention to one feature of the intellectual development in Germany during the last hundred years which is now in an almost identical form making its appearance in this country: the scientists agitating for a “scientific” organisation of society. The ideal of a society organised “through and through” from the top has in Germany been considerably furthered by the quite unique influence which her scientific and technological specialists were allowed to exercise on the formation of social and political opinions. Few people remember that in the modern history of Germany the political professors have played a role comparable to that of the political lawyers in France.[12] The influence of these scientist-politicians was of late years not often on the side of liberty: the “intolerance of reason” so frequently conspicuous in the scientific specialist, the impatience with the ways of the ordinary man so characteristic of the expert, and the contempt for anything which was not consciously organised by superior minds according to a scientific blueprint, were phenomena familiar in German public life for generations before they became of significance in this country. And perhaps no other country provides a better illustration of the effects on a nation of a general and thorough shift of the greater part of its educational system from the “humanities” to the “realities” than Germany between 1840 and 1940.[13]

361. 最后，除了极少数例外，德国的学者和科学家们全都毫不犹豫地委身于新的统治者，这实在是整个纳粹主义崛起史上最让人感到沮丧

spectacles in the whole history of the rise of National-Socialism.[16] It is well known that particularly the scientists and engineers, who had so loudly claimed to be the leaders on the march to a new and better world, submitted more readily than almost any other class to the new tyranny.[17]

362. 知识分子在一个社会极权化转型过程中所扮演的角色，早已被朱利安·班达先知般地在另一个国家预见过了。时隔十五年，当我们重读他的《知识分子的背叛》，依然能从中发现新的意义。当我们探讨英国科学家"客串"政治的某些案例时，班达先生的这一段话特别值得深思和铭记：

362. The rôle which the intellectuals played in the totalitarian transformation of society was prophetically foreseen in another country by Julien Benda, whose Trahison des Clercs assumes new significance when one now re-reads it, fifteen years after it has been written. There is particularly one passage in that work which deserves to be well pondered and kept in mind when we come to consider certain examples of the excursions of British scientists into politics. It is the passage in which M. Benda speaks of the

363. superstition of science held to be competent in all domains, including that of morality; a superstition which, I repeat, is an acquisition of the nineteenth century. It remains to discover whether those who brandish this doctrine believe in it or

[14] 科学家对权力的这种奴性在德国很早就已出现，这个过程伴随着国家规划的科学研究取得巨大发展，并且成为被当下的英国大加称赞的主题。德国最著名的科学家之一、时任柏林大学校长和普鲁士科学院院长、生理学家埃米尔·杜布瓦-雷蒙，在1870年的一次演讲中，竟然厚颜无耻地宣称："我们柏林大学，驻扎在国王宫殿的对面，根据建校契约，我们就是霍亨索伦家族的思想卫队。"（《论德国战争》，伦敦1870年版，第31页。值得注意的是，杜布瓦-雷蒙当时竟然认为有必要出版这篇演说的英文版。）

[15] 只需引用一位外国观察者的观点：R·A·布雷迪先生在其著作《德国法西斯主义的精神与结构》中，对德国学术界的发展做了详细的描述，他总结道："因此，科学家本身或许是现代社会中所有受过特殊训练的人中最容易被利用，被'协调'的人。诚然，纳粹解雇了相当多的大学教授，也从研究机构驱逐了不少科学家。但这些教授主要集中在社会科学领域，因为社会科学领域对纳粹的计划有着更普遍的认识和更持久的批评，而不是思维严谨自然科学领域。在自然科学领域，被解雇的人主要是犹太人或上述概括的例外，因为他们同样不加批判地接受与纳粹观点相反的观点。因此，纳粹能够相对轻松地"协调"学者和科学家，从而在他们精心制作的宣传背后，看似拥有大量德国学者的意见和支持。

[16] The servility of the scientists to the powers that be appeared early in Germany, hand in hand with the great development of state-organised science which to-day is the subject of so much eulogy in this country. One of the most famous of German scientists, the physiologist Emil du Bois-Reymond, was not ashamed, in an oration delivered in 1870 in his double capacity of Rector of the University of Berlin and President of the Prussian Academy of Science, to proclaim that "' We, the University of Berlin, quartered opposite the King's palace, are, by the deed of our foundation, the intellectual bodyguard of the House of Hohenzollern."' (A Speech on the German War, London 1870, p. 31.- It is remarkable that du Bois-Reymond should have thought it advisable to issue an English edition of this oration.)

[17] It will suffice to quote one foreign witness: Mr. R. A. Brady, in his study of The Spirit and Structure of German Fascism, concludes his detailed account of the development in the German academic world with the statement that "the scientist, per se, is hence, perhaps, the most easily used and 'co-ordinated' of all the especially trained people in modern society. The Nazis, to be true, fired a good many University professors, and dismissed a good many scientists from research laboratories. But the professors were primarily among the social sciences where there was more common awareness of and a more persistent criticism of the Nazi programmes, and not among the natural sciences where thinking is supposed to be most rigorous. Those dismissed in this latter field were primarily Jewish or exceptions to the generalisations made above, because of the equally uncritical acceptance of beliefs running contrary to Nazi views. - Consequently the Nazis were able to 'co-ordinate' scholars and scientists with relative ease, and hence to throw behind their elaborate propaganda the seeming weight of the bulk of German learned opinion and support."

他们自己除了热情之外别无他物的内在情感披上科学的外衣，这还有待于去发现。但要注意的是，“历史发展遵循科学规律”的理论尤其被专制权力的支持者所宣扬。这很自然，因为这一理论消除了他们最憎恨的两件事：人类的自由和个体的历史作用。

whether they simply want to give the prestige of a scientific appearance to passions of their hearts, which they perfectly know are nothing but passions. It is to be noted that the dogma that history is obedient to scientific laws is preached especially by partisans of arbitrary authority. This is quite natural, since it eliminates the two realities they most hate, i.e. human liberty and the historical action of the individual.

364. 我们在前文中曾经提及詹姆斯·杰拉尔德·克劳瑟先生撰写的一部带有马克思主义背景的英国著述，它将极权主义知识分子的全部典型特质，特别是对文艺复兴以来彰显欧洲文明的一切事物的憎恨，与对宗教裁判所的赞许全都揉在了一起。在此，我们无意再讨论这一如此极端的案例，而是要选取一部更具代表性及社会反响的著作。康拉德·哈尔·沃丁顿博士那本书名就带着这类书籍典型特征的小册子，《科学的态度》，正是这类著作中的一个极好范例。此类书籍曾经得到过英国颇具影响力的《自然》周刊的积极赞助；其内容一方面要求为科学家争取更大的政治权力，另一方面极力主张实施全面的“计划”。虽然沃丁顿博士不像克劳瑟先生那样直言不讳地蔑视自由，但他并不比克劳瑟先生更让人放心。他与大多数同类作者的不同之处在于，他清醒地看到，甚至强调，他所描述并支持的发展趋势必然会走向极权主义制度。但对他来说，走向极权主义制度显然比他所描述的“当下暴虐无序的猴舍文明”更为可取。

364. We have already had occasion to mention one English product of this kind, a work in which, on a Marxist background, all the characteristic idiosyncrasies of the totalitarian intellectual, a hatred of almost everything which distinguishes European civilisation since the Renaissance, is combined with an approval of the methods of Inquisition. We do not wish to consider here such an extreme case and shall take a work which is more representative and which has achieved considerable publicity. Dr. C. H. Waddington's little book under the characteristic title The Scientific Attitude is as good an example as any of a class of literature which is actively sponsored by the influential weekly Nature and which combines claims for greater political power for the scientists with an ardent advocacy of wholesale "planning". Though not quite as outspoken in his contempt for freedom as Mr. Crowther, Dr. Waddington is hardly more reassuring. He differs from most of the writers of the same kind in that he clearly sees and even emphasises that the tendencies he describes and supports inevitably lead to a totalitarian system. Yet apparently this appears to him preferable to what he describes as "the present ferocious monkey-house civilisation".

365. 沃丁顿博士之所以主张科学家有资格统治一个极权社会，主要是基于他所提出的“科学能够对人类行为做出道德评判”这一论题。沃丁顿博士在这个主张上的详尽阐述得到了《自然》周刊颇为可观的宣传。当然，德国那些既是科学家又是政治家的人士早就对这个主张耳熟能

365. Dr. Waddington's claim that the scientist is qualified to run a totalitarian society is based mainly on his thesis that "science can pass ethical judgment on human behaviour", a claim to the elaboration of which by Dr. Waddington Nature has given considerable publicity. It is, of course, a thesis which has long been familiar to the German scientist-politicians and which has justly been singled out by J. Benda. For an illustration of what this means we do not need to go outside Dr. Waddington's book. Freedom, he explains, "is a very troublesome concept for the scientist to discuss, partly because he is not convinced that, in the last analysis, there is such a thing". Nevertheless we are told that "science recognises" this and that kind of freedom, but "the freedom to be odd and unlike one's neighbour is not... a scientific value''. Apparently the "harlot humanities", about which Dr. Waddington has to say many uncomplimentary things, have gravely misled us in teaching us tolerance!

366. 与人们对这类著作早已形成的预期一样，这本讲述“科学态度”的书，在社会和经济问题上一点也不科学。我们从中再次看到了诸如“潜在富足”和“走向垄断的必然趋势”等熟悉的陈词滥调以及毫无根据的总结概括；为了支持这些内容而引用的“最权威”的资料，竟大多出自科学地位存疑的政治性小册子，而针对这些问题的严肃研究明显被他忽视了。

366. That when it comes to social and economic questions this book on the "scientific attitude" is anything but scientific is what one has learnt to expect of this kind of literature. We find again all the familiar clichés and baseless generalisations about "potential plenty" and the inevitable tendency towards monopoly, though the "best authorities" quoted in support of these contentions prove on examination to be mostly political tracts of questionable scientific standing, while the serious studies of the same problems are conspicuously neglected.

367. 就像在几乎所有这一类著作中都能见到的那样，沃丁顿博士持之无疑的观点主要是由他所笃信的“历史必然趋势”决定的。他认为这种趋势已经被科学所发现，是他从“其基本理念与自然科学研究所依据的理念几乎、甚至完全相同的、深邃的、科学的马克思主义哲学”中推导出来的。以他的判断，马克思主义的这些基本理念比以往的一切都更先进。因此，尽管沃丁顿博士“很难否认如今在英国过日子已经不如1913年了”，但他仍然期待着一个集中计划和极权主义的经济制度，能够“将各大区域经济发展的各个方面都作为一个整体有意识地规划起来”。他轻率地相信，在这种极权主义制度中，思想自由将得以保留。 就这一点而言， 他在

367. As in almost all works of this type, Dr. Waddington's convictions are largely determined by his belief in "inevitable historical tendencies" which science is presumed to have discovered and which he derives from "the profound scientific philosophy" of Marxism whose basic notions are "almost, if not quite, identical with those underlying the scientific approach to nature" and which his "competence to judge" tells Dr. Waddington are an advance on anything which has gone before. Thus Dr. Waddington, though he finds it "difficult to deny that England now is a worse country to live in than it was" in 1913, looks forward to an economic system which "will be centralised and totalitarian in the sense that all aspects of the economic development of large regions are consciously planned as an integrated whole". And for his facile optimism that in this totalitarian system freedom of thought will be preserved, his “scientific attitude” has no better counsel than the conviction that “there must be very valuable evidence about questions which one does not need to be an expert to understand”, such as, for example, whether it is possible “to combine totalitarianism with freedom of thought”.

368. 要想对英国走向极权主义的各种趋势进行更全面的考察，那就必须对创立某种“中产阶级社会主义”的诸多尝试给予足够的关注。想必它们的始创者还没有意识到，这些尝试与希特勒上台之前德国在这方面的发展已经相似到令人警惕的地步。[18]如果我们要讨论严格意义上的政治运动，我们就应该考察一些新兴组织，比如《我们的奋斗》的作者理查德·阿克兰爵士发起的“前进行动”以及后来的“共同财富运动党”，或者一度与其有过合作的约翰·博因顿·普里斯特利先生的“1941委员会”。尽管不把这些现象当成某种征兆而加以忽视是不明智的，但它们目前都还算不上重要的政治力量。除了知识分子对极权主义运动的推动作用之外（我们之前已经用两个例子做了说明），走向极权主义运动的主要推进力来自两大既得利益集团：有组织的资本和有组织的劳工。或许，最大的威胁莫过于这两个最强大的集团所采取的政策指向了同一个方向。

368. A fuller survey of the various tendencies towards totalitarianism in this country would have to give considerable attention to the various attempts to create some kind of middle-class socialism bearing, no doubt unknown to their authors, an alarming resemblance to similar developments in pre-Hitler Germany.[19] If we were concerned here with political movements proper we should have to consider such new organisations as the “Forward March” or “Common Wealth” movement of Sir Richard Acland, the author of Unser Kampf, or the activities of the “1941 Committee” of Mr. J. B. Priestley, at one time associated with the former. But, though it would be unwise to disregard the symptomatic significance of such phenomena as these, they can hardly yet be counted as important political forces. Apart from the intellectual influences which we have illustrated by two instances, the impetus of the movement towards totalitarianism comes mainly from the two great vested interests, organised capital and organised labour. Probably the greatest menace of all is thefact that the policies of these two most powerful groups point in the same direction.

369. 这两大集团的做法是采取共同的、往往也是彼此协调的手段支持产业的垄断性规划。正

369. They do this through their common, and often concerted, support of the monopolistic organisation of industry; and it is this tendency which is the

[18] 在这场大战之后，可能加强这些趋势的另一个因素，将是在战争期间掌握过强制控制权的那些人。届时，他们将发现自己难以适应他们将不得不扮演的卑微角色。虽然在上次战争之后，这类人并不像将来那样多，但即使在那时，他们对这个国家的经济政策也产生了不可忽视的影响。正是在这些人的陪伴下，大约在十年或十二年前，我在英国第一次体验到者这种感觉，这在当时极不寻常，好像突然被带入了一种我所了解的、完全的“德国式”思想氛围中。

[19] Another element which after this war is likely to strengthen the tendencies in this direction will be some of the men who during the war have tasted the powers of coercive control and will find it difficult to reconcile themselves with the humbler rôles they will then have to play. Though after the last war men of this kind were not as numerous as they will probably be in the future, they exercised even then a not inconsiderable influence on the economic policy of this country. It was in the company of some of these men that as long as ten or twelve years ago I first experienced in this country the then still unusual sensation of being suddenly transported into what I had learnt to regard as a thoroughly “German” intellectual atmosphere.

是这种趋势，构成了巨大而直接的危险。尽管我们没有理由认为走向极权主义的运动是必然的，但毫无疑问，如果我们继续沿着脚下的这条路走下去，它终将把我们带向极权主义。

great immediate danger. While there is no reason to believe that this movement is inevitable, there can be little doubt that if we continue on the path we have been treading, it will lead us to totalitarianism.

370. 当然，在英国，垄断的发展主要是由在产业垄断中扮演规划者角色的资本家蓄意策划出来的，也正因为如此，他们是这一危险的主要源头之一。尽管他们的目标不是建立极权主义制度，而是建立一种让各种被规划的产业以半独立且自治的“领地”形式存在的法团形式的社会，但他们仍然难辞其咎。他们像当年的德国同行一样目光短浅，竟然相信自己不仅被允许去创建这样一种制度，而且还能够长期掌握它的运作。在被如此规划的产业中，其管理者必须不断做出的那种决策，是任何一个社会都不可能长期让私人个体去做的。一个听任权力以如此庞大的方式集中起来的政府，不可能允许这种权力完全掌控在私人手中。同样，认为企业家在这样的条件下能长期享有只在竞争型社会中才具有正当性的优渥地位，也完全是一种虚幻的愿望而已。在竞争型社会中，这种优渥地位之所以有其正当性，是因为在众多敢于冒险的人当中，只有少数人能获得成功；而这种成功的机会使冒险成为一件值得一试的事。企业家们既想获得那种在竞争型社会中只有他们当中的部分成功者才能获得的高收入，也想拥有公职人员才有的保障，这种愿望并不令人感到惊讶。只有当在政府经营的产业之外还有大量私营产业存在时，优秀的产业人才才有机会同时获得相当稳定的地位和较高的薪水。然而，尽管企业家们的期望在过渡阶段尚能得到满足，但不久之后他们就会像他们的德国同行一样发现，他们不再是主人，只能在各个方面都满足于政府赐给他们的那点权力和俸禄了。

370. This movement is, of course, deliberately planned mainly by the capitalist organisers of monopolies, and they are thus one of the main sources of this danger. Their responsibility is not altered by the fact that their aim is not a totalitarian system but rather a sort of corporative society in which the organised industries would appear as semi-independent and self-governing “estates”. But they are as short-sighted as were their German colleagues in believing that they will be allowed not only to create but also for any length of time to run such a system. The decisions which the managers of such an organised industry would constantly have to make are not decisions which any society will long leave to private individuals. A state which allows such enormous aggregations of power to grow up cannot afford to let this power rest entirely in private control. Nor is the belief any less illusory that in such conditions the entrepreneurs will be long allowed to enjoy the favoured position which in a competitive society is justified by the fact that of the many who take the risks only a few achieve the success the chances of which make the risk worth taking. It is not surprising that entrepreneurs should like to enjoy both the high income which in a competitive society the successful ones among them gain, and the security of the civil servant. So long as a large sector of private industry exists side by side with the government-run industry great industrial talent is likely to command high salaries even in fairly secure positions. But while the entrepreneurs may well see their expectations borne out during a transition stage, it will not be long before they will find, as their German colleagues did, that they are no longer masters but will in every respect have to be satisfied with whatever power and emoluments the government will concede them.

371. 除非本书的论点被彻底误读，即便作者在本书中强调，将现代社会走向垄断的责任完全或主要地归咎于资本家阶层无论如何是错误的，读者也不应该认为作者对资本家抱有任何温情。资本家追求垄断的嗜好并不是什么新鲜事，其自身也不太可能形成一股可怕的力量。致命的是，他们成功地得到越来越多其他群体的拥护，并在这些群体的帮助下获得政府支持。

371. Unless the argument of this book has been completely misunderstood, the author will not be suspected of any tenderness towards the capitalists if he stresses here that it would nevertheless be a mistake to put the blame for the modern movement towards monopoly exclusively or mainly on that class. Their propensity in this direction is neither new nor would it by itself be likely to become a formidable power. The fatal development was that they have succeeded in enlisting the support of an ever-increasing number of other groups and with their help to obtain the support of the state.

372. 在某种程度上说，垄断者获得这种支持的方式，要么是把他们的收益分享给其他群体；要么，也许是更为常见的，是说服他们，让他们相信垄断的形成符合公众利益。因为其对立法和司法[20]的影响，公众舆论才是现代社会走向垄断的最关键因素；但是公众舆论的转变，首先是左翼反竞争宣传的结果。很多时候，旨在反制垄断的措施，实际上也只会加强垄断的力量。每一次对垄断收益的围剿，无论是为了某些特定群体的利益还是为了整个国家的利益，往往都会创造出倾向于巩固垄断的、新的既得利益群体。一个让人数巨大的特权群体从垄断收益中获利的制度，在政治上是更加危险的；在这样的制度下，与在垄断收益仅归少数人所有的制度中相比，垄断的力量无疑也要强大很多。然而，尽管人们本应清楚地知道，垄断者有能力支付给雇员较高报酬，与他自己获得的垄断收益一样，都是剥削的结果；而且注定会使所有消费者，尤其是靠薪水生活的人变得更加贫困；可除了那些从垄断中受益的人之外，如今连广大公众也开始普遍将垄断能够支

372. In some measure the monopolists have gained this support either by letting other groups participate in their gains or, and perhaps even more frequently, by persuading them that the formation of monopolies was in the public interest. But the change in public opinion which through its influence on legislation and judicature[21] has been the most important factor to make this development possible, is more than anything the result of the propaganda against competition by the Left. Very frequently even measures aimed against the monopolists in fact serve only to strengthen the power of monopoly. Every raid on the gains of monopoly, be it in the interest of particular groups or of the state as a whole, tends to create new vested interests which will help to bolster up monopoly. A system in which large privileged groups profit from the gains of monopoly may be politically much more dangerous, and monopoly in such a system certainly is much more powerful, than in one where the profits go to a limited few. But though it should be clear that, for example, the higher wages which the monopolist is in a position to pay are just as much the result of exploitation as his own profit, and are just as certain to make poorer not only all the consumers but still more all other wage earners, not merely those who benefit from it but the public generally nowadays accept the ability to pay higher wages as a legitimate argument in favour of monopoly.[23]

373. There is serious reason for doubt whether even in those cases where monopoly is inevitable the best way of controlling it is to put it in the hands of the state. If only a single industry were in question this might well be so. But when we have to deal with many different monopolistic industries, there is much to be said for leaving them in different private hands rather than combining them under the single control of the state. Even if railways, road and air transport, or the supply of gas and electricity, were all inevitably monopolies, the consumer is unquestionably in a much stronger position so long as they remain separate monopolies than when they are “co-ordinated” by a central control. Private monopoly is scarcely ever complete and even more rarely of long duration or able to disregard potential competition. But a state monopoly is always a state-protected monopoly - protected against both potential competition and effective criticism. It means in most instances that a temporary monopoly is given the power to secure its position for all time - a power almost certain to be used. Where the power which ought to check and control monopoly becomes interested in sheltering and defending its appointees, where for the government to remedy an abuse is to admit responsibility for it, and where criticism of the actions of monopoly means criticism of the government, there is little hope of monopoly becoming the servant of the community. A state which is entangled in all directions in the running of monopolistic enterprise, while it would possess crushing power over the individual, would yet be a weak state in so far as its freedom in formulating policy is concerned. The machinery of monopoly becomes identical with the machinery of the state, and the state itself becomes more and more

[22] 更令人惊讶的，或许是许多社会主义者对持有产业垄断机构债券并因此获得收益保障的人表现出异常温和的态度。他们对利润的盲目敌意导致人们认为无需费力即可获得的固定收入比商业利润更有社会价值或道德价值，甚至为了确保像铁路债券持有人那样得到有保障的收入而接受垄断。这是上一代人经历的最不寻常的价值观扭曲现象之一。

[23] Even more surprising, perhaps, is the remarkable tenderness which many socialists are apt to show towards the rentier bondholder to whom monopolist organisation of industry frequently guarantees secure incomes. That their blind enmity to profits should lead people to represent effortless fixed income as socially or ethically more desirable than profits, and to accept even monopoly to secure such a guaranteed income to, for example, railway bondholders, is one of the most extraordinary symptoms of the perversion of values which has taken place during the last generation.

identified with the interests of those who run things than with the interests of the people in general.

374. 存在这样一种可能性，即在垄断确实无法避免的行业，如果采取美国人偏好的方案，即对私人垄断企业实施严格的政府管控，但凡能一以贯之地执行，大概会比采取政府直接经营更有机会取得令人满意的结果。只要政府严格实施价格控制，消灭可供垄断者之外的人参与分配的超额利润空间，那么上述判断至少看起来是成立的。即便这样做会导致垄断行业的服务变得不如其应有的那样令人满意（就像美国的公用事业有时给人的感受那样），那也只不过是为了有效遏制垄断权力而付出的小小代价而已。就我个人而言，我宁愿忍受一定程度的低效，也不愿让经过规划的垄断来支配我的生活方式。用上述方法对待垄断，会迅速使垄断者变成企业家们最不愿意去扮演的角色，也可以将垄断尽可能限制在真正无法避免的领域，并刺激人们去发明可以在竞争中提供的替代品。只要让垄断者的地位重新成为经济政策的受气包，你就会惊讶地发现，大多数更有能力的企业家很快就会重新燃起热情，去体会竞争的凛冽气氛！

374. The probability is that wherever monopoly is really inevitable the plan which used to be preferred by the Americans, of a strong state control over private monopolies, if consistently pursued, offers a better chance of satisfactory results than state management. This would at least seem to be so where the state enforces a stringent price control which leaves no room for extraordinary profits in which others than the monopolists can participate. Even if this should have the effect (as it sometimes had with American public utilities) that the services of the monopolistic industries would become less satisfactory than they might be, this would be a small price to pay for an effective check on the powers of monopoly. Personally I should much prefer to have to put up with some such inefficiency than have organised monopoly control my ways of life. Such a method of dealing with monopoly, which would rapidly make the position of the monopolist the least eligible among entrepreneurial positions, would also do as much as anything to reduce monopoly to the spheres where it is inevitable and to stimulate the invention of substitutes which can be provided competitively. Only make the position of the monopolist once more that of the whipping boy of economic policy and you will be surprised how quickly most of the abler entrepreneurs will rediscover their taste for the bracing air of competition!

375. 如果我们要与之斗争的只是作为垄断者的资本家，垄断的问题还不至于像现在这样棘手。但是，正如前文所述，垄断之所以变得如此危险，其原因并不在于少数有利益关系的资本家的所作所为，而在于他们获得的支持，这些支持来自于那些被允许分享其收益的群体，以及被他们说服，相信支持垄断有助于建立一个更公正、更有秩序的社会的更为广泛的人群。在反竞争理论的影响下，那个只有靠着与一切特权做斗争才能实现其最初目标的、伟大

375. The problem of monopoly would not be as difficult as it is if it were only the capitalist monopolist whom we have to fight. But, as has already been said, monopoly has become the danger that it is, not through the efforts of a few interested capitalists, but through the support they have obtained from those whom they have let share in their gains, and from the many more whom they have persuaded that in supporting monopoly they assist in the creation of a more just and orderly society. The fatal turning point in the modern development was when the great movement which can serve its original ends only by fighting all privilege, the Labour Movement, came under the influence of anti-competition doctrines and became itself entangled in the strife for privilege. The recent growth of monopoly is largely the result of a deliberate collaboration of organised capital and organised labour where the privileged groups of labour share in the monopoly profits at the expense of the community and particularly at the expense of the poorest, those employed in the less well organised industries and the unemployed.

的劳工运动，反而让自己深陷于对特权的争夺之中，这实在是现代社会发展过程中最致命的转折点。近年来，垄断的蔓延在很大程度上是被规划的资本和有组织的劳工蓄意合谋的结果。这种合谋让享有特权的劳工群体分享了垄断带来的好处，却牺牲了全社会的利益，尤其是让那些最贫穷的人、在组织化程度较低的行业中工作的人以及失业者付出了代价。

376. 眼见一场伟大的民主运动支持一项必然会导致民主走向毁灭的政策，而这种政策在其实施过程中只能让拥护该运动的少数人获益，这实在是我们这个时代最令人悲哀的一幕。然而，正是这种来自左翼的支持，才让垄断的趋势变得如此不可阻挡，让未来的前景变得如此黯淡。对于那种至少让每位工人都在某种程度上享有了独立与自由的秩序，只要工党继续参与对它的破坏，那么未来确实就没有什么希望了。如今，那些大声宣告他们已经“彻底终结了那个疯狂的竞争制度”[24]的工党领袖们实际上是在宣告个人自由的终结。社会秩序不是由非人格化市场准则来支配，就是由少数人的意志来支配；除此之外，并无其他可能。那些致力于摧毁前者的人，正在有意无意地帮着创造后者。即便在后一种新秩序下，一部分工人或许会吃得更好，所有人的制服也无疑会更加统一，但是，我们仍然有理由怀疑，当工人领袖中的知识分子向工人们兜售一种危及其个人自由的社会主义学说时，大多数英国工人是否会对他们心存感激。

377. 对于任何熟悉欧洲大陆主要国家近二十五

376. It is one of the saddest spectacles of our time to see a great democratic movement support a policy which must lead to the destruction of democracy and which meanwhile can benefit only a minority of the masses who support it. Yet it is this support from the Left of the tendencies towards monopoly which make them so irresistible and the prospects of the future so dark. So long as Labour continues to assist in the destruction of the only order under which at least some degree of independence and freedom has been secured to every worker, there is indeed little hope for the future. The Labour leaders who now proclaim so loudly that they have “done once and for all with the mad competitive system”[25] are proclaiming the doom of the freedom of the individual. There is no other possibility than either the order governed by the impersonal discipline of the market or that directed by the will of a few individuals; and those who are out to destroy the first are wittingly or unwittingly helping to create the second. Even though some workmen will perhaps be better fed, and all will no doubt be more uniformly dressed in that new order, it is permissible to doubt whether the majority of English workmen will in the end thank the intellectuals among their leaders who have presented them with a socialist doctrine which endangers their personal freedom.

[25] Professor H. J. Laski, in his address to the 41st Annual Labour Party Conference, London, May 26, 1942 (Report, p. 111). It deserves to be noted that according to Professor Laski it is “this mad competitive system which - spells poverty for all peoples, and war as outcome of that poverty” - a curious reading of the history of the last hundred and fifty years.

years, the study of the recent programme of the Labour Party, now committed to the creation of a “planned society” is a most depressing experience. To “any attempt to restore traditional Britain” there is opposed a scheme which not only in general outline but also in detail and even wording is indistinguishable from the socialist dreams which dominated German discussion twenty-five years ago. Not only demands, like those of the resolution, adopted on Professor Laski’s motion, which requires the retention in peace time of the “measures of Government control needed for mobilising the national resources in war”, but all the characteristic catchwords, such as the “balanced economy” which Professor Laski now demands for Great Britain, or the “community consumption” towards which production is to be centrally directed, are bodily taken over from the German ideology. Twenty-five years ago there was perhaps still some excuse for holding the naive belief “that a planned society can be a far more free society than the competitive laissez-faire order it has come to replace”.[28] But to find it once more held after twenty-five years of experience and the re-examination of the old beliefs to which this experience has led, and at a time when we are fighting the results of those very doctrines, is tragic beyond words. That the great party which in Parliament and public opinion has largely taken the place of the progressive parties of the past, should have ranged itself with what, in the light of all past development, must be regarded as a reactionary movement, is the decisive change which has taken place in our time and the source of the mortal danger to everything a liberal must value. That the advances of the past should be threatened by the traditionalist forces of the Right is a phenomenon of all ages which need not alarm us. But if theplace of the opposition, in public discussion as well as in Parliament, should become lastingly the monopoly of a second reactionary party, there would indeed be no hope left.

约翰·弥尔顿

378. 我们这一代人喜欢自诩，说自己不像父辈或祖辈那样把经济方面的考量看得那么重。所谓“经济人的末日”已经到来这个说法，恐怕会成为我们这个时代最大的谬论之一。在我们相信它，或者认为这种不再重视经济因素的变化值得称道之前，我们必须进一步探寻它究竟有几分真实性。看看眼下在社会重建方面最受推崇的主张，它们几乎全都带有经济问题的性质。我们已经看到，诸如“以经济学术语重新解释”自由、平等和保障这些“陈旧”政治理想的要求，恰恰是那些宣称“经济人的末日”已经到来的人提出的主要诉求之一。毫无疑问，人们当下的想法和抱负比以往任何时候都更受经济学理论的支配，他们被精心地灌输了一些理论，而这些理论让他们相信，我们的经济制度是不合理的、“潜在富足”的错误主张是正确的、“垄断不可避免”这样的伪理论是真实的。诸如销毁原材料库存，压制发明创造等被大肆宣传的事件，更让他们以为这一切都是竞争的恶果，尽管，这类事情不可能发生在竞争环境当中，而只能发生在垄断环境，尤其是政府协助下的垄

Chapter XIV: MATERIAL CONDITIONS AND IDEAL ENDS

Is it just or reasonable, that most voices against the main end of government should enslave the less number that would be free? More just it is, doubtless, if it come to force, that a less number compel a greater to retain, which can be no wrong to them, their liberty, than that a greater number, for the pleasure of their baseness, compel a less most injuriously to be their fellow slaves. They who seek nothing but their own just liberty, have always the right to win it, whenever they have the power, be the voices never so numerous that oppose it.

John Milton

378. OUR generation likes to flatter itself that it attaches less weight to economic considerations than did its parents or grandparents. The “End of Economic Man” bids fair to become one of the governing myths of our age. Before we accept this claim, or treat the change as praiseworthy, we must inquire a little further how far it is true. When we consider the claims for social reconstruction which are most strongly pressed it appears that they are almost all economic in character: we have seen already that the “re-interpretation in economic terms” of the political ideals of the past, of liberty, equality, and security, is one of the main demands of people who at the same time proclaim the end of economic man. Nor can there be much doubt that in their beliefs and aspirations men are to-day more than ever before governed by economic doctrines, by the carefully fostered belief in the irrationality of our economic system, by the false assertions about “potential plenty”, pseudo-theories about the inevitable trend towards monopoly, and the impression created by certain much advertised occurrences such as the destruction of stocks of raw materials or the suppression of inventions, for which competition is blamed, though they are precisely the sort of thing which could not happen under competition and which are made possible only by monopoly and usually by government-

断环境当中。[1]

380. 这种反抗代表了一种更为普遍的现象，即我们近来不再愿意屈从于任何我们不能理解的规则或必然性。这种现象体现在生活的许多领域，尤其是道德领域，并且往往被当作一种值得赞许的态度。然而，总有那么一些领域，这种对“可理解性”的追求无法得到充分满足，而如果我们在这些领域也拒绝屈从于任何我们不

379. In a different sense, however, it is no doubt true that our generation is less willing to listen to economic considerations than was true of its predecessors. It is most decidedly unwilling to sacrifice any of its demands to what are called economic arguments, it is impatient and intolerant of all restraints on their immediate ambitions, and unwilling to bow to economic necessities. It is not any contempt for material welfare, or even any diminished desire for it, but, on the contrary, a refusal to recognise any obstacles, any conflict with other aims which might impede the fulfilment of their own desires, which distinguishes our generation. Economophobia would be a more correct description of this attitude than the doubly misleading “End of Economic Man”, which suggests a change from a state of affairs which has never existed in a direction in which we are not moving. Man has come to hate, and to revolt against, the impersonal forces to which in the past he submitted even though they have often frustrated his individual efforts.

380. This revolt is an instance of a much more general phenomenon, a new unwillingness to submit to any rule or necessity the rationale of which man does not understand; it makes itself felt in many fields of life, particularly in that of morals; and it is often a commendable attitude. But there are fields where this craving for intelligibility cannot be fully satisfied and where at the same time a refusal to submit to anything we cannot understand must lead

[1] 把偶尔发生的焚毁小麦、咖啡等存货的事件当作反对竞争制度的论据，这种做法本身就很好地说明了这类论证在认识上的不诚实，因为稍加思考就会明白：在一个竞争型的市场中，持有这些存货的所有者根本无法通过销毁它们获利。至于所谓“压制有用专利”的情况，则要复杂得多，无法在一条注释中充分讨论；但是，将本可以为产生社会效益而使用的专利冷藏起来还能做到让专利持有人有利可图，这需要很特殊的条件，所以这种事情是否能在有实质意义的情况下发生，是非常值得怀疑的。

[2] The frequent use that is made of the occasional destruction of wheat, coffee, etc., as an argument against competition is a good illustration of the intellectual dishonesty of much of this argument, since a little reflection will show that in a competitive market no owner of such stocks can gain by their destruction. The case of the alleged suppression of useful patents is more complicated and cannot be adequately discussed in a note ; but the conditions in which it would be profitable to put into cold storage a patent which in the social interest ought to be used are so exceptional that it is more than doubtful whether this has happened in any important instance.

能理解的事物，文明就会遭到毁灭。很自然，随着周遭的世界变得越来越复杂，我们越来越抗拒那些我们不了解的、不断干扰我们个人希望和计划的社会机制；但也正因为世界变得越来越复杂，我们完全了解这些机制的可能性也越来越小。像我们这样的复杂文明，必然建立在这样一个基础之上：个体能够自我调整，去适应那些他无法理解其原因和性质的变化。为什么他得到的报酬会增加或者减少？为什么他一定要换一份工作？为什么他想要的某些东西比别的东西更难获得？影响这些问题的因素很多，而这些因素又不是任何一个个人的头脑所能全部了解的。或者，甚至更糟糕的是，那些受到影响的人把一切责任归咎于一个明显的、直接的并且可以避免的原因，这样，决定这些变化的、更复杂的关联因素就不可避免地被忽视了。即使在一个完全的计划型社会，管理者也无法就为什么要改变某人的工作或者报酬给出充分的解释，除非他先解释并证明其整个计划的正当性,当然，这也就意味着他只能向少数人解释他的整个计划。 to the destruction of our civilisation. Though it is natural that, as the world around us becomes more complex, our resistance grows against the forces which, without our understanding them, constantly interfere with individual hopes and plans, it is just in these circumstances that it becomes less and less possible for anyone fully to understand these forces. A complex civilisation like ours is necessarily based on the individual adjusting himself to changes whose cause and nature he cannot understand: why he should have more or less, why he should have to move to another occupation, why some things he wants should become more difficult to get than others, will always be connected with such a multitude of circumstances that no single mind will be able to grasp them; or, even worse, those affected will put all the blame on an obvious immediate and avoidable cause, while the more complex interrelationships which determine the change remain inevitably hidden to them. Even the director of a completely planned society, if he wanted to give an adequate explanation to anyone why he has to be directed to a different job, or why his remuneration has to be changed, could not fully do so without explaining and vindicating his whole plan - which means, of course, that it could not be explained to more than a few.

381. 正是因为有了过去人们对非人格化市场机制的服从，文明才获得发展的可能；如果没有这种服从，文明就不可能有今天的发展。也正是通过这种服从，我们每天都在参与创造一些我们任何人都不能完全理解的伟大事物。过去的人们之所以会服从于这种机制，或许是出于某些人现在所谓的迷信，或许是出于某种谦卑的宗教精神，还可能是出于对某些早期经济学家粗糙学说的过度尊崇，这些都不重要。重要的是，对于我们为什么必须服从于我们无法了解其运作细节的机制这个问题，从理性的角度去理解，其困难程度要远比从由宗教甚或经济学理论所激发的谦卑敬畏之心的角度理解大很

381. It was men's submission to the impersonal forces of the market that in the past has made possible the growth of a civilisation which without this could not have developed; it is by thus submitting that we are every day helping to build something that is greater than anyone of us can fully comprehend. It does not matter whether men in the past did submit from beliefs which some now regard as superstitious: from a religious spirit of humility, or an exaggerated respect for the crude teachings of the early economists. The crucial point is that it is infinitely more difficult rationally to comprehend the necessity of submitting to forces whose operation we cannot follow in detail, than to do so out of the humble awe which religion, or even the respect for the doctrines of economics, did inspire. It may indeed be the case that infinitely more intelligence on the part of everybody would be needed than anybody now possesses, if we were even merely to maintain our present complex civilisation without anybody having to do things of which he does not comprehend the necessity. The refusal to yield to forces which we neither understand nor can recognise as the conscious decisions of an intelligent being is the product of an incomplete and therefore erroneous rationalism. It is incomplete because it fails to comprehend that the co-ordination of the multifarious individual efforts in a complex society must take account of facts no individual can completely survey. And it fails to see that, unless this complex society is to be destroyed, the only alternative to submission to the impersonal and seemingly irrational forces of the market is submission to an equally uncontrollable and therefore arbitrary power of other men. In his anxiety to escape the irksome restraints which he now feels, man does not realise that the new authoritarian restraints which will have to be deliberately imposed in their stead will be even more painful.

382. 有人说，我们在掌握大自然的运作机制方面已经达到了惊人的程度，却在如何善用社会协作的潜能方面令人遗憾地落后了。这个说法本身还算相当准确，然而，如果说这个话的人将二者的类比再向前推进一步，认为我们必须像学会掌握大自然的运作机制一样学会掌握社会运作机制，那他就大错特错了。这不仅是通往极权主义的道路，更是毁灭文明，并且必然阻碍未来进步的道路。那些要求我们做到这一点的人，其要求本身就说明他们还不了解，单单为了维持迄今为止所取得的成就，我们得在多大程度上依靠非人格化的机制对个人努力的协调。

382. Those who argue that we have to an astounding degree learned to master the forces of nature but are sadly behind in making successful use of the possibilities of social collaboration are quite right so far as this statement goes. But they are mistaken when they carry the comparison further and argue that we must learn to master the forces of society in the same manner in which we have learnt to master the forces of nature. This is not only the path to totalitarianism, but the path to the destruction of our civilisation and a certain way to block future progress. Those who demand it show by their very demands that they have not yet comprehended the extent to which the mere preservation of what we have so far achieved depends on the co-ordination of individual efforts by impersonal forces.

383. 现在，我们必须简要地回顾一下之前讨论过的一个重点：个人自由无法与一个全社会都必须完全且永远服从的、至高无上的单一目标共存。自由社会绝不能被置于一个单一目标之下，这个规则的唯一例外，就是战争或其他暂时性灾难。在战争或灾难期间，几乎所有事情都要服从于即时且紧迫的需要，这是为了长久地维系我们的自由而付出的代价。这也解释了为什么诸如“为了和平去做为了战争而做的事”这样时髦的口号如此具有误导性。为了未来的自由更有保障而暂时牺牲自由是可以理解的；但是，要把牺牲自由当作一种永久性的制度安排，那就完全不同了。

383. We must now return briefly to the crucial point, that individual freedom cannot be reconciled with the supremacy of one single purpose to which the whole society must be entirely and permanently subordinated. The only exception to the rule that a free society must not be subjected to a single purpose is war and other temporary disasters when subordination of almost everything to the immediate and pressing need is the price at which we preserve our freedom in the long run. This explains also why so many of the fashionable phrases about doing for the purposes of peace what we have learnt to do for the purposes of war are so very misleading: it is sensible temporarily to sacrifice freedom in order to make it more secure in the future; but the same cannot be said for a system proposed as a permanent arrangement.

384. 在和平时期，决不能允许任何单一目标凌驾于一切其他目标之上，这一原则甚至适用于“战胜失业”这样一个当下人人都认为最重要的目标。毫无疑问，这是我们要以最大努力去实现的目标，可即便如此，也不意味着我们应该允许这个目标主宰我们，让我们把其他目标都放在一边；也不意味着我们要像那句轻描淡写的话所说的那样，要“不惜一切代价”去实现这个目标。事实上，正是在就业这一领域，诸如“充分就业”这样模糊却深受欢迎的提法所具有的魅力，很可能会催生出极为短视的举措；那些执着于单一目标的理想主义者喊出的“不惜一切代价一定要完成任务”的口号既绝对又不负责任，而且很可能会造成极大的危害。

384. That no single purpose must be allowed in peace to have absolute preference over all others applies even to the one aim which everybody now agrees comes in the front rank: the conquest of unemployment. There can be no doubt that this must be the goal of our greatest endeavour; even so, it does not mean that such an aim should be allowed to dominate us to the exclusion of everything else, that, as the glib phrase runs, it must be accomplished “at any price”. It is, in fact, in this field that the fascination of vague but popular phrases like “full employment” may well lead to extremely short-sighted measures, and where the categorical and irresponsible “it must be done at all cost” of the single-minded idealist is likely to do the greatest harm.

385. 极为重要的是，我们必须清醒地看待战后我们将在就业领域面临的任务，并清楚地认识到我们有希望实现怎样的目标。战争的特殊需要已经将数以十万计的人吸纳到特殊的工作岗位，并在战争期间向他们支付相对较高的薪水。战争结束后，这些特殊行业大多都绝无可能继续容纳如此庞大的从业人口，大量人员将

385. It is of very great importance that we should approach with open eyes the task which in this field we shall have to face after the war, and that we should clearly realise what we may hope to achieve. One of the dominant features of the immediate post-war situation will be that the special needs of war have drawn hundreds of thousands of men and women into specialised jobs where during the war they have been able to earn relatively high wages. There will, in many instances, be no possibility of employing the same numbers in these particular trades. There will be an urgent need for the transfer of large numbers to other jobs, and many of them will find that the work they can then get is less favourably remunerated than was true of their war job. Even re-training, which certainly ought to be provided on a liberal scale, cannot entirely overcome this problem. There will still be many people who, if they are to be paid according to what their services will then be worth to society, would under any system have to be content with a lowering of their material position relative to that of others.

386. 在这种情况下，如果各行业工会成功地保证了某些特殊群体的收入不变，那么，政府对这些特殊群体之外的人就只有两种方案可选了：要么使用强制手段，选择一部分人强迫其调往报酬相对较低的其他岗位；要么听任这些无法继续以战时高薪受雇的人处于失业状态，直到他们愿意接受报酬较低的工作为止。这个问题在社会主义社会中出现的程度并不亚于任何其他社会。而且，大多数工人恐怕也同样不会赞同给予那些因战争的特殊需要而进入高薪岗位的人一个报酬水平永远不变的保证。面对这种局面，社会主义社会无疑会采用强制手段。而对我们来说，如果我们决心不惜一切代价杜绝失业，同时又不愿使用强制手段，那么我们将不得不采取各种令人绝望的权宜之计，在这些权宜之计中，没有一个能长效解决问题，反而会严重妨碍我们对资源的最有效利用。尤其需要指出的是，货币政策也无法真正解决这个难题，除非制造一次普遍且大幅度的通货膨胀，比照那些不能降低报酬者的收入水平，充分提高其他人的薪酬和物价；而即便是这种做法，也不过是一种隐蔽和迂回的方式，实质上降低了无法以直接手段降低其薪酬的那部分人的薪酬而已。然而，要将所有其他人的薪酬及其他收入提高到足以与上述特殊群体拉

386. If, then, the trade unions successfully resist any lowering of the wages of the particular groups in question, there will be only two alternatives open: either coercion will have to be used, i.e. certain individuals will have to be selected for compulsory transfer to other and relatively less well paid positions, or those who can no longer be employed at the relatively high wages they have earned during the war must be allowed to remain unemployed till they are willing to accept work at a relatively lower wage. This is a problem which would arise in a socialist society no less than in any other; and the great majority of workmen would probably be just as little inclined to guarantee in perpetuity their present wages to those who were drawn into specially well paid employments because of the special need of war. A socialist society would certainly use coercion in this position. The point that is relevant for us is that if we are determined not to allow unemployment at any price, and are not willing to use coercion, we shall be driven to all sorts of desperate expedients, none of which can bring any lasting relief and all of which will seriously interfere with the most productive use of our resources. It should be specially noted that monetary policy cannot provide a real cure for this difficulty except by a general and considerable inflation, sufficient to raise all other wages and prices relatively to those which cannot be lowered, and that even this would bring about the desired result only by effecting in a concealed and under-hand fashion that reduction of real wages which could not be brought about directly. Yet to raise all other wages and incomes to an extent sufficient to adjust the position of the group in question would involve an inflationary expansion on such a scale that the disturbances, hardships, and injustices caused would be much greater than those to be cured.

387. 战后，这个问题将以极为尖锐的形式出现，而且，只要经济制度还需要适应环境的不断变化，它就会始终伴随着我们。短期内，通过一些办法，总可以实现一个最高就业水平；这样的办法可以是给每个人就地安排一份工作；也可以是实施货币扩张政策。然而，这种最高就业水平不仅只能依靠持续加剧的通货膨胀来维持，而且还会阻滞因环境改变而变得必要的行业间劳动力流动，而只要工人拥有择业自由，这种流动就总会滞后发生，并因此导致一定程度的失业。因此，一味采取货币手段实现最高就业水平的政策，到头来注定会挫败其自身的目标，并逐渐导致劳动生产率下降，造成劳动人口中“依赖人为手段以当前报酬水平维持就业”的比例持续增加。

387. This problem, which will arise in a particularly acute form after the war, is one which will always be with us so long as the economic system has to adapt itself to continuous changes. There will always be a possible maximum of employment in the short run which can be achieved by giving all people employment where they happen to be and which can be achieved by monetary expansion. But not only can this maximum be maintained solely by progressive inflationary expansion and with the effect of holding up those redistributions of labour between industries made necessary by the changed circumstances, and which so long as workmen are free to choose their jobs will always come about only with some delays and thereby cause some unemployment: to aim always at the maximum of employment achievable by monetary means is a policy which is certain in the end to defeat its own purposes. It tends to lower the productivity of labour and thereby constantly increases the proportion of the working population which can be kept employed at present wages only by artificial means.

388. 战争结束后，管理经济事务的智慧无疑将比以往更为重要。我们文明的命运最终将取决于我们如何解决那个时候我们将会面对的经济问题。战争结束之初，我们会非常贫穷，确确实实地贫穷。对大不列颠而言，恢复乃至超过过去的生活水平，实际上会比许多其他国家更为困难。如果我们采取明智的行动，通过艰苦工作，将相当大的精力投入到工业设备及组织体系的全面改造和更新之中，不出几年，恢复甚至超过我们曾经达到过的水平应该没有什么问题。然而，实现这个愿望的前提是：我们必

388. There is little doubt that after the war wisdom in the management of our economic affairs will be even more important than before and that the fate of our civilisation will ultimately depend on how we solve the economic problems we shall then face. We shall at first be poor, very poor indeed - and the problem of regaining and improving our former standards may in fact prove for Great Britain more difficult than for many other countries. If we act wisely there is little question that by hard work and by devoting a considerable part of our efforts to overhauling and renewing our industrial apparatus and organisation, we shall in the course of a few years be able to return to, and even to surpass, the level we had reached. But this presupposes that we shall be satisfied to consume currently no more than is possible without impairing the task of reconstruction, that no exaggerated hopes create irresistible claims for more than this, and that we regard it as more important to use our resources in the best manner and for the purposes where they contribute most to our well-being than that we should use all our resources somehow.[4] Perhaps no less important is that we should not, by short-sighted attempts to cure poverty by a redistribution instead of by an increase in our income, so depress large classes as to turn them into determined enemies of the existing political order. It should never be forgotten that the one decisive factor in the rise of totalitarianism on the Continent, which is yet absent in this country, is the existence of a large recently dispossessed middle class.

389. 要想避免这种颇具威胁性的命运，我们必须在很大程度上将希望寄托于我们能够重启经济的快速增长；无论起点多么低，它都将不断地推动我们走向更高。实现这一增长的首要条件是，我们所有人都要做好准备，迅速适应一个已经发生巨变的世界；绝不允许为了维持某些特殊群体所习惯的生活水平而妨碍我们为这种适应而做出的努力；我们还必须重新学会将所有资源集中投入到最能让我们所有人变得更富裕的领域。如果我们要恢复并超越过去的水平，我们需要进行的调整将比过去任何类似调整的幅度都更大；只有当我们每个人都准备好服从于这种调整的需要时，我们才能作为有权选择自己生活方式的自由人，度过这个困难时

389. Our hopes of avoiding the fate which threatens must indeed to a large extent rest on the prospect that we can resume rapid economic progress which, however low we may have to start, will continue to carry us upwards; and the main condition for such progress is that we should all be ready to adapt ourselves quickly to a very much changed world, that no considerations for the accustomed standard of particular groups must be allowed to obstruct this adaptation, and that we learn once more to turn all our resources to wherever they contribute most to make us all richer. The adjustments that will be needed if we are to recover and surpass our former standards will be greater than any similar adjustments we had to make in the past; and only if every one of us is ready individually to obey the necessities of this readjustment shall we be able to get through a difficult period as free men who can choose their

[4] This is perhaps the place to emphasise that, however much one may wish a speedy return to a free economy, this cannot mean the removal at one stroke of most of the wartime restrictions. Nothing would discredit the system of free enterprise more than the acute, though probably short-lived, dislocation and instability such an attempt would produce. The problem is at what kind of system we should aim in the process of demobilisation, not whether the war-time system should be transformed into more permanent arrangements by a carefully thought-out policy of gradual relaxation of controls, which may have to extend over several years.

期。让我们尽一切努力为所有人提供统一的基本保障，同时也让我们承认，一旦有了这种基本保障，特殊阶层对特权式保障的一切要求都必须随之终结；利益集团为了维持其特殊生活水平而阻止后来者分享其相对繁荣的一切借口也都必须予以拒绝。 own way of life. Let a uniform minimum be secured to everybody by all means; but let us admit at the same time that with this assurance of a basic minimum all claims for a privileged security of particular classes must lapse, that all excuses disappear for allowing groups to exclude newcomers from sharing their relative prosperity in order to maintain a special standard of their own.

390. “去他的经济学，让我们建设一个像样的世界吧，”这话听起来冠冕堂皇，实际上不负责任。我们这个世界的现状，人人都觉得有一部分物质条件必须得到改善，不是这里就是那里；而我们建设一个像样的世界的唯一机会，是不断提高社会的整体财富水平。到了和平时期，还要大幅降低人们的生活水平，甚至听凭经济发展长期停滞不前，这是现代民主社会最无法承受，甚至可能令其分崩离析的事。

390. It may sound noble to say: damn economics, let us build up a decent world - but it is, in fact, merely irresponsible. With our world as it is, with everyone convinced that the material conditions here or there must be improved, our only chance of building a decent world is that we can continue to improve the general level of wealth. The one thing modern democracy will not bear without cracking is the necessity of a substantial lowering of the standards of living in peace time or even prolonged stationariness of its economic conditions.

391. 有些人承认当前的政治趋势对我们的经济前景构成了严重威胁，也承认这些趋势通过其对经济的影响威胁到我们更高层次的价值，但他们仍然倾向于欺骗自己，以为我们是在为了实现某些理想目标而做出物质牺牲。然而，五十年来，我们滑向集体主义的历程究竟是提高了我们的道德水平还是带来了相反的变化，尚且很难断言。尽管我们习惯性地为自己拥有更为敏感的社会良知而自豪，但在实践中我们根本不清楚，我们的个体行为是否体现了这种良知。从“破”的一面看，对于当下社会秩序中的不公，我们的确比大多数上一代人更加义愤；然而，从“立”的一面看，在真正的道德领域，我们的个体行为应该依据怎样的“积极标准”，以及我们在坚守道德原则以抵制社会机制中的种种权宜之计和迫切压力时应该坚持怎样的严肃态度，那个集体主义运动对我们的影响就要另当别论了。

391. People who admit that present political trends constitute a serious threat to our economic prospects, and through their economic effects endanger much higher values, are yet apt to deceive themselves that we are making material sacrifices to gain ideal ends. It is, however, more than doubtful whether a fifty years’ approach towards collectivism has raised our moral standards, or whether the change has not rather been in the opposite direction. Though we are in the habit of priding ourselves on our more sensitive social conscience, it is by no means clear that this is justified by the practice of our individual conduct. On the negative side, in its indignation about the inequities of the existing social order, our generation probably surpasses most of its predecessors. But the effect of that movement on our positive standards in the proper field of morals, individual conduct, and on the seriousness with which we uphold moral principles against the expediencies and exigencies of social machinery, is a very different matter.

392. 道德领域的诸多问题已经混乱到必须重回根本的地步。我们这一代人很可能会忘记的是：道德不仅必须体现于个体行为当中，而且只存在于个体能够自由地为自己作决定、能够自愿为遵守道德规范而牺牲个人利益的领域。超出个体责任范围之外，既不存在善，也不存在恶；既没有让一个人通过行善体现道德价值的机会，也没让一个人通过牺牲自己的欲望去做自己认为正确的事从而证明其信念的机会。只有当我们对自己的利益负责，并且可以按照自己的选择牺牲自己的利益的时候，我们的决定才具有道德价值。我们无权以牺牲他人为代价成就自己的无私，而别无选择时的无私也算不上什么善行。在一个社会中，被迫在每件事上行善的人无权获得称赞。正如弥尔顿所说，“如果一个成熟之人所施的每一善行，或每一恶行，都是别人用微薄的口粮，或以命令、强迫的方式让他做的，那么，美德岂非徒有虚名，善行又有什么值得赞扬，冷静、正直和节制又有什么分量可言呢？”

392. Issues in this field have become so confused that it is necessary to go back to fundamentals. What our generation is in danger of forgetting is not only that morals are of necessity a phenomenon of individual conduct, but also that they can exist only in the sphere in which the individual is free to decide for himself and called upon voluntarily to sacrifice personal advantage to the observance of a moral rule. Outside the sphere of individual responsibility there is neither goodness nor badness, neither opportunity for moral merit nor the chance of proving one’s conviction by sacrificing one’s desires to what one thinks right. Only where we ourselves are responsible for our own interests and are free to sacrifice them, has our decision moral value. We are neither entitled to be unselfish at someone else’s expense, nor is there any merit in being unselfish if we have no choice. The members of a society who in all respects are made to do the good thing have no title to praise. As Milton said: “If every action which is good or evil in a man of ripe years were under pittance and prescription and compulsion, what were virtue but a name, what praise should then be due to well-doing, what gramercy to be sober, just, or continent?”

393. 在物质现实迫使我们作出选择的领域支配自己行为的自由，以及依照我们自己的良知安排自己生活的责任，这二者犹如空气，惟有在这样的空气中，道德意识才能成长，道德价值才能在个体每日的自由决策中得以重塑。只对自己的良知而非某个上级承担的责任；履行非经强迫产生的义务的觉悟；以及在所珍视之物中做出取舍并承担其后果的必然，所有这些，才是让一种道德能够被称为道德的核心所在。

393. Freedom to order our own conduct in the sphere where material circumstances force a choice upon us, and responsibility for the arrangement of our own life according to our own conscience, is the air in which alone moral sense grows and in which moral values are daily re-created in the free decision of the individual. Responsibility, not to a superior, but to one’s conscience, the awareness of a duty not exacted by compulsion, the necessity to decide which of the things one values are to be sacrificed to others, and to bear the consequences of one’s own decision, are the very essence of any morals which deserve the name.

394. 在个人行为这个领域，集体主义所造成的影响几乎完全是破坏性的。这既不可避免也不

394. That in this sphere of individual conduct the effect of collectivism has been almost entirely destructive, is both inevitable and undeniable. A movement whose main promise is the relief from responsibility[6] cannot but be anti-moral in its effect, however lofty the ideals to which it owes its birth. Can there be much doubt that the feeling of personal obligation to remedy inequities, where our individual power permits, has been weakened rather than strengthened, that both the willingness to bear responsibility and the consciousness that it is our own individual duty to know how to choose have been perceptibly impaired? There is all the difference between demanding that a desirable state of affairs should be brought about by the authorities or even being willing to submit provided everyone else is made to do the same, and the readiness to do what one thinks right oneself at the sacrifice of one’s own desires and perhaps in the face of hostile public opinion. There is much to suggest that we have in fact become more tolerant towards particular abuses, and much more indifferent to inequities in individual cases, since we have fixed our eyes on an entirely different system in which the state will set everything right. It may even be, as has been suggested, that the passion for collective action is a way in which we now without compunction collectively indulge in that selfishness which as individuals we had learnt a little to restrain.

395. 的确，独立自主、自力更生、甘愿承担风险、即使多数人反对仍然坚持自己的信念、与邻人在自愿基础上合作的意愿，这些如今已经不那么受人尊重，也很少被人实践的美德，在本质上是个人主义社会赖以运作的基石。集体

395. It is true that the virtues which are less esteemed and practised now - independence, self-reliance, and the willingness to bear risks, the readiness to back one’s own conviction against a majority, and the willingness to voluntary co-operation with one’s neighbours - are essentially those on which

[5] 社会主义越接近极权主义，这一点就被表达得越清楚。在英国，它在理查德·阿克兰爵士提出的英国社会主义最新也最具极权色彩的形式，也就是“共同财富”运动纲领中得到了最明确的说明。他所承诺的新秩序的主要特征是，社会将“对个人说：‘你不必再操心谋生的事了’。”其结果当然是，“必须由整个社会来决定，是否可以利用我们的资源给一个人一份工作，并且决定他应当如何、何时、以何种方式工作”；并且社会还必须“为那些偷懒者设立一些条件还算说得过去的劳动营”。既然如此，当阿克兰爵士说，他发现“希特勒只不过误打误撞地看清、并且被迫利用了人类终将面对的那个未来的很小一部分，或者，有人会说是很独特的一部分”时，我们还会感到惊讶吗？（理查德·阿克兰爵士：《前进》，1941年，第127、126、135、32页）

[6] This becomes more and more clearly expressed as socialism approaches totalitarianism, and in this country is most explicitly stated in the programme of that latest and most totalitarian form of English socialism, Sir Richard Acland’s “Common-Wealth” movement. The main feature of the new order he promises is that in it the community will “say to the individual ‘Don’t you bother about the business of getting your own living’.” In consequence, of course, “it must be the community as a whole which must decide whether or not a man shall be employed upon our resources, and how and when and in what manner he shall work”, and that the community will have “to run camps for shirkers in very tolerable conditions”. Is it surprising that the author discovers that Hitler “has stumbled across (or has needed to make use of) a small part, or perhaps one should say one particular aspect of, what will ultimately be required of humanity”? (Sir Richard Acland, Bt., The Forward March, 1941, pp. 127, 126, 135, and 32).

主义拿不出任何东西来取代这些美德，而且，在它破坏了这些美德之后，除了要求人们服从，以及强迫个体做集体认为善的事情之外，没有提供任何东西来填补它们留下的空白。个体需要做出的道德选择日益减少，渐渐只剩下参加定期举行的选举了。然而，在投票选举时，他的道德观念并不会得到检验；他不需要不断重申和证明自己对不同价值之间重要性的看法，更不需要通过牺牲较低价值追求更高价值，以证明其对自己道德观念的公开表达是真诚的。

the working of an individualist society rests. Collectivism has nothing to put in their place, and in so far as it has already destroyed them it has left a void filled by nothing but the demand for obedience and the compulsion of the individual to do what is collectively decided to be good. The periodical election of representatives, to which the moral choice of the individual tends to be more and more reduced, is not an occasion on which his moral values are tested or where he has constantly to reassert and prove the order of his values, and to testify to the sincerity of his profession by the sacrifice of those of his values he rates lower to those he puts higher.

396. 既然集体政治行为的道德标准来源于个体自然形成的行为准则，那么，如果个体行为的准则降低了，社会行为的准则居然能够提高，那实在是会令人感到匪夷所思。许多巨大的变化已然发生，这已经十分明显。当然，每一代人都会将某些价值看得比前人更高，将另一些价值看得比前人更低，然而，究竟哪些目标在当下已经处于较低的地位了？又有哪些价值，有人警告我们说，一旦与其他价值发生冲突，或许就得给对方让路了？在时髦的作家和演说家们为我们描绘的未来图景中，那些根植于我们父辈的梦想和希望中的价值，哪些已经变得不那么重要了呢？可以肯定，变得不重要的，不是舒适的物质生活，不是较高的生活水平，也不是某种社会地位的保障。在那些作家和演说家中，有哪一个敢于让大众为了某种理想目标而牺牲他们的物质追求呢？事实上，他们完全不敢，相反，他们愈发频繁地教导我们，自由与独立、真理与正直、和平与民主，以及把人当作人来尊重而不只是把人当作某个组织的成员来对待，所有这一切，都应当被当作“十九世纪的幻觉”来看待；可是这些东西难道不都是真正的道德价值吗？今后制定任何计划时都必须予以尊重的、每一位带来变化的计划者都不

396. As the rules of conduct evolved by individuals are the source from which collective political action derives what moral standards it possesses, it would indeed be surprising if the relaxation of the standards of individual conduct were accompanied by a raising of the standards of social action. That there have been great changes is clear. Every generation, of course, puts some values higher and some lower than its predecessors. Which, however, are the aims which take a lower place now, which are the values which we are now warned may have to give way if they come into conflict with others? Which kind of values figure less prominently in the picture of the future held out to us by the popular writers and speakers than they did in the dreams and hopes of our fathers? It is certainly not material comfort, certainly not a rise in our standard of living or the assurance of a certain status in society which ranks lower. Is there a popular writer or speaker who dares to suggest to the masses that they might have to make sacrifices of their material prospects for the enhancement of an ideal end? Is it not, in fact, entirely the other way round? Are not the things which we are more and more frequently taught to regard as “nineteenth-century illusions” all moral values - liberty and independence, truth and intellectual honesty, peace and democracy, and the respect for the individual qua man instead of merely as the member of an organised group? What are the fixed poles now which are regarded as sacrosanct, which no reformer dare touch, since they are treated as the immutable boundaries which must be respected in any plan for the future? They are no longer the liberty of the individual, his freedom of movement, and scarcely that of speech. They are the protected standards of this or that group, their “right” to exclude others from providing their fellow-men with what they need. Discrimination between members and non-members of closed groups, not to speak of nationals of different countries, is accepted more and more as a matter of course; injustices inflicted on individuals by government action in the interest of a group are disregarded with an indifference hardly distinguishable from callousness; and the grossest violations of the most elementary rights of the individual, such as are involved in the compulsory transfer of populations, are more and more often countenanced even by supposed liberals. All this surely indicates that our moral sense has been blunted rather than sharpened. When we are reminded, as more and more frequently happens, that one cannot make omelettes without breaking eggs, the eggs which are broken are almost all of the kind which a generation or two ago were regarded as the essential bases of civilised life. And what atrocities committed by powers with whose professed principles they sympathise have not been readily condoned by many of our so-called “liberals”?

397. 当下，随着集体主义的发展，道德观念也在发生着变化，其中有一个方面的变化在当下尤其值得我们认真思考。那些越来越不受尊重、并因此越来越罕见的美德，恰恰是英国人过去曾经有理由引以为傲的、也是世人普遍承认被他们坚持得最好的美德。除了瑞士、荷兰等少数小国的国民之外，英国人比大多数其他民族都更多地展现出这些美德：独立自主、自力更生、个体的主动性、对本地事务的责任感、成功地依靠自愿活动处理社会问题、不干涉邻里、对异见和奇特事物的宽容、对风俗和传统的尊重，以及对权力和权威的适度警惕。英国的力量、英国的性格以及英国的成就，在

397. There is one aspect of the change in moral values brought about by the advance of collectivism which at the present time provides special food for thought. It is that the virtues which are held less and less in esteem and which consequently become rarer are precisely those on which the British people justly prided themselves and in which they were generally recognised to excel. The virtues possessed by the British people possessed in a higher degree than most other people, excepting only a few of the smaller nations, like the Swiss and the Dutch, were independence and self-reliance, individual initiative and local responsibility, the successful reliance on voluntary activity, non-interference with one’s neighbour and tolerance of the different and queer, respect for custom and tradition, and a healthy suspicion of power and authority. British strength, British character, and British achievements are to a great extent the result of a cultivation of the spontaneous. But almost all the traditions and institutions in which British moral genius has found its most characteristic expression, and which in turn have moulded the national character and the whole moral climate of England, are those which the progress of collectivism and its inherently centralistic tendencies are progressively destroying.

398. 有时候，一个人来自异国的背景能够帮助他更清楚地认识到，一个民族道德风貌中那些特别的优点是在怎样的环境下形成的。作为一个无论法律如何认定却始终是一名外国人的人，他或许可以这么说：英国人曾经奉献给全世界的最宝贵的东西，如今却在英国本土遭到如此轻视，这实在是我们这个时代最令人沮丧的景象之一。英国人或许不太知道他们与其他大多数民族有多么不同。这种不同在于，所有英国人，无论什么党派，或多或少都持有鲜明的自由主义的观念。与多数其他民族不同，就在二十年前，几乎所有英国人还都是自由主义者，无论他们的观点与政治党派主张的自由主义有多大的区别。即使到了今天，如果英国的一名保守主义者或社会主义者出国旅行，他会与自由主义者一样，发现自己在某个纳粹或其他极权主义者的圈子中找不到什么共鸣，即使那些圈子里流行着卡莱尔或迪斯雷利，韦伯夫妇或者赫伯特·乔治·威尔斯的思想和著作；可是，如果他遇到一个思想的孤岛，孤岛上依然延续着麦考利、格莱斯顿，约翰·斯图亚特·密尔或约翰·莫利的传统，他反倒会发现几个与自己“说着共同语言”的、让他感到亲切的灵魂，尽管他本人或许并不赞同这些人物各自主张的那些理想。

398. A foreign background is sometimes helpful in seeing more clearly to what circumstances the peculiar excellencies of the moral atmosphere of a nation are due. And if one who, whatever the law may say, must for ever remain a foreigner, may be allowed to say so, it is one of the most disheartening spectacles of our time to see to what extent some of the most precious things which England has given to the world are now held in contempt in England herself. The English hardly know to what degree they differ from most other people in that they all, irrespective of party, hold to a greater or less extent the ideas which in their most pronounced form are known as liberalism. Compared with most other peoples only twenty years ago almost all Englishmen were liberals - however much they may have differed from party Liberalism. And even to-day the English conservative or socialist, no less than the liberal, if he travels abroad, though he may find the ideas and writings of Carlyle or Disraeli, of the Webbs or H. G. Wells, exceedingly popular in circles with which he has little in common, among Nazis and other totalitarians, if he finds an intellectual island where the tradition of Macaulay and Gladstone, of J. S. Mill or John Morley lives, will find kindred spirits who “ talk the same language ”’ as himself - however much he himself may differ from the ideals for which these men specifically stood.

399. 最能体现出英国人对自身文明的独特价值失去信心的、最能对我们实现紧迫且重大的目标造成瘫痪性影响的，莫过于大部分英国宣传工作的笨拙与无效。以本民族为外族所共知的典型价值及其显著特征为傲，是对外宣传取得成功的首要条件。英国所做的宣传之所以无效，主要是因为那些指导宣传的人似乎已经不再相信英国文明的独特价值，或者完全不了解英国文明与其他民族之间的主要区别。事实上，左翼知识分子长期以来一直将外来思想奉若神明，以至于几乎失去了欣赏英国的特有制度和传统的能力。当然，这些社会主义者不会承认，他们引以为傲的那些道德价值在很大程度上正是他们打算摧毁的制度的产物。不幸的是，抱有这种心态的人还不只那些公开的社会主义者。尽管我们还是要寄希望于那些不太发声却为数众多的、有教养的英国人尚不至于抱有这种心态，但从当前的政治讨论和宣传中所表达出的观点来判断，那种“说着莎士比亚的语言”，“秉持弥尔顿的信仰与道德”的英国人已经基本绝迹了。[7]

399. Nowhere is the loss of the belief in the specific values of British civilisation more manifest, and nowhere has it had a more paralysing effect on the pursuit of our immediate great purpose than in the fatuous ineffectiveness of most British propaganda. The first prerequisite for success in propaganda directed to other people is the proud acknowledgment of the characteristic values and distinguishing traits for which the country attempting it is known to the other peoples. The main cause of the ineffectiveness of British propaganda is that those directing it seem to have lost their own belief in the peculiar values of English civilisation or to be completely ignorant of the main points on which it differs from that of other people. The Left intelligentsia, indeed, have so long worshipped foreign gods that they seem to have become almost incapable of seeing any good in the characteristic English institutions and traditions. That the moral values on which most of them pride themselves are largely the product of the institutions they are out to destroy, these socialists cannot, of course, admit. And this attitude is unfortunately not confined to avowed socialists. Though one must hope that this is not true of the less vocal but more numerous cultivated Englishmen, if one were to judge by the ideas which find expression in current political discussion and propaganda the Englishmen who not only “the language speak that Shakespeare spake”, but also “the faith and morals hold that Milton held” seem to have almost vanished. [8]

400. 然而，如果有人相信，基于这种心态开展的宣传工作还能对我们的敌人，尤其是对德国人产生预期效果，那将是个致命的错误。德国人对我们英国的了解，即便不算十分深入，却也足以让他们知道英国社会生活中特有的传统

400. To believe, however, that the kind of propaganda produced by this attitude can have the desired effect on our enemies and particularly the Germans, is a fatal blunder. The Germans know this country, not well, perhaps, yet sufficiently to know what are the characteristic traditional values of British life, and what for the past two or three

[7] 本章的主题，已经让我们多次提及弥尔顿，但我仍然很难抵制住诱惑，要在这里再加一句他的引文，这是一句人们非常熟悉的引文，尽管现在看来，除了我这个外国人，已经没有人敢引用了：“让英格兰莫忘她的使命，教万国如何生活。”我们这一代人已经看到了许多诋毁弥尔顿的美国人和英国人。或许，颇具意义的是，他们中的第一个就是在战争期间在意大利发表广播演说的埃兹拉·庞德先生。

[8] Though the subject of this chapter has already invited more than one reference to Milton, it is difficult to resist the temptation to add here one more quotation, a very familiar one, though one, it seems, which nowadays nobody but a foreigner would dare to cite: “Let not England forget her precedence of teaching nations how to live.” It is, perhaps, significant that our generation has seen a host of American and English detractors of Milton - and that the first of them, Mr. Ezra Pound, was during this war broadcasting from Italy!

价值是什么，以及在过去的两三代人中，是什么让两国的思想渐行渐远的。如果我们想让他们相信我们的诚意，相信我们要在他们走过的道路之外，给他们一个真正的替代方案，我们就不能向他们的思想体系做出妥协。我们不能用国家社会主义、“现实政治”、“科学”计划或者法团主义等陈腐的、从他们父辈那里抄来的观念去哄骗他们。我们不能跟着他们在通往极权主义的道路上走到一半，再反过来说服他们不要再向前走了。如果我们自己都放弃了追求个体自由和个体幸福的最高理想，如果我们自己都含蓄地承认自己的文明不值得留存，并且承认除了德国人走过的路之外，再也没有哪条更好的路可走，那么我们英国人就真的什么也拿不出来了。对德国人来说，所有这些只不过是对他们迟来的承认，承认英国人一直是错误的，而他们德国人却正在一条通往美好新世界的道路上领跑，无论其过渡阶段多么令人不安。德国人知道，他们理解的英国传统和他们自己的新理想是根本对立、不可调和的人生观。他们或许能被说服他们选择的道路是错误的，但什么也不能让他们相信，在德国的道路上，英国人会是更好的向导。 generations has increasingly separated the minds of the two countries. If we wish to convince them, not only of our sincerity, but also that we have to offer a real alternative to the way they have gone, it will not be by concessions to their system of thought. We shall not delude them with a stale reproduction of the ideas of their fathers which we have borrowed from them - be it state-socialism, “Real-politik”, “scientific” planning, or corporativism. We shall not persuade them by following them half the way which leads to totalitarianism. If the English themselves abandon the supreme ideal of the freedom and happiness of the individual, if they implicitly admit that their civilisation is not worth preserving, and that they know nothing better than to follow the path along which the Germans have led, they have indeed nothing to offer. To the Germans all these are merely belated admissions that the British have been wrong all the way through, and that they themselves are leading the way to a new and better world, however appalling the period of transition may be. The Germans know that what they still regard as the British tradition and their own new ideals are fundamentally opposed and irreconcilable views of life. They might be convinced that the way they have chosen was wrong - but nothing will ever convince them that the British will be better guides on the German path.

401. 这种类型的宣传，尤其不能吸引未来重建欧洲时我们必将依靠的德国民众，因为他们的价值观与我们最为接近。他们的经历已经让他们变得更加睿智也更加忧郁：他们已经懂得，无论是良好的意愿，还是高效的规划，都无法让他们在个人自由和个体责任都被摧毁的制度中保持体面。汲取了这一教训的德国和意大利民众都知道，他们最想要的，不是超大规模规划的宏伟计划，而是免于巨兽般庞大政府伤害的保证，是和平、自由地重建自己小小世界的机会。如果我们能够指望得到一些敌国民众的支持，那将不是因为他们相信听命于英国人比听

401. Least of all will that type of propaganda appeal to those Germans on whose help we must ultimately count in rebuilding Europe because their values are nearest to our own. For experience has made them wiser and sadder men: they have learnt that neither good intentions nor efficiency of organisation can preserve decency in a system in which personal freedom and individual responsibility are destroyed. What the German and Italian who have learned the lesson above all want is protection against the monster state - not grandiose schemes for organisation on a colossal scale, but opportunity peacefully and in freedom to build up once more his own little world. It is not because they believe that to be ordered about by the British is preferable to being ordered about by the

命于普鲁士人更可取，而是因为他们相信，在一个英国理想取得胜利的世界里，对他们的指使不再那么多，他们可以不被打扰，在和平之中做自己想做的事。

Prussians, but because they believe that in a world where British ideals have been victorious they will be less ordered about and left in peace to pursue their own concerns, that we can hope for support from some of the nationals of the enemy countries.

402. 要想在意识形态的斗争中取得胜利，争取到敌国的正直民众，我们首先必须重新恢复对我们曾经坚守的传统价值的信心，必须具备道德勇气坚定地捍卫遭到敌人攻击的理想。要想赢得信任和支持，我们不能依靠羞愧的道歉，也不能依靠迅速改革的保证，更不能依靠某种解释，说我们正在寻求英国传统价值和新极权主义思想之间的折中方案。我们要依靠的也不是我们最近在社会制度方面取得的进步，因为在两种截然相反的生活方式的根本差异面前，这些进步显得微不足道。我们真正应该依靠的，是对传统坚定不移的信念，正是这些传统，让我们这个国家变成了一个由自由、正直、宽容、独立的人民组成的国家。

402. If we are to succeed in the war of ideologies and to win over the decent elements in the enemy countries, we must first of all regain the belief in the traditional values for which this country stood in the past, and must have the moral courage stoutly to defend the ideals which our enemies attack. Not by shamefaced apologies and by assurances that we are rapidly reforming, not by explaining that we are seeking some compromise between the traditional English values and the new totalitarian ideas, shall we win confidence and support. Not the latest improvements we may have effected in our social institutions, which count but little compared with the basic differences of two opposed ways of life, but our unwavering faith in those traditions which have made this country a country of free and upright, tolerant and independent people, is the thing that counts.

对民主的节制，以联邦制最为有效且最为适宜……通过划分治权，并仅将某些经过界定的权力授予政府，联邦制得以限制并约束治权。这种方法不仅能够制约多数派，也是制约全体国民权力的唯一手段。

阿克顿勋爵

403. 国际关系领域最早抛弃了十九世纪自由主义，而世界为此付出的代价也以这一领域最为惨重。我们本应从过去的经验中汲取更多教训，可我们实际上学到的却很少。尤其是在这个领域，人们当前对该做什么、能做什么的看法，极有可能产生事与愿违的结果。

404. 人们从最近的历史中缓慢且渐进地认识到的一个教训是：在国家层面独立实施的许多类型的经济计划，即使从单纯的经济学角度来看，其总体效果也必然是有害的，更重要的是，它还会引发严重的国际摩擦。我们几乎不需要再进一步强调，只要各国仍然可以各行其是，采取符合本国眼前利益的政策，而不考虑其可能对他国造成的伤害，那么，国际秩序或持久和平都将几无希望可言。实际上，多数类型的经济计划都只可以在计划机构能够有效地将一切外部影响都拒之门外时才能实施，因此这些计划所带来的结果，必然是针对人员和商品的跨境流动设置层层叠加的限制。

405. 世界和平所面临的不甚明显却绝非虚假的威胁，源自各国国内被人为促进的全民经济一体化，以及因为在国家层面开展经济计划而产生的、彼此存在利益冲突的新的利益阵营。让国界成为生活水平巨大差异的分界线，让一个

Chapter XV: THE PROSPECTS OF INTERNATIONAL ORDER

Of all checks on democracy, federation has been the most efficacious and the most congenial.... The federal system limits and restrains the sovereign power by dividing it and by assigning to Government only certain defined rights. It is the only method of curbing not only the majority but the power of the whole people.

Lord Acton

403. IN no other field has the world yet paid so dearly for the abandonment of nineteenth-century liberalism as in the field where the retreat began: in international relations. Yet only a small part of the lesson which experience ought to have taught us has been learnt. Perhaps even more than elsewhere current notions of what is desirable and practicable are here still of a kind which may well produce the opposite of what they promise.

404. The part of the lesson of the recent past which is slowly and gradually being appreciated is that many kinds of economic planning, conducted independently on a national scale, are bound in their aggregate effect to be harmful even from a purely economic point of view, and in addition to produce serious international friction. That there is little hope of international order or lasting peace so long as every country is free to employ whatever measures it thinks desirable in its own immediate interest, however damaging they may be to others, needs little emphasis now. Many kinds of economic planning are indeed practicable only if the planning authority can effectively shut out all extraneous influences; the result of such planning is therefore inevitably the piling up of restrictions on the movements of men and goods.

405. Less obvious but by no means less real are the dangers to peace arising out of the artificially fostered economic solidarity of all the inhabitants of any one country, and from the new blocks of opposed interests created by planning on a national scale. It is neither necessary nor desirable that that national boundaries should mark sharp differences in standards of living, that membership of a national group should entitle to a share in a cake altogether different from that in which members of other groups share. If the resources of different nations are treated as exclusive properties of these nations as wholes, if international economic relations, instead of being relations between individuals, become increasingly relations between whole nations organised as trading bodies, they inevitably become the source or friction and envy between whole nations. It.is one of the most fatal illusions that by substituting negotiations between states or organised groups for competition for markets or for raw materials, international friction would be reduced. This would merely put a contest of force in the place of what can only metaphorically be called the “struggle” of competition, and transfer to powerful and armed states, subject to no superior law, the rivalries which between individuals had to be decided without recourse to force. Economic transactions between national bodies who are at the same time the supreme judges of their own behaviour, who bow to no superior law, and whose representatives cannot be bound by any considerations but the immediate interest of their respective nations, must end in clashes of power.[2]

406. 胜利之后，如果我们只是任由这种1939年之前就已经十分明显的趋势延续下去，或许我们真的会发现，我们打败了德国纳粹，不过是创造了一个由许多“纳粹”政权组成的世界。它们虽然在细节上有所不同，但无一例外都将是极权主义和民族主义的，并且彼此之间冲突不断。到时候，人们还是会像现在的某些人一样，将德国人视为和平的破坏者，[3]那只不过是因为他们率先走上了所有其他人最终都难免步

406. If we were to make no better use of victory than to countenance existing trends in this direction, only too visible before 1939, we might indeed find that we have defeated National-Socialism merely to create a world of many national socialisms, differing in detail, but all equally totalitarian, nationalistic, and in recurrent conflict with each other. The Germans would appear as the disturbers of peace, as they already do to some people,[4] merely because they were the first to take the path along which all the others were ultimately to follow.

407. 对这些危险前景至少有一点意识的人常常会得出这样一个结论：经济计划必须藉由“国际”的形式，以某种超国家的权力机构来实施。不过，尽管这个建议可以避免在国家层面推行计划经济所带来的某些显而易见的风险，但推崇这种颇具雄心的想法的人似乎并不了解，他们的建议将会造成更大的困难和危险。人为管理经济事务在国际层面所引发的问题，必然远比在国家层面更为复杂和严峻。受共同计划约束的人群在标准和价值观方面的相似性越低，计划与自由之间的冲突就会越尖锐。计划一个家庭的经济生活几乎没有什么难度，计划一个小型社区的经济生活困难也不大；但是随着计划规模的增加，人们在优先实现哪些目标这类问题上的共识就会减少，诉诸武力和强制措施的必要性则会增加。在一个小型社区里，人们在大量的事务中都能建立相同的价值标准，能够对重大事项的相对重要性形成一致的看法。可是，随着我们将计划之网撒向更广大的范围，人们能够达成这样共识的事项就变少，诉诸武力和胁迫的必要就会增加。

407. Those who at least partly realise these dangers usually draw the conclusion that economic planning must be done “internationally”, i.e. by some super-national authority. But though this would avert some of the obvious dangers raised by planning on a national scale, it seems that those who advocate such ambitious schemes have little conception of the even greater difficulties and dangers which their proposals create. The problems raised by a conscious direction of economic affairs on a national scale inevitably assume even greater dimensions when the same is attempted internationally. The conflict between planning and freedom cannot but become more serious as the similarity of standards and values among those submitted to a unitary plan diminishes. There need be little difficulty in planning the economic life of a family, comparatively little in a small community. But as the scale increases, the amount of agreement on the order of ends decreases and the necessity to rely on force and compulsion grows. In a small community common views on the relative importance of the main tasks, agreed standards of value, will exist on a great many subjects. But their number will become less and less the wider we throw the net: and as there is less community of views, the necessity to rely on force and coercion increases.

408. 说服一个国家的国民做出牺牲并不难，只要是为了支持“他们的”钢铁业，“他们的”农业，或者为了保证他们的国家没有一个人的生活下降到在某一水平线以下。只要是那些我们熟悉其生活习惯和思维方式的人，那些我们能设身处地地想象他们的样子、对自己的社会地位有着与我们有大致相同看法的人；只要是为了调整他们的收入分配或者改善他们的劳动条件，为了帮助他们，我们往往愿意做出一些牺牲。但是，只要想象一下哪怕在西欧这样一个地区开展跨国计划经济可能引起的问题，人们就不

408. The people of any one country may easily be persuaded to make a sacrifice in order to assist what they regard as “their” iron industry or “their” agriculture, or in order that in their country nobody should sink below a certain level. So long as it is a question of helping people whose habits of life and ways of thinking are familiar to us, of correcting the distribution of incomes among, or the working conditions of, people we can well imagine and whose views on their appropriate status are fundamentally similar to ours, we are usually ready to make some sacrifices. But one has only to visualise the problems raised by economic planning of even an area such as Western Europe to see that the moral bases for such an undertaking

are completely lacking. Who imagines that there exist any common ideals of distributive justice such as will make the Norwegian fisherman consent to forgo the prospect of economic improvement in order to help his Portuguese fellow, or the Dutch worker to pay more for his bicycle to help the Coventry mechanic, or the French peasant to pay more taxes to assist the industrialisation of Italy?

409. 如果说大多数人都不愿意把这个问题当做困难看待，那主要是因为他们有意无意地假设为别人解决问题的人是他们自己，并且深信自己有能力做到公平、公正。对英国人来说，只有当有人向他们指出，他们在跨国计划机构中或许只是少数派，并且大不列颠未来经济发展的大局或许会由一个英国人不在其中的多数派来决定时，他们才能意识到这种做法到底意味着什么。一个跨国计划机构，无论它是如何以民主的方式产生的，假如它有权决定西班牙钢铁业应优先于英国南威尔士的钢铁业发展，光学工业应集中放在德国而不是英国，或者英国只能进口精炼汽油，且所有与精炼有关的产业都要留给生产国，试问能有几个英国人会心甘情愿地服从这个机构的决定呢?

409. If most people are not willing to see the difficulty this is mainly because, consciously or unconsciously, they assume that it will be they who will settle these questions for the others, and because they are convinced of their own capacity to do this justly and equitably. English people, perhaps even more than others, begin to realise what such schemes mean only when it is presented to them that they might be a minority in the planning authority, and that the main lines of the future economic development of Great Britain might be determined by a non-British majority. How many people in this country would be prepared to submit to the decision of an international authority, however democratically constituted, which had power to decree that the development of the Spanish iron industry must have precedence over similar development in South Wales, that the optical industry had better be concentrated in Germany to the exclusion of Great Britain, or that only fully refined petrol should be imported to Great Britain and all the industries connected with refining reserved for the producer countries?

410. 对一个由多个不同国家构成的广大地区来说，单凭想象就以为能够用民主程序管理或者计划它的经济生活，这反映出持有这种想法的人对计划制度可能引起的问题毫无认识。与在一国范围之内实施计划经济相比，实施跨国计划制度只能意味着更加赤裸裸的暴力统治，而少数人按计划者的好恶把生活标准和就业方式强加给其余所有人的情况也会更甚。可以断言，德国人一直追求的那种广域经济，只有在

410. To imagine that the economic life of a vast area comprising many different people can be directed or planned by democratic procedure betrays a complete lack of awareness of the problems such planning would raise. Planning on an international scale, even more than is true on a national scale, cannot be anything but a naked rule of force, an imposition by a small group on all the rest of that sort of standard and employment which the planners think suitable for the rest. If anything is certain it is that Grossraumwirtschaft of the kind at which the Germans have been aiming can be successfully realised only by a master race, a Herrenvolk, ruthlessly imposing its aims and ideas on the rest. It is a mistake to regard the brutality and the disregard of all the wishes and ideals of the smaller people shown by the Germans simply as a sign of their special wickedness; it is the nature of the task they have assumed which makes these things inevitable. To undertake the direction of the economic life of people with widely divergent ideals and values is to assume responsibilities which commit one to the use of force; it is to assume a position where the best intentions cannot prevent one from being forced to act in a way which to some of those affected must appear highly immoral.[6]

411. 即使我们假定，这个拥有统治权力的国家有着我们所能想象得到的最崇高的理想和最无私的胸怀，上述情形也不会改变。然而，它能够做到无私的可能性该是多么小；而它所受到的诱惑又该是多么大啊！我相信，若论正派和公平的水准，尤其在国际事务方面，英国与任何国家相比都有过之而无不及。然而，即便在当下，我们仍然能听到有些英国人在主张，必须抓住胜利的机会，要创造条件，让英国工业能够充分利用其在战争期间制造的特殊装备；要引导欧洲的重建，使其符合英国工业发展的特殊要求，并且让这个国家的每个人都有称心如意的工作。真正令人不安的，不在于这些建议竟然能够被提了出来；真正令人不安的，在于它们被正派的人以一种完全无辜的态度、理所当然地提了出来，他们一点也没有意识到，为了达到这些目的而使用武力，意味着对道德

411. This is true even if we assume the dominant power to be as idealistic and unselfish as we can possibly conceive. But how small is the likelihood that it will be unselfish, and how great are the temptations! I believe the standards of decency and fairness, particularly with regard to international affairs, to be as high, if not higher, in this than in any other country. Yet even now we can hear people arguing that victory must be used to create conditions in. which British industry will be able to utilise to the full the particular equipment which it has built up during the war, that the reconstruction of Europe must be so directed as to fit in with the special requirements of the industries of this country, and to secure to everybody in this country the kind of employment for which he thinks himself most fit. The alarming thing about these suggestions is not that they are made, but that they are made in all innocence and regarded as a matter of course by decent people who are completely unaware of the moral enormity which the use of

[6] The experience in the colonial sphere, of this country as much as of any other, has amply shown that even the mild forms of planning which we know as colonial development involve, whether we wish it or not, the imposition of certain values and ideals on those whom we try to assist. It is, indeed, this experience which has made even the most internationally minded of colonial experts so very sceptical of the practicability of an “international” administration of colonies.

的践踏将达到怎样的程度。[7]

412. 以为只要把决策权交给“人民”，各国劳动阶层的共同利益就能轻易战胜存在于各国统治阶层之间的分歧，这是一种致命的错觉，而正是这种错觉，起到了一种最强力的催化剂的作用，让人们相信通过民主手段可以集中统一管理多个国家的经济生活。我们有充分理由预期，随着跨国计划的实施，当前任何一个国家的内部经济政策在其国内引起的经济利益冲突，最终都会以更激烈的形式表现为各国之间只能用武力解决的利益冲突。在跨国计划机构必须做出决定的各种问题上，不同国家的劳动阶层在利益和观点上也必然会产生很多分歧；与在一国之内相比，公平解决不同国家的劳动阶层之间的冲突更加缺乏能够被普遍接受的基础。对于一名贫穷国家的工人来说，他那些境遇更好的异国同行打着为了他的利益着想的旗号，要求通过最低工资立法来对抗他的低工资竞争，但实际上，这种立法无非是剥夺了他靠着低于其它国家同行的工资，努力克服天然劣势、改善自身处境的唯一的机会。另外，为了获得拥有更先进机器的异国工人五小时劳动所生产的产品，他却必须付出自己十小时劳动的成果，这一现实在他看来，与任何资本家的“剥削”并无二致。

force for such purposes involves.[8]

412. Perhaps the most powerful agent in creating the belief in the possibility of a single central direction by democratic means of the economic life of many different peoples is the fatal delusion that if the decisions were left to the “people”, the community of interest of the working classes would readily overcome the differences which exist between the ruling classes. There is every reason to expect that with world planning the clash of economic interests which arises now about the economic policy of any one nation would in fact appear in even fiercer form as a clash of interests between whole peoples which could be decided only by force. On the questions which an international planning authority would have to decide, the interests and opinions of the working classes of the different people will inevitably be as much in conflict, and there will be even less of a commonly accepted basis for an equitable settlement, than there is with respect to different classes in any one country. To the worker in a poor country the demand of his more fortunate colleague to be protected against his low wage competition by minimum wage legislation, supposedly in his interest, is frequently no more than a means to deprive him of his only chance to better his conditions by overcoming natural disadvantages by working at wages lower than his fellows in other countries. And to him the fact that he has to give the product of ten hours of his labour for the product of five hours of the man elsewhere who is better equipped with machinery is as much “exploitation” as that practised by any capitalist.

[8] If anyone should still fail to see the difficulties, or cherish the belief that with a little good will they can all be overcome, it will help if he tries to follow the implications of central direction of economic activity applied on a world scale. Can there be much doubt that this would mean a more or less conscious endeavour to secure the dominance of the white man, and would rightly be so regarded by all other races? Till I find a sane person who seriously believes that the European races will voluntarily submit to their standard of life and rate of progress being determined by a World Parliament, I cannot regard such plans as anything but absurd. But this does unfortunately not preclude that particular measures, which could be justified only if the principle of world direction were a feasible ideal, are seriously advocated.

414. 当前，人们正糊里糊涂地讨论着大量“使各国人民生活水平趋于平等”的计划。详细考察其中的某一种，并了解它究竟涉及什么内容，我们将会受到很大的启发。眼下，多瑙河盆地和东南欧地区尤其成了计划者特别热衷于制定这类计划的地区。毫无疑问，出于人道主义和经济方面的考虑，以及为了欧洲和平的长远利益，该地区的经济状况迫切需要改善；同样毫无疑问的是，这一改善只能在不同于以往的政治框架下实现。然而，这并不等于要以统一的总体计划来指导这个地区的经济生活，也不等于要按照提前制定的时间表来扶持不同产业的发展，更不等于要以“获得中央政府批准并纳入其计划”作为判断地方发起的项目是否成功的前提。要想在多瑙河流域设立一个像田纳西河谷管理局那样的计划机构，就不可能不提前替居住在该地区的不同民族决定其未来很多年的相对于其他民族的发展速度，或者必须让各民族的人民为了完成这一任务而搁置各自的全部追求和愿望。

413. It is fairly certain that in a planned international system the wealthier and therefore most powerful nations would to a very much greater degree than in a free economy become the object of hatred and envy of the poorer ones: and the latter, rightly or wrongly, would all be convinced that their position could be improved much more quickly if they were only free to do what they wished. Indeed, if it comes to be regarded as the duty of the international authority to bring about distributive justice between the different peoples, it is no more than a consistent and inevitable development of socialist doctrine that class strife would become a struggle between the working classes of the different countries.

414. There is at present a great deal of muddle-headed talk about “planning to equalise standards of life”. It is instructive to consider in a little more detail one of these proposals to see what precisely it involves. The area for which at the present moment our planners are particularly fond of drawing up such schemes is the Danube Basin and South-Eastern Europe. There can be no doubt about the urgent need for amelioration of economic conditions in this region, from humanitarian and economic considerations as well as in the interest of the future peace of Europe, nor that this can be achieved only in a political setting different from that of the past. But this is not the same thing as to wish to see economic life in this region to be directed according to a single master plan, to foster the development of the different industries according to a schedule laid down before-hand in a way which makes the success of local initiative dependent on being approved by the central authority and being incorporated in its plan. One cannot, for example, create a kind of “Tennessee Valley Authority” for the Danube Basin without thereby determining beforehand for many years to come the relative rate of progress of the different races inhabiting this area, or without subordinating all their individual aspirations and wishes to this task.

415. 实施这种计划，必须从区分不同诉求的轻重缓急开始。要想人为地拉平各国人民的生活水平，就得对不同诉求作出价值判断，并根据判断结果予以排序：有些诉求要优先于其他诉求得到满足，而排位靠后的则只能等到轮到它们为止，即便那些利益诉求因此被排在后面的人可能会深信，不仅他们理应被优先考虑，而且如果给了他们按照自己意愿行动的自由，他们本可以更快地实现自己的目标。在贫穷的罗马尼亚农民和更穷的阿尔巴尼亚农民之间，或者在斯洛伐克山区的牧羊人与斯洛文尼亚山区的牧羊人之间，我们没有任何依据可以用来帮我们判断谁的需求更迫切。但是，如果要用一项统一的计划来将他们的生活水平提高到相同的程度，就必须有人去主观地权衡所有诉求的价值并做出选择。一旦这样的计划付诸实施，该计划所覆盖的区域的全部资源都必须为该计划服务，那些认为靠自己能过得更好的人也不能例外。一旦他们的诉求被排在后面，他们就只能付出劳动，去满足那些获得优先权的人的需要。在这种情况下，每个人都会有充分理由认为，如果当初采用的是另外一种计划，他的处境可能就不会像现在这么糟；是那些手握主导权的人以其决策和强力迫使他陷入了一个他认为不应属于自己的不利处境。在一个由众多热切地认为自己的国家比其他国家更优越的小国构成的地区，如果要推行这种计划，那将是一个只有诉诸武力才能完成的任务。在实践中，这就相当于要按照英国的决策和强力来裁定：马其顿农民和保加利亚农民的生活水平，哪一个应该先提高？捷克矿工和匈牙利矿工，谁应该先接近西方的水平？不需要对人性有多少认识，只需对中欧各民族有一点点了解，我们就能明白，无论强加给他们的裁定是什么，他们当中的很多人，可能是大多数人，都会认

415. Planning of this kind must of necessity begin by fixing an order of priorities of the different claims. To plan for the deliberate equalisation of standards of living means that the different claims must be ranked according to merit, that some must be given precedence over others, and that the latter must wait their turn - even though those whose interests are thus relegated may be convinced, not only of their better right, but also of their ability to reach their goal sooner if they were only given freedom to act on their own devices. There exists no basis which allows us to decide whether the claims of the poor Rumanian peasant are more or less urgent than those of the still poorer Albanian, or the needs of the Slovakian mountain shepherd greater than those of his Slovenian colleague. But if the raising of their standards of life is to be effected according to a unitary plan, somebody must deliberately balance the merits of all these claims and decide between them. And once such a plan is put into execution, all the resources of the planned area must serve that plan - there can be no exemption for those who feel they could do better for themselves. Once their claim has been given a lower rank, they will have to work for the prior satisfaction of the needs of those who have been given preference. In such a state of affairs everybody will rightly feel that he is worse off than he might be if some other plan had been adopted, and that it is the decision and the might of the dominant powers which have condemned him to a place less favourable than he thinks is due to him. To attempt such a thing in a region peopled by small nations, each of which believes equally fervently in its own superiority over the others, is to undertake a task which can be performed only by the use of force. What it would amount to in practice is that British decisions and British power would have to settle whether the standards of the Macedonian or the Bulgarian peasant should be raised faster, whether the Czech or the Hungarian miner should more rapidly approach Western standards. It does not need much knowledge of human nature, and certainly only a little knowledge of the people of Central Europe, to see that whatever the decision imposed, there will be many, probably a majority, to whom the particular order chosen will appear supreme injustice, and that their common hatred will soon turn against the power which, however disinterestedly, in fact decides their fate.

416. 毫无疑问，许多人会发自内心地认为，如果让他们来承担这样的工作，他们一定能公平、公正地解决所有这些问题；而当怀疑和仇恨都指向他们的时候，他们也会发自内心地感到惊讶。然而，一旦那些他们本来想要使其受益的人们开始拒绝服从，他们或许是最先诉诸武力的人；在以人民的利益为名胁迫人民时，他们会表现得极端冷酷。这些危险的理想主义者不明白的是，一旦他们承担的道德责任意味着必须通过武力才能让自己的道德判断凌驾于其他国家的主流道德观之上，他们就一定会陷入无法按照道德行事的处境。将这样一项不可能完成的道德任务强加给战胜国，定然会令其道德堕落，且名声扫地。

416. Though there are no doubt many people who honestly believe that if they were allowed to handle the job they would be able to settle all these problems justly and impartially, and who would be genuinely surprised to find suspicion and hatred turning against them, they would probably be the first to apply force when those whom they mean to benefit prove recalcitrant, and to show themselves quite ruthless in coercing people in what is presumed to be their own interests. What these dangerous idealists do not see is that where the assumption of a moral responsibility involves that one's moral views should by force be made to prevail over those dominant in other communities, the assumption of such responsibility may place one in a position in which it becomes impossible to act morally. To impose such an impossible moral task on the victorious nations is a certain way morally to corrupt and discredit them.

417. 我们完全应当竭尽所能，去帮助那些较为贫穷的国家依靠自己的努力重建其生活并提高生活水平。如果跨国权力机构只是负责维持秩序，并为各国人民过上自己的生活创造条件，它就可以做到非常公正，并为经济的繁荣作出巨大贡献。相反，如果这样一个集中化的权力机构开始负责分配原料、划定市场，要求每一项自发的活动都必须获得它的"批准"，没有它的批准就什么也做不了，那么，它就不可能公正，也不可能让各国人民过上自己想要的生活。

417. By all means let us assist the poorer people as much as we can in their own efforts to build up their lives and to raise their standards of living. An international authority can be very just and contribute enormously to economic prosperity if it merely keeps order and creates conditions in which the people can develop their own life; but it is impossible to be just or to let people live their own life if the central authority doles out raw materials and allocates markets, if every spontaneous effort has to be "approved" and nothing can be done without the sanction of the central authority.

418. 经过之前各章的讨论，我们几乎已经无需再强调，这些难题并不是通过所谓的"只"给各种跨国权力机构一些具体的经济权力就能解决

418. After the discussions in earlier chapters it is hardly necessary to stress that these difficulties cannot be met by conferring on the various international authorities "merely" specific economic powers.

的。认为这是一种可行方案的观点，源于这样一个错误判断：制定经济计划不过是一项可以靠专家以严格客观的方式完成的技术任务，而其他真正重要的事务仍将掌握在政治机构手中。任何跨国经济机构，即使其权力被严格限制于某一特定领域，只要不受制于一个更高的政治权力，它就很容易去行使我们所能想得到的、最专断、最不负责任的权力。一旦将重要商品或服务（比如航空运输业）的排他性控制权赋予某个权力机构，那实际上将是最具广泛影响力的权力之一。对这种权力几乎没有办法加以控制，因为它所做的任何事情几乎都能以局外人无法质疑的“技术性需要”来辩护，甚至可以借由人道主义的理由使其正当化，声称完全是为了满足某些无法通过其他方式获得帮助的特殊弱势群体的需要。由若干在某种程度上拥有自主权的机构统一规划全球资源的想法，意味着建立一种全面的垄断体系，它被每个国家承认却不受任何国家控制，并且，即便其管理者被证明是其受托管理的特定利益的最忠实守护者，它也必然会演变成我们所能想到的、最糟糕的分赃团伙。然而，最近这种想法却总是在某些意想不到的领域得到青睐。

The belief that this is a practical solution rests on the fallacy that economic planning is merely a technical task, which can be solved in a strictly objective manner by experts, and that the really vital things would still be left in the hands of the political authorities. Any international economic authority, not subject to a superior political power, even if strictly confined to a particular field, could easily exercise the most tyrannical and irresponsible power imaginable. Exclusive control of an essential commodity or service (as, for example, air transport) is in effect one of the most far-reaching powers which can be conferred on any authority. And as there is scarcely anything which could not be justified by “technical necessities” which no outsider could effectively question - or even by humanitarian and possibly entirely sincere arguments about the needs of some specially ill-favoured group which could not be helped in any other way - there is little possibility of controlling that power. The kind of organisation of the resources of the world under more or less autonomous bodies, which now so often finds favour in the most surprising quarters, a system of comprehensive monopolies recognised by all of the national governments, but subject to none, would inevitably become the worst of all conceivable rackets - even if those entrusted with their administration should prove the most faithful guardians of the particular interests placed in their care.

419. 比如，要对关键原材料的供应施加人为控制和分配，这种建议看似无伤大雅，却被广泛视为未来经济秩序的重要基础。然而，我们只需认真审视一下，就能看出它将带来多么可怕的政治难题和道德危机。汽油、木材、橡胶或锡等原材料供应的控制者，最终将主宰所有产业和国家的命运。在他决定是否要增加供应，从而降低价格或者压低生产者收入的时候，他实际上是在决定允许还是阻止一个国家开创一个新的产业；在他“保护”那些他认为应受其保护的人的生活水平不致下降的时候，他实际上是剥夺了更多处境更为艰难的人改善自身命运

419. One need only seriously consider the full implications of such apparently innocuous proposals, widely regarded as the essential basis of the future economic order, such as the conscious control and distribution of the supply of essential raw materials, in order to see what appalling political difficulties and moral dangers they create. The controller of the supply of any such raw material as petrol or timber, rubber or tin, would be the master of the fate of whole industries and countries. In deciding whether to allow the supply to increase and the price or the income of the producers to fall, he would decide whether some country is to be allowed to start some new industry or whether it is to be precluded from doing so. While he “protects” the standards of life of those

he regards as specially entrusted to his care, he will deprive many who are in a much worse position of their best and perhaps only chance to improve it. If all essential raw materials were thus controlled there would indeed be no new industry, no new venture on which the people of a country could embark without the permission of the controllers, no plan for development or improvement which could not be frustrated by their veto. The same is true of international arrangement for “sharing” of markets and even more so of the control of investment and the development of natural resources.

420. 让人感到奇怪的是，有些自诩为最冷静的现实主义者，他们从不放过任何机会去嘲笑那些相信人类社会有可能实现某种国际政治秩序的人，并称其为“乌托邦主义者”；可同样是这些现实主义者，他们却相信，那种更深入、更不负责任地干涉各国人民生活的国际经济计划有其可行性，他们相信，只要将前所未有的权力赋予那种不久前还被认为连最基本的法治都无法推行的跨国政府，这个巨大的权力就能被无私、公正地使用，从而获得普遍的拥护。然而，实际的情形显然会是这样的：各国或许会遵守它们已经商定的形式规则，但它们永远不会服从跨国经济计划的指挥，也就是说，它们可以同意游戏规则，却永远不会同意以多数人投票的方式，来决定本国需求的轻重缓急和发展速度。一开始，在对这类提案的含义缺乏清醒认识的情况下，各国人民或许会同意将权力委托给跨国权力机构。可即便如此，他们很快会发现，他们所委托的不只是一项技术性任务，而是能够支配其生活的最广泛的权力。

420. It is curious to observe how those who pose as the most hard-boiled realists, and who lose no opportunity of casting ridicule on the “utopianism” of those who believe in the possibility of an international political order, yet regard as more practicable the much more intimate and irresponsible interference with the lives of the different peoples which economic planning involves; and believe that, once hitherto undreamed-of power is given to an international government, which has just been represented as not even capable of enforcing a simple Rule of Law, this greater power will be used in so unselfish and so obviously just a manner as to command general consent. If anything is evident it should be that, while nations might abide by formal rules on which they have agreed, they will never submit to the direction which international economic planning involves - that while they may agree on the rules of the game, they will never agree on the order of preference in which the rank of their own needs and the rate at which they are allowed to advance is fixed by majority vote. Even if, at first, the peoples should, under some illusion about the meaning of such proposals, agree to transfer such powers to an international authority, they would soon find out that what they have delegated is not merely a technical task, but the most comprehensive power over their very lives.

421. 对于那些鼓吹这种方案的、并非完全不切实际的“现实主义者”来说，他们的内心深处显然抱有这样一种想法：虽然大国不会愿意服从

421. What is evidently at the back of the minds of the not altogether unpracticable “realists” who advocate these schemes is that, while the great Powers will be unwilling to submit to any superior authority, they will be able to use those “international” authorities to impose their will on the smaller nations within the area in which they exercise hegemony. There is so much “realism” in this that by thus camouflaging the planning authorities as “international” it might be easier to achieve the condition under which international planning is alone practicable, namely, that it is in effect done by one single predominant power. This disguise would, however, not alter the fact that for all the smaller states it would mean a much more complete subjection to an external power, to which no real resistance would any longer be possible, than would be involved in the renunciation of a clearly defined part of political sovereignty.

于任何更高的权威机构，但它们可以借助这些“国际”机构，在它们行使霸权的地区将自己的意志强加给较小的国家。这种做法充满了“现实主义”的色彩，将计划机构伪装成“国际”机构，或许能够更容易地创造出令跨国计划可行的唯一条件，即跨国计划实际上必须由一个占主导地位的大国来执行。然而，这种伪装并不能改变一个事实：对所有小国而言，与放弃一部分明确的政治主权相比，这么做将意味着它们对外部力量更彻底的臣服，而且再也无法进行任何真正意义上的反抗。

422. It is significant that the most passionate advocates of a centrally directed economic New Order for Europe should display, like their Fabian and German prototypes, the most complete disregard of the individuality and of the rights of small nations. The views of Professor Carr, who in this sphere even more than in that of internal policy is representative of the trend towards totalitarianism in this country, have already made one of his professional colleagues ask the very pertinent question: “If the Nazi way with small sovereign states is indeed to become the common form, what is the war about?”[11] Those who have observed how much disquiet and alarm some recent utterances on these questions in papers as different as The Times and the New Statesmen[12] have caused among our smaller Allies will have little doubt how much this attitude is even now resented among our closest friends, and how easy it will be to dissipate the stock of goodwill which has been laid up during the war if these advisers are followed.

423. 诚然，那些动辄践踏小国权利的人，在一件事上却是正确的：如果战争结束后，无论大国小国都在经济领域恢复不受约束的主权，我们就无法指望会有什么国际秩序或者持久和平。然而，这并不意味着我们一定要建立一个“超级政府”，并把我们尚未学会在一国之内用好的权力委托给它；更不意味着必须委托一个跨国机构来指挥各国如何利用它们的资源。相反，这只不过意味着，一定要有一种力量能够阻止一个国家伤害其邻国，要有一套规则能够明确规定一个国家的行为边界，并且要有一个能够保证这些规则得以执行的权力机构。这个权力机构所需要的权力主要是一种用来否定或阻止特定干预行为的权力，它首先一定要能够对各式各样的限制性措施说“不”。

423. Those who are so ready to ride roughshod over the rights of small states are, of course, right in one thing: we cannot hope for order or lasting peace after this war if states, large or small, regain unfettered sovereignty in the economic sphere. But this does not mean that a new super-state must be given powers which we have not learnt to use intelligently even on a national scale, that an international authority ought to be given power to direct individual nations how to use their resources. It means merely that there must be a power which can restrain the different nations from action harmful to their neighbours, a set of rules which defines what a state may do, and an authority capable of enforcing these rules. The powers which such an authority would need are mainly of a negative kind: it must above all be able to say “no” to all sorts of restrictive measures.

424. 如今，人们普遍认为，我们需要建立一个跨国经济机构，同时各国的政治主权仍能保持不受约束。然而，事实远非如此，甚至几乎相反，我们根本不需要这样一种机构，我们真正需要并且有希望实现的，不是将更多的权力交给无法承担责任的跨国经济机构，而是建立一种能够制约各种经济利益集团的更高层次的政治权力，一种自身不参与经济博弈，因而能够在不同经济利益集团发生冲突时真正主持公道的权力。我们需要的是一个跨国政治机构，虽然它没有权力告诉各国人民必须做什么，但它必须能够约束各国，阻止它们采取有损他国的行动。这样一个跨国机构所承接的权力，并不是各国政府近年来所僭取的新权力，而是维持国与国之间和平关系所必需的最低限度的权力，本质上也就是极端自由主义的“自由放任”政府所拥有的权力。这种权力必须受到法治的严格约束，这一点在国际层面甚至比在国家层面更为重要。随着各国政府日益成为经济运行

424. Far from its being true that, as is now widely believed, we need an international economic authority while the states can at the same time retain their unrestricted political sovereignty, almost exactly the opposite is true. What we need and can hope to achieve is not more power in the hands of irresponsible international economic authorities, but, on the contrary, a superior political power which can hold the economic interests in check, and in the conflict between them can truly hold the scales, because it is itself not mixed up in the economic game. The need is for an international political authority which, without power to direct the different people what they must do, must be able to restrain them from action which will damage others. The powers which must devolve on an international authority are not the new powers assumed by the states in recent times, but that minimum of powers without which it is impossible to preserve peaceful relationships, i.e. essentially the powers of the ultra-liberal “laissez-faire” state. And even more than in the national sphere, it is essential that these powers of the international authority should be strictly circumscribed by the Rule of Law. The need for such a super-national authority becomes indeed greater as the individual states more and more become units of economic administration, the actors rather than merely the supervisors of the economic scene, and as therefore any friction is likely to arise not between individuals but between states as such.

425. 只将若干经过严格界定的权力移交给跨国权力机构，所有其它国内事务仍由各国自主负责，这种国际治理的形式即为联邦制。“联邦联盟”在其开展宣传的鼎盛时期，曾以全世界联邦倡导组织的名义提出过大量非常草率、往往也是极其荒唐的主张，但我们绝不能让这些主张掩盖这样一个事实：联邦制原则是不同民族之间实现联合的唯一形式，它既能建立一种国际秩序，又不会对各民族追求独立的正当愿望施加过度压力。[13]联邦制，归根结底，就是民主原则在国际事务中的应用，而民主，是人类迄今为止所发明的和平变革的唯一手段。不过，联邦制的民主是一种权力明确受限的民主。抛开将不同国家融合成一个中央集权的国家这样不切实际的理想（其可取性本身就相当模糊）不谈，联邦制是能将“国际法”理想变成现实的唯一途径。我们不应自欺，实际上，我们过去将“国际行为准则”称为国际法，不过是表达了一种虔诚的愿望而已。如果我们要阻止人们彼此杀戮，就一定不会只满足于发表一纸不应杀人的声明，相反，我们会赋予某个机构某种权力去阻止杀戮。同理，如果没有保障国际法得以执行的权力，国际法就不可能存在。构建这样一个跨国权力机构的障碍，很大程度上是因为人们以为它需要掌握现代国家所拥有的那种

425. The form of international government under which certain strictly defined powers are transferred to an international authority, while in all other respects the individual countries remain responsible for their internal affairs, is, of course, that of federation. We must not allow the numerous ill-considered and often extremely silly claims made on behalf of a federal organisation of the whole world during the height of the propaganda for “Federal Union” to obscure the fact that the principle of federation is the only form of association of different peoples which will create an international order without putting an undue strain on their legitimate desire for independence.[14] Federalism is, of course, nothing but the application to international affairs of democracy, the only method of peaceful change man has yet invented. But it is a democracy with definitely limited powers. Apart from the more impracticable ideal of fusing different countries into a single centralised state (the desirability of which is far from obvious) it is the only way in which the ideal of international law can be made a reality. We must not deceive ourselves that in calling in the past the rules of international behaviour international law we were doing more than expressing a pious wish. When we want to prevent people from killing each other we are not content to issue a declaration that killing is undesirable, but we give an authority power to prevent it. In the same way there can be no international law without a power to enforce it. The obstacle to the creation of such an international power was very largely the idea that it

[14] It is a great pity that the flood of federalist publications which in recent years has descended upon us has deprived the few important and thoughtful works among them of the attention they deserved. One which in particular ought to be carefully consulted when the time comes for the framing of a new political structure of Europe is Dr. W. Ivor Jennings’s small book on A Federation for Western Europe (1940).

几乎不受限制的全部权力。鉴于联邦制度的权力划分原则，这种担心是完全没有必要的。

need command all the practically unlimited powers which the modern state possesses. But with the division of power under the federal system this is by no means necessary.

426. 联邦制度的这种权力划分原则必然同时约束整个联邦及各成员国的权力。诚然，在这种制度下，许多当下流行的计划恐怕都会变得完全无法实施，[15]但这绝不意味着它会成为所有计划的障碍。事实上，联邦制的一个主要优势恰恰在于，其机制安排足以让大多数有害的计划难以实施，同时又为所有有益的计划保留充分的空间。它可以防止，或者可以被用来防止大多数形式的限制主义，并将跨国计划限制在相关“利益集团”及所有受其影响者能够达成真正共识的领域。那些适合在当地实施，又无需依赖限制性措施的有益计划将得以自由实施，并且将由最有资格承担这类任务的主体来执行。我们甚至可以期待，在联邦中，各国像以前那样竭力扩充自身实力的动机已经不复存在；曾经的中央集权进程可能会在某种程度上发生逆转；而且将部分权力从中央下放到地方也将成为可能。

426. This division of power would inevitably act at the same time also as a limitation of the power of the whole as well as of the individual state. Indeed many of the kinds of planning which are now fashionable would probably become altogether impossible.[16] But it would by no means constitute an obstacle to all planning. It is, in fact, one of the main advantages of federation that it can be so devised as to make most of the harmful planning difficult while leaving the way free for all desirable planning. It prevents, or can be made to prevent, most forms of restrictionism. And it confines international planning to the fields where true agreement can be reached - not only between the “interests” immediately concerned, but among all those affected. The desirable forms of planning which can be effected locally and without the need of restrictive measures, are left free and in the hands of those best qualified to undertake it. It is even to be hoped that within a federation, where there will no longer exist the same reasons for making the individual states as strong as possible, the process of centralisation of the past may in some measure be reversed and some devolution of powers from the state to the local authorities become possible.

427. 回顾历史，我们会发现，为了实现世界和平而将原本独立的国家融入若干较大的联邦、乃至统一的世界联邦，这种想法远算不上什么新鲜事物，实际上，它正是十九世纪几乎所有自由主义思想家的理想。十九世纪桂冠诗人丁尼生早就在他那脍炙人口的“空战预言”诗句后面，描写了人们在最后一场大战后建立各民族的联邦的愿景。从那时起，直到十九世纪末，世界联邦组织的最终实现，始终是文明迈向下

427. It is worth recalling that the idea of the world at last finding peace through the absorption of the separate states in large federated groups and ultimately perhaps in one single federation, far from being new, was indeed the ideal of almost all the liberal thinkers of the nineteenth century. From Tennyson, whose much quoted vision of the “battle of the air” is followed by a vision of the federation of the people which will follow their last great fight, right down to the end of the century the final achievement of a federal organisation remained the ever- recurring hope of a next great step in the advance of civilisation. Nineteenth-century liberals may not have been fully aware how essential a complement of their principles a federal organisation of the different states formed[19]; but there were few among them who did not express their belief in it as an ultimate goal.[20] It was only with the approach of our twentieth century that before the triumphant rise of Realpolitik these hopes came to be regarded as unpracticable and utopian.

428. 我们无法大规模地重建文明。总体而言，小国人民的生活中往往蕴含着更多的美好和体面，而对大国来说，幸福感与满足感往往与避开中央集权之弊的程度成正比，这种区别绝非偶然。尤其是当所有权力和大部分重要决策都掌握在一个庞大到普通人无法全面审视或理解的组织手中时，我们根本无法维持民主制度，更无法促进其发展。民主制度从来不能在缺乏充分地方自治的情况下良好运作。地方自治能够为广大民众以及他们未来的领导人提供政治训练的学校。只有当普通人能够在大家都熟悉的事务中学习和实践自己的责任时，只有当引导他的行为的，是他对邻里的了解而非某种关于他人需求的纸上谈兵般的判断时，他才能因为公共事务与他所熟悉的世界紧密相连而真正参与到公共事务当中去。一旦政治事务的范围大到所有必要的知识都只有官僚机构才掌握时，个人的创新冲动必然会趋于低落。我相信，在这方面，荷兰、瑞士等小国所积累的经

428. We shall not rebuild civilisation on the large scale. It is no accident that on the whole there was more beauty and decency to be found in the life of the small peoples, and that among the large ones there was more happiness and content in proportion as they had avoided the deadly blight of centralisation. Least of all shall we preserve democracy or foster its growth if all the power and most of the important decisions rest with an organisation far too big for the common man to survey or comprehend. Nowhere has democracy ever worked well without a great measure of local self-government, providing a school of political training for the people at large as much as for their future leaders. It is only where responsibility can be learnt and practised in affairs with which most people are familiar, where it is the awareness of one’s neighbour rather than some theoretical knowledge of the needs of other people which guides action, that the ordinary man can take a real part in public affairs because they concern the world he knows. Where the scope of the political measures becomes so large that the necessary knowledge is almost exclusively possessed by the bureaucracy, the creative impulses of the private

[20] As late as the closing years of the nineteenth century Henry Sidgwick thought it “not beyond the limits of a sober forecast to conjecture that some future integration may take place in the West European states: and if it should take place, it seems probable that the example of America will be followed, and that the new political aggregate will be formed on the basis of a federal polity” (The Development of European Polity, published posthumously in 1903, P. 439).

验，有不少甚至是像英国这样最幸运的大国也应当加以借鉴的。如果我们能创造一个适合小国生存的世界，我们所有人都将是受益者。

person must flag. I believe that here the experience of the small countries like Holland and Switzerland contains much from which even the most fortunate larger countries like Great Britain can learn. We shall all be the gainers if we can create a world fit for small states to live in.

429. 不过，只有在一个真正的法律体系之内，小国才能像其在国内领域那样，在国际领域保持自己的独立。这种法律体系既要能保证某些规则始终得到执行，又要能保证拥有执行权力的机构不将其用于其他目的。虽然为了执行共同法律，一个超国家的权力机构必须拥有强大的权力，但同时，其宪章必须设计得当，以防止跨国权力机构和国家权力机构走向暴政。如果我们不准备以某种有时也会妨碍权力用于实现有益目标的方式来限制权力，我们将永远无法防止权力的滥用。战争结束后，我们将迎来一场伟大的机遇，那就是各大战胜国率先遵循一套它们拥有足够力量予以维护的规则，从而获得道义上的权利，将这套规则推行到其他国家。

429. But the small can preserve their independence in the international as in the national sphere only within a true system of law which guarantees both that certain rules are invariably enforced and that the authority which has the power to enforce these cannot use it for any other purpose. While for its task of enforcing the common law the super-national authority must be very powerful, its constitution must at the same time be so designed that it prevents the international as well as the national authorities from becoming tyrannical. We shall never prevent the abuse of power if we are not prepared to limit power in a way which occasionally may also prevent its use for desirable purposes. The great opportunity we shall have at the end of this war is that the great victorious powers, by themselves first submitting to a system of rules which they have the power to enforce, may at the same time acquire the moral right to impose the same rules upon others.

430. 一个能够有效约束国家对个人所行使权力的跨国权力机构将是和平最有力的保障之一。国际法治必须成为一种保障，不仅要防止国家对个人施加暴政，也要防止新的“超级政府”对各个民族共同体施加暴政。我们的目标，既不是一个全能的超级政府，也不是一个松散的“自由国家”的联盟，它必须是一个由自由人组成的国家共同体。长久以来，我们一直在为自己开脱，声称我们之所以无法在国际事务中按我们认为理想的方式行事，是因为其他国家不遵守游戏规则。在即将到来的战后安排中，我们将获得一个展示诚意的机会，表明我们同样准备接受对我们行动自由的约束，正如我们为了共同利益，认为有必要将同样的约束施加于他人一样。

430. An international authority which effectively limits the powers of the state over the individual will be one of the best safeguards of peace. The international Rule of Law must become a safeguard as much against the tyranny of the state over the individual as against the tyranny of the new super-state over the national communities. Neither an omnipotent super-state, nor a loose association of “free nations”, but a community of nations of free men must be our goal. We have long pleaded that it had become impossible to behave in international affairs as we thought it desirable because others would not play the game. The coming settlement will be the opportunity to show that we have been sincere and that we are prepared to accept the same restrictions on our freedom of action which in the common interest we think it necessary to impose upon others.

431. 只要运用得当，联邦制的组织原则确实可能被证明是解决世界上某些最棘手问题的最佳方案。然而，运用这个原则是极其困难的。如果我们野心过大，企图超出它所能承担的范围，那我们就不大可能取得成功。未来可能会出现一种强烈的倾向，即任何新的国际组织都要具有全面性和全球性；当然也会出现建立这类综合性组织的迫切需要，比如某种新的国际联盟。巨大的危险在于，如果我们企图完全依靠这种国际组织，将所有看似适合交给国际组织的任务都交给它，那么，这些任务实际上反而难以得到充分执行。我始终认为，这种野心才是国际联盟软弱的根源：在那些未获成功的全球化尝试中，它不得不被削弱；而一个规模更小同时更有力的联盟，或许才是更适合用来维护和平的工具。我相信，这些判断至今依然成立。我还相信，在全球范围内难以实现的某种程度的国家间合作，或许能够在大英帝国、西欧诸国，甚至美国之间实现。一个以联邦联盟的形式出现的相对紧密的国家间联合，最初或许不会超出像西欧的某个局部地区那样狭小的区域，尽管未来有逐步扩大的可能。

431. Wisely used, the federal principle of organisation may indeed prove the best solution of some of the world's most difficult problems. But its application is a task of extreme difficulty and we are not likely to succeed if in an over-ambitious attempt we strain it beyond its capacity. There will probably exist a strong tendency to make any new international organisation all-comprehensive and world-wide; and there will, of course, be an imperative need for some such comprehensive organisation, some new League of Nations. The great danger is that, if in the attempt to rely exclusively on this world organisation it is charged with all the tasks which it seems desirable to place in the hands of an international organisation, they will not in fact be adequately performed. It has always been my conviction that such ambitions were at the root of the weakness of the League of Nations: that in the (unsuccessful) attempt to make it world-wide it had to be made weak, and that a smaller and at the same time more powerful League might have been a better instrument to preserve peace. I believe that these considerations still hold and that a degree of co-operation could be achieved between, say, the British Empire and the nations of Western Europe and probably the United States which would not be possible on a world scale. The comparatively close association which a Federal Union represents will not at first be practicable beyond perhaps even as narrow a region as part of Western Europe, though it may be possible gradually to extend it.

432. 诚然，即使形成了这种区域性联邦，不同集团之间发生战争的可能性依然存在。为了尽可能降低战争的风险，我们必须依靠一个更大、更松散的联合体。我的观点是，额外建立这样一个组织的需要，不应妨碍那些在文明、观念和标准上更为相近的国家建立更紧密的联合。我们固然要尽可能防止发生战争，但一定不要以为我们可以一劳永逸地建立一个永久性组织，从而让世界上任何地区都彻底不再发生战争。这种尝试不仅不会成功，而且还可能破坏我们在相对有限的范围内阻止战争的机会。

432. It is true that with the formation of such regional federations the possibility of war between the different blocs still remains, and that to reduce this risk as much as possible we must rely on a larger and looser association. My point is that the need for some such other organisation should not form an obstacle to a closer association of those countries which are more similar in their civilisation, outlook, and standards. While we must aim at preventing future wars as much as possible, we must not believe that we can at one stroke create a permanent organisation which will make all war in any part of the world entirely impossible. We should not only not succeed in such an attempt, but we should thereby probably spoil our chances of achieving success in a more limited sphere. As is true with respect to other great evils, the measures by which war might be made altogether impossible for the future may well be worse than even war itself. If we can reduce the risk of friction likely to lead to war, this is probably all we can reasonably hope to achieve.

结论

433. 本书的目的，并不是要起草一份详尽的计划，去实现某种令人向往的未来社会秩序。如果说，我们对国际事务的讨论稍稍超出了本书基本的批判性范畴，那是因为我们可能很快就需要在该领域为未来相当长一段时间的发展建立一个框架，而这在很大程度上将取决于我们如何利用届时可能获得的机会。然而，无论我们做什么，它都只会是一个漫长而艰巨的新进程的开端；我们所有人都希望能够在这一进程中逐步建立一个与我们在过去四分之一世纪中所熟知的那个世界截然不同的新世界。现阶段，就理想的国内社会秩序而言，至少值得怀疑的是，绘制一份详尽的蓝图是否有用，或者是否有人有能力绘制它。我们当下最重要的事情，是要尽快就某些原则达成共识，并将我们自己从近些年来一直影响着我们的错误中解脱出来。无论多么令人不快，我们都必须承认，早在这次大战爆发之前，我们就已经重新进入了这样一个阶段：在该阶段，清除人类愚行设于我们前行道路上的障碍、释放个体的创造力，要比设计更多“引导”和“指挥”个体的机制更为重要；创造有利于进步的条件，也比去“计划进步”更为重要。当代蒙昧主义最恶劣的那个表现形式企图说服我们，让我们以为近些年来的所作所为要么是明智的，要么是不得已而为之的，而我们的首要任务，就是把自己从中解放出来。唯有认识到自己曾经做过许多蠢事，我们才能变得更加睿智。

434. 要想建立一个更美好的世界，我们必须有勇气重新开始，即便这意味着我们需要采取某种“欲进先退”的策略。那些相信必然趋势的人没有这种勇气；那些鼓吹“新秩序”的人也没有这种勇气。他们的“新秩序”只不过是过去四十

CONCLUSION

433. THE purpose of this book has not been to sketch a detailed programme of a desirable future order of society. If with regard to international affairs we have gone a little beyond its essentially critical task, it was because in this field we may soon be called upon to create a framework within which future growth may have to proceed for a long time to come. A great deal will depend on how we use the opportunity we shall then have. But whatever we do, it can only be the beginning of a new, long, and arduous process in which we all hope we shall gradually create a world very different from that which we knew during the last quarter of a century. It is at least doubtful whether at this stage a detailed blueprint of a desirable internal order of society would be of much use - or whether anyone is competent to furnish it. The important thing now is that we shall come to agree on certain principles and free ourselves from some of the errors which have governed us in the recent past. However distasteful such an admission may be, we must recognise that we had before this war once again reached a stage where it is more important to clear away the obstacles with which human folly has encumbered our path and to release the creative energy of individuals than to devise further machinery for “guiding” and “directing” them - to create conditions favourable to progress rather than to “plan progress”. The first need is to free ourselves of that worst form of contemporary obscurantism which tries to persuade us that what we have done in the recent past was all either wise or inevitable. We shall not grow wiser before we learn that much that we have done was very foolish.

434. If we are to build a better world we must have the courage to make a new start - even if that means some reculer pour mieux sauter. It is not those who believe in inevitable tendencies who show this courage, not those who preach a “New Order” which is no more than a projection of the tendencies of the last forty years, and who can think of nothing better than to imitate Hitler. It is indeed those who cry loudest for the New Order who are most completely under the sway of the ideas which have created this war and most of the evils from which we suffer. The young are right if they have little confidence in the ideas which rule most of their elders. But they are mistaken or misled when they believe that these are still the liberal ideas of the nineteenth century, which in fact the younger generation hardly knows. Though we neither can wish, nor possess the power, to go back to the reality of the nineteenth century, we have the opportunity to realise its ideals - and they were not mean. We have little right to feel in this respect superior to our grandfathers; and we should never forget that it is we, the twentieth century, and not they, who have made a mess of things. If they had not yet fully learnt what was necessary to create the world they wanted, the experience we have since gained ought to have equipped us better for the task. If in the first attempt to create a world of free men we have failed, we must try again. The guiding principle, that a policy of freedom for the individual is the only truly progressive policy, remains as true to-day as it was in the nineteenth century.

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

The exposition of a point of view which for many years has been decidedly out of favour suffers from the difficulty that, within the compass of a few chapters, it is not possible to discuss more than some aspects of it. For the reader whose outlook has been formed entirely by the views that have been dominant during the last twenty years this will scarcely be sufficient to provide the common ground required for profitable discussion. But although unfashionable, the views of the author of the present book are not so singular as they may appear to some readers. His basic outlook is the same as that of a steadily growing number of writers in many countries whose studies have led them independently to similar conclusions. The reader who would like to acquaint himself further with what he may have found an unfamiliar but not uncongenial climate of opinion, may find useful the following list of some of the more important works of this kind, including several in which the essentially critical character of the present essay is supplemented by a fuller discussion of the structure of a desirable future society. The earliest and still the most important of these works is that by L. v. Mises, originally published in 1922.

W. H. Chamberlin. A False Utopia. Collectivism in Theory and Practice. (Duckworth) 1937.

F. D. Graham. Social Goals and Economic Institutions. (Princeton University Press) 1942.

除此之外，还有一些重要的德国和意大利的同类著作，为其作者考虑，目前不宜公开姓名。

There are also important German and Italian works of a similar character which, in consideration for their authors, it would be unwise at present to mention by name.

在这个列表中，我还要补充三部著作。这三部著作比我所知道的任何其他著作都更能帮助人们理解我们的敌人所奉行的思想体系，以及他们在思想上与我们的区别：

To this list I add the titles of three books which more than any others known to me help one to understand the system of ideas ruling our enemies and the differences which separate their minds from ours, and that of a remarkable recent work on the modern history of Germany which is not as well known in this country as it deserves:

还有一部关于德国近代史的杰出著作，它在本国尚未获得应有的知名度：

F. 施纳贝尔：《十九世纪德国史》四卷，弗莱堡，1929-37年。

Schnabel, Franz. Deutsche Geschichte im 19. Jahrhundert. 4 vols. Freiburg im Breisgau, 1929–37.

解决当代问题的最佳指南，或许要在自由主义时代一些伟大的政治哲学家的著作中才能找到，如托克维尔或阿克顿勋爵，以及更早的本杰明·康斯坦德、埃德蒙·伯克，还有麦迪逊、汉密尔顿和杰伊的《联邦党人文集》等。对那几代人来说，自由仍是一个问题，也是一个需要捍卫的价值。而在我们所在的年代，自由却被视为理所当然的所在。我们既不知道危险来自何方，也没有勇气摆脱那些危及它的教义。

Perhaps the best guides through some of our contemporary problems will still be found in the works of some of the great political philosophers of the liberal age, a de Tocqueville or Lord Acton, and, to go even farther back, Benjamin Constant, Edmund Burke, and the Federalist papers of Madison, Hamilton, and Jay, generations to whom liberty was still a problem and a value to be defended, where ours at the same time takes it for granted and neither realises whence the danger threatens nor has the courage to emancipate itself from the doctrines which endanger it
